Do you know that a copy of "Bits of Verse From Hawaii" will make one of the nicest Christmas presents that you could send to your friend on the mainland? You can find it at any of the bookstores.—advertisement.

The Honolulu Photo Supply Company is certainly not backward in offering suggestions for gifts that come within their line of trade. Anything photographic they stand ready to supply. Satisfy the warring question by taking a ramble through the Photo Supply Company's store.

Lewers & Cooke have arranged one of the most unique holiday displays seen in the city. It is not very large—occupying but one end of one of the big windows of the store. It represents a happy band of Santa Claus gnomes, boiling their kettle over a fire that seems so real as to startle one. Take a look at it.

This year the merchants of this city are offering the best selection of holiday gifts that has ever been seen here, and among the stores that have made extra effort in this direction is Benson, Smith & Co. A specialty of ivory-finished articles for nearly all sections of the home is being submitted for the public to select from.

Tomorrow the furniture from the residence of F. Klamp will be sold at auction at the auction rooms of O. A. Steven, corner of Queen and Fort streets. The sale will take place at 10 o'clock, and it is a splendid chance for anybody to gather in some choice furniture, especially at this season of the year. The furniture is now on view at the Seven auction rooms.

The Honolulu Popcorn Company established a popcorn factory in the form of crump, bean rolls, jokers, colored or otherwise. Popcorn for tree decoration a specialty. Phone 4301.

What can be more to the point in the line of gifts for the holidays than music or the instrument that will make music when properly handled? Gifts along this line can be given in connection with any other gift or gifts and not mar, jar or cause a discord, as music will fit in any place, and at nearly all times. Take a look through the Bergstrom Music Company's store on Fort street near King and it will occur to you that no more appropriate gift could be thought of than one from the immense stock there contained.

The Ideal Clothing Company's store on Hotel street is fast becoming the place where mothers can be assured of getting the best in the clothing line for the boys. All mothers know that ordinary clothing will not last the boy any time at all, and that he must have something akin to cast iron to withstand the usage he gives his clothing, especially during these marbling-playing days. Give the Ideal Clothing Company a chance to prove that it is selling the best that can be procured in the city in the line of clothing for the boy. The Ideal is also fully prepared to cater to the needs of the well-dresser in every department. Adler-Rochester brand carry all that is needed in style and fit.

Morning on CHANGE

A fairly brisk demand for Honolulu Consolidated Oil was reported on the "street" this morning with 1.70 given as the price it is bringing. An unofficial report has it that the oil company will begin to pay dividends January 1 to the amount of one per cent, and this report may have some bearing on the demand for the stock. Sales were not made this morning at the session or between boards. A good many of the brokers were present at the meeting of the stockholders of the McBryde plantation, who assembled this morning at the call of Alexander & Baldwin to consider the affairs of the corporation with reference to the threatened suit against the agents for alleged misconduct of office. In another column of this paper the statement of Alexander & Baldwin is given with an account of the meeting.

the enfeebled system readily accepts any disease—Nature's resistant force is depleted and Scott's Emulsion is needed. Its highly concentrated nourishment is immediately distributed to every organ.

With Scott's Emulsion nature repairs waste, constructs healthy tissue and active, life-sustaining blood. Nothing equals Scott's Emulsion in concentration.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

According to recent information from San Francisco, a marriage license was issued in that city December 2 to William H. Jewell of Koloa, Hawaii and Ellen R. Dolliver of Larkspur. The age of each is given as 60. The latest directory fails to mention any person named Jewell.

Owing to the absence of A. J. Gignoux, which prevented a quorum, the public utilities commission held no meeting yesterday afternoon. It is possible a meeting may be held later in the week, however, as a number of matters require attention before the next weekly meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

The members of the Kwok On Society will be hosts at a luau Friday evening in honor of Woo Huan, the first Chinese consul to be appointed to Hawaii under the administration of President Yuan Shih-kai. The affair promises to be an all-embracing and a most interesting one.

Following the revelations of Deputy Sheriff Richard of Hamakua, Otto Berndt, the internal revenue officer has been sent to that district to place under arrest the 24 men accused of conducting blind pigs. If convicted, the culprits will be severely dealt with as federal laws provide serious punishment for the infringement of the government's liquor statutes.

NEW TODAY

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the late Mrs. John Massa wishes to thank the many kind friends and member of the N. A. L. C. No. 869 for the floral offering in their late bereavement.—advertisement.

Give her a Westinghouse Toaster Stove

It costs no more than a big box of candy or a bunch of roses and will be a source of delight to her years after the candy or roses would be forgotten. The toaster-stove is more than a fad—it is an efficient little cooker that a woman is sure to make use of many times a day. She likes to use it, because with it she can sit down and cook at the table and doesn't have to bother with the kitchen. Then for breakfast! It gives every member of the family exactly the kind of toast he wants—hot and crisp. Wouldn't it make a nice Christmas present? ($40.00)

Other suggestions: electric iron, sewing machine motor, general utility motor, disc stove, heating pad, luminous radiator, air heater, clothing drier. See them before making up your list.
