 REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CON-VENTION.

A delegate convention of the Republicans of the Seventh Congressional District of the state of Kansas is hereby called to meet in the city of Hutchinson, on

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1900, at 10 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress, two delegates and two alternates to the National Republican convention to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., June 19, 1900, and one delegate to the national convention and one delegate at large for each county in the district, and one delegate for each of the two delegates; under which rule delegates are apportioned to the various counties as follows:

Barber 2, Barton 2, Clark 2, Comanche 2, Edwards 2, Finney 2, Ford 4, Grant 2, Gray 2, Greeley 2, Hamilton 2, Harper 2, Harvey 1, Haskell 2, Hodgeman 2, Kearney 2, Kingman 2, Kiowa 2, McPherson 2, Meade 2, Morton 2, Ness 2, Pawnee 2, Pratt 4, Reno 1, Rice 2, Rush 4, Scott 2, Sedwick 2, Seward 2, Shawnee 2, Stanton 2, Stevens 2, Sumner 4, Wichita 2; total 72.

It is recommended that the county central committees of the several counties select the time for holding the county conventions to name delegates and alternates for the congressional convention, and that the names of the delegates and alternates be certified to the chairman of this committee at Kingman, Kansas, immediately thereafter. By order of the Seventh District Congressional Committee.

COTTON MARKET REACTS

Wage Increases in the Iron and Steel Trade.

New York, March 9.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say to morrow: A certain hesitation in business, with shrinkage in its volume, is not unusual or unnatural at this season. It is not necessarily disheartening, therefore, if business is no longer as large in volume as ever but falls behind that of February or January or of the corresponding week last year. Strikes in building trades or of machinists and others at Chicago affect many industries and the wages of 50,000 hands. The remarkable rise in cotton has apparently met the expected reaction, which tends for the time to repress business. A few great corporations are striving to hold prices without regard to present demand, hoping that the needs of the consumers may prevent reaction and renew the rise of last year. Wide differences of opinion also exist regarding the results of monetary action by congress. Special causes are not needed to account for some pause after a year of unprecedented buying.
 That such a year could not continue without a pause was evident, as there is not the speculation which threatened monetary trouble a year ago.

The output of iron furnaces March 1 was 29,422 tons weekly, against 28,094 February 1, and unsold stocks increased 25,525 tons in February, making consumption 4,929 tons daily, against 4,662 tons in January. Temporary stoppage of four furnaces near Pittsburgh by a strike and the reduction of output by many furnaces in blast, perhaps in part desired and in part the effect of scarcity of coke, have supported prices of pig and of finished products, the only change being a slight decline in plates. Much business is evidently deferred just now because of doubt regarding future prices. Connellville coke ovens are producing 29,221 tons weekly, with 200 more ovens soon to be added, but coke is hard to get, even at $2.50 for furnace.

Cotton closed on Monday at 33c, the highest point since January 19, 1898, when the crop suddenly fell from 5,000,000 to 5,000,000 bales. A sharp reaction came on Wednesday and the price dropped three-sixteenths that day and closed 1-4 below the highest point. While the demand for immediate use has held goods strong, there has been for some time small demands to make contracts ahead.

Estimates of wheat in farmers' hands March 1, 1,464,000,000 bushels, according to the American Agriculturist, do not indicate a lack of supply this year, for with 54,000,000 bushels in visible stocks there is in sight nearly as much as a year ago when demand demands were extraordinary. Demand approaching that of last year from March 1 to July 1. Returns as to condition of winter wheat are also satisfactory. But of late, prices have been very low and have advanced this week nearly 3 cents for spot and 1 cent for May options.

London wool sales, so long awaited by speculators here to lift up prices again, closed with a severe decline of 7 1-2 to 10 per cent, causing such disappointment that much selling is likely, especially as manufacturers who have held out of the market for some months have still too large stocks of wool and too uncertain a market for goods to be in haste. Prices had previously declined a little here, but in small transactions. The business in goods, though less active than had been expected, is fairly steady prices as yet.
 In boots and shoes there is no change in quotations, though not an eighth of the usual orders for boots has been given and not a quarter for men's or women's heavy shoes, while the demand for light shoes has been the smallest in five years.
 Shipments on former orders have been less than in 1899, but larger than in the corresponding week of any other year.
 Failures last week were in amount $1,492,827, manufacturing $118,651, and trading $2,161,211.

