

WILL ATTEMPT TO LOWER 2 RECORDS

Former Trotting Champion Cresceus to Go Against Time.

RACES SAT. AFTERNOON

Misty Dawn Winner of Thirteen Purse Is Entered.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the fair grounds race track.

Cresceus, the mighty trotter, will go against the world's record for a mile of 2:00 flat, recently made by Lou Dillon and Major Delmar with wind breaks.

Between the two attempts of Cresceus to lower the world's trotting records for a mile and two miles, the much talked question as to whether or not wind breaks are the means of faster time being made will be demonstrated with two automobiles.

Following the exhibitions by Cresceus and the automobiles will be the 2:20 trot. In that race will be seen Misty Dawn, entered by D. Tinker, that was raised at the Abell stock farm.

There will be excellent street car service during the races and the admission at the gate will be 25 cents.

OPENING NIGHT OF COURSE.

Dr. Thomas Green Promises All Expectations of Him.

The opening number on the Carter Star Lecture course was given Wednesday night in Garfield hall, when Dr. Thomas E. Green delivered his famous lecture, entitled "The Key to the Twentieth Century."

Dr. Green is an orator of high rank and the sobriquet, "The Webster of the West," which has been given him, is well earned and richly deserved.

Mrs. L. S. Carter, of whose maturing effort and constant adherence to high ideals, the people of Wichita are indebted for the rare treat to be inaugurated upon the auspicious opening of this course, and the next number should find Garfield hall filled to its utmost capacity.

HERBERT SMITH'S SUCCESS.

Goos to Fill Responsible Position in Texas.

This morning at 6:45 o'clock Herbert Smith leaves for Cleburne, Tex., to take a position as stenographer in the Santa Fe railroad office. He begins work on 29 a month.

To say this is excellent for a young man to start on is not necessary. All young men know it and the older ones realize it every day.

GEO. RANDALL SELLS OUT.

J. E. and C. R. Howard Now Own Union Mill.

There was a change in the firm operating the Union Mills in this city yesterday. George M. Randall, who owned 25 per cent of the stock sold his interest to J. E. Howard and son, who now own the entire plant.

Mr. Randall said last night that the Union Mills had been a very profitable investment for him. He had done a good business but J. E. and C. R. Howard wanted it all and he had sold to them. When asked what he would do now, Mr. Randall said he had no idea of leaving Wichita and he would have a few days to look around for another business.

REAL NOURISHMENT FOR ALL.

Mi-o-na Makes Thin People Fat—Gehring Will Return Money If It Fails.

Every one needs real nourishment; then comes good health, strength and endurance. Without it, you waste away.

A few days' use of Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food, will demonstrate its power to furnish real nourishment and restore health. Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system into proper physical condition.

By its use, the elements needed to increase flesh are assimilated from the daily food and each week will show a noticeable gain in weight.

WILL GIVE GUARANTEE BOND.

G. Gehring Gives Signed Agreement That Mi-o-na Costs Nothing Unless It Cures.

Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food and cure for dyspepsia, has won immense popularity by the unusual way in which it is sold.

With every box of Mi-o-na, G. Gehring gives the following signed guarantee bond, assuring the purchaser that Mi-o-na costs absolutely nothing unless it increases flesh, cures all stomach troubles and restores health.

GUARANTEE BOND.

I hereby agree to refund the price paid for Mi-o-na if the purchaser feels that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles.

This guarantee bond is plain and simple and it positively assures you that when you commence the Mi-o-na treatment you run absolutely no risk. You simply deposit 50c for a box of this flesh-forming food with G. Gehring, and after using it you do not feel that you have been benefited, you go back to his store and he will return your money without any question or argument.

It is a true flesh-forming food combined with elements that regulate the digestive organs and remove congestion and irritation from the stomach, liver and intestines. Mi-o-na will restore firm, healthy flesh, fill in the outlines and give a pleasing plumpness and symmetry.

Begin its use today with G. Gehring's guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not do all that is claimed for it.

THE MI-O-NA TREATMENT.

