JOSEPH DOYLE AND HIS WIVES MEET IN COURT

Joseph A. Doyle, often married, whose domestic vicissitudes have occupied the attention of the courts for some months, occupied a seat under the projecting wing of Attorney Ray O'Brien at district court yesterday afternoon, while two pretty young women occupied opposite corners in the spacious court room, one smiling approval, the other now and then glowering at the unperturbed Doyle.

Mrs. Edna Ferguson Doyle, wife No. 1, and Mrs. Maude Schurmann Doyle, who within the past few weeks has assumed the rights and title of wife No. 3, met under the same roof while opposing counsel exchanged acrimonious bon mots as an attempt was being made to introduce features into the action which might have had no real bearing upon the case in question.

Mrs. Doyle, divorced, and wife No. 1, sought to recover articles to the value of $50, including cut glass dishes, brass ornaments and souvenirs purchased six years ago, when with Doyle they were living in a flat at Oakland, Cal.

It was a suit of replevin that kept District Magistrate Monsarrat on the bench until shortly after a o'clock yesterday afternoon when he notified Attorney Ashford, representing Mrs. Doyle and her mother, Mrs. H. Ferguson, and Attorney O'Brien and Doyle, that the hearing would have the right of way at the Monday morning session of the court.

GEN. FUNSTON FAVORS LOCAL ARMY FORCES

shown throughout the army on Oahu generally. General Funston is one of the best friends of the national guard that the territory has. He has lent every possible assistance to the recruiting of the local militia regiment to 12-company strength, and he now believes that Hawaii can go still further in its military progress, and that a representative island regiment for the regular establishment can be secured. In relation to the present guard, the general has cabled for authority to issue from the supply here arms and equipment for the new companies now lacking the same. His request was sent to the war department several days ago, but, according to a statement made by him this afternoon, no reply has been received to date. However, favorable action on the request is expected.

MEMBERSHIP OF ASSOCIATION IS CALLED TO WORK

committee and fill in the other places from the general membership of the association. Every director is either an officer or the leading member of some principal committee of the association's activities. The only director not found in this list is Mr. Towse who is the vice-president of the Promotion Committee and one of the Merchants' Association's representatives on that body. Mr. Towse and Mr. Guild will of course continue on the Promotion Committee which is a branch of community work of the very highest importance.

"I have not asked all these men whether they will serve on these committees, which is perhaps a little out of the ordinary routine. I intend to assume that every member is in the association to assist in the general work as well as help himself. I assume that every member wants to work and is only waiting for the opportunity. I am giving the opportunity to as many as possible. I am sure they will all be wide awake and enthusiastic."

"Of course our main purpose at the present time is to bring about the prompt organization of the Greater Chamber of Commerce. We hope to so conduct the Merchants' Association in the meantime that the Greater Chamber of Commerce will know that it has a "live one" in the mercantile section which we represent. If it is possible to get up enough speed so as to give the Greater Chamber of Commerce a first class running start, I am sure the merchants can be depended upon to do their full share in demonstrating their willingness to work as well as their joy in living in a greater sphere of action and responsibility."

MARCHING OF TROOPS SAVES FINANCIAL STRAIN ON MID-PACIFIC CARNIVAL

Though the infantry from Lileleha will march to Honolulu for carnival week instead of coming on transportation furnished by the carnival management, the carnival treasury doesn't show a saving of $2500, the cost of the transportation. The reason is that the money is not, speaking in a book-keeping sense, saved to the finance committee because in the first place the carnival hasn't got the money. The carnival has been planned so that the troops will be here for five days, with admission free to every thing except the baseball games, and the carnival further is putting the military ball on the program. The treasury is already strained and last night estimates were cut down $5000 so that the carnival may be self-supporting.

Director-general Dougherty keenly appreciates the plans to march the troops to Honolulu.

"We are straining every energy to keep down expenses and this is a great help," he said today. "As a matter of fact, our treasury isn't $2500 richer for we haven't got the money at all. The carnival stock sale produced only $5000 in money, though of course the subscriptions to be called upon are larger. If we had had to furnish transportation for the troops, we should simply have had to sacrifice some other big feature entirely."

CHINESE NOW PLAY SUP-CHAI FOR CAFE EXPENSES, THEY CLAIM

Engaging in a game of sup-chai in which it was vigorously denied that money was lost or won, that the stakes were a luncheon for the entire company, is a pastime brought to light this morning as adding to the gaiety of Honolulu's Chinatown.

When a delegation of officers from Captain McDuffie's department swooped down upon a room filled with Chinese, they succeeded in persuading 14 persons to accompany them to the police station. Booked upon a charge of gambling, one youth, who admitted that his occupation was a head waiter at the Young hotel, declared that there were no financial stakes wagered

METZGER HERE, BUT SILENT ON SECRETARYSHIP

Senator Delbert E. Metzger of Hilo, regarded as the leading candidate for the office of secretary of the territory under the new administration, arrived on the Mauna Kea today for a stay of indefinite length.

Private business brings the senator down, but probably he will pay some attention to party and administration matters as well. He declines to discuss the reports connecting him with the secretaryship except to say that there is nothing new and that the matter is in the governor's hands. He has repeatedly stated that he is not an active candidate, but that he is at the governor's service.