Failures for the week have been 205 in the United States against 182 last year, and 32 in Canada, against 37 last year.

HEADSTREETS.
 New York, March 9.—Headstreets tomorrow will say: Relieved from the hampering effects of stormy weather, general trade distribution has shown a tendency to expand this week, prices of many staples are firmer and higher, and generally, there is a better tone than noted for some weeks. Easily holding rank in the matter of speculative activity, cotton early in the week touched the highest level, not only for the present season but for at least six years past.

WAR MUNITIONS IN KENTUCKY in Republican Hands at London.— Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—The senate today re-considered the Triplett resolution appropriating $50,000 for the purpose of equipping a state militia and re-equipping the arms and munitions of war removed to London, Ky. Senator Triplett said that during last night the remaining arms and other military property in the arsenal here were loaded on cars and shipped to London. Senators Purdy and Jones, who voted against the resolution, voted for it today, and it passed, 10 to 1.
 In the house the announcement was greeted with prolonged applause.

 Since Adopting Pure Food.
 A lady 75 years old, Mrs. J. W. Stevens of Cincinnati, Ia., says: "For a long while coffee affected my nerves seriously and kept me awake at night, ruining my digestion. My husband was also ill with indigestion and stomach troubles. We concluded that coffee was the cause of the trouble and stopped it, using in its place Postum Food Coffee.

"It worked like a charm with both."
 "My husband's digestion is now good and he is in prime health. I was at that time thin in flesh, but since leaving off the coffee and taking Postum, I have gained eleven pounds in two months and am now in my usual weight. The Postum has been a great benefit to our family."
 "The Grape-Nuts that you manufacture are most delicious breakfast food. I induced my grocer to keep this food, and since, we have been using Postum three times a day and Grape-Nuts twice, at our meals I have never lived so well.

GRAND TRADE HISTORY

 Sam's Arithmetic Man.

PRODUCTION AND EXPORT

Eternal Strife Between Land and Water Routes.

Washington, March 9.—"The Grain Trade of the United States" is the title of a monograph just published by the treasury bureau of statistics as the first of a series of studies upon the production and transportation of the great staples and upon the international commerce of the country. The present article points out the immense increase in the agricultural production of the country, the rapid and continuous westward shifting of the area of cultivation, and the changes in the routes by which western grain reached the eastern consumer and the European markets. The development of the grain production and trade is traced from colonial times to the opening of the Mississippi route by the purchase of Louisiana, when the shallow barges, and later the steamboats, descended the Mississippi, and New Orleans shipped grain to New York and Boston. After the completion of the Erie canal in 1825 and the settling of the Lake Michigan territory, the great bulk of the western grain traffic moved eastward over the lake and the canal, and New York became the grain shipping port of the country. The discussion shows how from Chicago a network of railways radiated to all points and acted as tributaries to the lake, and later how the unified and amalgamated railways connected the West with the eastbound traffic. The traffic in corn and flour was diverted from the lakes to the railroads, and while the lake regained part of their lost traffic later, the Erie canal was unable to compete with the railroads from Buffalo, and grain which formerly reached Liverpool at New York is now largely diverted to Philadelphia, Baltimore and more southern ports. The struggles of the railroads and of the ports among themselves are described and the history of the extending rate differentials is given, but the report confines itself to fact and does not discuss policy or forecast future developments.

The monograph also presents what appears as the two most recent developments of the grain trade of the United States: Firstly, the partial diversion of the wheat and flour trade from Lake Michigan to Lake Superior ports and the rise of a great milling industry at Minneapolis and Duluth-Superior; secondly, the increased movement of grain, and notably of corn, to the gulf ports, partly by river, to a greater extent by rail from St. Louis and nearby points, and to an ever-growing extent by direct rail routes from cities in the southwestern corn belt.

