AMBASSADOR GUTHRIE THE GUEST OF HONOR Diplomat And His Family Are Enroute to The Far East

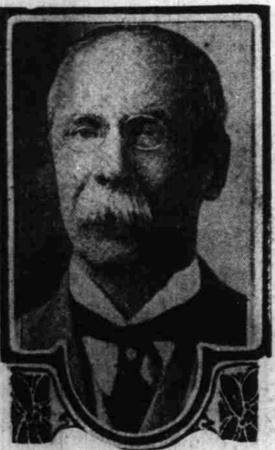

Sons And Daughters of Revolution Hosts to Diplomat

Ambassador and Mrs. George W. Guthrie, accompanied by Miss Guthrie, arrived in Honolulu in the Mongolia this morning and are being entertained during the day by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, the local Japanese consul, the Japan Society of Hawaii, and L. L. McCandless.

The chief event in the entertainment line was the luncheon at the Young Hotel at 12:45 this afternoon, at which about 70 per cent sat down around the banquet board. Preceding the luncheon a reception was held in the parlors of the Young during which Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie met a large delegation of the prominent residents of Honolulu.

At the luncheon, besides the guests of honor, at the head of the table were Perley L. Horne and Mrs. Horne, General and Mrs. Frederick Funston, Admiral C. B. T. Moore, Governor Frear, the Japanese consul and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder, while the Japanese society of Hawaii was represented by its president, Prof. M. M. Scott, accompanied by Mrs. Scott.

Reception for Ambassador. Ambassador Guthrie was entertained this morning by the diplomatic representative of the country to which he is accredited, Consul General Itaki of Japan. It has been the original intention of the local Japanese society to take charge of all arrangements for the reception of the new ambassador, but the invitation of the Sons of the American Revolution was received first by Ambassador Guthrie, and consequently only a portion of his time here could be spent with the "Mikado's" subjects and their friends.

George W. Guthrie, Ambassador from the United States to Japan, who is a visitor in Honolulu today.

After a brief tour around the city and to the Pali by auto, the ambassador was taken to the home of Consul General Itaki, on Nuuanu street, where a reception was held to meet the editors of the local Japanese papers, and members of the Japanese Merchants' Association, and the Japanese Medical Society, of Honolulu. Between 11 and 11:45 Ambassador Guthrie made the acquaintance of prominent Honolulu Japanese.

and I have been able to get at least some idea of the place and the people.

The new ambassador to Japan talked interestingly of things Japanese with his host and the guests, and altogether the consul general's reception proved a happy break in the strenuous morning.

Among the prominent members of the Japanese colony who were presented to Ambassador Guthrie this morning were: Y. Akai, Dr. J. Uchida, Dr. I. Mori, Dr. K. Haida, T. Sudo, Rev. Okumura, D. Yofekura, Editor S. Sheba, Editor Y. Soga, Editor Inokuchi, Editor Hata, Rev. Y. Imamura, Rev. G. Motokawa, Rev. Y. Ito, M. Kawahara, Y. Takakuwa, R. Niki, Y. Ishii, Rev. C. Makamura, K. Joshima, A. K. Ozawa, I. Nakasa, Editor Yoshimachi, Y. Mikami.

Welcomed on the Mongolia. Bearing a message of peace and harmony between the United States and Japan, Ambassador Guthrie was met, while in mid-stream by a committee from the Sons of the American Revolution, who welcomed the ambassador to Honolulu in the name of that organization and advised him of the details of the entertainment that had been planned for the party while in this port. The committee consisted of Messrs. Horne, Barnes, Canfield and F. C. Atherton.

Upon the docking of the boat former governor George Carter bid the distinguished visitor welcome.

The presence of local Japanese high in consular and commercial circles at the impromptu reception held on board the liner following the berthing.

REPUBLICANS ON LOOKOUT FOR A NEW CHAIRMAN

Head of County Committee Says He Will 'Stick and Fight' Until Convinced Otherwise

Republican circles yesterday and today were stirred by the report that Chairman Bertram von Damm and Secretary John H. Wise of the Republican county committee have about made up their minds to resign their positions, and simultaneously active party men began canvassing the situation for possible successors to the two officials.

