NONPARTISAN LOVE FEAST

Grand Evening Meeting in Honor of Victor Murdock

THOUSANDS WERE PRESENT

Men of All Parties Spoke for the Candidate

DRIFT OF SUGGESTIONS

Was to be Unanimous as Possible Today

The non-partisan "love feast" given by the citizens of the Fourth ward last night in honor of Victor Murdock was an unprecedented success. Between 4,500 and 5,000 persons were present, a very creditable percentage of them being ladies. The function was held in the three-acre lawn of Colonel M. M. Murdock, on Murdock avenue, between St. Francis and Emporia, in the premises so long the scene of the memorable boyish exploits of the candidate in whose honor the people assembled. A stage twenty by twenty was erected for the accommodation of Inner band and a large field of pyrotechnic talkers. The trees in the neighborhood were decorated and the lawn in the vicinity of the forum was illuminated by extra electric lamps. Through the kindness of Mrs. Murdock several barrels of lemonade were made for the refreshment of the guests, and it was very highly appreciated.

The non-partisan and the crowd, however, was the most striking feature of the evening. Republicans, Democrats and Populists spoke their hearts out and all of them for Victor Murdock. The first Republican, and the first Democrat who ever set foot on Sedgewick county soil—J. R. Mead and William Mathewson—were both present, and it is a matter of regret that Colonel Mathewson could not remain to speak, owing to the illness of Mrs. Mathewson. The face and form of this venerable pioneer would have been the sequel of a mighty cheer had he been able to remain to tell the people—his neighbors who love him well—about the times when his green apples came very near costing future Wichita a home-own congressman. To find veterans like Colonel Mathewson and J. R. Mead side by side waxing for Victor Murdock is an incident that is truly inspiring.

The meeting originated in the minds of a few gentlemen, a committee of the city surrounded Ollie Goodin's drug store, in the second and central precinct of the Fourth ward. They selected John Koztzy for manager of this love feast and Ollie Goodin for director. The enthusiasm and ability with which their plans and designs were carried out was testified to in no uncertain way by the success of the meeting and the large attendance.

Mr. Ollie Goodin was chairman of the meeting and he performed his duties in a highly commendable manner.

The oratorical part of the time of it, especially those who talked earliest, on account of a stiff wind blowing against their voices and the noisy movement of the trees. Heretofore a mightier thing to have one express himself adequately in five minutes. Everything, however, went along nicely and the people were very much pleased.

The speakers in the following order: David D. Leahy, Victor Murdock, Senator O. H. Bentley, Joseph Brubaker, James R. Mead, Captain Pinkham, Judge Jacob Bolderod, Judge T. W. Wall, and Brown, Representative John W. Adams, ex-Mayor Finlay Ross, Rodolph Hatfield, Judge Thomas C. Wilson, S. S. Ashbaugh and Jonathan Fisher. It was the intention to call for one man in each party, but the audience, but time would not permit. The feature of the close of the meeting was an enthusiastic demand that Col. M. M. Murdock should address the people. Col. Murdock was never known before to make a speech, but he yielded gracefully to the wishes of the crowd and made quite a happy reminiscence talk that greatly pleased his hearers. It was a most interesting talk which he quoted some history of pioneer days in Wichita, and told of some incidents in the life of the city. He said that he had a hard time of it, especially those who talked earliest, on account of a stiff wind blowing against their voices and the noisy movement of the trees. Heretofore a mightier thing to have one express himself adequately in five minutes. Everything, however, went along nicely and the people were very much pleased.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN.

Mrs. E. B. Bradshaw, of Guthrie, Okla., cured of a severe case by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary medical treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Bradshaw claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine effects as well.

Her case is a testimonial letter that nothing will relieve this distressing condition so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It always works in harmony with the female system.

Mrs. Bradshaw writes: "I was a sick woman for years. Address Lynn, Mass."

The living dead."—Ezekiel 37:1-10.

"I know nothing of the civil war, save what I have heard and read, having been born on this side of that great conflict. I propose, therefore, this morning not to tell you of the circumstances of that time because you know better than I do, but to tell you of the meaning of that patriotism in America now."

