Swaden Quits Position In Police Dept.

Robert E. Swaden, who has resigned from the police department.

The resignation of Robert R. Swaden, a former officer in the detective department, who took an active part in the unsuccessful attempt to remove Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie and Sergeant John Kellett from office, was accepted by Sheriff William Jarrett last evening.

When the investigation of the detective department was instituted, Swaden was transferred from the staff of special officers to temporarily fill the position of inspector of weights and measures, vacated through the death of Manuel D. Abert.

Swaden claims to have no plans for the future, but intimates that he may proceed to the mainland.

Sheriff Jarrett stated this morning that Swaden had made no application for reinstatement with the detective force.

"I accepted Swaden's resignation last evening, after a brief talk with the officer," said Jarrett. "If he desired a transfer to another department of the service, he did not intimate such intention to me."

"The position of inspector of weights and measures is an office that comes under the civil service rules and regulations, and some man from the service, if found eligible, will be selected to take up the work," stated Jarrett.

FILLS THE CHAIR WELL

SUPERVISORS PLAN FOR BUREAU TO ARRANGE FOR IMPROVEMENTS UNDER NEW FRONTAGE-TAX LAW

Important steps were taken by the board of supervisors last night to prepare the way for city-wide improvements to be accomplished under the frontage-tax laws passed by the last session of the legislature.

A scheme to establish a special bureau for the work of fixing the grades of the streets over the entire city, and appropriating for that bureau a sum amounting to approximately $5000 a year, to be provided for in the new budget which becomes operative the first of the year, was launched and longly discussed last night, both at the meeting of the board and the caucus which followed.

Strong support was given to the proposed undertaking, and almost unanimous support was accorded its purpose. Though there was a difference of opinion on the amount which should be set aside for this work, and the official under whose direction it should be carried on, the idea itself of preparing the grade map of all the streets in Honolulu was favorably and urgently spoken for.

Final action was deferred until the next caucus, at which time the new budget will be definitely agreed upon. But before it was decided to await another meeting before passing on the proposal, the supervisors did not hesitate in going on record as endorsing it.

Under present conditions it has been found necessary for a delay of several months in carrying out street improvements due to the time necessary to fix the grade of the street to be widened, graded or paved, as the case may be.

A very large number of thoroughfares in Honolulu may soon be improved under the frontage-tax laws, and as the supervisors are anxious to facilitate this work in every way possible, they showed last night their wish to do all possible to assist in this movement. Supervisor Petrie for one, Supervisor Walter for another, and in fact all of them showed themselves in favor of the bureau for street grades. The question as to whether it was left last night was not whether these needed grade maps should or should not be prepared, but a question of how much money should be devoted to this work.

Supervisor Pacheco intimated, it appears, to the belief that this work can be done by City and County Engineer Whitehouse and that only a comparatively small cost should be attached to it. As against this, other members of the board felt that a bureau under the supervision of the engineer, and yet in a sense apart from it, should be created.

"We can't improve the streets without grades," said Supervisor Walter, "and we might as well have all the grade maps prepared to save a long delay."

MAUI COUNTY LEASES TRACT FROM HAWAIIAN EVANGELICAL ASSN.

'James Campbell Park' Will be Preserved and Cared for in Interest of Public

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
LAHAINA, Dec. 5.—This week an important lease by the board of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association to the county of Maui for a term of 30 years was signed in Honolulu, by P. C. Jones, president, and Theodore Richards, treasurer. The land concerned is the so-called "James Campbell park" of Lahaina, containing an area of 87-100 of an acre.

This property was formerly known as "the Richard premises" and was for many years the residence of local missionaries. It then passed into private ownership, but a year before Mrs. Abigail Campbell died, she bought the land, arranged that a portion should be used for the residence of the agent of the Hawaiian Board for Lahaina, and the remainder, which was a good-sized tract, to be used as a park and playground. At that time the Lahaina common was not in shape for a public park place, and there was a public

KELLETT GOES BACK TO WORK AFTER PROBE

Sheriff Jarrett Reinstates Discharged Officer Under Instructions of Board

DOYLE SAYS ACTION WAS ONLY THING POSSIBLE

'Blow-Up' Which Was to Send Detective Officials to Prison Fails to Materialize

Obedient to the order of the civil service commission made in a decision last night on the charges against Sergeant of Detectives John E. Kellett, a decision in which John F. Doyle and David Kuylenstierna, with Chairman Ambrose J. Wirtz, consisting, Sheriff William Jarrett this morning reinstated the officer, whom he had suspended from the service of the detective department October 31 and a few days later discharged. Acting on the decision of the commission with the order incorporated in it, Kellett was directed by the sheriff to resume his duties under Captain of Detectives Arthur McDuffie.

