Reception and Dance at Schofield Barracks

The most brilliant affair of the week was the reception and dance given by the officers of Leilehua in honor of General and Mrs. Frederick Funston last night. The hall was lavishly decorated with palms and cut flowers. At one end of the room was a lower of ferns and thazsons of all sorts, concealing a small stage upon which the Twenty-fifth Infantry Band played. Above this was spelt the word "Aloha" in red incandescant lights, with a white star and the letter "F" also worked out in electric bulbs. The receiving line stood in an alcove curtained off by palms and the flags of all nations, and made cozy with rugs and easy chairs. With General and Mrs. Funston in the receiving line were General and Mrs. Macomb, Col. George K. McGunnagle, commanding the post; Col. and Mrs. Aennon, Col. and Mrs. Bean and Governor and Mrs. Frear.

At about half-past nine dancing began and lasted till a very late hour. A toothsome supper was served at eleven-thirty. About four hundred people in all were present, many parties motoring out from town to attend. Some very beautiful gowns were worn on this occasion, making with the striking uniforms, a very brilliant affair of the reception.

Mrs. Funston wore a handsome gown of black chiffon over satin, with black passerette and ramesones. A touch of pale blue illusion around the neck finished the costume. Mrs. Macomb was beautiful in a gown of old rose charmeuse with white lace.

Mrs. Frear wore a lovely frock of cream colored marquisette over blue satin with touches of pink.

Mrs. Stone wore a stunning frock of saffron green chiffon over white satin embroidered with rhinestones.

Miss Nora Swanzy wore gold colored chiffon over blue satin.

Miss Katherine Winans was gowned in black with touches of gold.

Mrs. Richard Cutts was stunning in a dress of old rose colored charmeuse and real lace.

Mrs. Owen, wife of Capt. Owen, was regal in black with a dog collar of pearls.

Mrs. Betty Case wore a dainty little frock of pale blue charmeuse with pink roses.

Mrs. Cheatham was stunning in black.

Miss Hopkins wore a gown of scarlet colored chiffon over white satin.

Mrs. Joseph Andrews wore a smart little frock of gray charmeuse and chiffon.

Mrs. W. M. Graham was in pink.

Mrs. D. B. Case was in black with touches of silver.

Miss Alice Cornet was in blue marquisette over satin with touches of black, made empire fashion.

Mrs. Mercer wore a stunning frock of apricot colored charmeuse with rhinestones.

Mrs. Clifford Game was in black over white satin with a bouffant cap of white tulle.

Miss Helen Alexander was in white chiffon and satin with touches of Dresden.

Morning Music Club

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the meeting of the Morning Music Club on Wednesday. It was held this time at the Waikiki home of Mrs. W. D. Westervelt and nowhere could music on such a hot day have been appreciated except in this breeze-cooled house. The program was splendid even for the Music Club which prides itself on its musicians. The audience which numbered about a hundred ladies was most enthusiastic and appreciative. Mrs. Will Love played the first number on the program, "Forgotten Fairy Tales," by Edgar Thora MacDowell. Although comparatively simple in themselves, the quality of Mrs. Love's touch and interpretation was such that they were enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Mackall, accompanied by Mrs. Clark of Punahou, sang two songs by August Holmström, "L'Heure Rose" and "L'Heure d'Or." Her selections were very pleasing, especially the last one which suited her beautiful mezzo-soprano voice perfectly.

Miss Maillot made her debut before the club with three selections on the violin. The first two numbers, "Le Cygne," by Saint Saens and "Serenade" by Pizetti were charming little examples of light music, but the real depth and expression of her playing were brought out in an encore, "The Son of Puzos," by the Hungarian composer, Keler Bela.

Mrs. Rebecca Anderson, who has one of the most beautiful contralto voices in Honolulu, sang selections from Schumann's wonderful German songs "Frauenliebe und Leben."

The last number on the program was one that cannot call forth sufficient praise. It was on Hynsky Suite, "Nourie Anitra," played on two pianos by Mrs. Jack Balch and Mrs. Elsie Howard. Beautiful, with haunting melodies throughout, it was so difficult in its technique that it could only have been played by the most experienced pianists. Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Balch played the suite flawlessly, with a brilliancy of execution and a sympathy of touch and tone that were wonderful. The Nourie et Anitra Suite comes in a series of eight numbers, in one of which there is the additional factor of a violin. This because was played on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest Rers, who captivated her audience by the soft harmonies of her instrument. The suite then closed with a brilliant Orgie of the Gnomes when the Prince Escapes, which left the audience spell-bound and reluctant to return to life.