Chairman von Damm says that until he is convinced that it is for the good of the party that he resign, and until a successor is available who can give satisfaction, he will "stick and fight." Wise frankly states that he is contemplating resigning and that he has never taken the position that he would not quit the secretaryship, but only that his precinct wishes him to remain a member of the county committee and he will do so until the precinct decrees otherwise.

Several names have been suggested for county chairman since von Damm announced last Friday night that he was ready to resign. His statement at that time is generally taken as meaning that either now or within a short time he will resign from the chairmanship and several members of the committee are known to favor a new chairman.

Among the names mentioned for chairman are those of Senator A. F. Judd, L. M. Judd, present committee member from the fifth precinct of the fourth district, E. Faxon Bishop and Norman Watkins. Senator Judd's name has been most prominently mentioned in the discussion, but he said this morning that he will not accept the position.

"I cannot give the time it demands," he said, "and I feel that in the past few years I have devoted all the time to public service that I can, as an official. I expect to do my work in the precinct-club."

It could not be learned this morning that Mr. Bishop had been approached with reference to the matter. The names of the others have been mentioned rather casually and no move has been made to see if they would take the position.

John Hughes to Build Hawaii's Fair Building

John Hughes, superintendent of Hawaii's building at the Panama Pacific Exposition of 1913.

DR. WILCOX HEADS COM- MITTEE OF HORTICUL- TURE AND AGRI- CULTURE

Meeting for the first time since the return of the chairman from his trip to San Francisco in the interests of the organization, the members of the Hawaii fair commission, sitting in session at ten o'clock in the rooms of the promotion committee, this morning named John Hughes, of the Oahu Railroad and Land Company, as building superintendent for the Hawaiian building at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915. Those members of the commission present at the meeting were H. P. Wood, chairman; A. P. Taylor, secretary; John Hughes, John Wise and C. E. Wright.

During his visit to the mainland, the chairman of the commission interviewed the heads of the exposition and made complete arrangements for the location and completion of Hawaii's building, and the appointment of Mr. Hughes, as well as the com-

CANTON, China, July 22.—As a result of the revolution that is setting the southern province aflame, trade here and in this section is almost completely paralyzed. Thousands are fleeing. The general feeling in Chinese centers seems to be that Gen. Yuan Shih-Kai and his trained army will defeat the revolutionists.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Thomas Hayden, special prosecutor of the federal department of justice, whose appointment as associate counsel in the Diggs-Caminetti cases was criticized because Hayden is a close friend of the Caminetti family, has resigned. McReynolds says that a federal district attorney for San Francisco has not yet been chosen.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, July 22.—It is reported that the statement that Turkey has occupied Adrianople has been disproved, but that the occupation is expected soon.

BRYAN TELLS OF EARNING CAPABILITY

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Washington was interested chiefly today in developments following Secretary Bryan's statement that he had to spend his vacation on the lecture platform because he could not live on the secretary of state's salary of $12,000 a year.

The lobby investigation, the tariff and the Mexican situation were forgotten, temporarily, at least, while everybody talked about the resolution introduced by Senator Bristow calling on the president to "advise the senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present secretary of state to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties."

When the Bristow resolution was read amid Republican laughter, Democratic Leader Kern and other senators immediately objected to its consideration, and after a few brief exchanges it went over. It was fully discussed, however, in the lobbies and cloakrooms at both ends of the capitol.

Bryan Answers Critics. "When Mr. Bryan's attention was called to some criticisms that had been published in regard to his lecturing, he replied as follows: "I am glad to have the criticism brought to my attention. I believe in criticism of public officials. Criticism is helpful. If a man makes a mistake, criticism enables him to correct it; if he is unjustly criticized the criticism helps him."

"In devoting a part of my vacation to lecturing, I am doing what I believe to be proper, and I have no fear whatever that any unbiased person will criticize me when he knows the facts."

"For seventeen years the sources of my income have been writing and lecturing."

"My earning capacity has been large and I have made not only an income sufficient for my immediate needs, but have saved, on an average, something more than $10,000 a year. In accepting the office which I now hold, I gave up the opportunity to add to my accumulations, for I do not expect to increase during my term the amount I have laid aside—that is, I am willing to forego whatever advantage I might derive from the acquiring of $40,000 more for the privilege of serving the country in this office during the coming four years."

What Secretaries Were Paid. "Therefore, until I see some reason to bring my income up to my expenses, these lectures will be delivered during the time that other officials give to their vacations."

