GOV. PINKHAM IN FAVOR OF MAUI BONDS

Large Throng Listens to Chief Executive Deliver Carefully Prepared Address

ENTERTAINMENTS AND RECEPTIONS THE ORDER

Elaborate Program Being Carried Out as Planned—Will Report to President

[Special Star-Bulletin Wireless] WAILUKU, Maui, May 18.—All Maui is celebrating the arrival of Governor Pinkham here on his first tour of this island since his appointment as chief executive of the territory. Since Saturday, when hundreds of persons crowded on Market street, this town, to hear his address on the proposed Maui bond issue, elaborate entertainments and receptions have been tendered him.

In a carefully prepared speech, Governor Pinkham Saturday announced his approval of the bond plan, and gave his reasons for approval. His words were received with hearty applause. Following him as speakers came Senator James L. Goke, James M. Raymond and William A. Clark, who expressed their appreciation of the attitude taken by the governor on the project which they say means so much to all Maui. William Coelho interpreted.

After the addresses a reception and ball were given at the local armory. It was a brilliant gala affair. The governor appeared in excellent health and spirits and well fit for the balance of the program as outlined. The chief executive and his party spent Sunday on the Raymond ranch, leaving there early this morning to be present at Lahaina for the entertainments planned for him there.

Barron Gives O. K. to the New Postmaster

Philadelphia, May 8, 1914. Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin. Sir: Mr. Young, the newly appointed postmaster, will arrive on steamer Matsonia May 26, taking office May 31. Postmaster-general Burleson called Mr. Young and myself in his office, and told Mr. Young to make every possible improvement to standardize Honolulu postoffice, sparing no expense. Mr. Young is an expert and will give to the public of Honolulu an improved postoffice unsurpassed by none on the mainland. He has had 27 years' experience in postoffice matters. I believe of him a hearty support of all the people of Honolulu. With Alva to all. Yours very truly, CHARLES BARRON.

MRS. SPIEGEL-GREYLOUCH (BERYL HUNTER-JONES) IS GRANTED DIVORCE DECREE

In Judge Whitney's court this morning Mrs. Spiegel Greylouch, better known in Honolulu as Beryl Hunter-Jones, was granted a divorce. Her husband is located at Dallas, Texas. The papers in the suit were served on the husband some time ago after a long search by the attorneys. The divorce was brought on the grounds of non-support, and Mrs. Spiegel Greylouch swore today that she had not received a nickel from her husband for three years. She testified that she had not heard from her spouse for a long time. A. W. Brown went on the stand and testified that he knew for a fact that Mrs. Spiegel-Greylouch had lived with her mother here in Honolulu, and that she was semi-dependent on her for her maintenance. He said that the fair claimant for divorce also earned money writing for newspapers and in the line of painting. Judge Whitney granted the divorce, returnable on May 21, and ordered that the lady be allowed to resume her maiden name, Beryl Hunter-Jones.

Manuel Correa withdrew his appeal to the sentence of the district court magistrate when the case was called in Judge Dickey's court this morning.

KYOTO'S SHOPS AND DANCES ARE LURE TO WORLD

Thousands of Tourists Visit Ancient Capital of the Empire of Japan

HAWAII PARTY SPENDS WEEK AMID ATTRACTIONS

Trip Through Inland Sea Will be Made During Last Days of Stay

By RILEY H. ALLEN (Staff Correspondence) KYOTO, Japan, May 2.—A week from Tokio, during which the Hawaii touring party has "done" a large part of Southern Japan in an energetic and determined manner, has brought the visitors to the closing days of sightseeing in Dai Nippon. We have 10 more days and will then take the steamer for Hawaii.

Most of the past week has been spent at Tokio or nearby points, and has been devoted to sightseeing and—in the wonderful old city of Kyoto—to excursions among its countless quaint factories and shops where artisans and artists with loving and laborious effort maintain the industries that have made Kyoto famous and commercially great. There have been no dinners, teas or other social functions at Kyoto. The visitors from Hawaii were so feted in Tokio that they heaved a unanimous sigh of relief upon learning that the program at Kyoto did not necessitate what we have come to call "diplomatic functions." These we shall have at Osaka and Kobe, and again at Yokohama, perhaps at other places. The interim at Kyoto has been welcome, allowing rest for overworked stomachs as well as hard-worked speakers.

So of our stay in Kyoto there is comparatively little feature. It's a tremendous city of small businesses and many large ones, and even the thousands of tourists are swallowed up and lost—except at the foreign hotels. Nevertheless, Kyoto derives a huge income from the tourists, and knows how to get it all. Outside of Yokohama we have seen no city where the small tradesmen and runners for all sorts of businesses have been so persistent on the tourist's trail, and not even in Yokohama are the Japanese so boldly plying their trades in the lobbies and corridors of hotels as in Kyoto. Here they are even bothersome in their attentions and ceaseless pursuit of orders.

