DUKE IS WORLD'S CHAMPION SWIMMER NOW

FAIRCHILD TO LEAVE HAWAII

Manager of Makee Sugar Company to Start Business in Manila.

George H. Fairchild, manager of the Makee Sugar Company, and for years prominent in business and politics of the Territory, is leaving Hawaii to enter business in Manila. He will be associated with big sugar interests in an agency in Manila, and indications are that among these associates will be the Welches and the Havemeyers.

Fairchild is a Senator from Kauai and has been prominent in the Legislature as chairman of the Senate finance committee and a leader in law-making. As a member of the Senate, Mr. Fairchild during the last session introduced a bill to provide for the maintenance of public schools of the Territory through the leasing of government lands. This bill, commonly known as the "Fairchild bill," required Congressional assent, and was introduced in the House of Representatives last January by Delegate Kalaniana'ole. Mr. Fairchild went to Washington to appear before the committee on Territories of the House on behalf of his bill, and has not since returned to the Islands. His work in Washington as well as a dangerous illness from which he recovered only a few months ago prevented a return here, and it now develops that he is making plans to leave the Islands permanently. The report was heard on the mainland by members of the Hawaiian delegation that went to the Chicago convention, and was thus brought back to Hawaii, and local statements confirm it. Mr. Fairchild recently went to Germany, and it is not definitely known when he intends to return here, but in any case he will be here only a short time.

Some months ago C. J. Welsh passed through Hawaii on his way to the Philippines to look into sugar properties. The Welsh and Havemeyer interests are associated in large holdings of "friar lands" in the Philippines. Senator Fairchild's intimate relations with Mr. Welsh indicate that he will be associated with the American capitalists in the big sugar agency to be founded and operated in Manila.

Sugar as an industry is rapidly developing in the Philippines, and Hawaii is in the development. The San Carlos Milling Company, promoted and financed here, will shortly begin operations with its big "central" in Occidental Negros. It is thus probable that the agency which Senator Fairchild and his associates will launch, will be the agent of the San Carlos company. Kauai's noted solid delegation in the Legislature will be badly broken up by Fairchild's departure. The Garden Islands have always held a strong position in the Legislature, particularly with the finance committee. Charles A. Rice, one of the House leaders last year, has been mentioned as a possibility for the Senate.

PARTY LEADER SUGGESTS MEN FOR OFFICES

A gentleman prominent in the councils of the Republican party in discussing the political situation this morning said, to a Star-Bulletin reporter: "In view of the nearness of the fall campaign, the first gun of which was fired last Friday night when nominations for precinct club officers were in order; it might be well for us to pause and think over the reason for the large volume of complaint which is manifesting itself against the administration of our municipal government, and endeavor by some method to arrive at a remedy, no doubt city and county affairs will be carefully analyzed by our next Legislature. "Party politics has no part nor parcel in, nor should sensible men permit it to dominate, our city and county affairs. It would seem hardly possible though to eliminate its influence when we elect the officers of our Municipality at the same time when party feeling is running high, which is usually the case when we are in the throes of a contest as to who should represent us at Washington. "About one year ago I suggested

KUHIO MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT

Kuhio supporters from every voting precinct in the city and county of Oahu have been asked to a meeting tonight on behalf of the delegate, according to a report which reached the Star-Bulletin today but could not be confirmed by the delegate himself.

It was stated that the meeting would probably take place at the Waikiki home, and that its object is to begin organization along the lines that Kuhio laid down in his statement issued soon after his return from Washington, namely, that he will make his fight against Governor Frear in the party if the party will support him in it, but that he will make that fight if it carries him to the lengths of running on an independent ticket. So much was implied in the statement.

It could not be learned how many have been invited to the meeting tonight, and those who are asked are close-mouthed as to the meeting and its objects.

SUGAR QUOTATIONS

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received the following cablegram from New York at 2 o'clock this afternoon: "Holders of raws are asking 4.05. Refiners are bidding 3.98. Fifteen Cuban centrals are still grinding."

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received the following cablegram from its New York branch this morning: "Holders of raws are asking 3.98c. October beets 11s. 2 d. There is considerable speculation. European beet crops have had too little rains."

