By the Surveyors of the Orient Line.

CITIZENS BANQUET THEM

Jubilant Over the Prospect --New Cotton Gin.

Granite, O. T., Oct. 25.—The Orient railway corps of surveyors, in charge of Captain Adams, completed their survey into Granite yesterday evening, and last night were banqueted at the Fisher hotel by the citizens of Granite in magnificent style. Much interest has been taken in this survey, as it means a north and south railway for Granite and the future distributing center for a territory fully 200 miles in extent. As a consequence of the Orient's proposed survey through Granite over fifty transfers of property have been made within the past two days, and no less than twenty-five new buildings, four of which are business buildings, have been contracted by mercantile firms to supply the demand for merchandise.

GLENCOE IS ON THE HIGH ROAD

J. Hunter Williams of Glencoe Gives His Town a Big Boost.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 25.—J. Hunter Williams, this week in his paper, the Glencoe Mirror, thus opens a lengthy article descriptive of his town's boomtimes. He says: "Real estate and business changes have been taking place at a lively rate in Glencoe during the past week, showing a more healthy state of affairs than has been known before. People who have money to invest are looking with more favor on Glencoe, and the fact shows conclusively that the man who holds back from now on is going to lose money by it, for property will never be cheaper than it is right now. The future of the town is no longer in question. The stability of its business enterprise, the energy and business tact of its business men, have begun to show themselves and there is a confidence that has not heretofore shown itself. The Mirror has been in general demand by persons who are interested in Glencoe and it reflects such a substantial state of affairs that those who had little faith are coming to believe in the town as one of the most thriving little business centers in the territory. It is these facts that has brought about the changes that have taken place the past week."

WHERE IT WAS BORN

Populism Is Warned of Its Impending Doom

AT DEMOCRACY'S HANDS

I. P. Campbell at Burton-- Meeting at Sedgwick.

Burton, Kan., Oct. 25.—Here in the town and township, where Populism and the Farmers' Alliance practically had its birth, I. P. Campbell, late Populist nominee for congress in this district, spoke last night to a good-sized crowd of Populists, Republicans and some Democrats.

Trying to outwail a medicine show and a band-playing, song-singing, buck-dancing colored man is hard work in a small town, but that is what Campbell did here. Democrats and Populist Democrats, with characteristic perversity, attempted to keep their fellows away from the meeting. Here as elsewhere they seem to fear the effect of one of their kind hearing Campbell. Just why one side should be afraid of the consequences of their fellows listening to statements made by one not in sympathy with them cannot be explained, but that is what seems to trouble Democrats and Populists who intend to be Democrats. Some way or other they don't like Campbell's plain talk, and they seem to think it their bounden duty to preclude if possible his making converts, which of course does not all to the strength of their cause.

Mr. Campbell dealt out some telling blows last night. He told the Populists—and there were many present—just what the Democrats scheme was. He proved it in his argumentative way, by citing things that occurred in this district in a congressional way; by the nomination of Democrats in other districts; by the ever-increasing boldness of the Democratic party in dealing with Populists; by what he terms the infamous outrage at Kansas City when a man acceptable to the Populists for vice president was pulled off the ticket and a man like Stevenson put on for Populists to vote for.

Mr. Campbell told his Harvey county Populist hearers a few new things concerning what some of the leading shouters for Duval in this county told him when it was rumored that he, Campbell, was about to resign his nomination in favor of Duval. He said Vernon J. Rose—the Newton minister who is so frightened over the Sulva polygamy, yet who was the only man in the district to petition Long last fall not to vote to exclude Polygamy Roberts, while 4000 others petitioned the other way—that this man Rose came in hot haste to Wichita and told him he must not withdraw in favor of Duval. "The Populists of Harvey county will never stand it," he said, "nor will the Populists of the district. They don't want Democrats to dish out the patronage in this district."

Campbell says, too, that Joe Fugate came to him and told him decent Democrats would not stand the outrage. Yet both men have acquiesced in recent events and are now whooping up things for Duval.

Sedgwick, Kan., Oct. 25.—Wednesday night at this place the big hall in this town was packed and jammed with people, many of them Populists, to hear Mr. Campbell. They listened in good shape, and applauded and cheered. They recognized his good points and were quick to catch on. It was one of the best speeches in this town this campaign.

