GAVE WHIST PARTIES

Mr. and Mrs. Coler Sim Entertain on Two Evenings.

ELABORATE DECORATIONS

East Side Chautauquans Entertain Assembly Circle.

The leading social event of the past week was the elaborate party given by Mr. and Mrs. Coler B. Sim on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at their residence, 107 North Emporia avenue. Whist was the entertainment and there were half a hundred guests present on the two occasions.

The lovely Sim home had been artistically decorated for the event by trained hands and when complete the commodious rooms presented a brilliant scene, rich in glowing effect of lights, flowers and trimmings. American beauty roses predominated all through the spacious parlors and every possible aid to comfort of guests and beauty of adornment had been carefully planned and arranged. A reflection of light refreshments was served each evening and all guests warmly commended the success of the gracious hostess and the enjoyable time experienced.

FOR MR. TIFFIN.
Mr. John Tiffin was surprised by a number of his friends at his home on West Third street last Thursday night. The occasion was the birthday of Mr. Tiffin. In the evening all the guests were seated at a table and a picture of the man, but within a short time a delegation of visitors led by Senator-elect James W. Tapp approached the front of the home and marched in. Mr. Tiffin was presented with a fine rocking chair. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Ed Moore. A set of two colored picture frames of his father and mother was also received by Mr. Tiffin.

The guests had a delightful time and Mr. Tiffin thinks that the surprise was one of the best planned affairs he ever knew of.

FOR MISS PEOPLES.

A very enjoyable social of the week was the surprise party in honor of Miss Cate Peoples at her home, 1135 St. Francis avenue. To the utter surprise and later delight of Miss Peoples, a number of her intimate friends suddenly appeared at her home unannounced and a very pleasant evening was spent by hostess and guests. Conversation and music and varied games of interest took up the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Lena Wright, Fay Albert, Winnie Clark, Mary Conley, Hattie Hill, Maudie Spencer, Leah Andrews, Maudie Morgan, Clara Bowers, Flo Andrews, Ora Lowe, Minnie Robertson, Clara Conley; Messrs. George Burk, Arch Barnes, W. W. A. Kirk, Frank Buckridge, Frank Wright, Fred Goodwin, Ralph Burk, Jos. S. Ransom, Jr., W. W. Bowers, W. F. Spencer, Oscar Robertson.

GOLDEN WEDDINGS OF MR. AND MRS. J. N. LUDLUM.

An occasion of great moment to the immediate family and closer friends of the principal participants, was the golden wedding celebration last Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ludlum at the residence of their daughter, Miss Pearl Ludlum, 220 Dupont avenue north. Mr. Ludlum was born in 1835 and Mrs. E. E. Sawyer in 1842 and they were married in 1859, on November 14, at the home of the bride, Butlerville, Ohio, about 30 miles from Cincinnati. They came to Pratt, Kan., in the spring of 1885 and have remained here ever since, reverently commemorating a time to reside with their daughter, Miss Pearl, at the home of the bride, Butlerville, Ohio, about 30 miles from Cincinnati. NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Ointments Do Not Cure. Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalants cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief. The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to rid the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, Sanjour's Catarrh Tablets, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opium or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalants and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure."

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a box and took from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

here were present at this occasion and a very pleasant evening was spent around the family circle, and after it all Mrs. Ludlum entertained her guests at a very dainty repast. Many flowers decorated the rooms and flowers were also sent in lavish abundance by friends along with congratulatory letters from children and other members of the family absent, as well as many warm friends. The happy and aged couple were also the recipients of several fine presents and souvenirs in golden remembrance of this half century milestone in their marital career. The happy party separated late in the evening, wishing to Mr. and Mrs. Ludlum many more years of life together. At Christmas time it is expected that a general family reunion of all members will take place in this city.

CHESEBY BAUTHEL NUPRIALS.

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Margaret Ellen Bachtel and Mr. Carlos Chesney were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bachtel, on Hewitt avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cornelius in an impressive manner, after which an elegant lunch was served. Only the relatives and a few friends were present. The newly married couple were the recipients of some very pretty presents of silver and cut glass.

