HIT OR MISS IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

THE offer by the Russian government of $40,000 for the trotting stallion J. Malcom Forbes, and the refusal of it by the owner with the remark that he would not sell the horse for double the sum, bear witness that, despite the automobile and the aeroplane, the day of the trotting horse is by no means drawing toward a close.

Oliver Wendell Holmes used to argue that the trotting horse is an outcome of our democratic social system. Royalty, aristocracy, war and sport, said he, developed the saddle horse.

WALTER ST. DENIS, sporting editor of the New York Globe, who has been in San Francisco recently, says that New York is second in very few things, but when it comes to the boxing game, it must, in view of records, fall in behind California.

But it's a fact. There are those who say that the 29-round condition which prevails in California is the cause of it. It's no such thing. The secret of the western success is the consideration the promoters give the common people, the people who love sport for sport's sake, and who can not afford big prices for tickets.

"It's just that way with the boxing game in California. Fight club promoters build their arenas with the idea in view of accommodating the boys who have but $2 or $3 to spare to see a bout.

"In Jim Coffroth's arena in San Francisco there is seating capacity for about 17,000. Of this number not more than 7,000 are placed in the reserved list.

"It's just the other way in New York. The reserved seats outnumber the general admissions five to one. In Madison Square Garden, for instance, there is room for probably 10,000 people at a fight, yet not more than 2,000 seats are set aside for the boys who have but a dollar or two to spare.

"Avariciousness is a great fault with the majority of New York fight club managers. They have been stung by their own folly time and again, but the very next time they get the chance their greed overcomes them.

Oaha Fans Lucky In Having First Class Ball Umpire

UMPIRE NORRIS STAYTON.

Honolulu fans may have good reason to be "crab" about some of the things connected with local baseball, but they are well off in one regard, and that is in having a competent chief umpire.

Captain Norris Stayton, C. A. C., came to Honolulu in January, 1913, in command of the 19th company, which took station at Fort De Russy. Within a few weeks of his arrival he was looking over the baseball situation, and after umbring several games, and proving his ability, he was appointed chief umpire of the Oahu league.

SOUTH AMERICA FOR GIANTS-SOX

John J. McGraw and Charles Comiskey, who are at present touring the world with all-star baseball teams are more convinced than ever that baseball can be made an international game.

WHITNEY WANTS TO SEND MAN HERE FOR CRACK POLO PONIES

So anxious are eastern poloists to secure Dr. Will Baldwin's wonderful Carry the News for the international matches next summer that Harry Payne Whitney has offered to send his head groom all the way to Honolulu to personally take charge of the mount on its trip across the ocean and continent.

Word has reached here that Louis Stoddard, who played No. 2 in the second match against England last year, will not be a candidate for the team, on account of the recent death of his wife.

TY COBB OFFERED $75,000 BY FEDS

CHICAGO.—Ty Cobb was offered a five-year contract at $15,000 a year in a telegram sent to him at Augusta, Ga., by President Gilmore of the Federal league.

The telegram was written and given to a messenger in the presence of newspaper men after Gilmore had said that he had learned that Cobb had not yet signed with Detroit for the 1914 season.

PUNAHOU TRACK MEN SELECTED BY THE COACH

Coach Midkiff of Oahu College has already begun to size his runners up for the coming relays, and at a meeting Tuesday he slated different runners and jumpers for their events.

The following are the selected men: Four-mile relay, Watt, O'Dowda, Webster and Tuttle; for the two-mile relay, Brown, McInerney, Goo and Mott-Smith; for the one-mile relay, Baldwin, Austin, King and Pong; for the half-mile relay, Gay, Inman, Quarles and McStocker; for the 100-yard dash, Gay, McStocker, Quarles and Henshall; for the 220-yard hurdles, Gay, McStocker, Wal and Henshall.

Since the College of Hawaii is entering a team the collegians are beginning to look at things differently, for it is rumored that there are a few good men hidden in the wilds of Maunaloa valley.
