High Cost of Living
A college professor has discovered that the high cost of living is in some considerable measure due to the elimination of the tempestuous petticoat and other less poetic undergarments which the ladies have left off wearing in submission to the tyranny of fashion. The professor's logic is that mildly, having left off her clothes, must eat more to keep warm, and his reasoning is lyrically put by some unknown poet:
Amanda, since at fashion's call
You brave the sniffs of outraged Grundys,
And face chill winter's icy squall
In scant and insufficient "fuffles,"
Thy well to know you can restore
Your thermos by more generous dining;
And though your food may cost you more,
Cheaper than clothes such "inside lining!"

Mr. and Mrs. Young's Bridge.
A large and very beautiful bridge party was given last week by Mr. and Mrs. James L. Young at their attractive home in Manoa valley. Exquisite bowls of spring flowers and ferns were used in the decorations, rivaling in beauty the dainty silks and satins of the fair guests. After several hours of gay competition, prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. H. Tarleton, Dr. A. L. Andrews, Mr. John Belsler, and Mr. George Angus. A delicious supper was then served. Among those present were Mrs. Charles Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bierbach, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarleton, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. S. de Freest, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Benner, Doctor and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gaynor, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gere, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lyser, Doctor and Mrs. E. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Belsler, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lindeman, Mr. and Mrs. George Frown, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Brown, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hurd, Mrs. Charles Bon and Mrs. Charles Heiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Francis Campbell, Jr. are on their way to Honolulu, where they will spend the first weeks of their honeymoon. The marriage of the couple took place last week in Berkeley and was a pretty event with several hundred in attendance. The bride, who was formerly Miss Miriam Clark, was attired in a handsome wedding dress of white satin, trimmed with lace, pearls and delicate clusters of orange blossoms. To complete the toilettes there was a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and butterfly orchids tied with streamers of tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in Portland, where the former is interested in the lumber industry.

Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, who spends her time here and at her home in Honolulu, gave an elaborate dinner party at the Honolulu Country Club at which the announcement of the engagement of Miss Lueline Matson and William Roth was made known to the many friends of the young couple. Miss Tenney left here early in the fall, after having spent the summer with her mother at the Bellevue. Miss Matson has been much entertained in Honolulu since the engagement was announced, and already her friends here are planning to give a number of affairs to celebrate the betrothal.—Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, visitors at the home of Mrs. William G. Irwin, dropped in Monday at the Hotel St. Francis to watch the dancers. They were soon joined by Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton and Charles Templeton Crocker. Mrs. Ivers' who is a stunning blonde, wore a black tulle gown and a large black hat. Mrs. Dutton had on a handsome sash-trimmed coat with ermine collar and revers and a black velvet hat.—Chronicle.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION
Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine. "I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?
If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Galliard Smart and small son of Honolulu arrived on the Matsonia Tuesday. They went directly to San Mateo to remain indefinitely with Mrs. John F. Biven. Mrs. Smart was Miss Thelma Parker, sister of Mrs. Fred Knight of San Francisco and granddaughter of Colonel Sam Parker.—Chronicle.

Dr. J. M. Gillespie of the public health service, who was stationed in Honolulu for a year or more on the Thetis, will pass through this city very shortly en route from Hongkong to his new post on Mare Island.

Mrs. E. I. Spalding and Miss Helen Spalding were the house guests of Mrs. William Irwin during their visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. T. Myers and Mrs. Richard Cutts are entertaining at bridge this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Montgomery M. Macomb.

Little Miss Louise Drew was hostess at a luncheon for 18 tiny tots this week, the occasion being her 10th birthday.

Mrs. William Goetz is leaving very shortly for the mainland where she will visit her family.

Honolulu is the Mecca toward which a number of Oakland society folk are turning their faces this month. Miss Grace Layman and Mrs. Edward Hall Dodge, her sister, sailed this week with the intention of being away until the middle of April. While in the islands they will divide their time between friendly visits and sightseeing. Mrs. Nelson Howard will leave soon for a month's tour of the islands with a party of Santa Barbara friends. Another group to enjoy several weeks spent on the tropical islands includes Mrs. Adrian Merle, her daughter, Mrs. W. H. L. Hynes, and Mrs. A. J. Merle. They will take apartments at the Alexander Young hotel during their absence and so spend most of their time in Honolulu and the near-by places of attraction.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Klamp of Honolulu are being entertained by friends here during their stay at the Cecil. The Klamps, who have one of the handsomest homes in the islands, are on a world-tour and are spending a month in San Francisco before proceeding to Texas, where they will be guests of Mrs. Klamp's father, Colonel Girard, U. S. A., who is stationed there. Mrs. Klamp has a host of friends in San Francisco, who are doing much in an informal way for her pleasure.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Maud and Mrs. Maud's son, Clinton La Montagne, returned Tuesday on the Matsonia from Honolulu, where they spent a delightful six weeks. Returning on the same ship were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sullivan and Miss Edith Rucker, who are enthusiastic in their praises of the island city and its many attractions.—Chronicle.

On Monday evening J. D. McKee and Charles Templeton Crocker of San Francisco, with Richard Ivers of Honolulu, arrived at Del Monte. Early Tuesday morning they started for the Lamela ranch and intend to spend a few days there, having come prepared to hunt.—S. F. Examiner.

Word comes from Honolulu that Mrs. Gullford Whitney has a little baby girl who arrived on the 20th of January. Mrs. Whitney was Miss Grace Davis of Modesto and has a host of friends here who will be delighted to hear the good news.—Modesto, Cal. Herald.

Charles Templeton Crocker, J. D. McKee and Richard Ivers of Honolulu have been on a hunting trip of several days. They went to Del Monte Monday and left the day following for Laureles ranch. They will return this week.—Examiner.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS
"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver, bowels—tastes delicious.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.
If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.

Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP
An Old and Well Tried Remedy
"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It softens the gums, alleviates pain, cures colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Sold by Druggists. Be sure you get the genuine.
Use for more than 30 generations.