Flesh-Forming Food in Tablet Form That Increases Flesh—Guaranteed by G. Gehring.

The discovery of Mi-o-na, the remarkable flesh-forming food that builds up good, healthy, solid flesh and makes thin and scrawny a thing of the past, has revolutionized medical practice in certain lines.

Its power to do all that is claimed for it was so clearly proven to G. Gehring that he has sold Mi-o-na with the understanding that if it fails the purchase price will be refunded.

It is a fact that there is not nearly as many thin and scrawny people on the streets of Wichita today as there were a year ago. This is undoubtedly due to the general use of Mi-o-na, the flesh-forming food that G. Gehring has been selling in large quantities the last year. G. Gehring has so much confidence in Mi-o-na that he offers to pay for the treatment himself if it does not give satisfaction.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

G. Gehring, the popular druggist, reports that he has had a large sale of Mi-o-na in the sales on the flesh-forming Mi-o-na and that his customers tell him that it does all that is claimed for it.

MAGNIFICENT STONE BRIDGE OVER RIVER

Commissioner Redfield Gives Facts for Consideration.

"COUNTY SHOULD DO IT"

City Has Outgrown the Douglas Avenue Bridge.

County Commissioner J. C. Redfield said yesterday that the heavy traffic over the Douglas avenue bridge keeps wearing out the floor, and that the bridge is fast becoming worthless.

The chairman of the county board is noted for his effort at economy and saving the funds of the people, and when he begins to talk about a new bridge, other people will conclude that it is time to build it.

He says that every year a bridge tax is levied by the county commissioners and the money is used to build bridges over the county.

He is not only opposed to turning it over to the city, but is in favor of the county building a good bridge with stone piers and arches and then having the bridge paved with asphalt so that it will correspond with the paved street.

Mr. Redfield says that the Toppala bridge is constructed with steel and the frame filled in with cement so that the bridge has the appearance of having been built entirely of cement.

He thinks that the city might have the city engineer make estimates of the cost of a stone bridge and then they could go before the next legislature and get a law passed to allow the county commissioners to create a fund for building the bridge.

He says the people are up against this proposition, and that they might as well now begin to figure how they are going to get the bridge. He is satisfied that the farmers would object to the county building the bridge, because a large number of them on the west side of the river are interested in having a good bridge over the Big River.

He thinks that Wichita and the west side of the county have both out-grown the present Douglas avenue bridge, and that a stone bridge, with paved floor to correspond with the paved street would make a vast difference in the appearance of the city. The present bridge in the very business center of the city, he says, is behind the times, and ought to be replaced with a new stone structure that would be a credit to the city and the county.

He believes a proposition of that kind submitted to a vote of the people of the county would be carried by a large majority.

ATTEMPT AT DERAILMENT.

Timber Across Street Car Track Is Seen Just in Time.

It was reported yesterday that Wednesday night an attempt was made to derail the car on the new crossing on Douglas street at the corner of South Emporia avenue between 3 and 10 o'clock. The report was that the motor-man and one passenger, a boy, reached the middle of the block north of Lincoln street, when the former discovered a timber across the track ahead. Throwing on the brakes, he managed to stop the car just as the front wheels touched the timber, a considerably good-sized piece of lumber. The motor-man got out, loaded on the timber and proceeded south. It is thought that robbers meant business but failing in creating a commotion to cover their movements, gave up trying to do anything. The report of this attempted derailment was received too late for confirmation at the street car office.

MELBA WILL COME.

Col. Toler Secured Noted Operatic Singer for Auditorium.

The following telegram was received by the Eagle last night from Colonel H. G. Toler, who left yesterday afternoon for Kansas City on business connected with the securing of more attractions for his play-house during the present season: "Wichita Eagle, Wichita, Kan.:

"Just closed a contract with Manager Kronberg for appearance of Miss Melba and company at Wichita, November 12. "H. G. TOLER."

The colonel left Wichita yesterday strictly for the purpose of securing some high grade attractions for this season. In securing Miss Melba almost upon his immediate arrival at Kansas City, he no doubt considers his trip a success. Even should he not secure another attraction during the trip, the only appearance of Miss Melba west of Kansas City will be at Wichita on the date named in the telegram by Colonel Toler.

