

"All Out"

When the Fire Department Chief says that it means, to him, that he's finished with the work of battling with the flames.

It ALSO means, to YOU, that YOU'RE FINISHED, financially—unless you've had the forethought to buy Fire Insurance.

Rather than be so finished

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

Assured that New York's request for the extradition of Harry K. Thaw will not be granted by the Canadian authorities, George Carnegie, his brother-in-law, was reported to be arranging to have a yacht in Canadian waters in which in which Stanford White's slayer will be taken to Virginia.

Must Leave Canada.
Thaw's Sherbrooke counsel, Attorney Shurtcliffe, returned today from Ottawa, where he had been interviewing the heads of the immigration service. Shurtcliffe told Thaw flatly that he would probably have to leave Canada, but that he positively would not be returned to New York state.

Says Thaw is Sane.
"Harry Thaw is perfectly sane," this was the dictum today of Dr. Jos. Noel, jail physician, after an exhaustive examination of the slayer of Stanford White, in his cell for forty-five minutes. Doctor Noel put Thaw through all sorts of tests.

His verdict is expected to be vitally important in Thaw's fight for freedom. Doctor Noel said he had prepared a report to send to the immigration authorities. "Harry Thaw," he said, "is as sane as you or I. I have watched him carefully since his arrival."

It is reported in Washington that late despatches received from Mexico through official channels announce Provisional President Huerta's intention of reconsidering the American proposals of mediation and of withdrawing his message in reply, which declines to entertain President Wilson's plan, as submitted through Special Envoy Lind.

The reports are that Huerta is anxious now to arrange a basis of further negotiations before Tuesday next, when President Wilson's plan and Huerta's refusal of it will be made public through the special message to congress, upon which the President is now at work.

Bryan's Stand.
News that Secretary of State Bryan has taken a decided stand, and has informed the Mexican government that Americans must be protected, caused a sensation in the capitol. It is generally believed here that the stand of the United States will be followed by further demands, and that the action of Bryan will result in breaking off all efforts at mediation by the United States.

Former President Taft's name was injected in today's session of the House "insidious lobby" probers when the committee tried to learn just what service Henry E. Davis performed to merit the $4000 he is alleged to have received from the defense fund raised against the Loan Shark Bill.

The committee could not find that Davis had done anything beyond arguing against the bill before ex-President Taft. Davis said he only knew that his money was coming from an "association of men." He flatly charged that Taft broke his word by signing the bill twenty-four hours before he said he would.

It was reported in San Francisco marine circles today that one of the local steamship concerns is preparing to place upon the run between San Francisco and Honolulu a liner of the "Atlantic" type, capable of making the passage in four days.

It was said that the company believed that a four-day steamer would gain enough patronage to fill the passenger accommodation each trip.

Frau Szivo Brassy, wife of a big landowner near Budapest, is in a critical condition from horrible injuries inflicted by her husband. The latter's brother informed him that his wife was untrue to him. Brassy heated four long knitting needles to white heat in the kitchen stove, and with the tongs, thrust them into the breast of his sleeping wife. She is not expected to recover.

In the three minutes given him of life between the times the steamer State of California struck the rocks and her final plunge, Daniel C. Perkins, of Oakland, wireless operator, added another name to the list of ocean heroes. He did his duty and in doing it went to his death.

Perkins was in his cabin when the vessel struck. The resultant shock was his call to duty. Without waiting to dress, he hurried to the operating room, where his assistant, Walter Chamberlain, was on duty.

"Get out and look after yourself," Perkins called to Chamberlain as he entered the room. "I'll send the signal."

Chamberlain left him there repeating the "S. O. S." call, the word of distress. Three minutes later the vessel's mast, dashed down upon the little wireless operating room. Then a huge wave came up and washed across the place where Perkins died a hero.

The peace conference in session at the Hague today passed a resolution favoring the submission of the Anglo-American controversy over the Panama Canal tolls to The Hague arbitration court, if diplomacy fails.

The conference favored a codification of international law making arbitration compulsory before war may be declared.

The Swedish battleship Odin rammed and sunk the Swedish gunboat Urd this afternoon. The accident occurred west of the island of Haven, while the war vessels were engaged in mimic warfare. No loss of life occurred.

A decline of Honolulu Brew. & Malt. Company three-quarters of a point and a quarter of a point decline in Hawaiian Commercial were the two developments of the stock market today, which remained depressed. All of the sales, and there were six in number, were made between boards. Two hundred and sixty shares of Hon. B. & M. were sold at their declined price, 20. Fifteen shares of Hawaiian Commercial went at 26.75, and the last twenty changed hands at 26.50. O. R. & L. bonds dropped from 101.50, their price at their last sale, to 100 in a small sale.

With a total tonnage of 16,000, grinding for the season closed at Papekou Monday. The Waiakea mill is also through grinding with an output reported to be a little more than 13,000 tons. It is expected that the grinding at the Laupahoehoe Sugar Company's mill will be finished sometime during the week. Its estimated tonnage is slightly under 10,000. Grinding will not be finished at Hikalau until the latter part of the month. Manager Ross says they expect to have an output of over 15,000 tons. Almost all the mills on Hawaii will finish grinding by the end of the month.

Norris to Reno for immoral purposes, he made a statement today that he would rather go to jail than attack the character of Miss Norris, his companion. "I would rather go to jail than deny any statement that Lola may make on the witness stand," he said. "She is a good girl and has treated me right. I will not attempt to dispute anything she says. She has been fair to me, and I propose to be fair with her. I will not deny any relations with her. I do not want to cause her any more trouble or embarrassment."

Here's a Conundrum for You

IS IT HOT IN HONOLULU?
The weather man says it isn't.
Others say it is. So there you are. "You pays your money and takes your choice."

It's largely a matter of opinion.
BUT THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE OF OPINION ABOUT THE WEATHER AT THE VOLCANO HOUSE.

It's cool and sunny, but—
It's cool, bracing, snappy—52° to 58° at night and 68° to 72° at noon—the kind that makes life worth living and tramping a luxury, although horses and autos are there if you want them.

Let the Waterhouse Trust Co. tell you all about the rates and connections.