FINALS OF SWIM ON JULY 10

Associated Press Cables That Kahanamoku Won in 63 and 2-5 Seconds

San Francisco, Cal., July 16. Star-Bulletin, Honolulu: Duke won July 10. Time, 1 minute 3 2-5 seconds.

ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Duke Kahanamoku Jr. is champion swimmer of the world. He won the title on July 10, when he finished first in the 100-meter swim at the Swedish Olympic games at Stockholm. The Star-Bulletin ascertained this today by cabling to the Associated Press at San Francisco. On the morning of July 11, the morning paper carried an alleged cablegram to the effect that Duke was "brought into the stadium to hear the announcement of the result of the swimming heats," and that the announcer gave Duke as the winner of the heat.

On account of the mix-up earlier in the games, when Duke, after winning the 100 meters, was compelled to re-swim it, and the uncertainty, whether Duke on July 10 had won the preliminaries, semifinals or finals, the Hawaiian lad's friends here have been very much up in the air.

This morning the news was published that the American team, after winning the meet, was to sail home. Nothing was said about the swimming-finals.

So the Star-Bulletin, to clear up the uncertainty, cabled the Associated Press at San Francisco as follows: "Did Duke win 100-meter finals Stockholm?"

A few hours later the Associated Press cabled to this paper the message given above.

It would appear that the cabled news on the night of July 10 was misinterpreted or incomplete. At any rate, Duke is the champion sprint swimmer of the world. He has met the best the world could send against him, and he has distanced them all.

His record, made in a preliminary heat, of 62.5 seconds for the hundred meters, may stand. This will not be known until later on.

Duke Fund Is Growing Fast

Steadily the fund for a gift for Duke Kahanamoku is growing. Today W. T. Rawlins, who has been in charge of the special fund to pay Duke's expenses at Stockholm and on his return trip, including a visit to Atlantic City, reported that all the subscriptions for this purpose were in, and that, with $50 yet to come from the promotion committee, Duke's expenses are fully paid back to the United States and right to Hawaii.

This clears the boards for the fund to buy Duke a modest house and lot out near the beach or somewhere else and present it to him as a token of Hawaii's appreciation for the great work he has done.

The committee that will handle this fund, and to which the Star-Bulletin will turn over the subscriptions it is receiving, will be announced within a day or two. So far, no effort has been made to organize a campaign because of the other fund that was to be completed, but now that is taken care of and Hawaii can get busy on the gift.

Mayor Fern is handling one of the subscription lists himself and said this morning that the city hall is going to do its share.

"Duke deserves a $5,000 house and lot," said the mayor. "Maybe we can't raise that much, but we can raise a good deal."

The board of health employees have started a subscription list. It was started today, and several others are ready to be started at once.

This morning a gentleman dropped into the Star-Bulletin office and held out $5. "Just put this on the Duke fund," he said, and when asked if he wished any name to be given, said: "No, just mark it 'Sport.' That's what it's for—clean sport."

This is the spirit in which the Duke fund has been started and is proving popular with everyone. The Star-Bulletin is receiving subscriptions. Those mailed should be addressed "Duke Kahanamoku Fund, Care Star-Bulletin, Honolulu, T. H."

Yacht Hawaii Wins From Lurline In Race

SCHOONER-YACHT HAWAII, WINNER OF HILO RACE

Crosses Finishing Line Ten Minutes Ahead of Rival; Yachtsmen Jubilant

(Special Star-Bulletin Telegram)

HILO, July 16.—The yacht Hawaii crossed the finishing line off Hilo Bay at 12.34 this afternoon. Ten minutes later the Lurline crossed the line and came to anchor close aboard her successful rival. Full details of the race are not at hand, as no one from either yacht had come ashore up to 1.15, but both craft look to be in good shape.

Light airs have prevailed for the last 24 hours, and no great surprise was shown here over the failure of the racers to arrive yesterday.

The win of the Hawaii over the yacht that trimmed her in the trans-Pacific race is a great triumph for the local boat, and vindicates the faith of those who thought that she could hold her own with the Lurline on a windward race, and who backed their opinions with coin. So confident were the Hawaii's backers that they did not ask either odd or handicap, although yachting wiseacres said freely that the San Diego yacht had all the advantage, and that it was really no race. Based on the regular handicap adopted in the trans-Pacific race, the Hawaii would have been entitled to 49 minutes 28 seconds on the run from Honolulu to Hilo, and the fact that she was able to beat the Lurline on even terms all the local yachtsmen are shaking hands with each other.

