In the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, the marriage of Miss Ethel Angus and Mr. John Howard Ellis was solemnized on Saturday evening at half-past eight o'clock, Central Union church, where the wedding took place, was prettily decorated with green and white flowers. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe meteor and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and white gardenias. The maid of honor, Miss Jean Angus, wore a gown of blue satin veiled with chiffon, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maidenhair fern.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on Emma street.

Reception at Salvation Army Home.

Staff Captain McAbee and Adjutant Long, who are leaving Honolulu next week, and Colonel Blanch Cox and Adjutant Duncan, who arrived here recently, were the guests of honor at a reception at the Salvation Army Home on Monday afternoon. The affair was planned by Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. Walter Dillingham and Mrs. Richard Ivers, who wished to give all of the ladies in Honolulu the opportunity to bid farewell to Captain McAbee and Adjutant Long, who have been in the islands for so many years and who have accomplished so much during their stay here. These two ladies opened the first Salvation Army rescue home in Honolulu, and since the building of the home in Manoa have continued their work in that district.

During the afternoon a delightful musical program was rendered by the little children who live at the home, who greatly regret that the loved captain is to leave them.

The party motored from Hilo to the abode of Madam Pele, where the little girls who have sung their way into the hearts of the theater-going folk of three islands were introduced to their majestic hostess, allowing to scorch postals over the smoking lava cracks and treated to an exhibition of fireworks the memory of which will long remain undimmed for them.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Bertha Young for a dance to be given on the nineteenth of July for Mr. Alexander Anderson.

On the arrival of the Tenyo Maru from Honolulu last Tuesday the engagement of Miss Gessie V. Bulkeley and Bayard Hyde-Smith of this city was announced. The announcement rather leaked out than was made, as both the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. W. A. Gill, with whom she was traveling, refused to limit the name of the betrothed until one of the passengers, who had discovered the secret while still in Honolulu, disclosed it. Mrs. William Andrew Gill, wife of Captain Gill, commander of the United States cruiser Colorado, and her daughter left for Honolulu last November. Shortly after their arrival in the island Miss Bulkeley met her fiancé at a reception and since then the romance has flourished, with the result of their engagement in the last month. The bride to be is a belle in the navy set of Washington, D. C., where the announcement of her betrothal will be made next week. Mrs. Gill and Miss Enkley left Wednesday for the East, where they will be joined shortly by Captain Gill.

Bayard Hyde-Smith is the son of Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith of this city. He is a brother of Mrs. Baldwin Wood, formerly Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith, and of Mrs. Harold Dillingham, formerly Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, who since her marriage has resided in Honolulu. His aunts are Mrs. Alexander Garceau, Mrs. Camilo Martin and Miss Mamie Hyde.

The groom-elect formerly was in business in this city, but for the last two years he has lived in Honolulu, where he was joined recently by his mother.

As yet there are no plans in regard to the marriage, but it will probably be a social event of the late autumn. The future home of the couple will be in Honolulu, where the Hyde-Smiths own a large plantation.—Exchange.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN

Shorn of her Crown of Beauty, Loses in Love and Marriage

Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald-headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disfigurement?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her crowning glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness, and success. Yet right here in Honolulu there are thousands of women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess which destroys the natural oil of the hair causing it to split, break, and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soap or preparations which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair loosens, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost any woman may rid herself of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if she will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will cure dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. We will return your money if you do not find that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is an entirely satisfactory remedy that will promote hair growth and overcome scalp and hair troubles; that it will grow hair even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grew hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial, and practical test.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd. Fort and Hotel Sts.

NOTED WOMAN WILL SPEAK AT CENTRAL UNION

Mrs. Hannah T. Jenkins, superior of the school of art and design at Pomona College, California, will lecture at Central Union Church next Sunday evening on "Women to the Front".

Mrs. Jenkins, who is on her way around the world, arrived here last week on the Mongolia and has been making sketches of the tropical scenery of Honolulu and vicinity.