Senator Bristow's resolution set out that from 1789 to 1799 Thomas Jefferson and Edmund Randolph held the office of secretary of state at salaries of $3,500 a year; from 1799 to 1812, John Marshall, James Madison, James Monroe, and John Quincy Adams served at $5,000, from 1812 to 1853, Henry Clay, Martin Van Buren, Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun and James Buchanan served at $6,000; from 1853 to 1911, William H. Seward, James G. Blaine, Thomas F. Bayard, Walter Q. Gresham, Richard Olney, John Sherman, John Hay and Elihu Root served for $8,000, and added:

"During this long period of time, no one of these eminent statesmen was compelled to neglect the duties of the office because of the meagerness of salary."

"Whereas, the 'great commoner' now holding that high office, Honorable William J. Bryan, has stated in the public press that the salary of $10,000 per month is not sufficient to enable him to live with comfort and that because of the meagerness of the salary of $12,000 per annum he is compelled to neglect the duties of his office and go upon the lecture platform in order to earn a living.

Bryan's Rent is $4,000. Resolved, That the president be

PROGRESSIVES PLAN Dinner TO BOOM NEW PARTY

Anniversary of First Convention Date, Aug. 5, Will Bring Local Bull Moosers Together

Hawaii Bull Moosers will fire the first gun of a new party campaign in Hawaii at a dinner to be held on the evening of August 5. Detailed arrangements for the affair are still to be made, but the comparatively few Progressives in Honolulu are already enthusiastically booming the idea.

It will be an anniversary dinner. The party was born on August 5, 1912, at the Progressive convention in Chicago. At least, that is the official date of its birth, though some political historians have contended that the interesting event took place when the Roosevelt forces withdrew from the Republican convention some weeks earlier.

Progressives all over the United States will meet on August 5 to celebrate the anniversary and the Hawaii Bull Moosers will celebrate also.

A. L. C. Atkinson, national committeeman of the party for Hawaii, said this morning that no arrangements for the dinner have yet been made and that there is no way of determining how many will be present. "The party is growing fast," he said, "and anyone who believes in Progressive principles or who wishes to learn more about the party is welcome. In fact, anyone is welcome who will come and sit with us. It will be a dollar dinner."

Local Bull Moosers, it has been known for some time, are preparing to put a complete ticket in the field at the next election. They expect to be headed from in politics.

Incidentally, Hawaii Progressives have received an anonymous post-card dated at Buffalo, New York, and bearing on the blank side merely this: "Governor Stubbs of Kansas, Progressive candidate for president, 1916."

STANFORD TO PLAY ST. LOUIS AND THE PORTUGUESE TEAM

The Stanford baseball team will play two more games in Honolulu, Saturday the collegians will go up against the St. Louis team at Moiliili, for the third time. Sunday next the team will play the Portuguese Athletic Club at Athletic Park. This program was decided on last night.

The Stanford team leaves tomorrow on the Mauna Kea for a flying trip to the volcano. The players will return Saturday morning.

City Engineer Given Power to Name Employees

Legal Opinion Stops Mayor from Naming Successor to J. J. Smiddy

Emphatic in his statement as to what official falls the right to appoint the successor of Road Supervisor J. J. Smiddy, whose resignation takes effect the last of this month, P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney, presented Mayor Joseph J. Fern with a lengthy legal opinion today, which meets with the displeasure of the city's chief executive.

In his opinion Attorney Weaver strongly affirms that the mayor has not the legal right to appoint an assistant of the city and county engineer, but that the latter official, by virtue of an ordinance passed by the supervisors, has the authority to name the successor of Smiddy.

So long as this ordinance is on the books, says the deputy city and county attorney, the mayor will be obliged to keep his hands off the appointments of City and County Engineer Whitehouse's assistants, and his appointive power, restored to him by the last legislature must be confined to such cases "where election or appointment is not otherwise provided for by this charter or by law."

Mayor Fern is displeased with the opinion, and he has made no attempt to conceal his displeasure. That he will ignore it, however, may be strongly doubted. Intimations he made this afternoon bear strongly on the prediction that he will seek to cause the ordinance giving the city and county engineer the power to appoint his assistants to be repealed, and in that way vest the appointive power over the position of the road supervisor with himself.

