MISS DAPHNE DAMON - Bridesmaid

MISS HELEN SPALDING - Bridesmaid

Nalle-Gilbert.
A wedding of great local interest, especially in service circles, occurred on Wednesday afternoon at Schofield Barracks when Miss Lucie Gilbert, sister of Mrs. Robert M. Cheney, became the bride of Lieut. William Nalle of the 4th Cavalry. The ceremony was held in the pretty post chapel, the Right Reverend Henry Bond Restarick officiating. The bride was beautiful in her gown of white brocade with gold trimming of rare old Duchesse lace. A veil of fluffy white tulle was fastened on her dark hair with orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was made of white roses and tulle. Mrs. Robert M. Cheney attended her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was of old gold colored charmeuse with shadow lace, and a black hat of lace and tulle. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. Cheney. Both the house and church were lavishly decorated with flowers and ferns, a color scheme of white and green being used. Just before leaving for their honeymoon, which they will spend at Haleiwa, the bouquet was thrown, Miss Gertrude Hopkins being the maid to make the significant catch. Mrs. Nalle's going away frock was of dark blue charmeuse with a smart little hat to match. After their honeymoon Lieut. and Mrs. Nalle will live at Lilehua, where the former is stationed with his regiment.

Many Bazaars on Way.
It seems unfortunate, in a way, that all of the churches and various charitable organizations should have selected the month of November in which to hold their sales and money-making schemes. It would seem that some one must suffer—yet each cause is deserving of all that it is possible to get. The workers in the Old Maid's Convention and Red Cross stamp sale have breathed sighs of relief and satisfaction as they viewed their fat checkbooks. The delicatessen sale held by the King's Daughters today was bound to be a success—every one loves the old ladies and their little home which the King's Daughters are working so bravely to maintain. Next week comes the Lilliputian bazaar of the St. Clement's Church—a sale of dolls, doll clothes, baby clothes and other attractive articles which will solve many a Christmas problem. Four days later, St. Andrew's guild holds its annual delicatessen sale with its delectable specialties from the kitchens of famous Honolulu housewives. Six days later the Catholic ladies will hold one of their rare bazaars—this time to raise funds for the Catholic chapel which is being erected on Wilder avenue. And the Catholics who contribute to other causes so generously and yet who so seldom call upon the outside world for aid, should surely be rewarded with generous patronage. Ending the list of benefit affairs is the delicatessen sale which the Kunalu girls will hold the first week in December. The enthusiasm and energy which they are bringing to bear should make it a howling success—that is, if people are not too "broke" by that time to buy even a salted almond.

Mrs. Castle's Tea.
Mrs. James Castle entertained most delightfully at tea yesterday afternoon at her home at Waikiki. The affair was entirely informal, all of the guests being old friends of the hostess. A very enjoyable musical program was given Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard being the chief entertainer of the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served in the rose room. About sixteen in all were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett's Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett were dinner hosts on Wednesday at their charming home at Waikiki. The affair was entirely informal, the time after dinner being devoted to swimming and dancing. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith, Miss Florence Butler and Mr. David Anderson.

Central Union Church Reception.
The ladies of Central Union Church were hostesses at a very delightful reception on Thursday when they entertained in honor of the ladies of the other churches. The parish house and vestryroom were the affair took place was prettily decorated with palms and ferns and cut-flowers. A splendid musical program was rendered during the afternoon, including songs by Mrs. Robbins Anderson and Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, and piano solos by Miss Katherine Reynolds and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes. Delicious refreshments were served, a committee composed of Mrs. H. H. Williams, chairman; Mrs. Andrew Brown, Mrs. C. P. Morse and Mrs. J. T. Morse being in charge. Mrs. Walter Frear and Mrs. W. L. Whitney poured tea, the table being handsomely set with the silver tea service of Mrs. Frear's grandmother. Mrs. A. A. Gartley and Mrs. J. P. Cooke presided over the coffee urn. A boy of dainty young girls assisted in passing the good things to eat, among them being Miss Emily Cooke, Miss Winona Wallace, Miss Lucille Hoogs, Miss Helen Church, Miss Louise Girvin and Miss Adelaide Pratt.