REQUEST REFUSED

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS WILL NOT RESTRAIN RAILROADS.

Answer to Wichita Wholesalers in Rate Matter.

The state board of railway commissioners has refused the request of the wholesale companies of Wichita, Hutchinson, Salina and Arkansas City for an order restraining the commodity rates to those existing before the Texas case. This is done on the ground that the action could only be construed as an attempt on the part of the board to make the rates permanent, and such a proceeding it believes is beyond its power.

A. E. Helm of this city, attorney for the wholesalers, in writing the board requested that the case, which was brought against the railroads by the wholesalers to prevent the annulling of the commodity rates, be set for hearing at the same time as the Wichita coal rate case, despite the fact that the railroads have announced the abandonment of the proposed change. He said that the wholesalers companies were anxious to have the jobbers' rates, granted by the previous board, reaffirmed by the present board.

In its reply refusing to hear the case or to reaffirm the rates, the board said: "It would seem that the rates now in force should be satisfactory to your people as the railroads have filed answers disclaiming any intention of raising or changing the rates. In any event, it appears to the board that it would not be justified in making a ruling in the nature of a restraining order prohibiting the raising or changing of such rates, when the railroads deny any intention of taking such a course. The effect of your request if granted would be to make the rates permanent, and the board believes it is beyond its power to make such an order."

The suit, which was brought by the city of Wichita against the railroads, attacked not only a proposed advance coal rate, but the present rates as well, has not yet been set for a hearing. Mr. Helm, who is also attorney in this case, has requested that the case be heard in Wichita about October 29 and this may be done.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

At the Crawford.

"Her Only Son" was presented at the Crawford last night to a full house. The piece is one of Lincoln J. Carter's and is quite the best of his plays that has been produced here. The company presenting the play is a good one, being unusually well balanced.

Miss Julia Gray is splendidly cast and has a sympathetic part which she executes in a most pleasing manner. Miss Gray is exceptionally well as being endowed by nature with a beautiful face and figure.

The central figure of the story is that of Della Merton, a rising young actress. Joseph Morley, the younger son of a wealthy and after the first glimmer of the honeymoon has worn off, he plunges into deeper dissipation than ever. The action of the play opens some five or six years after the preceding events narrated. The Morleys, with their only child, a son, are living in a London tenement, supported by the talents of the wife alone. The husband is on the verge of a physical and mental breakdown, caused by his irregular habits. His older brother, William Morley, a prosperous merchant who is without an heir, visits him and persuades him to sign a testamentary document designating himself, the uncle, as the guardian of the boy, in case the father should die. Soon after this, Joseph Morley, the father, dies in a fit of delirium, brought on by his excessive drinking, the brother then comes forward to claim the son as his heir and ward. And here a curious situation arises. By English law, the power of a legitimate child was vested entirely in the father, and by his last will and testament was rightly continued in the person of his brother. Were the child illegitimate, the mother alone would be the sole guardian. When his uncle comes to seize the boy, after his father's death, the mother is apprised of this strange point of law. All her maternal instincts of love and protection are aroused, and she resolves, even at the expense of losing her good name, to keep her child to herself—the only being that is left to her on earth to love. The church, in which her marriage was recorded has been destroyed by fire—its records with it. She hesitates but one moment, places her marriage certificate in the glowing embers of the grate, and then turns and embraces her child—her boy, but without a name. It is a frightful cost to thus vindicate her motherhood—but what mother does not applaud her sacrifice? The complications that arise afterward from this, form the basis on which the rest of the play is built. The plot is interpreted by carefully selected cast, and is mounted with a view to artistic effect, bordering on the elaborate.

KINGFISHER NOT COMING.

Fairmount Will Play Football With Salina Saturday.

Contrary to the schedule as announced the Kingfisher football team will not appear on the Fairmount field Saturday, but the Fairmount management has made arrangements with the Wesleyan University of Salina to play on the home grounds Saturday at 2:30. The game is called early to allow the Wesleyans to catch the train home.