This is the last meeting of the Morning Music Club until next October, after which a series of splendid musicals have been arranged. The program for last Wednesday was as follows:

- (a) Sung Outside the Prince's Door
- (b) Beauty by the Rose Garden
- Mrs. Love
- Les Heures... Augusta Holmes
- (a) L'Heure rose
- (b) L'Heure d'Or
- Mrs. Mackall
- Le Cygne... Saint Saens
- Serenade... Pizetti
- Miss Maillot
- Encore—The Son of Puzos... Keler Bela
- Frauenliebe und Leben... Schumann
- Mrs. Anderson
- Nourie et Anitra—Suite... A. Hynsky

Punahou Dance

Last night at Paunahi Hall, the lower classes of Oahu College entertained at a dance in honor of the Seniors. The hall was decorated very artistically with banners, vines, palms and feathery branches of pepper. The three chandeliers were twined with vines and hung with streamers of blue and white crepe paper, the colors of the senior class. From the middle fixture, a large bow of the same material was fastened. Only the students of the college were present, a very enjoyable time being had. The dance, which is one of the last of the year, broke up at about eleven o'clock, to the regret of many enthusiastic ones who would like to have prolonged their pleasure.

Mrs. Stayton's Swimming Party

Taking advantage of the hot weather and the moonlight nights, many of Honolulu hostesses have been entertaining at bathing parties. One of the largest of these was given by Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stayton, of Fort Ruger. After a refreshing swim at Waikiki, the party motored to the Stayton bungalow, where a substantial Dutch supper was served. The bathers on this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Under, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Tackabury, Capt. and Mrs. Wen, Dr. and Mrs. Huntington, Miss Winters, Miss McDonald, Lieut. Tilton, Lieut. O'Hara, Capt. Hanna, Lieut. Van Deusen and Lieut. Voring.

Miss Restarick is Guest of Honor

Miss Margaret Restarick was the incentive for a beautifully appointed dinner last night at the Country Club. The table was most attractively decorated with scarlet carnations and maiden hair fern. The place cards were very unique as well as amusing. At each place was a short original verse, the last line of which rhymed with the guest's name, thereby indicating his seat. After dinner the time was pleasantly spent in dancing. Among those present were Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Beth Woods, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Carrie McLean, Miss Hazel Puckland, Miss Ruth Soper, Mr. Ed Kettis, Mr. Reynold McGrew, Mr. Thomas Gray, Mr. Dixon Nott, Mr. Alfred Eames, Mr. Allan Renton, and the guest of honor, Miss Margaret Restarick.

Miss India Wayson's Dancing Party

Miss India Wayson entertained a gathering of her young friends Friday night at her home on Beretania street. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing. Those present were Misses Danche Wishard, Jessie Baldwin, Frances Farrington, Gertrude Blake, Ilana and Rachel Woods, Marion Paris, Esther Gibbs, Dorothy Winter, Helen Unter, Margaret Austin, Aileen Dowsett, Violet Madden, Adelaide Pratt, Emily Cooke, Helen Church, Ruth Gartley, Lydia Mutch, Louise Givens, Genevieve Hoeking, Rhoda Ballentyne, Mr. Henry Cooke, Maynard Davison, Werner Smith, John Fasset, Herman Alexander, Ronald Higgins, James Pratt, Donald Young, Ernest Peterson, Howard Smith, Franklin Richardson, Jere Smith, Curtis Turner, Leon Ebersole, Everett Brown, Bertram Aiken, Sam Wilder, Ronald von Holt, Howard Johnson and Roy Graham.

Engagement Announced

At a luncheon given at the Chevy Chase Club Saturday by Mrs. A. A. Hoehling, Jr., announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Anne Wilmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ringgold Wilmer, to Lieut. Cortland C. Baughman of the navy. Lieut. Baughman graduated from the naval academy in 1907, and at present is assigned to duty on the cruiser Colorado, now on the Pacific coast.—Army and Navy Register.

Lieut. Baughman, familiarly known as Chester Baughman, has many friends in Honolulu, having made lengthy stays in the islands, first on the Chattanooga three years ago, and on the Colorado last year, when the fleet was here for four months.