Major and Mrs. Meyers' Dinner.
The Country Club this evening will be the scene of one of the most attractive affairs of the week, with Major and Mrs. John T. Myers of the marine corps as hosts. After one of "Harry's" wonderful dinners the evening will be devoted to dancing. The marine corps band will play throughout the evening. Covers will be laid for Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Major and Mrs. William Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, General and Mrs. M. Macomb, Captain and Mrs. E. Carpenter, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. M. Riggs, Mrs. J. Graham, Lieut. N. Campanole, Lieut. F. T. Evans, Miss Helen Alexander, British Consul and Mr. J. B. Rentiers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Captain and Mrs. R. Cutts and Lieut. S. Gordon.

Pacific Club Dinner Dance.
The members of the Pacific Club were hosts at an informal dinner dance last evening at their club house on Alakea street. American flags, hunting and palms made the place daily attractive and with the beautiful gowns of the ladies it proved indeed a sight to please the eye. Among those who entertained at dinner previous to the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Col. and Mrs. D. Appel, Capt. and Mrs. E. Carpenter and many others. About two hundred in all were present.

Mrs. Tackabury's Tea.
Mrs. George Tackabury was hostess at a delightful tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, who sailed for their mainland home on this morning's Sierra. The house was charmingly decorated with American Beauty roses and ferns. A very enjoyable musical program was given after which delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, Mrs. M. Campbell, Mrs. F. G. Bush, Mrs. Bolley, Mrs. Berger, Miss Berger and Mrs. Jared Smith.

Rag Party at Lilehua.
The craze for ragging which has set everyone's feet a-jumping in the states is slowly taking possession of Honolulu, too, though it is only lately that it has been given carte blanche at every sort of affair. The popular form of entertaining now is the rag party, which can be all sizes and still be enjoyable. Lieut. R. L. Maxwell was host at an affair of this kind on Wednesday at his quarters at Lilehua. Among his guests were Col. and Mrs. S. D. Sturges, Capt. and Mrs. G. M. Apple, Capt. and Mrs. J. Janda, Miss Katherine Winans, Miss Betty Case, Miss Hortense Short, Miss Ruth Harrison, Miss Lorna McDonald, Lieut. Daly, Lieut. Rosevier, Lieut. Percy Deshon, Lieut. Goetz, Lieut. W. M. Robertson, Lieut. J. H. Hincman and Lieut. W. S. Martin.

Mrs. Ballentyne's Luncheon.
Informal but charming expresses the luncheon given by Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne on Thursday at her attractive home on Thurlow avenue. The table was set on a spacious and bright room and a visit of friends and friends of the harbor. Pink earthenware and glass bowl formed a dainty centerpiece. Among those present were the guest of honor, Mrs. Selma Knapp and Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Mrs. Locke, Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mrs. S. Newcomb, Mrs. W. Wooten and Mrs. Prosser.

Society Personals
Miss Marion Dowsett Worthington has changed the date of her next concert from November 29th to the second of December. The program will be entirely different except for one song repeated by special request. Mr. Vernon Tenney will serve as accompanist while Mrs. E. A. Ross will play a number of violin obligatos. The public will have the pleasure of having Miss Glenna McCracken once more as she will play a piano solo. The concert is being greatly anticipated by every one, especially by those who were so unfortunate as to be unable to attend Mrs. Worthington's recital two weeks ago. Her wonderful mezzo-soprano voice is already attracting widespread interest.

Mr. Guy Macfarlane entertained at an informal rag party last evening at the Country Club. Among his guests were Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Vivian Buckland, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Helen Spalding, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Margaret Center, Messrs. Dave Larsen, Kelly Henshaw, Carson, Charles McWayne, Charles Herbert and Charles Lucas.

