RAINEY PICTURES
AT THE BIJOU
TOMORROW NIGHT

Thrilling, exciting, entertaining as well as sensational, are the series of motion pictures secured by the Paul J. Rainey expedition which to the number of 350 persons, penetrated the heart of the Dark Continent, and returned after a year's absence with a realistic presentation of wild animal life as found in the jungles, seldom duplicated in the annals of photography.

The Paul J. Rainey African pictures, represented by several thousand feet of film, will be introduced into the territory of Hawaii for the first time with the initial presentation at the Bijou theater tomorrow evening.

At the risk of their lives the intrepid explorers with the expedition succeeded in getting close to the lair of the most ferocious beasts that haunt an African jungle. In some instances hours were employed in securing the picture of an animal at one of the many drinking or feeding places.

MOTHERS OF KAIMUKI
PLAN TO PUT SCHOOL
HOUSE TO GOOD USE

Mothers of Kaimuki are public spirited and "live."
This applies to all of them but more especially to the 25 members of the "Mothers' Club of Kaimuki, which is planning to put the school house of the district to good practical use and at the same time see to it that the children are properly cared for while in the school.

One week from tonight an entertainment and dance will be given under the auspices of the Mothers' Club
of Kaimuki in the Liliuokalani school house for the purpose of raising funds to provide milk for the children of the infant class of the school.

There is no race line in this Mothers'
Club. It takes in the Hawaiians, Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese, American, English, Irish—everyone in fact who has an interest in the children of the school.

Officers of the Club are Mrs. Harry
L. Ross, president; Mrs. Emma Nako-ine, vice-president; Mrs. J. E. McNellis, secretary; Mrs. H. T. Waity, treasurer.

THE RUBIAYAT OF MAYOR FERN

By a Devotee

(The author of the following appreciative verses has had them presented to Mayor J. J. Fern with all due respect. His honor read them with happy ejaculations. On the whole he likes them. He did, however, wish that several scattered references to pigs, poi and politics be revised downward.
But search for the author of the quatrains has been unsuccessful; so it is found necessary to print them as they appear in the original.)

"Wake" cry many as they storm my office door,

Hearing the reverberation of my snore—

"Ah, peace," I say, "Some other time I wake!"

And then I turn and sweetly slumber more.

And sometimes as I sleep the hours away,

Or nodding puff on my cigar of hay.

I smiling wonder what is half so fine

As my soft job and its delightful pay.

Some say with nepotism I am dyed,

Others that I lack wit or a Mayor's pride—

Friends let me say a word or two:

Needing a job on my next hand-cart ride.

I am as from a stevedore I came.

A man who lives without a conscious shame,

And honest as the summer day is long

I live, and smile and knowingly de-claim.

Well-wishing friends who love me as I am,

Unlearned in books o'er which the scholars cram:

I am as God made me, plus a tooth,

Sans Latin, sans Silver Spoon and sans sham.

'And now that I've made mention of the tooth,

It thinks about it I should say the truth:

My grandmother willed it to me as a gift.

So with my own I wear it—thus the tooth!

A bowl of poi, a ukulele song.

A touch of gin to make, the singing strong.

A hula dancer dancing while I smoke.

Ah! 'Tis for such a Paradise I long.

This of Destiny and decrees of Fate

'But which the learned men learnedly prate:

Our life is but a mighty bowl of poi

From which all those who will may freely take.

You know my friends with what a brave carouse.

I gave a birthday luau at my house.

How hundreds came and came and came, Alas!

And all my chickens ate, my pigs and cows.

Now that a new moon is about to rise,

Politics make us open up our eyes:

And therefore I must quickly turn to dust

The webbs from our new politi- skies.

Alas for those who urge me on to run

As delegate to distant Washington:

A fool I'd be to quit and go away

From my nice job and its unending fun.

What of Kamehameha's first and last.

Their statues are but mile-stones of the past:

It thinks that when at last I do a croak,

I'll ask my statue be the very last.

Savants have come to me and asked advice.

Adaline—"Oh, the neighbors won't even speak to or notice us on the street any more." Leslie—"Well, we didn't have an enemy in the world till you took singing lessons."

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.
Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody, without labeling them
"poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician know of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.

The signature of Dr. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine
Castoria.
Physicians Recommend Castoria.
"1 have frequently prescribed Castoria for common ailments of children with good results."
W. A. CRANDALL, M. D.,
Buffalo, N. Y.
"1 find your Castoria is very beneficial in the treatment of children's ailments."
F. Davis, M. D.,
Chicago, Ill.
"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine and, aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."
Wm. J. McCann, M. D., Omaha, Neb.
"I object to what are called patent medicines,
where maker alone knows what stuff is put in them,
but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use in proper cases. I judge it to be a very useful, as well as harmless family medicine."
N. B. Sizer, M. D.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.