Fine weather has favored the Hawaiians with a consistency that is both lucky and opportune. Nothing that we intended to do has been postponed on account of bad weather and our luck has become proverbial. Consequently, the rather unfavorable opinion of Japanese climate, product of those first shivering days in Yokohama, has been revised. April is a happy month.

Trip a Pleasant One. Our trip to Kyoto was a leisurely and pleasant one, broken by several stops at points of interest, and most of the railroad journey was through scenery that is seldom excelled anywhere in Hawaii or the states. We spent most of Sunday at Shidzuoka, a bright, clean, progressive city.

CENTENARY OF PEACE WITH GREAT BRITAIN WILL BE CELEBRATED

In celebration of the 110th anniversary of the establishment of peace between Great Britain and the United States, a pageant will be given at the territorial normal school Wednesday under the direction of James A. Wilder. The pageant, which is from the pen of Mr. Wilder, has been prepared in a manner which makes it suitable for any number of performers and adaptable to platform or school yard.

Mr. Wilder has been hard at work for several weeks in preparation for the performance, and it doubtless will be one of the most unique pageants ever witnessed in Honolulu.

HUERTA WILLING TO RESIGN IS REPORT

Provisional President, However, Desires First to Be Shown That There is No Other Manner in Which Peace Can Be Established Between the United States and Mexico

[Associated Press Cable.] WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—From reliable diplomatic sources it is learned that Provisional President Huerta is willing to resign from the presidency of Mexico, provided there is no other available solution of the present trouble between the United States and the republic to the south. It is further stated that Huerta is inclined to the belief that this action on his part is not an absolute necessity but that there is some other method by which the United States can be pacified. However, the statement is made, emphatically, that Huerta will absolutely quit when he is shown that that is the only way out.

SURVIVORS OF SHIPWRECK TELL OF DEATH OF COMRADES

Several Drank Salt Water, Became Insane and Died in the Most Fearful Agonies—Others Laid Helpless in Bottom of Small Boat—Party Reaches Halifax, N. S.

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable.] HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, May 18.—Survivors of the wrecked vessel have reached this port bringing tales of hardship and suffering almost unbelievable. All are in an exhausted condition and plainly show the results of their suffering. A cask of water and small amount of hardtack served to sustain life during the first week the survivors were adrift in the small boat. This, however, proved but a temporary relief. Several of the shipwrecked unfortunates drank salt water, became insane, and died in the most fearful agony. Others, near death, were laid in the bottom of the boat by those fortunate enough to withstand the attacks of hunger and thirst.

MAYOR PLAYING POLITICS HARD FOR NEXT TERM

Appears to Have Foreboding All is Not Well With His Chance for Re-election

Witches who have been stirring the political pot, while muttering their incantations, have given a scream of despair at the unexpected and disturbing developments of the past 24 hours. They feel "a sense of something coming on the world," but just what it is, when it will come and in what shape it will appear are mysteries baffling and beyond them. Many rapid movements are being made in political circles, schemes and counter-schemes are being worked over. Mayor J. J. Fern appears in some, but not in others. Just what is on foot, just what is to be "put over," is not within the range of accurate guessing. Mayor Fern, feeling uneasy over the situation, his chances for reelection not appearing the rosiest, is on the job with his fleet-footed sons, working at politics with a perseverance and determination unknown to him before. Rivals for his job are springing up all around him. So far there are

GOOD DEMOCRATS TO GET HAWAIIAN JOBS IN HURRY

Cy Green of Texas a Contender for Marshalship—Holt Is Opposed on Politics

By C. S. ALBERT [Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WASHINGTON, May 7.—Early distribution of all Federal patronage in Hawaii is the watchword handed out in the various executive departments here. Positions are to be filled by good Democrats. Harmony and effectiveness within the party lines must be re-established. This slogan was announced following the departure of Charles Barron. Having rounded up everything in sight this genial politician passed on to review the sights of New York. He will dislocate his neck looking at the skyscrapers, buy a gold brick to show the folks back home and trade his spare clothing for merry-go-round tickets at Coney Island. This merry-go-round shows what a man will do when in a strange and new land. The latest developments following the departure of Mr. Barron are many and promise to be important. Included are these: All judicial positions will be filled

BOBBY CATHCART WILLING TO SUCCEED McADOO, SAY FRIENDS

The telephone rang for Robert W. Cathcart, clerk in the city and county engineer's office, aspirant for political jobs innumerable, and the butt of many jokes. "Something was said to Cathcart over the phone, and when he hung up the receiver he is said to have rushed at once out of the office, and cabbed to Washington. Now Cathcart does not say what was in this cable, but his friends do. They say he cabbed Washington for the position of United States treasurer. He wishes to succeed Treasurer McAdoo. The latter, having married into the Wilson family, is expected to retire from his present office, an unwritten law of Washington being that a cabinet member shall not be closely related, in blood or marriage, to the president. Hence Cathcart's opportunity. "He admits there is some possibility of his not getting it," said a friend this morning, "but he points out that it will be a good advertisement—one overlooked by H. P. Wood—to have a Hawaiian resident out for a federal cabinet office."
