CASTLE TO MEET BARNES IN FINALS

Present Holder of Cup Wins His Way to Finals and Will Get Permanent Possession of the Trophy if He Defeats Barnes This Afternoon

J. H. Barnes and A. L. Castle meet this afternoon in the finals of the Wall cup tournament at the Beretania Tennis Club.

The best of the two semi-final matches was between Barnes and W. B. Izard, both Class B men. Izard, who has just come to Oahu as navy paymaster, is well known on Eastern courts, where he has played in many big tournaments.

Barnes Hard Worker. Barnes, however, should be given every credit for his win. He played clean, hard tennis, probably the best he has shown in any local tournament.

The Castle-Guard match was easy for the former, who won 3-6 and 3-6. The third set went to deuce, and was hard fought, after Castle was leading 5-1 at one time.

In the finals this afternoon Castle won 3-6, 1-5. The match should be a good one.

Yesterday's Results. Barnes beat Izard, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3. Castle beat Guard, 6-0, 6-1, 7-5.

HONOLULU HIGHLY LAUDED IN RAILROAD MAGAZINE

The Erie Railroad Employee Magazine, which has a wide circulation among railroad and traveling men, contains the following striking praise of Hawaii in a letter from a correspondent, Luis Jackson, on a trip to the Orient.

From Shanghai I took the Japanese steamer Tenyo Maru, via Nagasaki, Kobe and Yokohama, to San Francisco, stopping en route for one day at Honolulu, the chief port of our Hawaiian Islands.

From Honolulu I had visited Honolulu before. It is one of the loveliest spots of the world, and is so recognized in all guide books. Monte Carlo on the Mediterranean is probably the most beautiful place in the world, but Honolulu, with its tropical trees and flowers, the surrounding mountains, the extraordinary streaks of peacock blue of its seas, its great hotels, and splendid bathing beaches, is a place well worth visiting.

The veteran says his discovery frequently has knocked him down in training bouts, which convinces the big time conqueror of Jack Johnson that he is not wasting his time on a dead one.

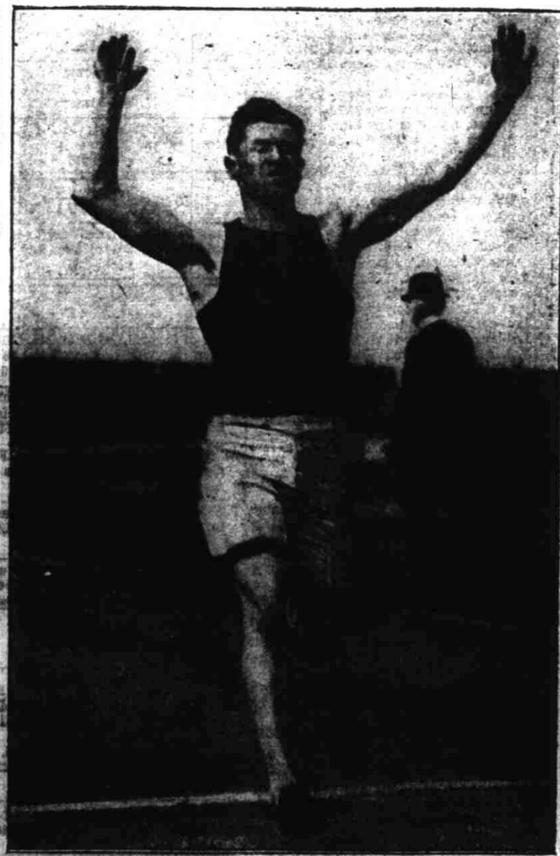

Another month or two will be sufficient to put on the finishing touches, says Choyanski, and then challenge McCarty and Willard will be in order.

Thorp's Disbarment From The Amateur Ranks Causes A Stir

JAMES THORPE.

THE DISBARMENT from amateur athletics of James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian who was the sensation of the last Olympic games, has caused a big stir the country over.

Thorpe was recently examined by a board of physicians, and pronounced to be the perfect man. Last summer, at the Olympic games, he received the Oscar of Swediaur trophy for winning the decathlon, and that of the King of Sweden for conquering in the pentathlon.

Returning to America, Thorpe played through a gruelling football season, and was acclaimed by everyone as the greatest all-round player the game has ever seen.

The marvel is that Thorpe's admitted professionalism wasn't discovered long ago. When he was handed a big league contract a few weeks ago, comment was made on his former professional record, the sporting writers speculating as to why he had been signed as a pitcher when he had played the outfield in professional company before.

Carlisle is outside of the Intercollegiate Athletic Association and questions of football and baseball eligibility do not come up there. That is probably the reason why Thorpe's well known professional baseball career a couple of years ago was not more generally taken note of.

SOCIETY LAD A WHITE HOPE

NEW YORK—Joe Choyanski, who has been acting as boxing instructor at a Pittsburg club for the last few years, thinks he has discovered a new hope who will be able to crowd aside McCarty and Willard as soon as Choyanski turns his loose.