Mrs. Chesney has a host of friends in this city. The groom is a prominent citizen of the town of Atter, the well wishes of all present Mr. and Mrs. Chesney took the southbound Santa Fe train for their home near Kildare.

QUILTA CLUB.

The members of the Quilt club were entertained Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Franklin at their home, 1011 South Lawrence. Progressive whist was the order of the evening. The prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. John Knoblauch. After whist refreshments were served, and the club was favored with a number of musical selections by Mrs. Swutznail and Mrs. Schmitzer. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

IN MISS COHEGAN'S HONOR.

EAST SIDE CHAUTAUQUA.

The East Side Chautauqua circle entertained the assembly circle at the home of Mrs. I. M. Combs, 236 Wabash avenue. This is the French Greek year of the Chautauqua course and the program and entertainment afforded of that study. The program was given by Miss Combs, who has on the corner was a flashlight taken at the Colonial party given by Assembly circle last year; on the four pages were the program and menu both written in Greek and French. The program opened with roll call, which Assembly circle assisted by quizzing, forming an orchestra. C. I. S., East Side circle, assisted by quotations in French. The Unoda Quartette sang. The members of the quartette are: Felix McNeal, Fred Evans, W. A. Vincent and U. O. Bryan. "Cradle Song" read a paper on French Revolution, and Miss Cohegan discussed "Rivalry of Nations." Miss Edna Frye recited. The parlors were decorated in red chrysanthemums, in the library the bay window was fitted to represent the Louvre. The name was outlined with red chrysanthemums above the window. A game of matching quotations added to the evening's pleasure. The prizes were won by W. A. Vincent. The event commencing the afternoon a victory over the Starting team, as well as many gloriously won games of the season, and gave an opportunity to express hearty appreciation of the efforts of the Fairmount boys along football lines. As well as the boys, the girls of the entertainment, each guest was given a football score, from which a team should be evolved and surprised was to find that "a wide shaped play followed by a straight run" means "for a foul tackle" was chosen.

TIME GHEATED

Vigor, Youth, Health Restored to Weak and Old

DROP—drop—drop. The sands of time fall fast. The grey hair, the sunken cheek are upon us ere we know it, while we cling, with bated breath, at the feet of Fate, begging for life.

That is not the way to obtain health. If you have squandered your vital forces, dissipated your energy, and feel old before your time, you have simply robbed Nature—you must repay her. You must yourself electrify your nerves, enrich your blood, and purify your entire physical system.

DR. GREENE'S Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy

Nature foresaw this result and supplied Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for this need—a tonic absolutely wonderful in its effects. It is not to stimulate or "brace up" for the time being, but it makes you well. It brings back the freshness of youth, the exuberance, the vitality, which always accompany perfect physical health. It will build a fresh, new, bright fire, scattering the ashes of weakness and disease to the four winds.

Mrs. E. W. Hinds, 8 Beacon St., Fitchburg, Mass., says:

"I have been terribly afflicted with rheumatism and with all to know how I have been cured. One year ago last December I got so bad I had to call in a doctor. He gave me a few pills and said he could do nothing for me, I must wait until warm weather. I grew worse until I was perfectly helpless. My sufferings were great. Warm weather came and I got a little benefit from it. I commenced taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and in six months I wrote to Dr. Greene telling him I could go up stairs and down as spry as any man. I had taken a new lease of life. Dr. Greene's Nervura has cured me. I have almost died with pain, but now rain or storm does not affect me. I can enjoy life now, and ride between five and six miles, sit down to work and go out alone and feel perfectly free from rheumatism. I thank God and Dr. Greene for restoring me to health."

There are many complex cases which patients cannot fully understand. Dr. Greene cordially invites all such sufferers to consult with him fully and freely, personally or by letter, at his office, 35 West 14th St., New York City. There is no charge for such consultation and every case is given individual attention.