Soon after the start of the race last Saturday night the Hawaii had a lead of almost ten miles, and was well to windward of her rival, but passengers who arrived on the Mauna Kea this morning stated that just before dark last night the Lurline was in the lead by five miles off Lahaloehoe. The final result, then, came as a joyous surprise.

The Lurline will sail from Hilo to San Diego direct. The Hawaii, which has on board Commodore Warren D. Wood of the South Coast Yacht Club, will make the return trip to Honolulu as soon as possible. Crozier called the Hawaii on the morning race, with Ted Center as first officer.

He Kicked A Bill Collector And Court Holds He Did Right

If a bill-collector comes into your yard on a Sunday morning, reviles you, and abuses your wife and then refuses to get off the premises you are entitled to kick him off the place without fear of conviction for assault and battery.

This ruling was made in court this morning in the case of John Hopkins, a timekeeper at the American Can Company, who was haled into court this morning on a charge of assault and battery.

The alleged assault took place in Hopkins' front yard last Sunday morning. Hopkins was in the house and Mrs. Hopkins was sitting on the lanai when the clothes-cleaner arrived and presented his bill. Mrs. Hopkins called Mr. Hopkins. He told the Japanese to bring the bill around to his place of business the next day and he would pay but not to come bothering him at his home on Sunday. The Japanese became abusive and directed his remarks at Hopkins as to include Mrs. Hopkins. Hopkins ordered the Oriental off the place and when he refused to budge, Hopkins proceeded to "boot" him off the grounds and out in the street.

The warrant was sworn out and Hopkins appeared before Judge Monarrat this morning.

"This man only did what ninety-nine out of a hundred men would have done under the circumstances. I move that the case be stricken from the docket," said Prosecuting Attorney A. M. Brown. And it was.

700 FIERY FOUNTAINS PLAY IN GREAT VOLCANO'S CRATER

All of Hilo Makes Auto Pilgrimage to Madame Pele's Glowing Shrine

Hundreds from Hilo were numbered in the exodus from that city to the Shrine of Pele on last Sunday.

With the return of the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea this morning there arrived a delegation of delighted tourist folk, who declare that the sight spread by nature for their delectation has never been equalled.

Every available automobile in Hilo was pressed into service in conveying visitors to the crater edge. The Volcano Stables transported several hundred to the scene of volcanic activity and the hotel accommodation there was taxed to the limit.

So great was the illumination from the pit of molten lava that the surrounding country for miles around was brilliant in reflected light.

With seven hundred fire fountains constantly playing the light at the volcano is one that is without parallel in its history. Over sixty automobiles left Hilo yesterday and practically everyone in the city who could possibly get away did so.

Professor Jagger made the estimate that there are seven hundred fountains playing and states that he is unable to account for the wonderful activity. Allick, the veteran guide, says that he has never seen such wonderful activity.

The fire itself is about twenty-five feet below the lower ledge, but the surface is one boiling, bubbling mass of scarlet lava.

Where Old Faithful once spouted with regularity and where an odd bubble burst it is now impossible to count the jets. Some of them seem to be more active than others as they are throwing the molten lava fifty feet in the air. Others are splashing over the lower ledge.

The glare can be seen from Hilo and hundreds of people have been sitting out on their lanais during the last few evenings watching the red lights changing on the sky.

The fire is not rising much but is spasmodic, rising and then falling in a being swallowed up in the fiery mass. The scene is constantly changing, the crater never looking the same for two consecutive minutes.

The supreme court tomorrow will hear arguments in the case of Henry Waterhouse Trust Company against John D. Paris, a suit on an account of $3079.11.

King George and Queen Mary started for the South Wales coal fields, beginning a tour of Britain's industrial district.

CROCKER-WHITMAN NUPTIALS COSTLY

Young couple will come to Honolulu on Honeymoon—Fifty detectives guard against trouble

(Associated Press Cable)

(Associated Press Cable)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 16.—A wedding notable both for the prominence of the contracting parties and for the elaborate arrangements prepared and perfectly carried out was that today of Malcolm Douglas Whitman of Brookline, Mass., and Jennie Crocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crocker of San Mateo, Cal.