That the opinion of Mr. Weaver is the forerunner of more city and county official squabbles also seems to be clear. Mayor Fern discussed the opinion with Supervisor McClellan this afternoon, and though he announced no conclusion as to what he plans to do, he expressed himself in favor of repealing the ordinance, which would mean another bone of contention for the supervisors and city and county officials generally.

Mayor Fern did not wish to give out the opinion and justified his reluctance of making it public by stating that he had called for it for his own personal wish, desiring to be forearmed in case he named the successor of Smiddy.

"I do not wish any trouble over this," he said. "I only asked for it for my personal information, and give"

MORTARS AT KAMEHAMEHA PROOF-FIRED THIS A. M.

The 12-inch mortars at Fort Kamehameha were proof-fired today by Captain B. O. Mahaffey, department ordinance officer. One of these mortars was fired a couple of weeks ago by Col. C. W. Waller, formerly of the ordnance staff, but the remaining three mortars in the pit were not ready to be proof-fired at that time, and were left until today for the final test.

Colonel Rafferty, commanding the coast defenses of Oahu, witnessed the firing this morning.

UNDESIRABLE IMMIGRANTS TO BE RETURNED

J. K. Brown Will Accompany Delegation as Far as Hongkong, China

More than a score of Spanish immigrants, brought here on the Ascot, are to be deported. They will be put on the liner Mongolia tomorrow, and, under the supervision of J. K. Brown, of the custom house, taken as far as Hongkong, where arrangements will be made for their return to Spain.

When the Ascot arrived in port here a few weeks ago, bringing the Spanish immigrants, about a score were detained by the federal immigration officials, but for a time it was believed they would be released. It has now been established that they are suffering from typhoid, the victims of which disease are forbidden entrance into the United States.

When the deported immigrants arrive in Hongkong, Mr. Brown will leave them upon seeing them safely aboard a ship for Spain. The agent of the territorial immigration department, which department chartered the Ascot to bring the emigrants here, in Spain, will see that the deported persons reach their homes. Brown has been given a leave of absence.

SEE MORE POSSIBILITY OF OUTSIDER FOR PLACE

Opponents of L. E. Pinkham's candidacy for the governorship have been busily engaged for the past few days in digging into Pinkham's local record and particularly the circumstances surrounding the now-famous board of health which stirred up Japanese official circles here. According to dispatches from Washington, this is being used against him there by Senator John Sharp Williams, who is backing E. M. Watson for the position.

Pinkham's candidacy is still not taken seriously by the majority of those interested in the race for the governorship.

A good many comments were made today on the possibility of President Wilson growing tired of the Hawaii situation and asking Congress to amend the organic act so that he may nominate a mainland candidate for the position.

HORNER TO MANAGE PINEAPPLE CONCERN

The Kapaa pineapple cannery and plantation on Kauai, which were promoted last year by the president of the Canneries Company of California, who came here to investigate the pineapple situation, have for superintendent Albert Horner, formerly manager of Kukalau sugar plantation. Plans for operating the concern are not yet matured, but will be at an early date. The Kapaa homesteaders will plant pines for the factory, in addition to the company's own planting.

MODERATE PROTECTIVE DUTY NOW APPEARS AS POSSIBILITY

By C. S. ALBERT
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Republican senators have taken a new lease on hope and believe they will be able to accomplish some results in the direction of imposing a moderate protective duty on wool. The same optimism extends to sugar and other features of the Underwood-Simmons bill. This conclusion was reached several days after the Democratic caucus completed its work, and after the measure had been favorably reported from the finance committee.

Senator Smoot made a careful investigation of the situation and subsequently gave out an interview wherein he expressed the firm belief that enough of the dissatisfied Democrats would cooperate with the Republicans to place a duty on sugar and wool. He was positive this could be done in the senate and the bill sent back to the house for concurrence in the various amendments added. He was not sure that the house would not later force the senate to recede from its position and have sugar and wool on the free list. This would follow the conference on the disputed items.

In any event, more encouragement is extended by Republican senators now than at any previous time since the ways and means committee issued its pronouncement in favor of free sugar and wool. It may mean no specific results in the end but it presages a good fight, with a chance of winning, and that is better than the hopeless condition heretofore prevailing.

