Easter Sunday Fittingly Observed In Honolulu Churches and Institutes

It would be difficult, no doubt, to find another city in which Easter was more thoroughly observed than in Honolulu yesterday. The elaborate setting which Hawaii affords for such an occasion, coupled with perfect weather and impressive services in nearly every church in the city, served to make the day one which long will be remembered by both kamaaina and malihini. It was an appropriate ending to a well-observed Holy Week; a marked increase in attendance was noticed at all churches, and Easter offerings were bounteous and highly satisfactory.

As the first rays of the sun scintillated across the mountain peaks back of Honolulu, a message of praise and gladness went forth from a land of songsters stationed before the natural altar on Punchbowl. This unique custom has been observed in Honolulu for many years past, and the services yesterday morning, under the direction of Col. Blanche B. Cox of the Salvation Army, and John Martin were highly successful and well attended. Early services were held in all the Catholic churches. At the Cathedral on Fort street low mass was celebrated at 5, 7 and 9 o'clock, and at 10:30 o'clock Bishop Libert celebrated a pontifical high mass, assisted by Fathers Francis, Stephen and Matthias. Special music accompanied the service, there being selections by the choir and orchestra, a sacred vocal selection by Madame Alapai, and a violin solo by Paul K. Tallett. During the afternoon, Bishop Libert administered confirmation at the cathedral. There were no services at the cathedral in the evening.

At St. Augustine's chapel, Waikiki, high mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock in the morning, at which time an excellent musical program was rendered. Corporals Leigh, Frick and Sheldon, U. S. A., sang Bartholomew's "Messe Solemelle," in a highly pleasing manner, and Mrs. Frederick P. Reynolds rendered as a solo Wieland's "Ave Maria." Rev. Father Valentin delivered the sermon.

The true meaning of Easter was set forth in a powerful sermon delivered yesterday in Central Union church by Dr. Doremus Scudder, the pastor. Central Union spared no pains in preparing for an elaborate service; every detail, both in decorations and program, having been carried out to a high degree of excellence. In the morning the primary and kindergarten departments of the church observed the day with appropriate exercises. Music lovers of Honolulu who attended the morning and evening services received a rare treat as a result of the efforts of the choir, of which the leader is A. B. Ingalls, the special feature of this part of the program having been a rendition of Dudley Buck's cantata "Christ the Victor." Under the direction of Mrs. Philip Frear and her assistants, the church had been transformed into a perfect bower of flowery loveliness. Palms, ferns and other tropical flowers and plants, as well as countless numbers of beautiful calla lilies, the flowers which always has been highly regarded by the church, were used in profusion.

Two special services marked the advent of Easter in the Methodist church. At the morning service, Rev. R. Elmer Smith spoke upon the subject, "A Startling Supposition," taking as his text "If Christ be not risen."—I Cor. 15, 14. The evening service consisted mainly of music, with a brief talk by the pastor, Mrs. G. K. Taekabury and W. H. Hutton, with the members of the choir, and Miss Marilla Smith, the organist, contributed to the musicale.

Special services were held in the Christian church, and at St. Clement's, Punahou. At 9 o'clock in the morning, John Martin conducted services at the Oahu prison, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a brief address and some excellent music took the spirit of Easter to the Leahi Home.

"If Christ be not risen then is our preaching vain and your faith is also vain."—I Cor. 15, 14, was the subject of the principal address delivered in St. An-draw's cathedral yesterday by Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, bishop of Honolulu. This popular subject always has been one of keen interest, and Bishop Restarick's forceful way of putting things yesterday served to hold the attention of the hundreds of persons who thronged to the big cathedral. Six services were held in St. Andrew's yesterday. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the annual meeting of the Sunday schools was held, and at 7:30 o'clock in the evening the sermon by the bishop was listened to by several hundred persons, including the members of the local order of Knights Templar. Under the direction of Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, the church was beautifully decorated with flowers and palms. Special musical programs were rendered at all services, the augmented choir having received exhaustive tuition under the direction of Choirmaster Reginald Carter. It is estimated that nearly $800 was added to the fund of the church through collections.

In the smaller churches of Honolulu Easter was well observed. One of the features of the occasion was the marked increase in attendance noticeable at all churches, one of the results of the "Go to Church" movement recently inaugurated by the Inter-Church Federation of Honolulu. Easter was well observed in Honolulu more so, perhaps, than in most cities on the mainland.

