POLICE SITTINGS

In alighting from a street car while in motion Pahaea Kahanalili received injuries that sent him to the hospital for treatment. The accident occurred on the Wai'alae road near 10th avenue about 7 o'clock last night.

Motorcycle numbered 300, in damaged condition was picked up by Police Officer Ayas on upper Fort street above Vineyard street last night. The owner of the machine can claim his property by calling at the central station.

It was found necessary to handcuff Pat Snyder and confine him in a cell before he was sufficiently persuaded that he could not attempt a wholesale extermination of the Japanese race. Snyder acted as a raving maniac when arrested by the officers. He had been left behind with the departure of the transport Thomas.

The frantic attempt upon the part of W. B. Ball and J. Oliveria, enlisted men, passing through on the U. S. transport Thomas yesterday, to wreck a downtown third parlor, failed, though the pair were lodged at the central station for safe keeping. Much glassware and furnishings were smashed and destroyed before the assaults from the drunken soldiers were checked.

According to a report received this morning by the public utilities commission, a Korean named Yee, an employe of the Kahului Railway Company, while moving a pontoon out of the way of a lighter on the morning of January 30, caught his foot between the pontoon and the marine railway when he started to jump from one to the other, suffered an accident which necessitated his removal to the hospital and the amputation of two toes.

The territorial board of health will hold its weekly meeting at Dr. J. S. B. Pratt's office at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE OF 'Y' GOT MANY JOBS FOR MEN DURING MONTH

Men and boys to the number of 28 secured positions during January through the employment committee of the Y. M. C. A., according to the report presented by R. J. Pratt, chairman, at a meeting of the committee this noon. Of this number, 14 men were placed in permanent positions, 10 men in temporary positions, and 4 boys were secured steady employment. The total shows the largest number of men and boys assisted to employment that the committee has ever been able to place, says the report.

Progress has been made in systematizing community employment problems during January, the report says. A weekly conference is held by the committee with representatives of other associations doing a like work, at which time cases of the unemployed are discussed and the responsibility placed upon some one for their solution. The Associated Charities handles employment for women and girls with cooperation from other organizations interested in this line of effort.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CONSOLIDATION WORKING ON BY-LAWS

While no definite action was taken, the joint special consolidation committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association which met yesterday afternoon for its initial session, started the ball rolling toward preparing a constitution and by-laws to govern the Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce which will come from the proposed merger of the two organizations.

The constitution and by-laws, framed by a special committee about a year and a half ago, was brought up for discussion. Different sections of both were passed out to the several members of the joint committee for suggestions or revision, and report upon the progress of the work will be made at a meeting which has been called for next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the rooms of the chamber.

FAIR BUILDING TO COST ONLY $50,000-WOOD

Governor Pinkham Considering $100,000 Appropriation in Line of Retrenchment

There is no presumption as yet that Governor Pinkham will cancel the $100,000 appropriation for Hawaii's building and exhibit at the Panama-Pacific International exposition. He admitted this morning that he is giving the subject some consideration, but stated that he does not expect to arrive at a decision until he has received some expression of opinion from the people of the territory.

He also will consult with the Hawaiian exposition commissioners and go into the matter thoroughly.

"It might be a good thing for the people to think about," said the governor, "but as yet I haven't gone into it very deeply."

"I am not inclined to offer any comment regarding the Hawaii building at the San Francisco exposition," said H. P. Wood, chairman of the Hawaii fair commission, this morning. "I will say, however, that the commission has been treated very liberally by the fair officials and the people of San Francisco. They have made every concession to us and favorably considered every suggestion which we offered, in order that the commission might go ahead with its work."

"I do not know from what source the information came that the cost of the building for a building to cost $300,000. Such a project was never discussed. The only plan which the commission made was to erect a building which would cost $50,000 complete, including all accessories. It has always been the intention of the commission to erect a building which would reflect credit on the territory; one which would do a great deal toward furthering the friendly relations, business and otherwise, which now exist between Hawaii and San Francisco. After consulting its architect, the commission decided that erecting a building costing $50,000 was the least possible thing it could do to gain its end. The fair will mean a tremendous amount of advertising for these islands; and such a chance will never again be offered Hawaii for at least a decade.

