ANOTHER STRANGELY COOL DAY Trees Haven't Much Growth and Weeds Look Sick.
Yesterday proved a surprisingly cool day for this time of the year. These boreal fragments from last winter have been quite frequent this spring, with the result that the growth on the trees is not as great as usual and even the every-ready weed looks wan and tired. The indications are for a cool summer throughout, and the weather prophets are revising their predictions. 2-17

Ed Sims.
T. J. Robertson, the man convicted at this time of the district court, for shooting Ed Sims, with intent to kill, was brought before Judge Dale to receive his sentence yesterday. He was given eight years. Robertson tried to get his wife to interfere with Judge Dale to give him a light sentence, but it is said that she refused to do so. 2-17

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy offered for sale on my shelves, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore, and she became so enthusiastic over her remarks that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store as overcome with a colic pain that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store thanking me for what he felt as well as ever.'" Sold by druggists. 2-17

IS ALL PROSPEROUS
Colonel Murdock Finds Kansas in Good Shape.
EVERY CITY THRIVING
And Everybody Has Heard of Wichita's Strides.

Colonel M. M. Murdock and son, Victor Murdock, returned Sunday from a tour of the larger cities of the state.
They were received everywhere with the warmest of welcomes. As his leg is still painful, Colonel Murdock could not get far away from the hotels, but his friends flocked to see him and kept him busy.
They report that all the state is prospering and that everybody has heard of the strides that Wichita is making.

In speaking of the condition of Kansas, Colonel Murdock said yesterday: "All Kansas is in the midst of a marked growth. In every city we visited we saw new residences, in some of them new business blocks. Emporia has a tinnery, a brick factory that is putting up a new library, a big brick building, and a fine court house; in Topeka, there is evidence of growth in all parts of the city, I was told, and the streets looked lively; Lawrence, always a good town, was enjoying similar prosperity. Leavenworth with its great state and federal institutions around about, is adding to those revenues the profits of good business; while Atchison is an apple and span as any city in the west, and is doing a rattling trade. And they are all talking of the new time in Wichita and the wheat belt of which it is the center."

Some of the notices made of Colonel Murdock's visits are as follows: Leavenworth Times: Editor Marsh M.
Murdock, of the Wichita Eagle, a master journalist, and Victor Murdock, one of the most brilliant of Kansas writers, came in to see us at the Times office yesterday. Colonel Murdock has had a long and tedious sickness, and is celebrating his recovery by making a tour of some of the Kansas towns. Everybody is glad to greet one of the Kansas phoenoix, who by his personal efforts and through his powerful newspaper has done so much not only to build up Wichita, but also the state of Kansas. There is no paper from which the Leavenworth Times copies more extracts than from the Wichita Eagle.

Lawrence Journal: "Lawrence has been always of interest to me," said Col. M.
M. Murdock, of the Wichita Eagle, at the Eldridge this morning, "because it served as the model for practically all Kansas town-builders. Kansas has been presented a state of Iowa, and the country which is a typical town-plan, had an idea in revolt against a custom. The New England town had a peculiar way of accommodating itself to a cow-path or any other wandering break in the landscape. The transplanted New Englander, in Kansas resolved to straighten the course of his road, and made for himself a town, and that is the Kansas town and the Oklahoma town. The further south you go, and where the reality of the town, in later years, more strongly developed, long blocks are avoided, because of the corner lot advantage and the congestion of traffic. In Oklahoma, the court house square, which in Texas and New Mexico becomes the pleaza, by the way a really good thing, becomes unknown."

Colonel Murdock is making a tour of the older cities of the state, being convinced from a long series of blood-poisoning. He was a resident of early Lawrence, and witnessed the Quinlan raid. He has had a host of callers, and the old timers and he have been busy locating points where "things happened" in those days.

Colonel Murdock was one of the early champions of the University in the legislative part of the state's history. He is accompanied to Lawrence by Victor Murdock, his son.

Atchison Globe: For several days the Murdocks have been working toward Atchison. The Topeka papers said they were in Topeka, and would go to Lawrence, Leavenworth, Atchison, etc. The Lawrence papers reported their arrival, and when they left said they were going to Kansas City, Leavenworth, Atchison, etc.

They arrived last night and will leave at 6:15 this evening for home.

The progress of the Murdocks over the state has been quite remarkable. Marsh Murdock, the father, is just recovering from a long sick spell, and is making a tour of the state, with his son, as a recreation. (By-the-way, it is an idea; why not make a tour of Kansas, instead of going off to Colorado? Ever been to Emporia, Eldorado, Wichita, Lawrence, Lawrence, Junction City, Eldridge, Mary-etta, Fort Riley, Arkansas City, Hutchinson? The Murdocks are remarkable people. Colonel Marsh Murdock has been editor of the Wichita Eagle a long time; some people say Noah took it. His son, Victor, has grown up on the paper, and Bill White says he is the smartest man in the state. During the late Wichita boom, which is a part of Kansas history, the Murdocks and the Eagle was one of the most successful of the state. He has been seriously ill for three or four months. The physicians gave it out occasionally that they were going to mark "W" on his "take," but he is almost well again and will soon be back in the harness.

