MRS. GARLAND'S PARTY

Pretty Double Wedding of the Misses Redfield.

The High school seniors tendered their teachers and superintendent of the public schools a reception and banquet at the Commercial club home last Thursday evening which was a fitting close of the year's work and served as a kindly parting of students and teachers who had learned to love and respect each other during the years of togetherness. There were a few excellent toasts at the banquet table and the evening was richly enjoyed by all. The banquet consisted of the richest delicacies of the season, and was served in four courses. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Allen, Miss Melodie Hamilton, Miss Leda Mills, Miss Cynthia Cleveland, Miss Jessie Clark, Miss Clara Bowen, Mr. J. M. CHILDREN'S SURPRISE. Mrs. Benjamin Garfield arranged a very pretty surprise last night at her home on North Lawrence in honor of Verne Garland and Miss Helen Warren. Young people, boys and girls, to the number of sixty-five, came all in a crowd at 8 o'clock, and put in the evening till 11 at games and dancing. They kept the beautiful parlors of the Garland home in a merry turn, enjoying themselves immensely.

THE COOKING CLUB. The Thursday Afternoon Cooking club was entertained by Mrs. George Dickson, where they always receive a hearty welcome. Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Dickson's daughter from Salt Lake, and an ex-member of the club, was present, which added to the pleasure of the meeting. This was the last meeting of the season, and this year they have paid attention to scientific value of food; they have had short papers and discussions of the properties and nutritive value of cereals, meat, vegetables, milk, eggs and cheese. More attention has been given to the making and baking of bread than cake or any other fancy dishes. Each committee vies in trying to serve the food in new and tempting ways and have the table look attractive. Some eminent authorities assert that no food is ever digested and properly assimilated unless relished when eating, and that food most useful to the eye and palate to do the most good. The menu was served by Mrs. Harrow and Mrs. P. Lewis and consisted of cold boiled ham, Saratoga chips, federal loaf, egg salad on lettuce, liqueur ice cream and strawberries, marshmallow cake and coffee. Mrs. Lewis made the coffee and the ladies dined on its fitness.

DOUBLE WEDDING. The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Redfield, No. 348 North Emporia avenue, was the scene of a beautiful double wedding on last Wednesday evening, May 21. At 7:30 o'clock, to the sweet strains of Lehigh's wedding march, played by Miss Carrie Woods, niece of the brides, Miss Belle Redfield and Mr. Charles B. Harris and Miss Pearl Redfield and Captain George Downing slowly passed through the archway into the front parlor, where they formed a grand double wedding party. The brides were dressed in white, with palms and ferns about and above them was festooned a canopy of smilax. Here they were met by Rev. Bradt of the First Presbyterian church, who, in an impressive manner, performed the ceremony. The brides looked beautiful in their girlish simplicity. Miss Belle, dressed in white, elegantly carried a bouquet of bride's roses and Miss Pearl, in pink orandy, with pink roses, and as they stood plighting their vows they were the embodiment of sweet womanly grace and loveliness. After congratulations had been extended a delicious wedding supper was served. The table was decorated with mirrors, upon which were placed vases of roses and jasmines, harked around with ropes of smilax. A flash-light picture was taken after all were seated at the table. The presents were numerous and handsome, consisting of cut glass, gold and silver articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris left on the 8:30 Sun. Ex. train for New York and Boston, where Mr. Harris will combine business with pleasure, he being a member of the wholesale jewelry firm of Shuttle & Son of Dallas, Texas, in which city they will be at home to their many friends after August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Downing will be at home to their many friends at the North Emporia avenue until August 1, when they will remove to Paris, Ky., where Mr. Downing will engage in business.

Instructing the evolution of art. Instructive visitors came and went throughout the two days' exhibit. Paper mache models, decorative designs and pictures, all original, were displayed. Besides specimens of juvenile cabinet making and inlaid articles in many other industrial lines. Pictures were also shown in evidence, nursery tales being the subjects. Merry games and spirited music were entertaining features, besides which the happy countenances and artless demonstrations of the little people themselves were not the least of the day's delights. Miss Shultz was assisted by Miss M. C. Clark and Miss Beattie Harrell, both true kindergarteners. Mrs. Fred L. Johnson also favored the guests and school with some choice musical selections.

MRS. CHARLES SMYTH. Mrs. Charles Smyth, assisted by Miss Daisy Lynch, gave an elaborate reception Thursday afternoon and a party on Thursday night, in honor of Miss Brown, who has been entertained so royally during the recent weeks. Those who assisted in receiving at the afternoon reception were Mesdames: Fred Smyth, Thomson Everett, S. W. Cooper, Finlay Ross, Ron Hill, F. W. Bentley, J. H. Black and L. W. Light refreshments were served, and Prof. Blume's orchestra furnished music for the occasion. At the evening party, given to the young people, the principal amusement was dancing.

THE LAST KISMET DANCE. The Kismet dance, probably the last of the season, was given at Garfield hall last Tuesday night. Dancing was continued until a late hour and the evening was richly enjoyed. Among those present were Ed Day, Harry Hemphill, George Wilkie, Walter Pealy, Ellis Van Deventer, Lon Clark, George Whitlock and Fred Wilkie.

LADY MACCABEES. The lady Maccabees' entertainment on Friday night was a very pleasant affair. The program was good: First, an instrumental selection by Florence Cabbans, which was enjoyed and was responded to; second, music on mandolin and piano by Hal McCoy and Claudia McCoy; third, recitation by Mag. Grimes; fourth, recitation by Miss Hill, which was excellent and was encored enthusiastically, with response. To conclude the program Mrs. Martin, the organizer of the Lady Maccabees, delivered a short and impressive address on the aims and objects of the order, which was well chosen, after which music and dancing was the order of the occasion. Music was furnished by Prof. Milhaud and Miss Ford at the piano. Dancing and social greetings were kept up until early morn.

MRS. CRAIG. Mrs. Craig entertained at her home on the Hill a merry party of College Hill young people on Thursday afternoon, in honor of her niece, the Misses Mueller of Perry, O. T., who have been attending the Wichita High school.

WHIST AND CAKE WALK. The South End Whist club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. E. A. Newman on South Main street. The game was played so glowingly that the contestants were called out in a cake walk and were equal to the occasion. Mrs. Lon Williams carried off the honors and Max Gunnerson the cake.
