RESTARICK HITS
DIVORCE EVIL
IN TERRITORY

Bishop Henry B. Restarick gives the divorce evil a vigorous discussion in the January issue of the Hawaiian Church Chronicle. After publishing the canon of the church on the subject, he criticizes some other ministers for marrying under improper circumstances and points out that this practice has resulted in considerable opposition to the Church Federation movement in Honolulu.

In part he says: "Quite frequently the bishop of Honolulu is importuned to allow the clergy to marry divorced people. It will readily be seen on reading the canon, that he must act according to law, and then only in a judicial capacity, and with the advice of some lawyer. If he permits any marriage to take place under the canon, 'Canon 29, of the solemnization of matrimony.' 'I. Ministers of this church shall be careful to secure the observance of the law of the state governing the civil contract of marriage in the place where the service shall be performed.

"II. (1) No minister shall solemnize a marriage except in the presence of at least two witnesses. (2) Every minister shall without delay formally record in the proper register, the name, age and residence of each party. Such record shall be signed by the minister who solemnizes the marriage, and by at least two witnesses of the marriages. (3) No minister, knowingly after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has been or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living, from whom he or she has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage. But this canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for adultery; provided, that before the application for such remarriage a period of not less than one year shall have elapsed, after the granting of such divorce; and that satisfactory evidence touching the facts in the case, including a copy of the court's decree, and record, if practicable, with proof that the defendant was personally served or appeared in the action, be laid before the ecclesiastical authority, and such ecclesiastical authority, having taken legal advice thereon, shall have declared in writing that in his judgment the case of the applicant conforms to the requirements of this canon; and provided, further, that it shall be within the discretion of any minister to decline to solemnize any marriage.

"IV. If any minister of this church shall have reasonable cause to doubt whether a person desirous of being admitted to holy baptism, or to confirmation, or to the holy communion, has been married otherwise than as the word of God and discipline of this church allow, such minister, before receiving such person to these ordinances, shall refer the case to the bishop for his godly judgment thereupon; provided, however, that no minister shall in any case refuse these ordinances to a penitent person in imminent danger of death.

"In connection with the above canon we are sorry to say that in every instance of a refusal on the part of our clergy to marry a couple because the canon forbids it, and no matter how glaring the case, they have always found some minister to marry them, and this has been done in some instances after the ministers have been told by our clergy of the circumstances of the case. These facts have often been told to the bishop with indignation, especially when the rule of the denomination to which the minister has belonged forbids him to perform such marriages, and it has led, on the part of some clergy, to a decided opposition to have anything to do with the Church Federation movement, some ministers connected with which perform the marriage ceremony in such cases as we have refused for just cause.

"We admit frankly, that in many instances where we have to decline to marry people, our sympathies are entirely with them, and we say plainly that it seems in many cases almost to refuse. But every law must have hardship in individual instances, but those who know, as the writer does, how cases are brought to him where men have deliberately gotten rid of one wife in order to marry another, and have caused great suffering and deprived children of parental care by their conduct, we see plainly that the law is necessary for the preservation of society. The present way in which people are divorced and re-married creates a consecutive polygamy which in our minds is a greater evil, even than the usual kind of polygamy. Where we find, as we do in some cities and counties, that there is one divorce to every three marriages, people should stop and think, and, above all, ministers of the Gospel should be very careful that they lend no countenance to the evil. It does seem strange to the clergy of this church that those who profess to believe the Bible as the rule of their faith, should perform marriage ceremonies in many cases the circumstances connected with which could readily be known to them."

HUI NALU MEN SHOW CLASS IN PLANS FOR SHOW

The rehearsals for the coming Hui Nalu Follies are being enthusiastically attended and everything points to the show being a big success. The exchange tickets are on sale and can be had from members or at the Hawaiian News Co. The purchaser of these exchange tickets has the advantage of one day over the general public, as the public sale starts Feb. 5th, Feb. 4th being the day upon which the tickets may be exchanged for seat coupons at the Hawaiian News Co. The sale of tickets to date has been very large, so large that the committee in charge is considering giving the show three nights instead of the two, as planned, namely Wednesday and Friday, Feb. 11th and 13th.

Duke and the rest of the members of the Hui Nalu are showing themselves to be really competent actors and dancers, and the following young ladies who will take part in the cabaret scene promise as attractive a chorus as Honolulu has seen in any of its past amateur plays: Charlotte Dowsett, Laura Low, Bernice Kahanamoku, Eleanor Holt, Hazel Williams, Melle Williams, Ellen Dwight, Helen Colburn, Peleides Colburn, Fennella Miles, Lorna Jarrett and Anna Harrison.

"Dude" Miller is training his Hui Nalu Glee Club in a number of new and original songs, and Ernest Kaal and his club are also taking an active part. The well-known abilities of Ernest Parker will be noticed in the decoration and stage settings; also the color-scheme of the hats and gowns. "Buck" Theall of Virginia Brissac fame, is expected in Honolulu about Feb. 1st and has been engaged to paint the special scenery for the opening act.

Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani has not only consented to act as a patroness, but has signified her desire to attend one of the performances, providing she is able. The other patronesses are Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. H. G. Smart, Mrs. R. W. Shingle, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. G. C. Beckley, Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. J. D. Dougherty, Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. Frank Hustace, Sr.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't hesitate! A laxative is necessary if tongue is coated, breath bad or stomach sour.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When crows, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, fall of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels, without griping, and you have a well-playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels, and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," and then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!—advertisement.