Mrs. Hunn's Luncheon

The ladies of the U. S. Experiment Station were the guests of Mrs. Chester J. Hunn at an informal tea on last Tuesday afternoon. The affair was in honor of Mrs. D. T. F. away, who, with her two sons, left Wednesday on a visit to California. Mrs. Hunn's guests were: Mrs. E. V. Wilcox, Mrs. D. T. Pullaway, Mrs. C. K. McClelland, Mrs. A. T. Longley; Mrs. J. E. Higgins, Mrs. F. G. Krauss, Mrs. John, Mrs. McCormick and Miss Alice Thompson.

Personal Items

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Short, who have recently arrived from Canada, have been spending the past week with Mrs. Williams at Waikiki. They leave very shortly, however, for the island of Hawaii where they expect to make their home for some time to come.

Mrs. Peck's Card Party

Although the day was exceedingly warm, some very good bridge was enjoyed at the card party given by Mrs. Philip Peck Tuesday afternoon at her home on Kewalo street. Competition was keen but in the end the prizes, dainty little affairs of ribbed silk and gold lace, went to Mrs. Day, Mrs. Lackland, Miss Lydia McStocker, Mrs. C. A. Brown and Mrs. Stone. The house was most attractively decorated with the ever popular yellow coreopsis, with palms and maiden hair ferns. At about 4 o'clock good things to eat were served, after which playing was resumed. Mrs. Peck's guests were Mrs. Frank Halstead, Miss Lydia McStocker, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Day, Mrs. F. B. McStocker, Miss Julie McStocker, Mrs. A. Hocking, Mrs. Edward Grossman, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Lackland, Mrs. Ormond Wall, Mrs. Nelson Lansing, Mrs. Gartonberg, Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Unger, Mrs. Fred Smith, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Sam Peck, and Mrs. Hyman. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Peck's sister, Mrs. Hyman, who has recently arrived from the States.

Luncheon at College of Hawaii

As a culmination of their year's work in the Domestic Science department of the College of Hawaii, and in proof that they really had mastered all the difficulties of culinary art, Miss Lillian Boyd and Miss Marilla Flint were hostesses at a most dainty and delicious luncheon Tuesday. The affair took place in the college dining-room which was prettily decorated with golden coreopsis and maiden hair ferns. The entire menu was cooked by the two young hostesses and the zestful manner with which the guests cleared up their plates was ample evidence of the toothsome nature of the repast. Warm admiration and hearty congratulations were showered on the two girls whose skill had concocted the dainty meal. The guests on this occasion were President Gilmore, Miss Marjory Smith, Miss Mirlam Clark, Miss Florence Lee, Mr. Leslie Clark, and Mr. Marcellino. A similar affair to this is being planned for Friday by the members of the special cooking class, which those fortunate enough to be invited are anticipating with much pleasure.

Professor MacNeil of Punahou is having a private exhibition of his color plate photographs on Thursday night at Bishop Hall.

A DAINY TOILET ARTICLE

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at theater, attending receptions, when shopping, while traveling and on all occasions, should carry in her purse a booklet of Gouraud's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff, as it does not spill and soil the clothes.

It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool, delicate bloom to the complexion. Put up in White and Pink and sent anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamp or coin. F. T. Hopkins, 37 Great Jones St., New York.

JORDAN'S

The social event of the season at Fort D. A. Russell was the beautiful wedding of Miss O. E. Elizabeth Berry, 4th U. S. Field Art., and Lieut. Robert C. McDonald, Med. Corps, U. S. A., celebrated at the home of the bride April 27. Archdeacon Day, of the Protestant Episcopal church, pronounced the words that made them man and wife. The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse, trimmed in rose point lace, and carried an exquisite bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. The bride veil was fastened with orange blossoms. The only ornament worn by the bride was a platinum and diamond necklace, a gift of the groom. Miss Emily Berry, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Lincoln G. Berry, brother of the bride, was best man. Colonel Berry, who came from Texas City to attend the wedding, gave his daughter away in the presence of about fifty guests from Fort D. A. Russell and Cheyenne. The happy young couple left later on the train for San Francisco, from which place they will sail for Honolulu, where Dr. McDonald is stationed.—Army and Navy Journal.

A delightful bridge tea was given Thursday by Mrs. Joseph A. Rogers. Five tables of bridge were arranged, and later at the tea Mrs. William S. Graves and Mrs. Charles W. Exton poured tea while Mrs. Bowen, sister of the hostess, assisted. Prizes were won by Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Willis Ulline and Mrs. Walter S. Drysdale.—Army and Navy Journal.