"This is a vision of a dark, greswome valley filled with the strange host, an army of beached bones. As seen in Ezekiel's vision, there no eye gleam there, no heart-beat, no hand-clasp. God asked the prophet this question, 'Can these bones live?' and Ezekiel said, 'Lord, God, thou only knowest.' God answered the question himself in the affirmative. Some of our infidel friends might try to look wise and smile here, but God who puts flesh on bones once could do it a second time. Let us pray that the bones to begin with. This is but a vision; it is a prophesy of Israel and an illustration of life from the dead in Christ Jesus the Lord and principle taught in this vision of living though dead is found in more modern language. 'He being dead, yet speaketh,' and 'That which men do lives after them.'

"A man may have more life influence while living, that influence to a large degree lives on. The life of the man is indeed the sum total of his words and deeds. No one sees the life, but the results of it. This we say of this man, his life is a life of mercy and kindness; of another, his life is a life of selfishness and greed. One is a life of righteousness, the other a life of crime. It is not this is what you see, the way of the doings. 'What I have written' is my life, so far as this world and indeed the world to come is concerned. I ask this same question today that God put to Ezekiel, as we look backward through the forty years. We have lived more than a generation. As from eyes of children and grandchildren we gaze in this day fixed upon the dead in the Wilderness, Gettysburg and Chickamauga, they ask the question, Can these bones live? It is asked with reference to northern and southern armies alike. For Lee and Jackson were men of God as well as Grant and Sherman. Yes, the dead of our battlefields are very much alive today in the hearts of patriots. What is patriotism? Devotion to the welfare of one's country. The motive which prompted these men to take up arms was the purest kind of patriotism. We need that same devotion today that we are in the midst of war, but that patriotism means devotion to country in times of peace as well as war; not devotion to party only as a means to an end.

"We need patriotism today in consideration of the spirit of caste in this country. The bitter strife between labor and capital; the head in not in sympathy with the hands; it is brain versus brawn. There is a growing separation between the higher and lower classes which leads to strikes, inches to acts of violence, and riots, and fostered anarchy. How long will it take the American people to learn that the condition of the common people is the condition of the common wealth. The American people by white brought trouble. So also will ownership of poor by rich and labor by capital. Nothing but the golden rule policy will settle this question."

"Patriotism is needed today in consideration of social evils. Strong drink ruins enough victims yearly to open the continent from sea to sea, with a single row of drunken cars, while thousands are hungry for bread. What is the relationship between this government and her subjects? Is it not to be like the relationship that is that the property of the man; the well as illustration of the citizen. Is there no prayer in the home? Then there will be none in the nation. Similar to God's in the home, there will be none in the nation; no worship, no Bible, no Christ, no God in the home, then there will be none in the nation. Human law is only a mere shadow upon the law of God. Some nations not so old have learned it to their sorrow, that a Godless home means a Godless nation, and a Godless nation means ruin. That nation can only be happy and prosperous whose God is the Lord. 'Ye glorious ones' must be one, not only men, but for all practical purposes in the maintenance of the union of one government and one people there must be no north, no south, no east, no west, no labor, no capital, no high, no low, no rich, no poor, but all having a common interest in each other, and in the whole may we indeed be one in many. We cannot be one without this interest. When you see a home, the mother, 'O bless our home,' where there is no love for God in the home, it is a mockery,

IN HONOR OF DEAD

Old Soldiers Observe Memorial Sunday

TWO PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES

Rev. Lynch and Rev. Dubber Make Talks

As usual, Sunday was observed by the various G. A. R. organizations of the city and their auxiliaries as Memorial Sunday, and appropriate meetings were held with the Central Christian church in the G. A. R. Hall on North Main and at the First Methodist church. At the meeting with the Central Christian by arrangement of the city, a very patriotic address to the Eggleston street, Union Veterans' union and Ladies of the G. A. R., while at the First Methodist church, the Rev. J. W. Lynch, pastor of the Woman's Relief Corps were addressed by Rev. Lynch. The services were even more interesting than usual and the attendance was large at both churches.

Eloquent addresses were given by Rev. Lynch and Rev. Dubber, assisted by the Central Christian church in their temporary hall, 24 North Main street. One hundred were in parade and the hall and ante-rooms were packed to their capacity. The choir rendered beautiful selections appropriate to the occasion in a way to inspire the hearts of all with love of country and devotion to God.