Senator Metzger has held the opinion for many months that the fact of his being a member of the territorial legislature does not disqualify him from office as secretary or from other office of similar situation. This question of eligibility of legislators is now under consideration by the governor, according to reports in Democratic circles, and it is thought possible it will be settled from Washington. Senator Metzger has nothing to say on the subject.

He was much pleased to learn on arrival here that the Hilo federal building bids show one bidder, the Campbell Building Company of Salt Lake City, within the appropriation, and expressed the belief that the company will secure its bond and go through with the work in good style. It has been feared that all the bids would be over the $200,000 appropriation and hence the plans for the building might be abandoned.

Hawaii will be here in full and picturesque force for the carnival, he says. The baseball team of the Big Island is preparing to take all aspirants to the carnival championship right down the line for a trimming, and Senator Metzger hopes he will be there as chief rooter to see the Crescent City ball-tossers do the trick.

RESERVED SEATS TO ALL CARNIVAL EVENTS AT $7.50

tickets, however, and there will be reserved sections which will insure the holders of their places at all events, without joining the rush to buy tickets or arriving early to secure places.

More than $3000 has been spent in securing grandstands to accommodate the people, but it is believed that the crowds will take all the seats at every event, and in some cases doubtless there will be a demand for more seats than can be provided. This year's parade will be the first at which proper seating will be provided, and the same statement applies to all the open-air events. The water carnival and production of "Pinafore" last year drew a crowd to the waterfront which was far too big for the seating capacity of the bleachers. There has been little chance before this year to see the military tournament in comfort, and the various parades were lost to many who could not get good places along the line of march.

"When the Carnival is all over," said Director-general James D. Dougherty this morning, "the grandstands will be left on hand. They will be the property of the Carnival company and represent an investment worth a good deal more than their cost, and a producer of revenue at any time. Such bleachers are something which Honolulu sorely needs."

As its contribution to the 1914 Mid-Pacific Carnival, the Hawaiian Electric Company has offered to undertake the illumination and decoration of the capitol grounds during the Carnival ball of all nations and the massed band concert. This information was given out by R. A. Cooke, president of the company, at the meeting of the Carnival finance committee last night.

This information has been enthusiastically received by the finance committee from the fact that it had about given up the proposition of illumination and decoration because it was found that it would cost in the neighborhood of $1500. Frank E. Blake, manager of the electric company, estimates that 1000 lights will be needed and he intends laying his plans early next week.

Next Friday evening there will be a mass meeting of the citizens of the east end of the city including Palolo valley, Waialae and Kaimuki districts, in the Liliuokalani school house at the end of the Waialae carline, for the purpose of discussing the tax question as it stands today. Everybody is invited and expected to come to this meeting.

at the game, but that the loser might be called upon to settle the bill incurred at a gay Chinatown cafe.

Attorney Doughitt had been engaged to look after the interests of the Celestials. He tried to shake the testimony of Officers Kellett, Apana and others, but their stories were much the same, while the several Chinese related weird tales of chips being free as air until the time of settlement arrived. District Magistrate Monsarrat levied a fine of $4, remitting costs.

"I wouldn't look half as neat if I wasn't wearing this Gotham Shirt ($1.50), this 4-in-Hand Tie (50c) and this Arrow Collar (2 for 25c) that I got at.

CLARION

CARNIVAL SCHEME GOOD ONE BUT COIN FIGURED WRONG

To offer to do something for $10,000 and to meet with a response asking how much you will pay for the right to do it, is a startling experience which comes to but few people; yet that is what happened to an eastern moving picture man who today called upon James D. Dougherty, director-general of the 1914 Mid-Pacific Carnival.

The Easterner came to Honolulu, evidently attracted by the extensive Carnival advertising, with the view to getting the rights for his concern to take official motion pictures of next month's event. He said that his company proposed to take a complete record of pictures and would loan them to the Carnival management. The company would also see that the pictures were put on the big mainland theater circuits, he said. In return for this, the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association, the Promotion Committee, the Carnival management and other local bodies were asked to get together and had of $10,000 as a bonus for the moving-picture company. Mr. Dougherty replied that the moving-picture idea was a very attractive one to him, and that he hoped to see moving pictures of the Carnival all over the country. But when he came to the $10,000 proposition, he told the representative that there was a couple of similar firms with offices now in Honolulu who wanted to be the first to take films to be shown at the official record of events in the city's annual show. The management would probably offer the right of concession, explained Dougherty. The man who wanted to be paid $10,000 for taking the pictures said he would communicate with his firm in the East and see if it would be willing to pay anything for the privilege of taking the pictures.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Christian Church, which was held last Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows' building, was probably the most enthusiastic and largely attended of any meeting ever held in the history of that church. The annual reports showed that the past year has also been its best and happiest year. The activities of the church have covered a wide range of service and the increase in the membership of the church has been far ahead of any previous year. Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant going to Japan, Miss Elliot en route to China from Kansas City, Misses Acerd and Bower from Tennessee, making a trip to Japan, and Miss Whiting from England on a trip to visit friends in India and round the world, were guests of the church at the annual supper Wednesday night.

Sunday morning Minister Peters will preach from the subject, "Use and Misuse of Soul-Powers." There will probably be five or six sermons under this head. The evening sermon will continue these usual evangelistic schemes. The day's services on Sunday follow the usual schedule.

Under the direction of Kapellmeister Berger, the Hawaiian band will play at the Beretania street children's playground this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. A concert will be given at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Kapiolani park and at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening will play in Bannockburn square.
