

FLYNN IS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE

Admire Reiterates It and Declares for Robertts.

DISCUSSES THE SITUATION

Speaks Well of All Candidates and of Their Rights.

Kingfisher, O. T., June 5.—Hon. Jacob Admire is believed to score than any editor in Oklahoma and his leading article in the Free Press every week is a feature of Oklahoma news that the people look for because of the level headed and patriotic way he grasps and discusses all situations. His leader this week is as follows:

Mr. Admire's article, O. T., who is the Cy-Leland of Republican politics in Oklahoma, was in Wichita yesterday, mixing with Kansas politicians.

The following statement was printed in a Wichita paper one day last week. That statement was a great surprise to the people of Oklahoma, and has caused much comment. We have authority for the further statement that Mr. Admire has made the statement attributed to him. Long before the Free Press and many others gave up hope of securing Mr. Flynn's consent to a nomination, Mr. Flynn's determination not to be a candidate for reelection under any circumstances, was fixed and unalterable, and that no influence could be brought to bear to change that fixed and unalterable determination. Not only this, but Mr. Admire held that Mr. Flynn's resolution was proper and justifiable. This is further to go, and it still believes that it was a unfortunate mistake, not alone for the Republican party of Oklahoma, but a mistake for the whole people of Oklahoma regardless of political considerations.

Receiving no single word of encouragement in its advocacy of Mr. Flynn's re-nomination and re-election, the Free Press was reluctantly and sorrowfully forced to the conclusion that some other candidate would have to be selected and elected. Since then other men, all good and able men too, have been encouraged to enter the field, and they have been making an active and thorough canvass for the nomination. These men have heretofore been conspicuous in their loyalty and friendship to Mr. Flynn. If he had even stood mute, saying neither yes or no, no other man would have been seriously thought of for the place he has filled for so many years with such great ability and unequalled success. If he had only said, as we still think he should have said, "I am the candidate of the people of Oklahoma, and will continue to do their bidding" there would be no power on earth that could have secured his defeat. It is now too late to change the program and it is unfair, wrong and wicked to even talk about doing so. There is no danger of any "factional fight" between the patient, unflinching, able, sinewy Republicans who are fully and honestly striving for the Republican nomination for congress, and there is no danger that it will "become necessary to nominate Flynn again in the interest of peace."

Republicans who are Republicans for Republican principles sake, will not be misled at this late hour by any such specious talk. Mr. Flynn is not a candidate. His resolution has been deliberately taken and whether it is best or worst for the territory, it should be accepted as final and conclusive.

Mr. Robertts is a candidate—he has a right to be, and he wishes no excuses, excuses or obligations in becoming such. He is able, loyal and true to the Free Press and to the Republican party, and he will represent Oklahoma at Washington with honor and credit, and there need be no fear that the interests and welfare of the territory, if confided to his care, will not be faithfully and sagaciously guarded. The same facts are true of J. W. McClung, whose ability, courage, independence, unwavering and robust faithfulness to duty are fixed and immovable as the towering mountains which he resembles. The same facts are true of Fred McGee, whose industry, enthusiasm, ability, courage, loyalty and patriotism, make him one of the ablest and truest of the territory. The same facts are true of Dick Morgan, the steady, patient, hard-working, even-tempered, honest, thrifty and conscientious work horse of Republicanism, whose party loyalty has always remained, and will continue to remain, unshaken, fixed and unalterable as the stars in the firmament of the sky, and who will represent the territory with honor and credit as well as the people who will be just as loyal to him as they have been to all their friends. They will all be just as loyal to him as they have been to all their friends, and they will all be just as loyal to him as they have been to all their friends.

Kingfisher county is for Robertts—the Free Press is for Robertts—because it is for Robertts that they believe in him, they have confidence in him. He is a candidate in his own interest, and not in the interest, direct or indirect, of any one else. His efforts will be limited to his own case, and he will not attempt to be made a "candidate" or "candidate" by any one. He will be supported in the convention by men who are independent of him—who will stand by him to the end—who will not support any of their time in making out a line of retreat who will have no corpse of miners and sappers engaged in the construction of bridges in the rear. He will be supported by Republicans, every man of whom will throw up his coat and roll up his sleeves and work earnestly, zealously, faithfully, loyally—night by day—every hour and every minute—until the close of the polls November the fourth, 1902, for the nominee of the End Republican convention. That is the word of Republicans who will support J. C. Robertts for congress!

APPOINTMENTS BY FERGUSON THIS MONTH

For the Re-districting of the Territory of Oklahoma.

MANY CANDIDATES OUT

Hardest Work Will be in the Council Districts.

Guthrie, O. T., June 5.—The appointment of three men to re-district the territory for legislative purposes will probably be made by Governor Ferguson some time in the middle of the present month. The bill introduced in congress by Delegate Flynn has been made a law, and it is now up to the governor to appoint the commission of three members. Already there have been from sixty to seventy-five applications for places on this commission. It will probably consist of one member of the Democratic party and two Republicans. Ordinarily there would have been a Populist, but for the merging of the two parties into one at the End convention in April.

Governor Ferguson has not yet determined on the personnel of the commission although he has been carefully considering the men recommended for the places at his disposal. One man will probably be named from the northwestern part of the territory; another from the eastern portion, and another from the southern part, possibly from the new country.

"I am in favor of re-districting as far as possible along county lines," said Governor Ferguson. "It will be difficult to carry this out in some cases owing to the larger counties of the territory, but as far as possible in the council, I would like to see this done. It will not be as hard to arrange for the other districts as it will for the council. The way the districts are now it is confusing to the voter with what he called upon to vote for a man from another county, whose district extends into the county in which the voter lives."

"I have not yet determined upon the men for this commission. It is a very important thing and the right men for the work must be found in order that everything be carried for the best interests of the people of the territory."

BIG DAMAGE CASE FILED

Ella F. Stater Sues the Choctaw Road for $22,000.

Oklahoma City, O. T., June 5.—In the district court last evening the attorneys for Ella F. Stater filed suit against the Choctaw, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad for damages to the extent of $22,000. The petition filed contains many lengthy allegations. It avers that on June 27, 1901, the plaintiff was an occupant of a passenger train en route through the yards at this point, in a westerly direction. It avers further that a freight train headed toward the east met the passenger train on the main track in a head-on collision, and that by reason of the accident she was jolted from her seat upon the floor of a passenger coach. The petition avers that her back and spine were injured and bruised; that caused a serious laceration of the lower limbs and rendered her unfit for household duties.

Brian, who was killed in a collision with a freight locomotive in the city last October. Brian was placed in the city jail on a charge of drunkenness, and a few hours later a colored man, Frank Saunders, was placed in the jail on a like charge. During the night the two men, who were in the same cell, engaged in a quarrel, which resulted in Brian sustaining serious injuries at the hands of Saunders. Five days later Brian died, and Saunders was arraigned for murder. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Brian alleges that Brian's services, comfort, company and protection and care were worth $10,000 to her.