Mrs. William Matson and Miss Lurline Matson are in Europe. Mrs. Matson went abroad for her health and has been at several of the famous spas, where it is hoped she may be cured. Miss Matson was one of the popular belles a couple of seasons ago and her loss of health brings her the sympathies of her many friends, who miss her very much.—S. F. Exchange.

Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith have issued invitations to a "dancante" on Wednesday afternoon at their quarters at Fort Shafter. The Second Infantry band will furnish music for dancing. About a hundred and seventy-five cards have been sent and the affair promises to be one of the most attractive of the coming week.

Among those who passed through on the transport this week was Miss Lindel Hoskins of Berkeley, Cal., who is en route to Manila, where she will visit her brother and sister. While in Honolulu Miss Hoskins was the guest of Miss Florence Hoffman and Miss Ethel Bishop.

Col. and Mrs. Francis H. French of Fort Shafter entertained informally a luncheon yesterday in honor of Capt. and Mrs. C. F. Crain of the 13th Infantry and Miss Crain, who were visitors in Honolulu for a day or two while en route to Manila on the Sherman.

Among those to arrive on the Sherman this week were Lieut. and Mrs. S. W. French and the latter's sister, Miss Aline Orrison. Until they can find a house, Lieut. and Mrs. French are established at the Hau Tree.

Col. and Mrs. D. Appel entertained at dinner last evening before the Pacific Dance Club in honor of Col. and Mrs. S. D. Sturges, Lieut. F. P. Jackson, Mrs. Ballant Major Williams, Major and Mrs. E. V. Smith and Captain and Mrs. Carpenter.

Lieut. and Mrs. W. A. Reed of Fort Shafter, who have been sojourning on the mainland for the past few months, returned on the Sherman this week. Lieut. and Mrs. Homer Lieut. F. T. Evans of the marine corps returned on the Sherman this week after a short trip to California, where he took his examinations for promotion.

Do You Know?

That last season's coffee crop in Hawaii amounted to close to 50,000 bags?

That the exports for 12 months were 31,134 bags of the value of $525,329.00?

ANOTHER THING

Do you know that we make a specialty of aging Fancy Hand-Picked Kona for fancy trade? We can supply you with old or new coffees—1908, 1910, or new crop.

Fancy 1910, freshly roasted, whole or ground always on hand. You can get it strictly pure either way.

AND STILL ANOTHER

Do you know that we can send you a 5-lb. tin (our best) to any point on this island or to Kauai or Maui by parcel post for only 10 cents? It's your fault if you don't have good coffee.

A cup of good coffee costs you 1 cent only. Why not have the best.

McChesney Coffee Co.

Capt. C. S. Cochran of U.S.R.C. Thetis entertained at a smoker last evening aboard the revenue cutter. About twenty-five guests were present.

In informal tea was given this week by Mrs. Stobee of the Sourland for Mrs. E. Bennett, Mrs. Barrar and Mrs. Tackabury.

About a hundred people of the service and civilian sets attended the transport dance at the Moana on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy entertained at dinner on Thursday night at their beautiful home on Victoria street.

Miss Jessie Kennedy sailed on the Sierra this morning with her father, Mr. J. A. Kennedy, to spend several weeks in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers were among those to have dinner parties before the Pacific Club dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay sailed on the Manchuria Tuesday for New York, where they will spend the winter months.

University of Michigan alumni will hold their annual banquet tonight at 7 o'clock at the Moehauki club, Waikiki.

British Consul and Mrs. J. L. Rentiers were dinner hosts at their bungalow on Beretania street.

Where dishes are washed in the sink, stretch a piece of white rubber tubing, about two inches long, over the ends of the faucets, letting it extend about two inches below. This will prevent the breaking and nicking of china that is caused by striking them against the faucets.

If clothes are soaked over night the labor of washing will be greatly lightened by adding one teaspoonful of pure ammonia to each tub of water.
