LOCAL AND GENERAL

Class Day exercises were held at the Kawaiahaeo Seminary yesterday afternoon, being participated in by the students of the institution in honor of the members of the graduating class.

The funeral of Mrs. Chung Mee Hing, wife of the prominent Chinese mason, will be held at Silva's undertaking parlor tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Hearing of the case of Pukuwela Mokin and Susie Ahee, indicted recently by the federal grand jury on a statutory charge, probably will begin tomorrow morning in the U. S. district court.

The trials of Albert Machado and Edward Cluney, indicted for white slavery, have been continued until the next term of U. S. district court. Both were arraigned yesterday, entering pleas of not guilty.

Asking damages in the sum of $20,500, J. Oswald Lutted has filed suit in circuit court against Dr. George Herbert. Plaintiff alleges that the physician's failure to cure him resulted in the amputation of his leg.

Among the passengers booked to leave on the S. S. Wilhelmina for San Francisco are Dr. and Mrs. Herbert. Dr. Herbert expects to be absent for about six weeks. During his absence Dr. St. D. G. Walters will have entire charge of his practice.

The marriage of Miss Helen Eames of Honolulu and Eugene Tryon Redmond of Boston was celebrated in San Francisco on Tuesday evening, June 3, in St. Luke's Episcopal Church. After a short honeymoon in California the couple will reside in Boston.

The many friends of Mrs. Eva Bowen, also the members of St. Andrew's choir, for which she has been a member for a year or more, to bid her bon voyage and aloha on her trip to Australia via the S. S. Niagara, also a safe return to the islands in her own good time.

Manager G. W. Green, says the San Francisco papers of June 7, arrived there June 6 in the Sierra with his baseball outfit, composed of natives from the Hawaiian Islands, and expects to make a tour through the United States, playing all the fast semi-professional teams.

Manuel Ferreira received a sentence of six months' imprisonment, with costs, and Joseph P. Herrera drew five months imprisonment with costs in U. S. district court this morning.

After some hesitation and a show of legal fight on Ferreira's part, both entered a plea of guilty to the charge of opium smuggling.

Laurence J. Hewes, of the office of public roads in the department of agriculture, has written a booklet on the repair and maintenance of highways, which is being read with considerable interest here by officials connected with road improving. It is quite a complete little book and gives an abundance of information on the best methods of keeping highways in shape.

A literary and musical program composed the exercises at the Sacred Heart Academy, Kaimuki, held last evening to mark the close of the 1912-1913 school year. Miss E. McCandless and Miss M. K. Hudson were awarded diplomas, while Miss Geo. Wan Hoy and Miss L. Condor received certificates of accuracy in shorthand. A large audience was present.

At a meeting this morning of the committees in charge of the Fourth of July celebration, of which Ed. Towse is chairman and George Henshall secretary, John Anderson was appointed to have charge of the track and field sports at Kapiolani Park, Ben Hollinger to have charge of the horse races and Charles R. Frazier of the decorated auto truck section of the parade.

C. R. Graham, who has been traffic manager of the Wells Fargo Express Company in the West, has been promoted to the position of general superintendent, says the San Francisco Call of June 3. Graham's jurisdiction extends over the San Francisco, Central California, Northern California and Nevada, Oregon-Puget Sound, Alaska-Yukon divisions and the lines and agencies in Hawaii.

Martin Neuman, former employe of the local postoffice, who was indicted by the federal grand jury recently on the charge of embezzling $90 from the office, arrived on the Honolulu this morning in the custody of Deputy Marshal Grover, of the San Francisco office. He was picked up by the official on the coast on a warrant from Marshal E. R. Hendry, and is brought back to face trial.

The following persons have been elected to serve as officers of the Kaahumanu Society for the ensuing year: Miss Lucy K. Peabody, president; Mrs. Mary Beckley, vice president; Mrs. Ithani Techera, treasurer; Mrs. Lahlali Webb, secretary; Miss Grace Kahoali, assistant secretary; Mrs. Lilia K. Aholo, sick committee; Mrs. Eliza H. Dwight, auditor; Mrs. Maria Smith, trustee of land. The members of the executive committee are Mesdames Irene Holloway, Alice Colburn, Kalai Farr, Lizzie Ulunahete, Emilia Leal, Ah Ayau, Lokalia Holt, Kamala Kalana.

Morning on Change

Pioneer was the leading, and the only, seller this morning on the exchange, six sales of it being made during the session, in parcels ranging from 15 shares to 50, at 18.50. A few shares sold yesterday at this price. Pioneer held the entire attention of the market so far as the sales show, during the morning. It is true, however, that between boards Oahu, Olaa and Pioneer were disposed of in small lots, as well as $2000 Natomas 68 at 92.50. Oahu sold at 14.25, Olaa at 1.25.

New Zealand meat, the first importation to this territory, will arrive by the Marama today.

It is a fancy first grade beef. Give us a trial order. C. Q. Yee Hop & Co., telephone 3451.
