

HUSBAND AND WIFE

Miss Daisy Franklin and Ernest Swain United.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN

To George, Ralph and Edwin Bark Thursday.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the marriage of Miss Daisy Franklin and Mr. Ernest Swain, which took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Oldridge near Derby at high noon on Wednesday, October 25, 1898.

Miss Emma Kriebel presided at the organ. As the sweet strains of the wedding march sounded through the rooms, the bride and groom descended the stairs. They were met by Rev. Frank McCormick who led the way into the parlor. The marriage ceremony was beautiful and impressive.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, intimate friends who were married quite recently. As soon as the ceremony and congratulations were over, the entire company were invited out upon the lawn before the house, where a photograph was taken.

At 1 o'clock the party sat down to a sumptuous wedding feast. Culinary artists, of six musicians, entertained the dinner hour with a varied program of musical selections.

Sixty-seven guests were present, and many others who had been invited regretted at their inability to attend.

The bride looked very sweet in her gown of white cashmere, which was elaborately trimmed with white brocade silk, lace and pearl passementerie. Her veil was fastened with a wreath of snow flowers, and she carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Mrs. Henry Martin wore her wedding gown of pale blue cashmere, made up with white silk and pearl garnitures.

Mrs. H. M. Oldridge, the bride's mother, wore black satin with jet trimmings.

DEGREE OF HONOR SOCIAL.

Peerless Lodge, No. 88, Degree of Honor, according to custom rendered an especially fine program last Friday evening after a short business session. The special committee consisted of Messrs. McDonald and Dalton. The eloquent rendition by the Misses Taylor received hearty applause and A. A. Reeder acquitted himself in his usual graceful manner. The scenic work of the A. O. U. W. was given, accompanied by a chorus of voices which added greatly to the scenic. Especially appreciated were the vocal selections rendered by Felix McNeal, an author and composer of great ability, whose voice delights all who hear him. He was ably accompanied by Prof. Charles Paul. A piano solo by Miss Taylor was creditably rendered. While the crowd was enjoying the hospitality of the committee they were treated to a ghost walk from our sister degree, Queen City, No. 20, which was a great surprise. During the evening popular selections were

The Dollar You Have Left.

This is the dollar that has the ideal purchasing power that we all seek. It is the dollar you have left after paying your necessary expenses; that will pay for your seat at the opera, or your expense when you run for congress. In brief, it is the dollar you have left that will buy all that is worth caring for. And right here we wish to most indelibly impress upon your minds to first in and see us before buying that watch, clock, diamond or anything in the jewelry line. By buying of us you can have many good things with "the dollar you have left."

The solos were unusually fine and presented great variety and the Trio from Die Meistersingers and Concerto by Mendelssohn, with orchestral part for second piano were especial features of the afternoon.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION. A very pretty and unique evening party was given last evening by the Misses Elise Martin and Maude McLaughlin at the parlors of Miss Martin in the Sedgewick block. It was the anniversary of the anniversary of the birthday of each of the ladies and for three seasons the event has been celebrated by both residing together. Miss Martin was the entertainer, assisted by Miss McLaughlin, and together they made very interesting hostesses and the fortunate guests felt, they were not only welcome but specially favored to be there. It was facetiously called by the ladies a "hot tamale supper," one of the features of the refreshments being that very palatable and plebeian delicacy. Games of every kind were enjoyed and in addition the occasion partook of the nature of a reunion of old friends, many of whom had not met in a long time. All thoroughly enjoyed the evening and finally departed toward Sunday morning, wishing many recurring pleasant anniversaries of so important and interesting an occasion. The invited guests present were: Misses Martin, McLaughlin, Agnes Sawyer, May Dale Culver, Ella Taft, Nanette May Condie, Mrs. Taft, and Messrs. Ames McLean, Howard and C. E. Birelow.

The city council passed an ordinance assigning all the money from the police fund over $1,000 to the park fund, which will there is $1,415 in the park fund, which will be used in the spring for beautifying and decorating the parks. The other $1,000 goes into the general fund of the city and helps to defray the expenses of the city.

One thing which reduced the revenue for October is that twelve extra policemen were hired during the G. A. R. reunion. Two more policemen have also been added to the force.

SELL AT COST when they say they will? We have no trouble disposing of our goods at a living profit. Firstly, because they are bought right and, secondly, because they are sold at prices that mean cost to some firms.