The veteran says his discovery frequently has knocked him down in training bouts, which convinces the big time conqueror of Jack Johnson that he is not wasting his time on a dead one.

Another month or two will be sufficient to put on the finishing touches, says Choyanski, and then challenge McCarty and Willard will be in order.

BAT NELSON AT IT AGAIN

CHICAGO—Batting Nelson, who is training for his fight in Racine, Wis., on February 5 with Ray Sorenson, is boasting for a fight bill in Illinois. He has been making speeches at Columbus, Youngstown and other cities in the interest of a fight bill recently introduced in the Ohio legislature.

Bat says his hands are all right again as a result of treatment at the hands of Bonesetter Reese.

Rudy Uhlritz is back from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he defeated Paul Sikora in a six round fight, and has boxed a match in Windsor, Canada, with Joe Phillips. The fight will take place January 22. Rudy, enthusiastic over his showing in his last little, exhibited newspaper clippings in support of his claim that he won all the say. He says the promoters gave him $25 more than they had promised to pay him because he drew such a large house. Uhlritz is hot on the trail of Bat Nelson. Parkey McFarland and Al Wolgast.

WADSWORTH-GIBB TEAM TO MEET EWA CRACKS

O'Dowda and Renton Favorites for Final Honors in Punahou Doubles Events but Yesterday's Winners Also Have Strong Support Yesterday, at the completion of the semi-finals of the Punahou tennis doubles, when David Wadsworth and Gordon Gibb defeated Wrenn Timberlake and Dwight Baldwin, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4. The game was a splendid one as have been all so far played in the tournament.

All that is left to be played now is the finals at Allan Renton and Johnny O'Dowda won their set in the semi-finals last week when they defeated Robert Horne and Platt Cooke, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4. Though they played with a handicap they did not find the game as easy as was at first expected.

The team is the strongest that can be brought together in the islands, and great things are expected from it in the California competitions. The team consists of four players, and are prepared to play their best, and let it go at that.

BEST MEDICINE MADE.

There is no better medicine made for colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions, aids expectoration, and restores the system to a healthy condition.

I read it in the Star-Bulletin. It must be so.

All-Hawaii Poloists Off For Campaign Against Coast Cracks

FOUR MEMBERS of the polo delegation that will represent Hawaii in the big California tournaments during February and March, sailed on the Monolua this morning for San Francisco.

The team is the strongest that can be brought together in the islands, and great things are expected from it in the California competitions. The team consists of four players, and are prepared to play their best, and let it go at that.

All-Oahu Ball Team Picked By Experts

A correspondent who signs himself "J. L. Walton, once a Punahou student," writes suggesting that a league baseball is now here for the time being it would be a good scheme to pick an All-Oahu team.

By an old big league umpire—Kank, the Chinese player, is without question one of the greatest catchers the game has ever known in Hawaii.

By a Chinese player—Barney Joy is the best pitcher in the business here. Our own men, Luck, Yee and Apau Kau are coming strong, and will be watching next season.

By a J. A. C. player—There is no better first baseman in the game today than Albert Akana. Filzer of the P. A. C.'s is also good, and it is hard to choose between them.

By a former Punahou pitcher—I am a pitcher, and naturally not so much interested in first basemen as some other players might be.

By a P. A. C. player—It is pretty hard to say who is the best third sacker. Last year I think that without doubt Denny Markham was.

By a member of the Hawaii team—Henry Bushnell is a great shortstop and a mighty nice fellow.

STUDENT-CHINESE GAME CALLED OFF

Markham's Aggregation to Forego Second Chance at the Fast Orientals—Students Have Little Chance and Chinese Want to Save Men for Next Sunday's Game

By mutual agreement between captains and managers, the second basketball game between the All-Students and the All-Chinese has been called off.

For this week, there will be one big game. The All-Oahu and the All-Chinese teams, which battled Sunday last in one of the most exciting contests held in the islands, will meet each other on the diamond on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Last Sunday's game was a disastrous one for both teams, for three men are now on the hospital list. Shortstop Chillingworth of the Oahu is still nursing a broken finger, while En Sue and Sing Hung of the Chinese team are in a crippled condition.

The Hawaiian band has been obtained to furnish the music at Athletic park on Sunday. The advance sale has already commenced at E. O. Hall & Son.

PUN TRACK MEN IN FIRST WORK

The first track turn-out of the season was held yesterday afternoon at Punahou and from the looks of things there will be much promising material at that school this year.

By an old big league umpire—Evers, the old St. Louis shortstop, who is now dead, was once the king of local shortstops. Ayau and Chillingworth have taken his place.

By J. K., a Hilo fan—The palm for the greatest first baseman goes to Albert Akana. For second, Knulli, of the J. A. C.'s. At third, I suppose Lai Tin and D. Markham are about equal.