The Wesleyan team is a strong one, meeting the leading teams in northern Kansas this season, but the Fairmounters are hopeful of victory. The Fairmount team is showing up well in practice this season. Several players have been added to the list that are expected to work havoc with the Wesleyan ends. Rates is still out of the game, with a lame shoulder, but Brown is showing up well at full. The boys from the hill have scored 60 points to their opponents' 12 already this year and expect a large total on their side of the score sheet.

SOCIAL UNION MEETS TODAY.

Missionary Organization Opens at 5. E. Church at 2:30 p. m.

Today at 2:30 p. m. will open the first annual session of the new organization of the women of the evangelical churches, called the Missionary Social Union.

The program is the most complete missionary program ever made in this city. Earnest women from each denomination will take part. It will be a treat for all who will attend this meeting.

The basket lunch from 6 to 7 will be provided by each lady in attendance, for herself, her family and invited friends. This lunch will make it possible for all ladies who are in attendance at the afternoon session of the meeting to remain through the evening session without going home. All are invited to each session. The evening meeting is wonderfully complete in music. This is in the care of the choir, who has selected and rehearsed voices from the many church choirs and has trained a team for choral work for the evening.

Dr. Unvers of New York, one of the most noted Baptist missionary speakers, will give the address of the evening, an address replete with thoughts worthy of careful hearing and heeding.

G. E. Goodrich left over the Rock Island yesterday for Wakarusa, O. T. for ten days or two weeks. He will enter the Wichita business college on his return.

MEET AT WICHITA OCT. 19, 20 AND 21

Fire Insurance Agents Will Gather Here Next Week.

FOR THE FIRST TIME

Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma Will Be Represented.

All danger of fire for the owners of Wichita property should be eliminated next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 19, 20 and 21, at which time a meeting of the Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas Fire Underwriters association will be held in Wichita for the first time.

Fire will scarcely have the audacity to make its appearance during the three days' stay of the insurance men, if it does. "Oh, well," say the underwriters, "what's the difference, the adjuster will be prominent among the visitors and he will pay the bill."

Between 100 and 200 special agents and adjusters for the various companies writing insurance in Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas compose the membership of the Fire Underwriters' association.

The principal cities from which there will be representatives here next week are, Galveston, Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Topeka, and Kansas City. The meetings of the insurance men will be held at the Elk club rooms. The following is the program for the three days:

Monday—The morning will be spent in meeting friends and introducing the members of the association to those with whom they are not acquainted. In the afternoon and at night regular business of the association will be taken up in the rooms set aside for the meeting.

Tuesday—Morning session at the Elk club. An automobile ride over the city will be given the visitors in the afternoon in charge of the local agents, Charles Bittling, Charles Van Arsdale and George McTaggart will have charge of that part of the entertainment. In the evening a smoker will be given for the insurance men in the Elk's rooms. The following persons compose the committee in charge: J. E. Elmer, Reese, Harry Osborne and Howard Wheeler.

Wednesday—There will be a regular session of the association in the morning and afternoon. At night the members will make arrangements to depart for their homes.

This convention will be the first of its kind ever held in the city of Wichita. Last year it was held at Kansas City and the year before at Dallas, Texas. The securing of the convention for Wichita was brought about by Sam Woodard, Harry Osborne and Homer Caldwell, who after a hard fight. Many other members worked hard to secure the meeting for their city. Messrs. Woodard, Osborne and Caldwell are members of the association and live in Wichita.

Naturally last night's play, adapted from Dumas' thrilling romance, was a most successful play, tragic situations and gallant conduct. The scene in the cell of the Bastille, portraying the agony of the Man in the Iron Mask was extremely intense.

Duty as Gaston or Iron Mask carried his part well and showed himself an actor of rare ability. Miss May as Mme. Aubrey was tremendous and wonderfully clever. The remainder of the support was adequate—Bloss City Journal, Monday City, Ia. At the Crawford Saturday, October 17.

Two of the most popular song writers of the day are Ben M. Jerome and Harry Von Tilzer.
