MILLIONS OF DOLLARS INCREASE IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS EXPORT

Values of Shipments of Domestic Merchandise to the United States Show Gain of More Than Twelve Million Dollars in the Past Ten Months

For the ten months ending April 30, 1912, the value of shipments of domestic merchandise from the United States mainland to Hawaii was $19,852,449, as compared with $18,236,154 in the corresponding period ending in 1911, or an increase of $1,616,295. The increase over the same period ending in 1910 was $3,139,580. In the same period ending in 1912 the shipments of domestic merchandise from Hawaii to the States were $42,923,214 in value, as compared with $30,864,166 in the corresponding period ending in 1911, or an increase of $12,059,048.

Increase of Millions.
 Thus there was an increase in the total domestic merchandise trade between the United States and this Territory, for the ten months in question, of $13,675,343. In the last period mentioned Hawaiian products constituted all of the shipments of domestic merchandise to the States excepting a value of $883,190.

Sugar shipments to the States from Hawaii for the last ten months under review amounted to 900,226,832 pounds valued at $38,321,569, against 736,487,794 pounds, valued at $26,801,238 for the previous corresponding period, increases of 163,739,038 pounds and $11,520,331 respectively.

Fruits and Nuts.
 Shipments of fruits and nuts to the mainland in the ten months ending April last amounted in value to $2,554,586, against $2,074,996 in the same period ending in 1911, an increase of $479,590. Preserved pineapples represent $2,398,534 of the total under this head for the period ending in 1912, against $1,943,880 for the period ending in 1911.

Banana shipments were $100,439 and $83,486 respectively for the periods compared, a gain of $16,953.

Foreign Exports Decline.
 Domestic exports to foreign countries show a falling off of $113,011 for the ten months, the amount for the period ending this year being $338,887.

Imports into Hawaii from foreign countries amounted to $4,668,288 for the ten-month period ending last April, being $110,052 more than for the corresponding period ending last year.

PACK OF PINES

this last winter's pack, will be about 140,000 cases. We have taken off so far about 30,000 cases.

"No; we are not putting up any juice. We tried the juice last year, but although we bought a lot of juice machinery, we decided to pass it this year.

"We expect to increase the output 25 to 30 per cent next year. Yes; the demand is growing, more particularly in Europe. The prices also are better this year.

"Our pines are principally from the Kahalua Pineapple Ranch, the Ahulmanu Pineapple Ranch and the Waialeale and Waialeale plantations, besides some fruit under our control in the Waialeale district. We also have the pines from the Koolau Fruit Co., the product from a thousand acres.

"So far the conditions are favorable to the cannery's remaining at Kahalua.

Girls' Home Feature.

"A feature of the establishment is the girls' home, which accommodates fifty girls and has a white matron from Chicago in charge, on the premises. There are two girls in every room. They have hot and cold water baths and all the necessary toilet arrangements for fifty persons. The culinary department is right in the building and there is a large dining room that, in addition to its main purpose, is used for them to dance in or for any other amusements that they may wish to hold. This home is for the Hawaiian girls. The Japanese are mostly married women and live in family houses.

"In the fields and the cannery there are probably between three and four hundred persons employed."

William P. Thomas, manager of the Thomas Pineapple Co., Ltd., said the output of the present canning season for that company would be about 65,000 cases, which, with 20,000 in January and February, would make the year's quota 85,000 cases. This is against 52,000 last year.

"We expect some increase again next year," said Mr. Thomas. "We have been increasing our output from 20 to 25 per cent every year. Our main supply of pines comes from Waialeale, and we receive some from the Pupukea homesteads.

"I don't know but what we are increasing too fast all round. The present season's planting will mature in 1914. When the pack has doubled before it was only a small matter, but it is a question how long the ratio of increase in demand will continue. While the demand is increasing, it is pretty hard to gain much headway in the face of the higher foreign tariffs. There is a high-duty on pines in Germany, where they take only fresh fruit without sugar, throwing away the containers and manufacturing the preserved article for themselves. France also has a high duty on fruit, as likewise has Japan, and even free trade Britain imposes a duty on the preserved article. There is a differential duty on preserved pineapples in Canada, as well as in other British dominions."

Demand for Juice.

An important branch of the pineapple industry is that of the production of fluid commodities. Both the Hawaiian and the Thomas companies put up the juice of the pine for market. The Pineapple Sales Company manufactures a syrup after which the company is named, and there is a constantly growing demand for this delicious article, used both as a distinct beverage and as a flavoring ingredient of soda water, ice cream and sherbet.

"The George H. Eberhardt Company of San Francisco take all the pineapple we manufacture," said E. A. Berndt, the company's treasurer, "they having the agency for the entire Pacific West. We have a contract with them besides to supply them with not less than 50,000 pounds of fresh fruit every week. The rest of the fruit we manufacture into syrup. The demand from the Eberhardt company will be sufficient for the next three years to take all our output. After that the acreage in pineapples under our control will enable us to go further into the interior and supply demands from the interior and the East.

"This year our output of pineapples will amount to about 100,000 gallons, and this will be doubled next year. Pineapple is the only syrup of pines on the market.

"The raw fruit comes from our own plantation, formerly that of the Clark Farm Company at Pupukea. Our fields will be in their fullest bearing in 1913-14."

For the ten months ending April this year the shipments of canned pineapples to the United States alone amounted to $2,398,534, against $1,943,880 for the corresponding period ending in 1911, or an increase of $454,654.

Pineapple juice was shipped to the States for the same ten months to the value of $117,077, as compared with $212,757 for the like period ending in 1911, or a decrease of $95,680. It is certain, however, that the exports of juice including syrup will show a gain for the present year.
