STORY of the CLASSIFIED

I. A man LOST his wife 1908 worth.

Two days' advertising in the Star-Bulletin Classified secured the return of his valuable property.

II. A lady LOST her silver purse containing seven dollars in coin.

Three days' advertising in the Star-Bulletin Classified secured for her the return of the purse and the money.

III. Another lady used the Star-Bulletin Want Ad. Column to announce her "household goods for sale."

She ordered the ad. to run for one month. One issue brought her the customers to take all the goods.

IV. A business house having a retail department of household utensils, used the Honolulu Star-Bulletin Classified to call attention to commodities in each department.

Immediate sales as direct results were secured and the use of the Classified as well as the display columns of the Star-Bulletin has been continued.
