CANAL MEETS FAVOR
 Quarter of a Million Majority for Progress.

TO WIDEN THE ERIE
 State Will Issue Bonds $10,000,000 at a Time.

New York, Nov. 4.—New York state yesterday gave a majority of nearly 250,000 in favor of the proposition that the state shall spend $10,000,000 for improving its canals.
 The plan is to widen and deepen the Erie canal so that it will accommodate 1,000 tons carrying capacity and to improve the Oswego and Champlain canals.
 Under the law the state will be allowed to issue not more than $10,000,000 of canal bonds at any time, and the issue must cover the work for two years. The bonds are to run for not more than 15 years.
 The advocates of the proposition declare that canal improvements necessary for the rehabilitation of the commercial supremacy of the state. Unless the state canals are widened and deepened, they asserted it would be but a short time before the railroads would be able to make such transportation rates as they might see fit and that New York City would be discriminated against.

POLITICS IN HUNGARY.
 Turbulent Scenes Mark the Proceedings at Buda Pest.

Buda Pest, Hungary, Nov. 4.—Count Stephen Tisza's first appearance in the assembly of premier before the lower house of the Hungarian diet showed that the opposition is determined to maintain its obstructive tactics. The new ministers waited two hours while opposition members made speeches on the subject of Count Apponyi's resignation of the presidency of the house. Finally, Count Tisza, at the head of the cabinet, entered the house and demanded that the emperor's letter appointing him premier should be read, so that he could proceed with business. This was the signal for turbulent scenes. Amidst the uproar the clerk of the house read the emperor's letter, but he was quite inaudible. Count Tisza attempted to address the house, but in the general tumult he could not be heard and the sitting was suspended.

SERIES OF SHOCKS.
 Earthquake Was Perceptible All Over the City.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—This city and vicinity experienced a decided earthquake shock, or series of shocks, at 12:20 o'clock this morning. There is a difference of opinion as to how many. The earthquake was perceptible all over the city and was mostly felt in the high business blocks in the downtown section of the city. One occupant of a high building said his chandelier swung three inches. The movement was from east to west. A long distance telephone message from Louisiana, Mo., says that a perceptible shock was felt there about the same time.
 About one hour later another shock is reported to have been felt. It was less severe than the first.

LOOKS LIKE A STRIKE.
 Kansas City Packing Houses May Have a Contest.

Kansas City, Nov. 4.—In all probability a general strike of the union employees of the local packing houses will be issued within the next 24 hours as an outcome of the sausage makers' strike at Chicago.
 Officers in this city of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers' union today received word to prepare for the reception of a strike order. Should such an order be issued it would, it is estimated, affect 1,200 men and 800 women in the different plants in Kansas City.

THEY CHARGE FRAUD.
 Home Rulers in Honolulu Are Displeased.

Honolulu, Nov. 4.—The home rulers on the island of Oahu are making charges of fraud in connection with the count. It is estimated that ballots of over 500 Hawaiians were rejected by the judges of election. It is claimed by the home rulers that the result of the election would have been a clean sweep for their party if all the ballots cast had been counted.

SIX BENCH WARRANTS.
 Supreme Court of District of Columbia Wants Beavers.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The supreme court of the District of Columbia has issued six "alias" bench warrants for the arrest of George W. Beavers, formerly chief of the salary and allowance division of the postoffice department. The action is based on indictments recently returned against Beavers.

ABOUT DR. MOMMSEN.
 Had He Lived a Month Longer He Would Have Been 86.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—Concerning Dr. Theodor Mommson whose death was announced yesterday, a biographer says:
 "Had he lived until the last day of November, Dr. Mommson would have been 86 years old. Prof. Mommson took his degree as doctor of laws at Kiel 29 years ago. His first work was published in 1842, and was entitled 'Ad Legem de Scribis et Notariis et de Authenticis Communitationibus.' In 1843 he wrote another work, 'A Book of the Songs of Three Friends.' This he wrote in collaboration with his brother Tycho, who later became director of the Frankfurt college,

EDUCATIONAL POINTS
 Number of Pupils Enrolled Reaches 16,000,000.

THAT IS TWENTY PER CENT
 Value of Property Amounts to Many Millions.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The report of the commissioner of education says the number of pupils enrolled in the public schools is 15,925,887, or over 20 per cent of the entire population. The average daily attendance for 1902 was 10,991,373, being 69 per cent of the total number enrolled. This is the largest number ever reported in the United States. The school term for the first time in the history of the United States—reached 145 days. The average monthly wages of teachers for 1902 was $49 for males and about $40 for females. Less than 25 per cent of the teachers were males, or 122,292 out of a total of 433,586.
 The total enrollment for the year, including public and private, elementary, secondary and higher education was 17,900,000 pupils, and to this there should be an addition, made up of foreign schools, state schools for defectives, orphans, etc., 620,540, making a grand total of 18,520,540 in general and special schools.
 The value of the school property of high schools of the United States amounts to $125,000,000, and that of private schools to $60,000,000. About one-half of the private schools are controlled by religious denominations.
 The total number of universities, colleges and technological schools is 621, of which 321 admit women. Only 134 universities and colleges admit men to the undergraduate degree and 239 admit both men and women. Of the 43 schools of technology, 27 institutions report women among their undergraduates.