The subject has been carefully discussed by Mr. Smoot with the five Democratic senators who decline to take a so-called binding pledge in caucus. Their conversation satisfied the Utah senator that they would vote for Republican amendments on sugar and wool.

The provision for sugar was drawn long ago by Senator Bristow, acting for the Republicans. It reduces the present rate to $15.52 per 100 pounds. There is no expectation that this high duty will be supported by the dissenting Democrats. They will insist on a much lower rate. The duty suggested by Senator Shafroth amounts to about 50 cents per hundred pounds.

Senators Newlands, Randall and Thornton, favor a higher rate than 50 cents, but believe it can be fixed below the point indicated by Mr. Bristow, and which he calls an irreducible minimum.

In the opinion of Mr. Bristow the dissatisfied Democrats will prepare their own sugar amendment. The Republicans will accept it, after that proposed by Mr. Bristow is rejected, on the theory that a small protective duty is better than free sugar.

EASTERN AD MAN ON PLAY TRIP TO JAPAN

A live wire in the advertising and publishing field, and identified with the business along the east coast of the United States for years, Robert Frothingham, a former business manager and advertising expert connected with Life, Everybody's and the several Buttrick publications, is a visitor at Honolulu pending the stay of the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia at the port.

Mr. Frothingham, accompanied by Mrs. Frothingham, is on a tour of the world.

"I have been so completely tied down by my duties with the several publishing concerns that I have never taken time for a real play," he ad-

AUTOISTS STILL FEEL LAW'S GRIP

Business and professional men in goodly numbers have been invited to attend an early session of the Monsarrat matinee, the invitations, while being confined to a rather exclusive delegation of well-known Honolulu are in the main directed toward the owners or drivers of automobiles.

Charged with speeding, operating cars without satisfactory numbers, or cutting downtown corners at the risk of limb and safety of pedestrians are the variety of allegations proffered by police officers, who figure in the prosecution.

It was a goodly batch of penal summons that were turned over to representatives of the police department this morning. The little bits of paper are made out returnable within 48 hours.

The list would do credit to a local "Bradstreet" or the lineup at a popular reception to a distinguished visitor within the city gates.

Here are some who were spotted by Special Officers Chilton and Ferry within the past few days or evenings.

Stanley Kennedy, driving at too fast a pace; Harry Von Holt, speeding; James Quinn, improper number; Roscoe W. Perkins, alleged to have cut the corners on too close a margin for safety; Takamoto, no number on side lights; Harold Castle, driving an unlighted machine; V. Freitas, Frank Reynolds, C. W. Waller, Chan Wilder, failed to satisfy the police as to the number carried on their machines.

James F. Morgan, cutting corners; Sylvester Garrido, rounded corners on a close margin, while James A. Williams is wanted on a similar charge.

The lynx-eyed officers ran down Alonzo Hartley, who was asked to call around at the police station to answer to a charge of driving his car too fast in approaching a street intersection. Hartley is also alleged to have cut off more than allowable in negotiating corners.

In the bunch of summons are found the names of R. T. Dempsey and L. Smith Hirth, who are alleged as having cut corners. M. S. Hammond is charged with taking the right of way of a preceding machine, much to the danger of the occupants of the other auto.

Judge Monsarrat had occasion this morning to pass judgment upon several local autoists who had been rounded up through recent police activity. Frank Draper charged with speeding and carrying no numbers on his car was turned over to the military authorities for trial.

Gus Schuman was given more time in which to answer to a charge of carrying no number on his car. The case goes over until July 29.

Ed Lord also asked for more time, and will be given until Friday to answer to allegations submitted by the police agent speeding of a car through a downtown street.

A. W. Eames, the pineapple man, paid a fine of five dollars, it being alleged that he failed to place a proper number of his machine.

J. H. Kearney was assessed a fine of $25 and costs when found guilty of exceeding the speed limit.

requested, if not incompatible with the public interests, to advise the senate what would be a proper salary to enable the present secretary of state to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties, for which he is now being paid the sum of $10,000 per month."

Senator Shafroth of Colorado declared Secretary Bryan had assured him he did not desire an increase of salary.

Secretary Bryan's home in Washington is the old mansion of General John A. Logan, for which he pays $4000 a year. He has the use of certain horses and equipages which belong to the state department, but he often prefers to drive his own automobile.
