MAUI LIBRARY ASSOCIATION NAMES OFFICERS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, Jan. 15.—The annual meeting of the Maui Library Association last Monday called out a large attendance. Reports were read from the treasurer, D. C. Lindsay, which showed a good working balance on hand in cash; and from the librarian, Mrs. C. C. Gossin, which showed the work of the year. The members were much surprised to learn that about 200 volumes a month had been drawn from the association's private books, and that some seven boxes of books from the library of Hawaii had been distributed. The Maui Library Association has during the year acted as a branch for the Honolulu Library and orders for books from Maui go through the local library here. The combination of private books and the books from the territorial library has been a great success, for whereas the local library has been able to buy entirely new books from the dues collected from the members, the books from Honolulu have been sent up which people needed for reference, or which were novels published a year or two ago that had not been bought by the local committees. It was also reported that some 25 of the best magazines and papers had been secured by gift or by loans from members, so the library will be unusually well equipped this coming year for its reading room.

Practically all the members that joined the library last year have signified their intention of renewing their membership this year, and it is expected by the library officials that the membership will considerably increase.

The following officers were elected for 1914: President, Hon. Selden B. Kingsbury; vice-president, D. H. Case; secretary, Rev. R. B. Dodge; treasurer, D. C. Lindsay. Seabury Short was elected a trustee in place of his father, Rev. Wm. S. Short, who has moved to California; Rev. L. B. Kameheli was elected to take the place of J. N. S. Williams, who is now living in Honolulu; and Dr. William Osmer takes the place on the board of C. E. Copeland, who is in California. The administration committee consists of D. C. Lindsay, Wm. Seabury and D. H. Case. Auditing committee: Dr. Wm. Osmer, E. J. Walker and Chas. Wilcox. The library book committee is composed of the secretary, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow; Mrs. Wm. Seabury, Mrs. F. F. Baldwin and Mrs. H. D. Sloggett.

It was decided to hold the annual meeting of the association hereafter on the second Monday of May beginning with 1915, because of the fact that the weather is usually bad in January, and also the dues of many of the memberships run out the last day of the old year.

Mrs. C. C. Gossin will be the librarian again during the coming year. The hours that the library will be open will be longer than last year, as the demand upon the library is greater than ever before.

An Editor's Savings

An editor who started about twenty years ago with only 55 cents, is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is owing to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.45—Editor and Publisher.

Uneasy rests the head that wears an ache—in fact, it doesn't rest at all. How strange it is that people will try to bear the pain of a headache when they might easily get relief by taking one tasteless dose of Stearns' Headache Cure. It always cures headaches. Insist on "Stearns'."—advertisement.

ADMINISTRATION POLICY SCORED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.—During the progress of a war speech by Representative Frederick H. Gillette of Massachusetts in the house yesterday, he scored the policy of the Democratic administration in relation to the troubles in Mexico and the stand taken toward Provisional President Huerta.

Intervention in Mexico, predicted Mr. Gillette, can be the only result of the administration's present policy. He declared that an early recognition of Huerta during the progress of developments in the southern republic would have offered the best chance of restoring order there.

That part of Representative Gillette's speech devoted to the Mexican policy of the United States under the present administration created a decided interest.

It is believed that the sudden throwing of this quantity of Chinese eggs on the market will cause considerable injury to the home product.

Posses are scouring the country in pursuit of the robbers, but it is believed they have scattered and there is not much hope of their capture.

SIX STITCHES TAKEN IN MAN'S CUT HEART

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—With six stitches taken in his heart tonight, Vincenzo Laure, victim of a stabbing affray, is expected to live. When taken to the Holy Family Hospital, in Brooklyn, the surgeons decided that the rare operation was necessary. Because of the weakened condition of the patient no anaesthetic was given, but cocaine was used locally, the ribs above the heart were cut through and six stitches taken in the heart tissues. Late tonight the patient was improving so fast that the surgeons declared he would recover.

GOOD BOOKS FOR COUNTRY FOLK OF HAWAII

Two things that are most needed in the redirection of rural life are information and inspiration. A rural teacher cannot intelligently assume leadership in a community without a knowledge of the successful efforts of others in this field. Nor can he interest patrons of his district in the splendid possibilities of a reorganization of the economic, social and educational forces in his community unless he himself is inspired, unless he has "dreamed dreams" and is able to get others to help him make those dreams come true.

Good books have always been a great source of information and inspiration and those given below should be read by all rural teachers and country folk in Hawaii.

The American Rural School. Fight. The McMillan Co., Chicago. Chapters in Rural Progress. Butterfield. The University of Chicago Press, Chicago.

The Challenge of the Country. Fisk Association Book Store, Denver.

Two good little booklets for school use in the seventh and eighth grades are: Twelve Studies in Agriculture and Twelve Studies in Farm Animals, by Dean Davenport, C. M. Parker, publisher, Taylorville, Ill.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels—tastes delicious.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless fruit laxative handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.