Pomona College, where Mrs. Jenkins has served for seven years, is one of the schools of the Congregational Church and Mrs. Jenkins will include many of the Congregational missionary stations in her trip East.

MANOA RESIDENTS PLAN TO INCORPORATE

At a meeting of Manoa Improvement Club on Monday evening at the home of its president, F. L. Waldron, a scheme was broached to have the section incorporated as a separate municipality. The example of Piedmont, a suburb of Oakland, Cal., is cited by the promoters of the scheme. A committee was appointed to consider the matter and report.

The club is taking up the development of the park space reserved by the trustees of Oahu College when the College Hills tract was plotted.

A request will be made to the Supervisors to open the approach to the College of Hawaii before the beginning of the next term in September.

Tree-planting along the streets is also being actively prosecuted by the club members.

J. W. Gilmore, A. J. Gignoux, Robert Pratt, Victor Hurd and E. M. Ehrhorn were appointed a committee to confer with the authorities relative to the water-supply shortage.

JORDAN'S

THE GREAT RAYMOND WILL SHOW AUDIENCES MYSTERIOUS TRICK OF GROWING ROSE TREE

THE GREAT RAYMOND

The Great Raymond, who is to appear on July 17 at the Liberty Theater, is the only European in the world today who has succeeded in accomplishing that wonderful feat, the growing of the "mango tree." This trick has been seen by everyone who has traveled in India, but never by anyone outside of that country.

A little heap of earth is placed on a flat surface, a seed is planted, water is then poured over it, and, lo and behold, the tree grows.

The Great Raymond has improved this wonderful illusion, as he has improved on every other magician whom the world has today. The "mango tree" as the Great Raymond grows it is a rose bush, which, when the seed is planted, grows up into a beautiful vine with natural roses of three colors blossoming forth from its folds. These roses Mr. Raymond severs and distributes to the audience.

The story, or, rather, the way in which the Great Raymond learned this wonderful accomplishment, is very romantic and is well worth telling.

Girl! sweet voiced Lois Mason seems to have been overlooked with the result that she has but one good song in the play and that with Thom Helen so that the honors are divided.

The reception given the Bostonians showed clearly that their good acting and singing had not faded from the memories of their many admirers here. Every character in the little play was well sustained and the applause was general. Of course there were favorites and the first notes of "The Houn' Dog" with little Dole Canfield on the stage was a signal for continued applause and at the close she had to respond to several encores. Patsie Henry, as Patrick Guard, was a distinct success. The applause showed that she retains a warm spot in the hearts of Honolulu theater goers. Ida Mitchell had a chance at one song and her reception evidenced the regard most of the audience has for her.

It was a clever idea to have Dixie White sing "Light up your Face With A Smile," and for it to be followed at the close of the performance by the orchestra "playing out" the audience. The song is popular and was last night with more than its usual swing. Miss White sang it full of spirit so that when the crowds were on the street or in the cars after the show it was heard on the winds either in whistle of "hum." There were many floral tributes and pretty generally distributed they were. The company will appear in "Berta's Billions" tonight.

TEAL COMPANY FOR THE LIBERTY

Raymond Teal and a company of twenty-odd people arrived here yesterday via the Wilhelmina, and leave tomorrow on the same ship on route to Hilo and Maui to fill engagements on the neighboring isles.

Teal is booked to open at the Liberty theater July 29th, following Raymond The Great, and is said to be an organization of the musical comedy kind above the average. He was originally slated to open at McGreer's playhouse next Monday, but owing to the fact that Raymond, the magician, was compelled to play here between the 15th and 27th instants, Teal consented to a postponement of his dates in order that his brother professional and friend may play in this city.

An interesting meeting between these two will take place on Teal's return from Maui, as he and Raymond began their theatrical careers in the same company some twenty-five years ago, and, although warm personal friends during that time, have not seen each other for fourteen years. Both men were initiated Elks in the same lodge on the same night and parted the next day, fourteen years ago, and that their meeting here will be a warm reunion can well be imagined.