COUNTING TONS OF MONEY.
Bank Examiner Jobs Returns After
Two Weeks' Hard Work.
National Bank Examiner C. S. Jones returned Sunday from Kansas City, where he has spent two of the most laborious weeks of his life. He has been examining the books of the National Bank of Kansas City, and has found it in a state of confusion. He has to prove hundreds of coin and count mountains of paper money of all kinds.
He determined to complete the job in two weeks, but it proved heavier than he anticipated and he worked day and night to finish on schedule time.

HE LIKES POLITICS
Young Lawyer Shows How Politicians Are Made.
LOOKING FOR RESULTS
Usually Have an Interest in Judicial Elections.

Many persons worry because they are too fat, and many more worry because they are too thin. In both cases the food eaten is not properly digested.
Fat persons digest fat producing foods and do not digest foods that give muscular and nervous strength. They are not as strong as they look, and deserve more sympathy than they get.

Thin persons cannot digest fat producing foods. Sometimes they digest nerve and muscle foods and become nervous and wiry; but usually they do not properly digest anything.

Nature has made provision for the digestion of all classes of foods; and when our digestion becomes impaired, it is wisdom to take steps at once to remedy it. Many thousands are using with marked success the preparation known as KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE.
As it contains all the digestants, it digests all kinds of foods and restores the digestive organs to health.

It can't help but do you good.

were important factors. During this period, the citizens of Wichita furnished Colonel Murdock's private office at an expense of $1,700, as a compliment to his loyalty to the town, and to his reputation as a good citizen and good editor. Perhaps no newspaper people in the world are more thoroughly appreciated at home than the Murdocks.

The Murdocks are thoroughly familiar with Atchison. Colonel Murdock came here a great deal during the old inland days, but Victor Murdock is making his first trip.

Atchison people know the Murdocks, and paid them as much attention as they could accept. Colonel Murdock's leg is still painful, and he is unable to ride in a carriage, but the son was driven around town. They also declined several invitations to dine.

Colonel Murdock's general health is very good, but his leg (the seat of the blood poisoning which caused his recent serious illness) is troublesome.

Atchison Champion: Colonel Marsh Murdock, the supervising architect, contractor and builder of Wichita is in town.
Victor Murdock, who is employed on the west, is also here. The Murdocks are swinging around the Kansas circle trading new stories for the last, and will leave Atchison for Wichita tonight over the Missouri Pacific. Marsh Murdock was present at the birth of Kansas. He was, by mutual consent, appointed one of the guardians of the child during its minority, and has ever since exercised a guar-dian's prerogatives over it.

The Murdocks run the Wichita Eagle, a busy little newspaper. He is engaged to be a lawyer in the coming year. He is going to fight, with the United States flag in one talon, and a derrick in the other.
The swamps and hyperboles are afraid of the derrick and always duck low when the Eagle leaves in sight. The Eagle is about the clearest, clearest paper in Kansas. There are always signs of hurry and impatience about the exchange editor's desk when the wrapper is being torn from it. It isn't possible to tell all the things Marsh Murdock has done for Kansas in the brief limit of a newspaper article. It would be printing the annals of Kansas in newspaper form. For the most part he has kept out of politics, although he was once a candidate for governor in a careless, non-committal sort of way. Like most careless non-committal candidates he was defeated.
Mostly he is satisfied with his private life and the train takes him to Colorado on time. Sometimes he kicks over the chairs and breaks up the furniture when the English lick the Boers, or it looks as though it were all day with the under dog, but most of the time he is as serene and as happy as a child.

Victor Murdock started out well, but went wrong. He used to be a baseball reporter on a Chicago paper. His baseball stuff was the marvel of the country.
It was so serious that it made strong men weep, and so funny that it made mis-anthropes laugh. Then with the coming of usefulness, and fame and glory ahead of him, he went back to writing editorial.
Nothing so amenable has occurred since the death of Shakespeare.
The writer, who was then doing juveniles on a provincial daily, could hardly sleep nights so anxious was he to read the report of the game in Murdock's paper in the morning. Baseball literature hasn't been the same since. The writer hopes he has come to a realization of his sin and iniquity.

You wouldn't take the Murdocks for newspaper men at first sight. Their clothes fit them, and look as though made by a tailor who exacts cash. There is some criticism in Atchison of Colonel Murdock's velvet collar, but there is no reason for Atchison to be so hypercritical. We are assured that in Wichita it is considered quite the thing, and Wichita carries the flag in Kansas, much as we regret the fact. Colonel Murdock is in deep trouble. He fears he will not be able to make a newspaper man of his youngest son. The young man is 18, and wants to go into some other business.
This violates all the Murdock traditions, and the colonel thinks it a reflection on the family. Colonel Murdock is 64 years old. He earned his title when war was a serious business and not a summer holiday.
He has been seriously ill for three or four months. The physicians gave it
mark "W" on his "take," but he is al-
the harness.

