OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS
To the Advertiser

Secret plans for the mobilization of the greatest fighting force Uncle Sam has ever gathered are being completed in preparation for the invasion of Mexico if intervention is found necessary.

Two weeks these plans have been worked out by the army officials and heads of military organizations of all the states in the union. If a forward movement is ordered, at least 100,000 national guardsmen will be allied with the regular army.

Details of the plan were revealed yesterday for the first time when it became known that the 12th regiment of the New York national guard has been included by officers of the regular army to be prepared for immediate service in Mexico.

Within a week the United States will have seven first-class battleships in Mexican waters. The third division of the Atlantic fleet, comprising the battleships Rhode Island, Virginia, New Jersey and Nebraska sailed from Hampton Roads under rush orders for Vera Cruz yesterday.

Though they sailed ostensibly to relieve the battleships Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire, which have been in the Gulf of Mexico for the last four months, it was admitted at the navy department that the four dreadnaughts which left yesterday may be used to augment the force at present in Mexican waters and that the United States may keep all seven warships in the gulf indefinitely, pending further developments.

The cruiser Maryland, ordered to protect the French settlement at San Ignacio, reached its destination yesterday, according to advices received at the navy department.

The Maryland is carrying 100 marines and will lay off Mazatlan, 40 miles from San Ignacio, the nearest seaport to that town, to await developments. It has instructions to respond to a call from the American consulate at Mazatlan and if it becomes necessary will land marines to march inland to the protection of the French colony.

President Wilson was considering yesterday the wisdom of sending an ultimatum to President Huerta of Mexico, demanding his retirement. It is believed England, Germany and France will uphold him in such a case. The President is said to be inclined to think this the best plan for eliminating the dictator without using force.

Senoras de Evaristo Madero and de Daniel Madero, wives of the two Madero brothers arrested by Huerta's orders at Monterey on charges of treason, yesterday appealed to the United States for assistance in behalf of the accused men. Their plea was made personally to Consul Canada and Exroy Lind. They were told that the American government had already made representations to the Mexican capital to secure a fair trial for both men. The women were hysterical when they arrived here from Tampico on the Mexican gunboat with their husbands, who are to be tried in the City of Mexico.

With Felix Diaz on board the Louisiana, he has lost all the prestige he gained by aiding in the overthrow of Madero. Even his friends declared he lost by "cowardice" his opportunity for becoming a national hero. They assert that by going to the City of Mexico he could have brought to his banner thousands of Mexicans who even yet are thrilled by the name of Porfirio Diaz, his uncle. The Mexican government will take no steps to secure the return of Diaz.

Out of an estate of more than fifty million dollars, left by the late Adolphus Busch, the beer king of America, the sum of approximately $210,000 will go to charity. This is the amount of the bequests as determined when the will of the beer king was filed for probate here yesterday.

The balance of the estate is placed in trust, with the widow as the chief beneficiary. The trustees named are Mrs. Adolphus Busch, August Busch, the son, and Charles Nagel, former secretary of commerce and labor.

The Busch fortune is one of the largest in the United States. Busch came to the United States from Germany in 1857 when he was 15 years old. He married four years later and Plans, specifications and form of proposal may be had upon application and a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) at the City and County Clerk's Office.

soon afterward engaged in the brewing business with A. Anhauser at St. Louis. Thus marked the beginning of the great fortune. When he died he was either president or director of a dozen or more large banks, railroads, and public utility corporations as well as the head of the big brewing corporation. His death occurred early this month.

The management of the huge estate, it is believed, will devolve principally upon Nagel.

Anthony Hope Hawkins, the famous English novelist, in condemning the "ritual murder" trial at Kiev, today said:

"The enlightened world protests against this foolish blood accusation. English Jews are anxious to enlist the aid of Christians, for they fear, and with good cause, that the classes of anti-Semitic Russians will rise against the Jews and commit terrible outrages if Belliss is convicted."

"I am inclined to give credence to the reports that the Czar is forcing the conviction of the Jews. I sincerely hope the disapproval of the people both in America and Europe will have the effect of modifying Russia's attitude, and that the public opinion which kept Tolstol out of Siberia may have the same effect in the Belliss case."

