A treat is promised to all who attend the luncheon at the Commercial Club on Friday, when Rear Admiral Ross will give a talk on the Panama canal.

Divorce was granted by Judge Whitney today to Maria Da Gloria Coito Chaves from Berto Da Coito Chaves, whom she accused of habitual intemperance.
Rufus Ross, a native of Barcelona, Spain, but at present a teamster in Honolulu, filed declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States.

Judge Whitney this morning granted divorces to Tujimura Sanjiro from T. Shimo, on the showing of adultery, and to Fred Schilling from Rosa Schilling on the ground of desertion.

Twenty frames of pictures showing conditions in Hawaii, as well as sanitary improvements, have been prepared by the commission in charge of the exhibit to go to the International Congress on Hygiene and Demography in Washington. They will be forwarded by the next boat.

M. Brasch, manager of Whitney & Marsh, writes the Star-Bulletin from Harrogate under date of July 20. He speaks of the prominent mention made in the London papers of Duke Kahanamoku's performances and says he has sent Duke's photo to the Daily Telegraph. Mr. and Mrs. Brasch expected to go south for a portion of their vacation before returning home.

SEEK TENDERS FOR AUTO TRUCK

Expansion of the city and county garbage collection service is on a fair way for accomplishment with the call for tenders for a two-ton auto truck, authorized by the Board of City and County Supervisors at a meeting held last night.

The districts of Kaimuki, Palolo, Makiki, Nuuanu and other more distant portions of the municipality are said to be in line to receive the service with the acquisition of a larger and more speedy conveyance.

The Board is in the market for a suitable truck and took opportunity last evening to invite bids from all the local automobile firms in the city. The new truck will have to be purchased from the lowest bidder. It is predicted that at least six local dealers will get into the game with a view of furnishing the conveyance which it is believed will cost in the neighborhood of four thousand dollars.

A mainland concern has come forward with the offer of a preparation which is guaranteed to exterminate weeds from sidewalks and parks. The road committee has been asked to investigate the claims of the remedy. It appears that there is a certain fact in the Kaimuki which opposes the proposed expenditure by the city and county of $1600 to open up Sixth Avenue. The contention is raised that the sum is too great to be expended upon one thoroughfare.

Work was ordered begun on the macadamizing of one side of Beretania avenue. Four thousand dollars have been appropriated for this improvement.

LLOYD OSBURNE'S DEATH EXPECTED

Stepson of Robert Louis Stevenson Well Known in Honolulu

Lloyd Osbourne, stepson of Robert Louis Stevenson and writer of short stories, is dying in Santa Barbara, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson.

To friends here in San Francisco has come the word that Osbourne is not expected to live more than a very few days, and in anticipation of the end his two young sons, who make their home here, have been summoned to Santa Barbara.

Osbourne's wife has made her home in San Francisco since the domestic difficulties which resulted in a separation of herself and the writer. To her was awarded the custody of the two boys. For several years neither the father nor the grandmother has seen either of the sons of the Osbournes, and their call to the Southern city to their grandmother's home was in response to a wish expressed by their father to see them again.

Shortly after the separation all money troubles arose, and Mrs. Osbourne was obliged to make a fight for maintenance for her two children. The boys, who are now in their teens, have been educated in San Francisco. Osbourne has written a number of very successful stories. Magazine work and novels have appeared from time to time with marked approval of the public. He has, however, never made a financial success of his work.

At the time of his wife's suit he alleged that he was dependent upon his mother to meet his demands. He permitted his wife to take possession of the Stevenson house, at Hyde and Lombard streets, and there she has made her home until recently.

Osbourne asked at the time of the filing of the suit for the custody of one of the children, but that was denied him. His illness dates back several weeks. He is 44 years old.

Lloyd Osbourne is well-known in Honolulu having lived here with the famous author his stepfather at San Souci.

MONEY LOANED ON PUNCHBOWL LOTS

A report of comprehensive financial aid having been proffered to owners of Punchbowl lots under the big new deal, to enable them to make improvements, in keeping with the projected reform of street conditions in that section, was investigated by a Star-Bulletin reporter today. It was found that no omnibus scheme of aiding the property owners in question was in existence, yet that there was money available for the purpose stated upon the security of the land, from a trust institution, to the limit of funds that could be spared for that particular object of investment.

"The Guardian Trust Company made a loan to one Portuguese owner of land on Punchbowl," said A. F. Judd this morning, "but there was no general offer of assistance to the owners of those lots.

"This man came back and asked if similar accommodation could be given to two or three of his friends. We told him that we would lend money on good security to anyone, as we were in that business. I suppose this is how the report originated that a wholesale offer of assistance to the Punchbowl owners had been made."

Mr. Judd is temporarily in charge of the Guardian Trust Company's real estate branch.