The report, which is quite comprehensive, contains a series of tables dealing with the rise and development of the grain trade at various collecting and distributing points, the efforts of the several railroads to control and effect the ever-increasing transportation of grain, and the distribution of the traffic among the various routes. A great amount of information is furnished about rail, canal and ocean freight rates; about the production, distribution and consumption of cereals, and a special paragraph is devoted to the subject of the foreign market for American grain. The monograph includes a table showing the increased acreage, production, imports, exports, consumption, prices and rates of duty for wheat in all the principal countries of the earth, as well as a map showing in general outline the present wheat area of the world.

The statistics contained in this report throw light upon the present grain, and more especially wheat, situation of the United States. They show that the exportation of grain is increasing with great rapidity, that both the production and exportation of corn are assuming a greater volume, and that a constantly growing portion of our surplus is exported in the form of flour. During the last 32 years the amount of corn produced has increased from 585 to 1,924 millions of bushels, an increase of 123 per cent, while the exports of this cereal increased from 18 to 117 millions of bushels, or over 1,000 per cent. During the same period the production of wheat increased from 132 to 575 millions of bushels, a gain of 344 per cent, while our exports increased from 12.4 to 222.8 millions of bushels, or almost 18 fold, and our net exports of this grain increased at a still more rapid rate.

From this report, it also appears that since 1857, and probably since 1850, an ever-increasing proportion of our wheat surplus has been in the form of flour, and that in this important branch of manufacture Americans have been able to compete with European millers, even in the face of adverse taxation abroad.
 In 1899 only 25.03 per cent of our wheat was exported in the form of the manufactured product, flour, while in 1897 the export was 27.25, and in 1896 22.69 per cent. In 1896 less than four million barrels of flour, in 1899 over sixteen million barrels were exported from this country.

The year 1899 shows the United States to be easily the first wheat-producing country of the world, our production amounting to 575 million bushels, or nearly one-third (33.4 per cent) of that of the whole world. Russia (both European and Asiatic) is second with 173 million bushels, then France with 125 per cent, British India with 84 per cent, and Austria-Hungary with 43 per cent. Our production in wheat production is largely due to our immense tracts of available fertile land, our admirable transportation facilities, the remarkable system of handling the grain, both physically and commercially, and the exceedingly low freight rates which obtain on our railroads and lakes.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

It is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

INCREASE IN PUDDLERS' PAY
 Some Figures Which Show How Prosperity Prospers.
 Youngstown, Ohio, March 9.—At the monthly wage conference here yesterday between representatives of the Amalgamated association and iron manufacturers, an advance of 25 cents a ton in the rate for puddling was agreed upon. The rate will now be six dollars a ton, the highest paid since 1893. This will mean an advance in the finishing department also of about 4 per cent. The rate for puddling is now 50 per cent higher than in 1895, and for finishing the advance has been 21 per cent since that time. About 20,000 men are affected by the advance.

Rev. W. E. Stitzer, W. Caton, N. Y., writes, "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat. Geo. Sar, 524 E. Douglas Ave.; Geo. Cashier Gilmore Is Acquitted.
 Paola, Kan., March 9.—C. Gilmore, ex-cashier of the Paola National bank, charged with embezzling stock of the Independence Gas company, was today found not guilty, by a jury in the district court.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. Murder and Suicide White Insane.
 Oakland, Cal., March 8.—Alexander Carter, 32 years of age, in a temporary fit of insanity, today shot and killed his brother Charles, a university student, aged 21 years, at the house of their parents in North Berkeley. Then placing the muzzle of the pistol in his mouth, he blew out his brains.

Cleanse the system, makes new, rich, healthy blood, cures dyspepsia, kidney and liver ailments, skin diseases and nervous weakness—largest Blood Purifier. Lacey's Alaska Bills Reported.
 Washington, March 9.—The house committee on public lands today favorably reported the series of bills introduced in the House by Lacey, introduced by Mr. Lacey of Iowa yesterday.

Mrs. Harriet Evans, Hinesdale, Ill., writes: "I never fail to relieve my children from croup at once by using One Minute Cough Cure. I would not feel safe without it." Quikley cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung diseases. Two bottles cured me of blood disorder and weakness," says Mrs. Belle M. Miller, Kennett, Ark. J. P.