Lieutenant Torkof is on his way from Sofia to Paris to challenge Pierre Loti to a duel. He obtained special leave of absence from the minister of war and permission to call on the French editor and demand a retraction of the charges of cruelty made by the writer against the Bulgarian troops in the war with Turkey and after the war was over.

In the event of Pierre Loti's refusing to fight, Torkof says he wants his blood anyway.

Attired in civilian clothes, despite the fastidious traditions of the German court, James W. Gerard, the new American ambassador to Berlin, was yesterday presented to Emperor Wilhelm and presented his credentials.

The fact that Gerard wore the dress of a plain American gave rise to the impression that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have forbidden uniforms for American ambassadors as unsuitable for representatives of the foremost republic. This, however, was not verified.

Mrs. Rand, daughter of Henry T. Gage, former governor of California, arrested in Dublin, Ireland, on a charge of abduction, was set free yesterday. At the same time her friend, Mrs. Dora Montefiore, was released. When the two women were arraigned their counsel said to the court:

"These women regret that their motives have been misunderstood. They have decided not to continue their philanthropic work here. Their release is being asked on this condition."

The court accepted this plea, and both women returned to London this afternoon.

A romance of high school days culminated happily for John M. Johnson, principal of the boys' industrial school at Waialea, Hawaii, and Miss Alma Johnson of Osceola, Mich., at the Stewart Hotel, San Francisco, last Monday night, when they were married by Bishop Rastarick of the diocese of Hawaii.

After a short honeymoon in San Francisco they will return to Hawaii to take up their residence on Johnson's plantation.

Ernest A. Muret, the New York dentist and chum of Hans Schmidt, the confessed murderer of Anna Amuller, was last night found guilty of counterfeiting. Muret faces a 30-year term and a $10,000 fine. He was found guilty on both counts on the second indictment charging the making and having in possession of counterfeit plates.

The Merriam divorce scandal came to an end yesterday when Judge Graham of San Francisco refused to grant an interlocutory decree of divorce to Capt. Henry C. Merriam, in charge of mine-planting on the Pacific coast, from Bessie C. Merriam.

The court declined to believe Captain Merriam's charges that Mrs. Merriam was guilty of cruelty either in her treatment of him, her alleged attempts at suicide or her alleged attempts to kill him.

Judge Graham offered that Captain Merriam shall pay his wife $75 a month for her support and that Charlotte, the 12-year-old daughter, shall remain with the mother, who is now in this city.

Premier Dato announced yesterday that in order to combat the growth of radical labor troubles throughout Spain it has been decided at the instance of King Alfonso to create a ministry of labor to deal with industrial disputes.

The woman suffrage question will be put squarely up to President Wilson by a delegation of New Jersey woman suffragists who will visit him next month and endeavor to have him support the proposed constitutional amendments.

The president will be asked to either urge action during the closing days of the extra session or to incorporate an endorsement in his message attracting attention to the question.

Washington society got in its tiptoes with excitement yesterday when it was learned that the invitations to the White House wedding will be in the mail in a day or two.

It is said that further details of the wedding plans will be given up soon now that Miss Jessie Wilson, the bride elect, has returned from New York.

Rumors fill the air about the trouseau, the guest list and the honeymoon journey.

The around-the-world tourists, the White Sox and Giants, stopped at Muskogee, Oklahoma, yesterday afternoon, en route West, playing an exhibition game.

It was an easy victory for the Sox, Scott outpitching Promme. Score—

"Knockout" Brown of New York was considered a hasbeen yesterday by Boston fans after they saw his sorry showing here the night before with Matty Baldwin in a 12-round fight. The bout was slow and uninteresting, Baldwin piling up a big lead in each round.

In a statement given out in New York yesterday, Branch Ricker, manager of the Browns, accused George Stoval of having been a secret agent of the Federal League while acting as manager of the St. Louis American team. The discovery of the fact that he was soliciting players for the outlaws was what brought about Stoval's dismissal.

Harry Brewer, a Kansas City welterweight, who has just returned from Hilo, says that the erst good heavy-weight who meets Jack Johnson will beat him to a frazzle. Brewer states that Johnson weighs 280 pounds and actually waddles. He says the big negro is "all in" financially, and no longer able to command big money in the European music halls.