The wedding was solemnized at St. Mathew's church, San Mateo, with Bishop Nichols officiating. Three hundred guests attended. Fifty detectives were engaged to guard the premises and to prevent crowds from gathering at the church or elsewhere. A wedding breakfast was served on the lawn of the San Mateo residence of the Crockers, the breakfast being served under a $20,000 pergola.

The couple will spend part of their honeymoon at Mt. Shasta and expect to leave for Honolulu soon to spend some weeks.

Kill Man Who Would Expose

(Associated Press Cable)

(Associated Press Cable)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 16.—Swift and terrible death has overtaken Herman Rosenthal, a noted gambler, who had promised District Attorney Whitman that he would expose a widespread system of police graft founded on protection of the gambling houses. Rosenthal was standing in front of the Hotel Metropole, after assuring the district attorney that he would expose the graft, when he was riddled with bullets that came from several directions. One arrest has followed.

Ex-Aviator Gored to Death

(Associated Press Cable)

(Associated Press Cable)

PARIS, Fr., July 16.—Hubert Latham, the noted aviator, who visited America last year and who at one time held the altitude record, has been killed in the French Congo by a wild buffalo, according to news received here. Latham gave up aviation at the request of his aged mother, who lived in constant fear that her son would be killed. He went to the Congo to hunt, and is reported to have wounded a wild buffalo and then to have been gored to death by the mad beast.

MARCONI CHIEF ENGINEER HERE TO PLAN GREAT WIRELESS PLANT

F. H. Sommis Confers With the Governor and Inspects Possible Sites for Use in Constructing World-Wide System in Which Honolulu Is to Be Important Unit.

That Hawaii is to be the starting point in the construction of the great around-the-world wireless system planned by the Marconi Wireless Company, which was announced in the Star-Bulletin on June 22, is now quite definitely indicated by the fact that F. H. Sommis, chief engineer of that company, is in the Islands and, with John Balch, treasurer of the Mutual Wireless Company of Honolulu, is inspecting sites for the location of the station in this Territory.

Sommis and Balch yesterday called on Governor Frear and were in conference with the Territorial executive for some time. While the latter declines to discuss the nature of their talk, information from other sources is that they discussed the possibility of acquiring a site on land now owned by the Territory.

It is understood the conference was not finished yesterday. Sommis and Balch left the city shortly afterward and are said to be on a tour of further inspection around the Island of Oahu.

Sommis holds conferences. Sommis has been in Honolulu several days and during that time has been seen in frequent consultation with the officials of the local wireless company.

As published in the Star-Bulletin several weeks ago, plans have been practically completed for establishing a wireless system across the Pacific, to

NIGHT PROWLER OF EMMA STREET PROWLING AGAIN

Marauder Who Has Been Terrifying District and Frightens Women

The prowler of Emma street, who for several weeks past has been frightening residents in the vicinity of the Colonial Hotel, is prowling again and last night after an inactivity of two weeks, attempted to enter the house of Mrs. J. Serpa at 1448 Emma street and was only prevented from so doing by the screams of the young woman, who, at the time, was alone with the baby.

According to the story Mrs. Serpa told a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning, it was shortly after eight o'clock when the attempt to break into her house was made. Her husband had not returned home and she was just putting the baby to sleep when she heard a man's voice calling out, "Boy home, Boy home."

Thinking that it was her husband, she said nothing and went on singing the baby to sleep. But the sound of feet scraping against the side of the house convinced her that some one was trying to climb up to the window

CONNESSE BILL RECOMMENDED

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—The Conness bill, granting a franchise for the construction and maintenance of a street railway at Hilo, was favorably reported today by the senate committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, to which it was referred last May. The bill has been considerably amended since it appeared originally.

C. S. ALBERT.

With the baby in her arms, she went to the door of the rear bedroom, where she saw a man's face peering in the window. As she stood on the threshold, he made another effort and finally managed to pull himself up so that one-half of his body was in the room. All the time, he kept repeating the question, "Boy home? Boy home? Screams for Help."

Mrs. Serpa screamed and the man cried "Hey! Hey!" This frightened her more and she ran to the front door and shrieked for help. The baby was crying and when some of the neighbors came running to see what was the matter, the man had disappeared and Mrs. Serpa had fainted. From the description, Mrs. Serpa is sure that the man is the same that has been terrorizing residents in the