EASTER SERVICES AT SCHOFIELD FILL THE CHAPEL

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Apr. 12.—This is the second Easter that services have been held in the pretty little chapel at Schofield, but never before have the services proved so popular and been so well attended. Every available seat was occupied at the morning service, principally by the officers and ladies of the garrison, and the chapel was much too small to accommodate the large number of soldiers that attended the Easter evening service.

Chaplain Aiken of the 1st Infantry came all the way from Red Hill, where the 1st Infantry is encamped, to preach at the morning service, which was conducted by Chaplain Lutz of the 4th Cavalry and Chaplain Scott of the 25th Infantry, as well. Chaplain Aiken's text was "I am the Resurrection and the Life," and he preached a masterly sermon. The music for the Easter services was unusually attractive. For the morning service a choir of young girls from 10 to 15 years of age was organized and trained by Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Reichman; Mrs. Aiken sang the offertory "Eastern Dawn." The choir included Elizabeth Sturgis, Elizabeth Winans, Elizabeth Tupes, Harriet Lyons, Ann Reichman, Marie Campbell, Josephine Offley, Katherine Harrison, Josephine Briand, Clare Loderboom. At the evening service the musical program included a cornet solo by Corporal Oliver and a vocal solo by Corporal Davis, both of the 25th Infantry. The chapel was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, palms and ferns.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ENJOYING EASTER AT FREAR HOME

Mrs. Walter F. Frear and her daughters, Virginia and Margaret, are at home this afternoon to several hundred school children of Honolulu at the Frear residence, Punahou street, who have gathered to roll their Easter eggs on the broad lawn. The festivities began at 3 o'clock, and the event is a gala one for the children, who for the past several weeks have been looking forward to the treat.

In the furtherance of a custom which has been observed by herself, her husband and their daughters for the past several years, Mrs. Frear recently issued an invitation to the children to be present at the egg rolling. The invitation was hailed with no little joy, and youngsters to the number of several hundred, attired in best bib and tucker, commenced to gather at the Frear home early this afternoon. The Hawaiian band has been secured for the occasion and Captain Berger has prepared a special program.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapepsin" and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion—if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—advertisement.

FILIPINOS TO VIE WITH SCOTS IN GARB AT 1915 EXPOSITION

[By Latest Mail]
MANILA, P. I.—The new Igorot scouts companies being organized at Camp John Hay are to be known as the Bagnio Highlanders. They will be the sensation at the Panama fair for the present intentions are to send a company of Igorot Highlanders to San Francisco in 1915.

Captain John H. Neff, and 2d Lieut. Gunnar J. Mortenson, with the Macabebe non-coms of the fifth company, will proceed to the Bagnio "high lands" to muster in the first company of Igorot scouts. They will be selected especially with regard to shape, it was asserted, and the distinctive uniforms they are to be arrayed in will be kilts and G-strings, officers included. It was rumored in army circles last evening that Captain Neff's kilts will be considerably abbreviated to do his mercurial spirit—full justice.

There will eventually be four companies and each will be distinguished by color of G strings, it was asserted without a smile. Major Chapman will be the big chief of the battalion, but it has not been announced what he will wear.

The first company will be arrayed in bright red G strings, while the other companies' colors will be green, blue and maroon respectively, it was declared.

It is understood the secretary of war and General Bell have had it in mind for some time to muster the Igorot scout forces and it is believed that as the staid gentry of the home country are becoming impressed with the Filipinos' rapid advancement the time is now ripe to give them a look at the Igorot stride.

Delicious!
That is the likely comment on pie made with

CRISCO
For Frying, For Shortening, for Cake Making.

First of all, pie properly made with Crisco looks tempting. The crust has a rich, flaky appearance that puts a new edge on the appetite, no matter what dainties have gone before.

Then, it is so tender that it breaks at a touch of the fork. Even the under crust which becomes tough so easily, cuts as readily as the upper crust.

Finally, it tastes rich, yet delicate; fresh, palatable, delicious in every sense.

Here is the recipe for plain pastry that we have found best:

1-2 CUPFUL FLOUR 1-2 TEASPOONFUL SALT
1-2 CUPFUL CRISCO COLD WATER
(Level Measurements)

Sift flour and salt twice and add Crisco ingredients. Form lightly and roll into flour with knife until finely quickly with hand into dough; roll out divided. Fluted tins may be used toun slightly floured board about one-inch blending materials. Add grad-quarter inch thick. Use light motion nally sufficient water to make stiffen handling rolling-pin, and roll from paste. Water should be added spar-center outward. Sufficient for one pie, tuzly and mixed with knife through
