Star-Bulletin Story of Results

The popularity of a newspaper as an advertising medium is judged by its CLASSIFIED COLUMNS. The following "results" have been reported to the STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED DEPT. and are only a fraction of the ACTUAL number of advertisers who have more than received their "money's worth":

- Jan. 21 FOUND A valuable horse advertised as lost, 5 days.
Jan. 22 SOLD A $14,000. Home advertised in classified "Real Estate for Sale" column only three times.
Jan. 22 RENTED A house at $50. per month, advertised twice.
Jan. 23 SOLD A $1,500. House. Snapped up after being seen in "Classifieds" three times.
Jan. 24 FOUND A high-class Sales Manager for a large concern, one insertion only.
Jan. 26 HELP SECURED The right kind of man, as driver for prominent firm in town.
Jan. 29 FOUND A cottage for four, which filled the bill. The advertisers had been looking for a long time for what they wanted before advertising in STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED. Results in Two Days.
Jan. 31 FOUND A book containing valuable records. Brought to STAR-BULLETIN office, finder having seen "ad" in the CLASSIFIED.
Feb. 4 POSITION SECURED A clerical position. Young man had worn the soles off his shoes tramping around to the different places that he "thought" might want him. Somebody told him to advertise in STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED; now his room rent is paid and he has a "pie - card" in his vest pocket.
Feb. 8 FOUND Valuable horse, which had strayed from home.
Feb. 10 HELP SECURED The right man for manufacturing concern, 3 times.
Feb. 11 RENTED House at Kaimuki, advertised three times.
Feb. 18 FOUND Envelope containing Money Order. Brought to STAR-BULLETIN office the same day. Result: happiness. An heirloom, perhaps of trifling intrinsic value but with priceless associations and memories. A CLASSIFIED, only four days old, brought back a trinket a hundred years old.
Feb. 20 FOUND

If CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING can benefit others, why not try it yourself?