Mrs. Rogers was Miss Ethel Spalding, whose marriage to Lieut. Rogers last November was one of the events of the season in Honolulu.

Mrs. E. R. Bath was an incoming passenger on the Honolulu this week after an extended tour of Europe, Canada and the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright have decided to name their infant son William Edward. No date has been set for the christening as yet.

Mrs. Rose Herbert sailed on the Wilhelmmina Wednesday for a visit of several months in California. Miss Herbert expects to spend most of her time with Miss Helen Wilder in Watsonville.

Mrs. Harmon Anderson arrived on the Honolulu this week for a flying trip to the islands. Mrs. Anderson accompanied her brother, Mr. Marmon Magoon, who has been very ill with typhoid fever while at school in California.

The College Club is greatly disappointed that Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie was unable to speak before its members when he passed through on the Shinyo last Monday. Dr. Mabie had expressed himself to one of the officers of the club as being delighted to give a short talk, but upon the arrival of the steamer, it was found that his time was too greatly taken up. Dr. Mabie expects to spend two or three weeks in Honolulu next year on his way to the Orient, in which case he will give many interesting lectures before the College Club and other organizations.

The Neighborhood Sewing Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. St. Clair Sayres. A very pleasant, as well as busy day was spent by all. At luncheon a dainty repast was served, after which the ladies lost no time in resuming their interesting work. The members of this club are Mrs. Sayres, Mrs. Guy Gere, Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Fred Bush, Mrs. Lyser, Mrs. Philip Frear, Miss Jessie Smith, Mrs. Marston Campbell and Mrs. John Drew.

The hot weather has been the cause of many delightful swimming parties this week. Almost every night the Outrigger Club has been the scene of great activity, toothsome suppers following after an hour or two of strenuous bathing. On Tuesday night, Miss Dietrich was hostess for a party of thirty-two, while Mrs. Louis Warren had a smaller one. Wednesday, Miss Darnell and Mrs. Gilman entertained parties, while Miss Larraby was hostess on Thursday.

John T. Moir, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Fannie Moir are on their way to Scotland. On their way east they will stop at Cornell University and visit Jack Moir, who is a freshman in the Eastern college. Jack is to remain at Cornell this summer and do some extra work, so will not Captain Elliott's ship, the Maryland, is to be here on Monday next or a week's stay, preparatory to leaving for an Alaskan cruise, and Mrs. Elliott and Miss Elliott will remain here during its absence. They will be joined May 12 by Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, who is to spend some time here before going on to the Charleston navy yard, where Lieut. Kingsbury was formerly Miss Elliott.—From Mare Island Notes in Army and Navy Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trenholm Warren sail next week on the Sierra for a six weeks' visit in California. Although the trip is not altogether one of pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. Warren expect to get many good times out of it as well as the bracing effects of the cool climate.

Mrs. Randolph Moore sails in June for a trip of several months in the States.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gibson leave on the Sierra for a visit on the mainland.

Mrs. J. Marquis and Miss Alberta Marquis, who have been visiting Mrs. G. F. Bush for the last three months, sailed Wednesday on the Wilhelmmina for their home in Santa Cruz. While in Honolulu, they were the incentive for many social affairs.

Mrs. Easton Mills and Miss Helen Mills departed for their home in San Francisco Wednesday, after a short visit in Hawaii.

Among the outgoing passengers on Wednesday's Wilhelmmina were Judge and Mrs. John G. Hunt of San Francisco, who have been spending the past few weeks in the islands.

Mr. John Gifford, the talented young violinist, departed on Wednesday's Wilhelmmina to pursue his musical studies in the states.

Mrs. C. Adams, brother of Mrs. Walter Dillingham, and her son, Mr. Harry Gaylord, were outgoing passengers Wednesday on the Wilhelmmina.

Miss Betty Case motored in from Leilehua on Tuesday to be present at the Country Club dance. Many of the officers from Schofield also came in to attend.

Miss Bell of Leilehua entertained at an informal card party on Wednesday night. A very pleasant evening was spent with the ever-popular game of "lilies."

CASCARETS TONIGHT! IF BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED, HEADACHY AND SICK

Turn the screws out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, constipation, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight with Cascarets. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach. Don't put in another day of distress—wake up refreshed and feel fine. Let Cascarets cleanse and sweeten your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and constipation poison from the bowels. Then you will feel great. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box keeps your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—advertisement.