Mrs. Earl Blake delivered a solo, accompanied by Miss Fieda Schollenberger, in a charming voice and style so pleasing that the old veterans could hardly resist. After the eloquent sermon and just before the congregation was dismissed Captain Burgess, in behalf of the veterans and auxiliaries, formally thanked the Rev. J. W. Lynch for his one minute as a tribute of thanks to the church and to Rev. Dubber for the beautiful service and the eloquent, masterly address. Following is a synopsis of the practical leading divisions of the sermon:

A CLEANLY AGE

Twentieth Century Ideas Incline Toward Sanitation and Preventives

Nowadays scientists believe that in cleanliness lies the secret of prevention of disease.

To prevent a disease, remove the cause. Just as unclean habits breed many diseases, so careless habits will breed dandruff. Improper use of another's brushes, combs, etc., will surely cause dandruff. In time, will just as surely cause baldness.

It's a microbe infection, nothing more nor less.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, and Herpicide is absolutely free from grease or other injurious substances. Sold by leading druggists. Send 25c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Moore Drug Co., special agents.

VISIT POOR FARM.

Commissioners Pleased With Its Appearance

The county commissioners paid a visit to the poor farm yesterday and state that they are well pleased with the general appearance of the farm. The work of putting in the crops is in progress and the farm is in a fine condition. The county farm now has seventy-nine inmates.

NOTE.

Members of the National Home Building Co. who reside in Oklahoma are not to send any more dues to Wichita, as the home office will be moved to Guthrie, O. T., since the courts of Kansas refuse to issue a charter.

This matter was brought on account of prejudice, and these parties admit that the company is solvent and has ample assets to meet their liabilities. The only charge made against the company is that we are a foreign corporation and an Oklahoma concern.

GOOD BLOOD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

You know when rich, red blood is coursing through the veins, it shows in the brightness of the eye, the beauty and clearness of the complexion, the smooth, fair skin, and robust, healthy constitution. It is good blood that imparts strength and energy to the body and keeps it in a state of healthfulness and vigor. Good blood is the foundation of good health, and to be physically and mentally sound it must be kept pure and untainted. People with good blood possess strong, steady nerves and are blest with good appetites and digestion, and enjoy sound, refreshing sleep. If we could always maintain the purity of the blood then we might enjoy perpetual health, but it becomes infected and poisoned and most of the ills that afflict humanity are caused by an impoverished or polluted condition of this vital fluid.

When the blood is diseased the skin loses its healthy appearance, and the complexion, its freshness and beauty and becomes red and rough and full of pimples and blotches. Itching, scaly eruptions, blackheads, boils and rashes break out upon the body when the blood is too poor or too thin and acid, and is not supplying proper nourishment to the system. Debility, poor appetite, bad digestion, restless sleep and nervousness more often come from sluggish, impure blood than any other cause. To build up the blood, restore its lost properties and make it rich and nutritious again is the only rational treatment, and the proper way to get rid of skin troubles. There is no remedy like S. S. S. to accomplish this and it does it promptly and thoroughly. S. S. S. antitoxin and removes from the blood all poisons and humors, and restores it to a normal, healthy condition, and invigorates and tones up the general health. When rich, red blood is again flowing through your veins all skin eruptions disappear, the appetite improves, the complexion clears and you get rid of those miserable depressing feelings and nervousness, and enjoy once more the blessings of good health. S. S. S. is nature's remedy for all blood and skin diseases. It contains no minerals whatever, but is guaranteed purely vegetable. Write for free book. No charge for medical advice or other information desired.

and when our money has upon it, 'In God we trust' and is received in payment for crime, the inscription is a face, and when we are warring over these questions of money and wages with our motto, 'one in many' on every coin, it is a misnomer. Like the man who said when he was married, the minister told them that they should be one, and he said, 'if you go to our home sometimes you would think there were a dozen of us.' Patriotism is needed now if ever it was. Peace and the union cost too much for us to be thus swollen and contenting again. You who fought in the civil war were brothers. You a mother had sons fighting in both armies. Such mothers have sat between two graves, one blue and the other gray, boys from the same cradle, from the same mother's arms, from the same home. Let both graves blossom under your hands and the hands of your children. Let a common flag, blood-bought, spread her strong arms over all the states, homes and hearts alike and let only one flag be raised above the stars and stripes, and that one the star of Bethlehem and the stripes by which we are bound, then can we truly sing, 'Our Father's God to Thee, Author of Liberty, to Thee We Sing. Long may our land be bright, with freedom's stars and stripes, protect us by Thy might, Great God our King.' 'By the bow of the island river, Where the flocks of iron have grazed, Awake are the ranks of the dead, Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the judgment day.' (Continued on Eighth Page.)