THIN CHILD
If a child is thin, let him take a little of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.
Some children like it too well; begin with a little. A half- or quarter-teaspoonful is enough at first, if the stomach is weak; but increase, as you find the stomach will bear.

The effect is: the little one takes on strength; gets hungry; eats and is happy; gets fat--he ought to be fat--and gets healthy.

Scott's Emulsion is a little to try it free.

Five Reasons Why You Should Use the Pyramid Pile Cure.
First, it cures every form of piles without a particle of pain.

Second, it cures without any inconvenience or detention from daily work.

Third, its effects are lasting and not simply a temporary relief.

Fourth, it is the cheapest and safest pilo cure before the public.

Fifth, it is entirely harmless, containing no mineral poisons, and cannot harm the most delicate.

It has been thoroughly tested by physicians in every state in the union and is recognized by the best authorities as the safest, surest and cheapest pile cure known.

When it is remembered that usually piles is a most difficult, obstinate disease to cure, the results obtained from using a single package are certainly remarkable to say the least. People who have been annoyed with piles for years are astonished at the prompt results always ac-cured.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is made by the Pyramid Co., of Marshall, Mich., and is now also for sale at all drug stores, together with a treatise on cause and cure of rectal diseases.

Miss Florence Newman, who has been a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism, says Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only remedy that affords her relief.

Miss Newman is a much respected resident of the village of Gray, N. Y., and makes this statement for the benefit of others similarly afflicted. This liniment is for sale by druggists.

SEVENTEEN NEW MEMBERS
Are Added to the List of the Wichita Country Club.

The officers of the Wichita Country Club are delighted at the strides the organization is taking. Within the last few days applications for membership from seventeen have been received, and the limit, that of 100 is almost reached.

The club is not yet a year old, but its progress has been marked. Its splendid club house on College Hill is the scene of impromptu gatherings now almost every evening.

BLUE GRASS STILL SPREADS.
More Evidence That It Has Become Epidemic.

Evidence still comes in that blue grass is going to take Sedgwick county, laying bold where buffalo grass has surrendered.
A. E. Harmon, of the Jewett ranch near Cherry, has lately discovered blue grass in two places at his home. One patch has appeared near his house and the other on Kayler's pasture. Both are growing rapidly. Mr. Harmon is convinced that a blue grass era has set in.

Mr. Harmon reports that a patch of volunteer blue grass has spread over six acres of his farm.

Beware of a Cough.
A cough is not a disease, but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the disease which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by druggists.

EARLY WHEAT'S SHORT HEADS.
That Which Didn't Get Rain Soon Enough Is Poor.

A. F. Harmon, of the Jewett ranch, was in the city yesterday, and when asked about the wheat said that some of the early wheat which headed out before the recent rain had very short heads.

The later wheat, he said, which had rain, was in splendid shape and would make a great yield. Mr. Harmon is going in extensively on wheat. He will this fall put 100 acres of it in, and will become one of the wheat kings of the golden belt.

FIFTY-TWO BOXES ALREADY.
Champion Strawberry Makes New Record.

Home-grown strawberries are now on the market, and as usual, they are the best. The strawberry crop during the recent dry stretch looked rather tired, but the showers brought the plants and the fruit back to life. A. W. Hechler, of Eldridge, Kansas, just put in twenty varieties, and his yield this year was as fine as he has put in a large acreage of the plants.

Wichita is one of the greatest strawberry consumers in the country. Colonel G. T. Tyler is the champion straw-berryist of the state, his record for this season is already 22.

An Extensive Stock Raiser Tells How to Cure Stock in Calves.

Wm. Abbott, of Tyndal, B. Dak., quite an extensive stock raiser, has for a number of years used Chamberlain's Colic, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for sours in calves and says he has never known it to fail. He gives a teaspoonful in water or diluted on the bottle for an adult man, after each operation of the bowels more than natural. Usually one dose is sufficient. For sale by druggists.

WORKS IN TWINE PLANT.
Art Ingram and Oother Wichitians in the Penitentiary.

Art Ingram, who was sent to the penitentiary from Wichita, says that some day he will ask his friends to circulate a petition asking his parole. He is certain, he says, that he can now lead a perfectly proper life. He is employed in the twine plant of the penitententiary and judges at one of the counting machines. He seems in the best of health.

Kernatist, the boy from Harper county, who was long in jail here, now works in one of the shops at the penitentiary.
He is said to be a model prisoner, giving no trouble at all.

Bill Tackert is busy at work on the history of the Wichita jail break. Every night when he is locked in his cell, he gets out his paper and pencil and writes over his knowledge until the lights go out, at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Leonard is one of the best prisoners in the women's department of the institution. The woman's department is famous for its years of discipline, but Mr. Leonard is uniformly satisfied and makes no trouble.