The west end and the south end of Harvey county are ripe for Populism, yet. Though a strong Republican county, there are two Populist strongholds—Sedgwick and Burton—and many changes are noted. The county will increase its Republican majorities this year.

proved inquiry for the cruder forms at head iron centers. Steel billets are reported $2 higher at Chicago, while a similar advance is noted at Pittsburg, and efforts to raise the level of Bessemer steel billets are being debated. The claim that stocks are being steadily reduced is borne out by reports of several 1000 lots being moved at Pittsburg and further west and intimations that a still larger business has been arranged for a condition basis, dependent upon election results. While southern pig is unchanged at the south, a sharp cut in the same is noted at western markets. The lowering of coal prices, expected as a result of the ending of the strike, is expected to measurably help the export trade in coal, which is, however, confronted with freight rates. In spite of this, it is claimed that 1,200,000 tons of bituminous coal have been sold for export to Mediterranean ports.

DEMOCRATS IN PORTO RICO

Are Pro-Spanish and Anti-American. Like Bryan and Aguinaldo.

Canton, O., Oct. 25.—Governor Wood of Cuba reached Canton soon after 39 o'clock this morning. He was met at the station by Secretary Cortes and taken direct to the McKinley home. Governor Wood came to confer with the president and Secretary of War Root on a number of matters connected with Cuban affairs. He was accompanied by Perfecto Lacoste, secretary of agriculture of Cuba, and his aide de camp, Lieutenant Frank Root. Another caller at the McKinley home was M. G. Brulbaugh, commissioner of education for Porto Rico. He came primarily to deliver the president a message from Governor Allen, the nature of which has not yet been made public. He also made a verbal report on affairs of the island and on educational matters. Mr. Brulbaugh said conditions in Porto Rico are steadily improving. There is much interest and considerable excitement over the first election. The contest has developed lines similar to those in the United States. The Republican party is in full harmony with President McKinley and for American administration, while the federal party within the past two weeks has established through its primary to elect the president an administration. The latter party embraces the pro-Spanish element, he said, and the former the great industrial class. The Republicans, he thinks, will elect a majority of the house as well as the commissioner to Washington. Rapid recovery is being made from the hurricane disaster.

Is Tried on Insanity Charge in Probate Court.

On October 13 Mrs. William Romel came in from near Colwell to the probate court and alleged that her husband was incapable of taking care of his business on account of his being an habitual drunkard. In her affidavit in the probate court she said that Romel's mind was seriously affected on account of his drinking so much. The case was brought up yesterday and the jury decided that Mr. Romel's mind is somewhat affected. A verdict of insanity was not rendered, but it was considered necessary to appoint for Mr. Romel a guardian.

Mr. Romel is getting up in years, being now 72 years of age. He has lived in the state of Kansas for several years, the most of the time in Sedgwick county. For the past three years he and his family have resided near Colwell. There are in the family his wife, a grown son and a daughter of 13 years. Mr. Romel was an old soldier, having fought on the Union side for five years. He draws a pension of $11 per quarter, and it seems that it was really over this money that the trial was brought.

It was claimed by Mrs. Romel that as soon as he would get the money from Washington he would get on a drunk Romel and in her affidavit that she did not get any of the money for her support, hence her cause for action. She said that she had to work for her own support and wanted some action taken whereby she would obtain a part of the pension.

Mr. Romel had a story in tell of the woman that he was suffering from his wife and children. He became very sentimental in his testimony, saying that he was driven to drink because of the ill-treatment that he received at home. He said that if it would be his right he would not spend the money for drink.

When the old gentleman testified that he treated him badly at home the old lady interrupted him and stated what she said, but that they were in quarrel to quarrel that it would be seen how they lived at home. Judge Haymaker let them talk for a while. Both of them became very excited and called each other names and quarrelled. As both of the people are German it was very difficult to understand what they said could be understood.

After the interruption Mr. Atwood proceeded to close his speech and catch his train. He dwelt on the Philippine question and toward the close grew quite eloquent over the situation. After the close of Mr. Atwood's speech Colonel Sam Amidon introduced J. D. Rotkin, who spoke for some time on the same questions as Mr. Atwood. The policy of the administration in regard to the Philippines was arraigned and then the state affairs took the attention of Mr. Rotkin until the conclusion of his speech.

The Pave-Perrell Stock company presented "Two Orphans" last night to another good house at the Crawford theatre. The company is very strong in this play and seemed to please the audience very much. The work of both Mr. Walter Fane as Jacques Frouhard, the outlaw, and Mr. Dan Costello as Pierre Frouhard, the cripple, was excellent. The real clever work was done by Misses Vespa Parrell, Lillian Caville and Edna Boone. Miss Ferrell is a beautiful woman and, together with her graceful acting, always makes a lasting impression on her audience, and in her work last night she did not fall short of any of her clever work in the preceding performances. Miss Caville showed that she could do a pathetic part as well as a comic role. Miss Boone did some exceedingly smooth acting in the character part of Mother La Frouhard. She is certainly