"The commission is working in harmony with the governor and expects to be guided by his decision in all matters."

THE SUPERVISOR'S DREAM.

Many the weird expressions, Of those inside the gate; Whose hinges, inebriated, Foretold an entrant's fate. Waiting and watching ever, Starting as gate latch clicks; Gazing at each newcomer, That crossed the River Styx, Each dancing, grinning watcher, Field in his hand some thing; The one that seemed most fiendish, A broken auto spring.

With eager, startling eyeballs, They watched Old Charon's yawl, Bringing across to torture, Those lost beyond recall. As they approached the portal, The fiend with the broken spring, Uttered a cry of vengeance, That made all Hades ring. "He's mine! He's mine! I'll take him, 'Twill be but just and true." He grabbed the supervisor, And roughly pulled him through. "Pile into that big auto, 'I'll take you for a ride; 'Don't mind that little 'sizzle, 'It toughens up the hide.

"Besides, this is a picnic, 'Compared with what's to come; 'Roads here are worse than Hawaii's 'And that is going some. "Did that last bump near kill you? "Oh, well, just hold on tight; "These roads—they should be better, "But there's no cash in sight. "I used to live in Hawaii, "And owned a fine machine; "The pride of all the city, "The finest ever seen. "But I died broke in pocket, "Paying for spring repairs; "And sent direct to Hades, "For cussing thoroughfares.

"But here's where I get even, "So calm your rising fears; "This little rough-road joy ride, "Will last for years and years. "Oh, that last bump was nothing, "Just seems like south King street; "Whew, I smell something burning, "It sure must be your feet. "These roads are all too well kept, "Golly, that made you sob; "Perhaps, after they check you, "They'll give you that old job. "You think this road is bumpy, "Too bumpy for a Hup; "Wait till we hit the fire pits— "Just then Petrie woke up. —C. F. M.

YVONNE DE TREVILLE WILL BE HEARD IN FINAL CONCERT HERE TONIGHT

Mlle. YVONNE DE TREVILLE

Yvonne de Treville's last concert, Mlle. de Treville. "I can truly say which will be given tonight at the Hawaiian Opera House, has all the earmarks of a social affair. The queen will be present in her usual box with a party of friends. There will be a brilliant gathering of army and navy folk and Honolulu's most prominent society women will be there.

Mlle. de Treville's program will carry out the Costume Recital which proved such a favorite at her first appearance in Hawaii. There will be three centuries of prima donna songs selected from the various periods, and the singer and her accompanist appearing in costumes. The idea of the concert is purely original with the coloratura soprano and was carried out with hard study and careful attention to details.

That Honolulu was pleased with her first recital has made Mlle. de Treville very happy and she expressed the wish that she might return again to the islands and sing again for the appreciative audience which heard her last Saturday evening. "Honolulu has always been spoken of in the musical world as a city where good music and true genius were appreciated," said

Honoluluans have always been proud of their reputations as musical critics and they are not going to permit Mlle. de Treville to leave without assuring her of their admiration for her wonderful voice.

The program:
Part First—XVIIIth Century.
1. Joseph Haydn Air from the "Creation" "With verdure clad"
2. George Munro My Lovely Celia
3. Thomas Smart The Forsaken Maid
4. Thomas Brown
5. Shepherd Thy Demeanor Vary
Part Second—XIXth Century
5. Ambrose Thomas Ophelia's Mad Scene from "Hamlet"
6. a. Schumann Die Lotoslüme
b. Schumann An die Sonnenscheibe Gounod Serenade
7. Bellini Aria from "I Puritani"
Part Third—XXth Century.
8. Kienzl Frühlings Anknuff

"With one suit of Alfred Benjamin clothes, and an extra pair of PARAGON PANTS, I am really the possessor of TWO suits."
