

Make Your Present A Gift for Utility

"THAT WILL BE SERVICEABLE AND APPRECIATED."

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Miss August Belmont, Miss Anne Morgan and other prominent New York women are among the founders of a new organization—"The Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving." The Society will do its utmost to abolish the "exchange" system of giving useless presents among those who can ill afford it.

Let us suggest shoes or slippers as a gift of utility. Our stock of these is very large and complete and comprises a number of Holiday specialties.

Fancy COMFY Slippers for the cold nights.

SLIPPERS for men in all the soft leathers which make for comfort while resting in the home.

$2 to $3.50

NULLIFIERS in black and tan kid in different grades.

For around-the-house wear and a very handy article for men.

$2 to $3.50

The Christmas Shoe Order

is the ideal way of making a present of shoes as it allows the recipient to make the selection and saves the giver the trouble.

Efforts to unify all the revolutionary factions in Mexico are being made in El Paso and representatives of the various factions are holding secret meetings in this city. Agents of the various anti-administration parties, including the Orozco government, are here. Today through the efforts of a secret service officer, the whole plot was exposed.

The odd-job politicians were set thinking yesterday when it was announced that President Taft had been in consultation with President-elect Wilson in regard to the filling of some of the existing vacancies in the government service, in order that those named for some of the more important posts now may be retained in office after the new administration goes into effect.

Representatives of an European anti-vivisection society have lodged a formal protest in Stockholm against the awarding of the Nobel Prize to Dr. Carrell of New York, head of the Rockefeller Institution, for medical research.

More than twenty thousand skilled workers in the navy yards throughout the United States were today placed under the protection of the civil service by executive order of President Taft.

In the Senate today, the consideration of the Omnibus Claims Bill was resumed, and Senator Clapp introduced a bill designed to prohibit the raising of campaign funds in one State for use in another commonwealth.

Suffering from several broken ribs, the Rev. John P. M. Cahlan, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church at Rockville, Maryland, is lying today in a local hospital as the result of an automobile collision. The offending car and its occupants ran away without stopping to assist the clergyman.

Although in its new home some weeks ago, the Army and Navy Club, at an early hour today, swept up the debris, bade good-bye to many of the guests and entered officially upon its career in its new headquarters, a magnificent structure, which hereafter will be the home of the fighting men of the nation who appear in the capital.

President Taft today made his first Christmas gift. He promised Representative Berger of Milwaukee to commute the sentence of two years imprisonment imposed on Harold A. Otey, private in the Thirteenth Company, Coast Artillery, to make it expire on Christmas morning.

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji) Marquis Masayoshi Matsugata, one of the five "genros" and an authority on Japan's finance, was called in to a conference today by two other "genros," Prince Iwao Oyama and Marquis Kaoru Inouye, in the hope that Marquis Matsugata might be induced to form a new ministry to save Japan in the present political crisis. He declined positively, however, to accept the premiership and the situation as to the formation of a new cabinet remains unchanged.

Governor General William Cameron Forbes will leave Washington for Seattle, where he will sail for the Philippines, December 16.

He came out in warm disapprobation of the Jones' Independence bill. Governor Forbes says that any talk of free self-government for the Philippines, beyond the autonomy given them under the present administration, is no good. He had a long conference on Friday with President Taft, Brigadier General McIntyre, director of the bureau of insular affairs, and his predecessor, General James Francis Smith, of San Francisco.

The visit of former King Manuel of Portugal was in connection with his engagement to a Russian princess. He has completely recovered from his recent severe illness.

Lars Jensen, a laborer, employed on a building under construction at Devils Lake, Maryland, fell from the third floor late yesterday when a scaffold broke. He was buried beneath the brick and mortar. While his fellow employees were loudly discussing whether to call a doctor or not and if it would be best to call a coroner, a voice from beneath the debris shouted: "To ——— with the doctor. Dig me out." Fifteen minutes later Jensen was working on another scaffold, apparently uninjured.

Turkey and Greece are still dodging a naval battle at the mouth of the Dardanelles. It is expected from Constantinople that the submerged mines would be effective and later learned that the Straits are so well protected as to defy any attempt to break through.

Prince Victor Napoleon Bonaparte, a general in the Russian army, is closely following the progress of the war in the near east and is said to have offered his services to the French government in the event of France being drawn into an European engagement.

A carpet of snow is on the way from the valley of the St. Lawrence to be laid over New York for Kris Kringle on Christmas, so the New York weather bureau says. Mistletoe has never been so cheap and with plenty of Christmas wishes it is expected there will be a bumper crop of May brides next spring.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt plans to do her Christmas shopping early and says she will buy between $4,000 and $5,000 worth of gifts for European notables, including actors, play-wrights, dukes and duchesses. She will not do her own shopping, but will leave the purchasing of the gifts to her companion, Mlle Saylor.

The great steel clipper, Erskine M. Phelps has left Philadelphia on her last voyage to Honolulu and San Francisco as a windjammer. When she berths at her buoy in the Golden Gate, auxiliary engines will be installed to prepare her for faster service to the Hawaiian Islands and the Orient, through the Panama Canal.

Another rich gold strike on the newly found continuation of the third beach line has been made in the Kofa claim, Cape Nome. The pay streak is four feet thick and runs four cents to the pan.

It is stated in Washington that Manuel Quezon, Filipino delegate to Congress, has the pledges of William J. Bryan, Representative Jones, of Virginia, chairman of the committee on insular affairs, and other prominent Democrats, that the Jones bill, giving the Filipinos complete independence in eight years, will be passed through the house as a "paramount issue" despite the fact that President-elect Wilson has not yet committed himself on the question.

All the Catholic churches in Mexico began a midnight mass this morning, in conformance with the Papal decree, asking for divine intervention to settle the troubles in the country due to the insurrection.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Settles Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a Few Moments Your Hair Looks Soft, Fluffy, Lustrous and Abundant—No Falling Hair or Dandruff

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and splendor of true hair health. Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, by circulating, stimulating and increasing the growth, causing the hair to grow abundantly, long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

A Tonic Free from Alcohol

Are you pale, weak, easily tired, and do you lack nerve power? Ask your doctor if Ayer's Sarsaparilla would not be good for you. He knows, and will advise you wisely. Not a drop of alcohol in this medicine. It puts red corpuscles into the blood, gives steady, even power to the nerves; and all without stimulation. Make no mistake. Take only those medicines the best doctors endorse. Ask your own doctor.
