PLEASANT CHILTING BEE.
Wednesday afternoon being pleasant, just an even doon of the Woman's Relief Corps gathered at the home of Mrs. Campbell to spend a most delightful and enjoyable afternoon. Judging from the stories that were told by different members, one would think they belonged to the Jolly Dozen and over-reached themselves just a little; but a little foolishness now and then is relished by the wisest men. Mrs. Giamien has a beautiful home and every opportunity to entertain her guests, and she did so royally and served an excellent lunch of chocolate, rolls, sandwiches and fruit. Those who were fortunate enough to be there were Mesdames Campbell, Little, Jacoby, Fanning, Jones, Hudson, Hamilton, Carr, Beach, Ingles, Hoffman, King, Mrs. Smith, visitor.

LAST STAPLES HIGHWAY.
The series of violin recitals came to a very successful conclusion on last Tuesday evening, in Sedgewick Music hall. The audience was large and appreciative, and the program varied and made up of standard works.

At the head of a movement of Peetbow's "Mimicry Sonata," which Dr. Albert Amy, the secretary of the Symphony orchestra, was invited to play. His purity of tone and clearness of delivery in this most technical of the great sonatas, was an artistic treat to his hearers.

Mrs. Staples was held in Vancouver's "Pantaneau" in a beautiful "Romance" from Tchaikovsky, sustaining and emphasizing the composition for its exciting and brilliancy which has been awarded university in Wichita.

A duet from Staples' "Daughter of Julius" was very beautifully rendered by Mrs. Appy and Miss Lulu Haythorne. Miss Haythorne has a fine contralto voice of extraordinary promise, and Mrs. Appy's delightfully sweet soprano, which she uses with great taste and charming effect.

Miss Jetta Campbell afforded the audience an unusual pleasure in her singing of that really great song, Beethoven's "Adeleide." Miss Campbell's voice is of magnificent volume and especially adapted to music requiring dramatic interpretation.

Mr. Staples has been especially fortunate in the support he has had throughout the series of recitals, and a list of the musicians who have assisted includes talent of which any city might be proud. The ladies of the city have also done a very commendable work in showing their appreciation of his talent at home and the fostering encouragement always results in higher popular standards and ideals in the beautiful art of music.

Hamilton gave an interesting personal account of the cathedral at Milan, the third greatest in the world, which will hold 4,000 persons.

Stettler entertained for their son Raymond. Their guests were the members of the "Jolly Sixteen" club and about fifty other friends. The hall was charmingly arranged, green, pink and white being the prevailing colors. In the dining room the decorations were quite elaborate. Dainty refreshments were served. MRS. W. L. BUTLER

Senior Sister and Guard of the O. R. C. Foots Division No. 48, Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. W. L. Butler

THE woman who receives the real homage of the world is not the one whose beauty, diamonds and silks shine the brightest in ball rooms, but she whose wealth is bright eyes, a clear complexion, tireless energy, an affectionate nature and a sweet disposition. It is a woman whose health makes her fit for all the duties of life who is needed in the world today. Her personality is reflected by her well ordered home, her well trained and well cared for children. And she is often a blessing to her community by the interest she takes in the popular movements in charity, in the church and in other useful organizations. Point and fine apparel may restore a semblance of health to the face scorched by suffering, but nothing but health itself can restore the comely wife, the energetic mother or the woman that makes herself felt in her community. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that is giving this kind of real health to suffering women today.

Mrs. W. L. Butler, who lives at No. 1626 Bellevue Avenue, Kansas City, Mo., is a woman who was an invalid for years, but now Wine of Cardui has restored her health and she is not only better able to care for her home and discharge her home duties, but she takes an active interest in her husband's work. She is the Senior Sister and Guard of Foots Division No. 48 of the Order of Railway Conductors. In this position she discharges her duties and is respected and esteemed by men and women alike. In telling of her cure by Wine of Cardui, she says:

"While Wine of Cardui is no doubt a good medicine for general weakness, I have found it the best I ever tried for female weakness. I suffered for several years with irregular and painful menstruation and very much run down in strength and became thin. My sister advised me to throw away the doctors' medicines, claiming that they were only experimenting at best, and to take the remedy which had always stood the test—Wine of Cardui. She cheered me up and I started in using it with high hopes of perfect recovery. But the medicine did even better than I expected, for in less than six weeks I was cured and felt better than I had for years."

Menstrual suffering is liable to attack a woman at any time. A slight cold may bring it on and women should have on hand a bottle of Wine of Cardui, the medicine which cured Mrs. Butler so quickly and effectually. Wine of Cardui tones up the system and gives perfect health to the grandmother in her declining years; to the mother encompassed by the household duties, nearing the change of life, and to the maiden just entering womanhood with all its mystery and untold danger. We make this statement on the strength of 10,000 other letters besides Mrs. Butler's which are before us. Thousands of women have discarded experimenting doctors for the certain cure Wine of Cardui brings. If you are suffering and you take Wine of Cardui you need not fear that the pure Wine which has relieved over a million women is an experiment. This great remedy has long passed that stage. Mrs. Butler found that out when she began taking the Wine. Her "high hopes of perfect recovery" were more than realized, she says in her enthusiasm. In fact, no statement is too strong for her to use in praise of a medicine that so promptly relieved her from such suffering as a protracted case of painful menstruation brought. If you are in need of advice write to The Ladies' Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn. Describe your trouble as clearly as you can and a confidential response will be sent you by return mail. But relief is offered to you today. You should go to your druggist today if you are suffering and get a bottle of Wine of Cardui. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