MANY ATTENDED FUNERAL.

Old Soldiers Tenderly Laid to Rest

Remains of Richard W. King.

The funeral services over the remains of Comrade Richard W. King, who died Saturday morning at his home, 132 Boston avenue, were conducted by Rev. N. E. Harmon, chaplain of Garfield Post, No. 25, at the United Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The little church was crowded, the services were sympathizing friends and neighbors and many of his comrades of the two posts and of the U. V. U., to which he belonged. The beautiful burial service at the cemetery by the U. V. U. was held and the shooting squad fired volleys over the grave. At the church, Mrs. Mason spoke beautiful and emotional words to the dead, and laid a silk flag across his breast. Rev. Harmon spoke of Mr. King as being a soldier among many. He related one of the first and as a soldier was always on duty. As a citizen he was a good man. At home, in his family, he was an exceptionally good father and husband, and will be greatly missed by them. He was an old settler in this city and at one time owned a beautiful home on East Gilbert street. He had reached the age of 72 years and had been a sufferer ever since he came out of the war. He had stomach and bowel trouble, as well as trouble with the heart, which was the cause of death. The remains were laid to rest in the old soldiers' circle in beautiful Maple Grove cemetery, the pall-bearers being chosen from the G. A. R. and three from the U. V. U. His family has the sympathy of all in their bereavement, and especially the G. A. R., W. R. C., U. V. U., and U. V. U. His old comrades and auxiliaries, who deeply mourn his loss.

LITTLE CHILD DEAD.

Mother Was Formerly Miss Tarlton of Wichita.

Word was received in the city yesterday that the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bruce, who now live at Houston, Tex., was dead. Mrs. Bruce was formerly Miss Tarlton of this city and has many friends here who sympathize with her in her sorrow.

CHARM AGAINST ASTHMA.

Breathe Balsamic Air of Hyomel—Quick Relief for That Choking.

Hyomel is just as valuable in the treatment of asthma as it is in catarrhal troubles, and many letters have been received from prominent men and women who have been cured of asthma by this simple treatment.

Rev. George H. Honey of Deer Park, Pa., writes: "The Hyomel cure is a most remarkable thing, that I think is a most remarkable thing, that once using Hyomel should remove the trouble entirely."

There is no disagreeable straining inhalation with Hyomel as with ordinary asthma cures. Its aromatic, fragrant medication is breathed through an inhaler, both as a preventive of asthma and a cure for acute attacks. It gives immediate relief and prevents a recurrence of the disease.

Asthma appears in so many different forms that there are probably some cases Hyomel will not cure; in these your druggist will refund the money, as the promoters of this treatment write that they do not want to take anybody's money, unless perfectly satisfied with the good done by Hyomel.

BIG TRIANGULAR FIELD MEET.

Cooper and Fairmount Colleges and Friends University Teams.

If the weather man keeps his word, Wichita's fans will be treated to the leading event in sporting circles of the season—the big triangular track and field meet between Friends University, Fairmount and Cooper colleges, on Fairmount field, will be held today. Each school claims the fastest track team in northwestern Kansas, and expects to win the handsome pennant offered by A. D. Spalding & Co.'s branch house in Kansas City.

The Fairmounters think they have the dasher won already, while Manager Fred Hoyt of the Quaker team says he is sure of the purses, high jump and pole vault. Cooper will take the long runs if Clark Turner is in any kind of condition, and will also have a good chance to win the weights, as Clancy, Fairmount's hammer thrower, is laid up with a bad leg from yesterday's ball game. With a good track and favorable weather, Turner should be able to break the state record for the mile run. The 100-yard dash will go in about 19-1/2 seconds, and Stahl promises to do the 44-yard dash in 38 flat.