Thus comes to an end the much-heralded "blow-up" which had as its boast that both the captain and his sergeant would be given long terms in prison ere it came to an end. McDuffie put back without even a hearing being thought necessary, and Kellett now in office once more, the "blow-up" seems to have done more damage to those who worked for its execution than for those it was aimed to affect. Officer Robert W. Stiles, who worked for months to secure evidence against the two detectives, has resigned, and Detective O'Brien, who worked against McDuffie and Kellett for a time, has also given up his position. Detective Woo, one of the chief witnesses against Kellett at the hearing, who was accused of lying "deliberately and for a purpose," may discontinue his connections with the department.

The decision of the commission last night, a signal victory for Kellett, was followed up by the announcement of Swaden's resignation. Though E. C. Peters, attorney for the detective, who had confidently expected his client to be reinstated at once, on the ground that nothing had been proven against him, was not surprised at the decision, it is doubtful if the same

PINEAPPLE PACK FOR 1914 WILL BE TREMENDOUS

Men in Rapidly-Developing Industry See Trouble in Selling the Product

NEXT YEAR EXPECTED TO GREATLY EXCEED THIS

Hawaiian Packers Spending Large Sums of Money to Move Present Output

A distinct atmosphere of uncertainty exists at the present time in the pineapple industry. While sales are holding up fairly well and it seems likely that most of the present season's pack will be moved without undue difficulty, it is for the next year that anxiety is felt. The growth of the business from year to year has been so rapid that the marketing problem is a very real one; and while the American appetite for pineapples is doubtless capable of considerable further stimulation, at the present time it shows some signs of satiation.

The pack this year will amount to in the neighborhood of 1,200,000 cases. Next year it will run at least 1,500,000 cases and possibly several hundred thousand cases more; and the year following will show a still greater increase as indicated from the present plantings. Can the demand be kept equal to this big increase? This is the question that is bothering the pineapple men big and little. There is no one fruit with the possible exception of pinesapples, that now has a pack anywhere amounting in size to that of the Hawaiian pineapple output. Appricots, for instance, run about 500,000 cases per year, and for the time being at least, the packers seem unable to get rid of a greater quantity.

Costs Money to Move Pack.
A prominent pineapple grower and packer, in speaking of the situation today stated that at the present time the Hawaiian packers are spending more money to move their pack than is probably any other line of packers. In fact, he said, the packers are retailing throughout the mainland at lower prices, grade for grade, than are California fruits, while the percentage allowed the retailer and jobber is greater than in other lines. A new line of expensive advertising in high-class magazines has

MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES START NATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO AVENGE MRS. PANKHURST

Their Leader, Held in Exeter Jail, in Such Weakened Condition That Physicians Fear to Use Forceful Feeding—Women Start Many Fires, Causing Large Loss

(Associated Press Cable)
LONDON, Eng., Dec. 6.—A sudden and frenzied outburst of militant suffragette campaigns of destruction has burst out all over England, following the arrest and imprisonment of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst upon her arrival from her American tour.
A large squad of suffragettes today surrounded the Exeter jail where Mrs. Pankhurst has been held since being taken from the liner Majestic. The first reports that she was being forcibly fed, following her hunger strike, have been succeeded by the news that she may soon be removed and released. It is understood her heart is so affected by her many hunger strikes and hardships that the physicians fear to try forcible feeding.
Meanwhile a national campaign of reprisals has been begun by the militants. Many fires, some of them destructive, were reported yesterday last night and today. The known loss already exceeds $100,000.

This exemplifies the sentiments of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and tomorrow afternoon at the Hawaiian Opera House at two o'clock the antlered herd and their friends—who are legion—will gather and pay respect to the memory of those brothers who have passed over. Always impressive and beautiful the ceremony this year will be up to the high standard set by Elksdom, provided the program can be relied upon.

Each year, on the first Sunday in December each of the many Elk lodges meets in solemn session to show to the world that the memory of departed Elks lingers with the remaining brothers unto the end of time. Above is given the list of members of Honolulu Lodge, 616, who have answered the final summons and whose memory will be revered in oratory and sacred song at the services tomorrow.