MRS. GOELET'S GOWN.
 Sentiment as Well as Money Used in Its Selection.

New York, Nov. 4.—Sentiment as well as money has selected the gown which Miss May Goelet will wear on the occasion of her marriage to the Duke of Roxburgh at St. Thomas' church, on November 10. While the shops of Europe have been searched for the most beautiful lace the country roads of England with their hawthorn hedges have given the suggestion for the trimmings. The tiny white blossoms that bear her name—the Mayflower of the duke's home—is introduced by soft folds of the bridal dress which the future duchess will wear. It is one of the most exquisite creations of the kind ever imported to this country.
 Made by Worth, its value is a king's ransom. It is made entirely of English point lace, as old almost as some of the jewels which will be Miss Goelet's marriage portion from the gem casket of the Roxburghs. The dress, which has an immensely long train, is made of a foundation of white satin so rich and thick that it can almost stand alone.
 The satin has been covered with white tulle, and the skirt and bodice also, and this in a measure softens the brilliancy of the lace. The bodice has a yoke outlined by a deep frill of lace, which circles the shoulders in bertha-like effect.
 The yoke is not transparent, in fact, while the dress was made by the King of French dressmakers, it is typically English in this respect. The front of the skirt is trimmed with the tiny rose-like mayflowers suggested by Miss Goelet's name, and here an other under the court frill of lace which falls from the shoulders, may be seen those little rose-shaped hawthorn blossoms.
 Miss Goelet has chosen to wear a simple tulle veil, which will be fastened by orange blossoms. According to her present plans, as she walks to the altar with her brother, Robert Goelet, who will give her away, part of this veil will cover her face. She will probably dispense with the usual bridal bouquet, as she shares the opinion of those who have seen her gown that it is really too beautiful to have the front of it in a measure concealed by flowers.
 The bride's mother, Mrs. Ogden Goelet, who is still in mourning for her brother-in-law, the late Sir Michael Herbert, will be in massive pume velvet, and will wear a toque to match. About twenty additional men-servants were engaged today at the Goelet residence, and were sent to the tailoring establishment to be ready for the Goelet party. They will stand about the hair side wall flowers, and detectives will be sprinkled among them to safeguard the bridal party and guests.
 The ceremony, as already announced, will be performed by Bishop Potter, who will probably be assisted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Storr. The Duke and Duchess of Roxburgh will have several English friends and relatives among the ushers, including probably his cousin, Hon. Henry Gust and Hon. Lionel Gust, sons of Lord Wimborne, whose sister, Lady Rodney, will be among the guests, and Hon. Reginald Ward, brother of Lord Dudley.
 Only a small portion of Miss Goelet's trousseau has been brought over to this country, as she and the duke have arranged to return to England almost immediately after their wedding. While not half of her finery is here, it has taken nearly twenty trunks to hold what has been brought over.

INDIAN AGENT BRENNAN WIRES WAR DEPARTMENT.
 Washington, Nov. 4.—The commissioner of Indian Affairs today received the following telegram from Indian Agent Brennan, who is at New Castle, Wyo.
 "Report of India trouble here exaggerated. From best information at hand, 35 miles north of Lusk a fight occurred between officers and some twenty Indians, some of them from Pine Ridge. Seven Indians, including one squaw killed, also Sheriff and one deputy. About ten Indian families under arrest here, will start here for agency tomorrow. In my opinion a mistake was made in precipitating the fight. Would recommend that United States attorney of this district be directed to act on behalf of department, make a thorough investigation. Am assured by officers of this county that no further trouble will occur."
 The Indian office sympathizes with the view that the whites were the aggressors, and will recommend to Secretary Hitchcock that he ask the attorney general to have the affair investigated as recommended by Mr. Brennan.

WHAT CONSUL SAYS.
 Colombian Officer at New York Talks Briefly.

New York, Nov. 4.—Arturo De Brigard, Colombian consul general in this city, said today:
 "The revolution at Panama had been foreseen for some time. It was brought on undeniably by the failure of the Colombian congress to ratify the canal treaty. The department of Panama is naturally much interested in having the canal dug. It means prosperity for a province which is now not only impoverished, but not even self-supporting. What Panama, left to itself, will do for funds is a question. Every two weeks the federal government at Bogota has had to send money to Panama in order to defray the expenses of the local administration. With this source of supply cut off, famine looms up as inevitable.
 "Aside from the loss in men, a civil war at this time would completely demoralize the country. And yet, I don't see how the Bogota government can avoid it. It certainly will not concede autonomy to Panama. The only way in which the British government, by the entering of negotiations of the government of Colombia with the government of the United States for a new canal treaty."

HE SUGGESTS INSURANCE.
 Edward Atkinson Has a Plan to Cure Strikes.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—Edward Atkinson as a witness before the special legislative commission on capital and labor today advocated mutual insurance against strikes as the surest panacea for labor troubles. He outlined a policy of organizing the manufacturers into a mutual insurance company to which workmen who are not members of trade unions be admitted and insured against loss of pay in time of strikes. The cost to the manufacturer, he said, would not be more than one-half of one per cent of his capital and to the workmen not more than 2c a year.
