IN TROLLEY PARTIES

Interest in Social Circles Centers on Them.

LUNCHES SERVED ENROUTE

And Music and Much Happiness Prevalent.

The social features of the week in Wichita has been the number of trolley parties given. The hot weather has made this form of diversion a real luxury. The speed of the cars adds zest to conversation, brightness to spirits and happiness to folk who have battled during the day with much and persistent temperature of high degree. Music in some instances was given on the car, and in others refreshments were served enroute.

On Tuesday evening a crowd of young people chaperoned by Mesdames Boyle, Decatur and Robertson gave a very delightful trolley party in honor of Mr. A. F. Casad of this city and Mr. Ira Holmes of Indianapolis, Ind. The evening was spent in going over the entire street railway system. Late in the evening refreshments were served on the car. Those who composed the jolly party were: Mesdames Boyle, Decatur and Robertson; Misses Decatur, Imboden, B. Imboden, Oidfield, Sheppard, Barker, Slade, Kirkwood, B. Kirkwood, Sewall, Little, McCullough, Hayworth, Taylor, Winnie and Carries of Alva, O. T. Messrs. Boyle, Robertson, Casad, Holmes, G. Parkinson, D. Parkinson, Gibson, C. Reed, W. Reed, Alexander, Gove, Dr. M. Kirkwood, Colvin, W. C. Staats, Enterprise, Kam, Saxe, Parker and Jennings.

M. E. RECEPTION.

A very delightful reception was given in the parlors of the First M. E. church by the musical committee of that church. Short talks were made by Rev. F. M. Lynch, Prof. Marshall and M. O. A. Boyle. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served. The rest of the evening was spent in having a good time. Those present were: Misses Parker, Parkinson, Imboden, Oidfield, Sheppard, Oidfield, Mesdames Marshall, Noble, Lynch, Houston, Platt, Bayle and Kirkwood, and Messrs. Imboden, Yost, Colvin, McNeal, Boyle, Jennings, Platt, Houston and Marshall.

WHIST AND MUSIC.

The F. S. B. C. B. Whist club were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Bessie Allen in honor of Miss Allen's guest, Miss Sinclair of Lawrence, last Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly passed by all present in conversation, whist and in listening to some very beautiful music. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Sinclair, Treva Aley, May Campbell, Donna Fisher, Marie Bittling, Carrie Cogdell, June Niederlander of St. Louis, Josephine W. Webb, Clara Washburn, Miamie Houck, Winnie Barnes, Kate Coster, Helen Pratt; Messrs. Fred Ayers, Maurice Barnes, Alex. Joseph, Dick Imboden, Gordon Oldham, Walter Trickey, Lewis Bittling, Edgar Hess, Dick Hays, Alfred Lewis, Chester Shelley, Robert Showman, Harry Sherman, Walter Hess, Ray Campbell.

PARTY AT CLEARWATER.

A farewell social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Stanley last Tuesday afternoon, August 1, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Jacobs, who left here yesterday over the Santa Fe for Chicago, where they will reside in future with their sons, Charles, Clyde and Sine. The following friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Kell, Hope, Dickerson, Nickerson, Craig, Keller, Hope, Dunn, Coad, Maya, Pilgrimage, Tillinghast, Stanley, also Mrs. Perrison, Ross, Tompkins, Skinner, Webb, Young, Morrison, Ketchel, Petroschowa, Murphy, McClung, Treasurer, Fillingham, Clara Washburn, and Earl Ross. After an exceptionally good time in social conversation for two hours the party sat down to one of the greatest dinners ever given in the state. Shortly after 4 o'clock, after bidding Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs good-bye, and wishing them success in their new home, the guests took their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs have resided in Clearwater over sixteen years, and were always prominent in everything that pertained to the advancement of Clearwater and vicinity. To say they will be missed is putting it too mildly. While Clearwater believes the change to be their advantage, and certainly hopes so, yet as a community it regrets their departure, and as their friends take them by the hand and utter the words "good-bye, success attend you" they did so with the full understanding that in the loss of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs Clearwater lost two of the brightest souls in her crown.

Miss Mattie Wingert entertained at her home, 1841 North Topika avenue, Wednesday afternoon for the Misses Stella and Zelah Howe of Kansas City. ANOTHER TROLLEY PARTY.

Later in the evening the crowd adjourned to the home of the Misses Mahoney, in the corner of Mark's and Twenty-sixth streets. At the rest of the evening was spent in sipping of some very cooling refreshments and listening to the music of a string band. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns of various colors and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

David City, Neb., April 1, 1900. Genesse Falls Food Co., La. Bay, N. Y. Gentlemen: I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it. Yours truly, LILLIE SOCHOR.

Lawrence avenue. A number of friends dropped in and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. Later in the evening a lunch and cooling refreshments were served. FOUR NAMES ADDED

Sixteen Candidates in Queen of Carnival Contest.

MISS PIERCE STILL LEADS

Interest in the Voting Continues to Increase.

The above is the vote in the contest for queen of the carnival. The list of candidates was augmented yesterday by the addition of four new names, making in all sixteen candidates for the position. The number of the candidates will be increased, however, for it is announced that a candidate with many supporters will be sprung the first few days of this week. The contest is securing more than ordinary attention among Wichita people, for they realize that with the immense crowds of people who will visit Wichita this year during the carnival week, the position of queen of the carnival will be an honor that any lady, whether she be in Wichita or any part of southern Kansas, would be glad to receive.

The robes for the queen will be artistic creations of the modistes and will provoke unbounded admiration. The colors of the robe will be agreeable to the queen to be selected. Should she be a blonde the robes selected for her will only show more perfectly her beauty. Should she be a brunette the robes will suit her type of beauty.

It has been announced that the queen of the carnival would receive ovations this year that the average woman does not receive in a lifetime. Hers will be a glorious position in the great civic parade, and no less honored will be the position in the beautiful flower parade of Friday. The entire week will be filled with events at which the carnival queen will be the guest on whom much attention will be bestowed.

The contest of the past week has been attracting comment in other places and the vote is being closely watched. Each evening of the coming week the committee in charge of the affair will count the votes and a statement as to the comparative vote received during each day will be made. The boxes for the voting have been placed in locations most central to the different parts of the city and as the contest progresses the committee has arranged for more voting places.

It has been announced that the contest will not last as long as one of the previous year. The exact date has not been made public, but this will be done at the next meeting of the contest committee.
