BEATEN WOMAN TO GET DIVORCE FROM THIS BRUTE

Before departing for the coast as a passenger in the United States army transport Sheridan yesterday morning, Mrs. C. Beutinger, wife of a civilian employe, who recently has been identified with the Philippine insular government, took steps to secure a divorce from her husband, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The man was finally checked in his abuse of the woman by police and residents of this city, who hastened to answer a cry for assistance coming from the Moana Hotel on Saturday night.

Beutinger, when subdued was placed under arrest through the interference of Attorney W. T. Rawlins, spent twelve hours at the police station and during his occupancy of a cell proved to be about the richest prisoner confined at the municipal bastille in many months. The man, who was caught in the act of beating his wife, was relieved of money, checks, drafts and other forms of wealth to the value of more than $12,000, representing the accumulation of several years' residence at Manila.

The woman continued the voyage to San Francisco in the Sheridan, but Beutinger was advised to take up his journey by some other means and therefore chose the Pacific Mail liner Siberia.

According to the story related by Mrs. Beutinger, she has suffered violent abuse at the hands of her husband for about five years.

When Mounted Police Officer Fred Wright and Sergeant Fred Lauke visited the hotel for the purpose of bringing Beutinger into town he offered much resistance. According to

MEN OF THE 25TH HEAR DR. WADMAN ON TEMPERANCE

Nearly Entire Regiment Attends - Growth of Movement Is Described

Nearly the entire regiment of the 25th Infantry turned out to hear an address on the Temperance Reform Movement by Rev. John W. Wadman, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Hawaii, last evening at Schofield Barracks. The service was held in the large social hall and was attended by 1700 men or more, 300 of whom were obliged to stand. Colonel Kennon presided and in introducing the speaker of the evening made the following interesting and remarkable statement: "Thirty-five years ago when I entered the army, my decision reached by a court martial later than three o'clock in the afternoon was not considered legal since it was generally believed that no gentleman would be found in his sober senses later than 3 p. m. That was an old English law adopted by the army department and it is only 15 years ago that this law was repealed. The fact in itself clearly proves the splendid sweep of the temperance movement."

Mr. Wadman in his address, which lasted 45 minutes, reviewed the history of the reform during the past 25 years and when he named the ten states which are now wholly under prohibition, and mainly of the south, the men cheered to the echo. They were evidently delighted to hear that their own states were foremost in the forward movement. They were also pleased to hear that the army and navy departments are constantly taking advanced positions in temperance reform and no body of men is to be found anywhere of more respectable and sober habits than the "boys who uphold the flag." At the close of his address, Mr. Wadman took his audience for a little trip through Japan by aid of a selection of beautifully colored and well chosen stereoscopic views which the men thoroughly enjoyed. The lecturer states that he never spoke to a more intelligent and responsive body of men than the members of the 25th Infantry. Mr. and Mrs. Wadman were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Weirich and were entertained at dinner by Colonel and Mrs. Kennon.

Morning on CHANGE

This week's opening on the stock exchange is in strong contrast to last. Only Oahu and Oloa figured on the board, each losing an eighth point at that. Of Oahu 10 and 5 shares sold at 14.50, and of Oloa a total of 75 shares in four equal lots at 1.50. From between boards the only sales reported were of two lots of 25 shares each of Pineapple, unchanged at 35. Asking prices for stocks are weak all down the line, in some cases below last selling quotation.

SLIGHT ACTIVITY AT KILAUEA IS REPORTED

Although the past week at Kilauea has been an uneventful one from an observer's standpoint, the report of H. O. Wood, associate observer, shows that the volcano is increasing in activity and that the lava column is still rising. Owing to the wind and rain which has swept the Big Island, less thorough observations have been made. No visit was made to the pit on Thursday, May 28, but from that time until June 3, the observer made daily trips. On Saturday, May 30, the northwest cone was blown off, and the noises of eruption increased. On June 2 the noises of eruption decreased somewhat in volume, and although jets of molten lava were thrown up from time to time, no flows occurred.

Official figures show that less than one-twelfth of the area of the Philippines is devoted to agriculture, yet last year the leading crops were estimated to be worth nearly $90,000,000. Fire in the Jacob Haisch agricultural implement plant at Gabalk, Ill., the other day caused a loss of about $300,000. There was no insurance.

STATEMENTS OF AUTO ACCIDENT DIFFER WIDELY

Warrant in Hands of Police for J. Harris Mackenzie—He Denies Any Fault

A warrant was in possession of the police this morning charging J. Harris Mackenzie with reckless and heedless driving, as the result of a rather serious auto accident last evening. Sheriff Aose, asked by the Star-Bulletin shortly before noon about the warrant, confirmed the fact of its issuance and emphatically stated that it would be served.

The accident occurred about 6 o'clock last evening at the intersection of Kalakaua avenue and King street. It is alleged that Mackenzie, at the wheel of his car, No. 544, drove into auto No. 1660, driven by Lieut. Robert Sears of the First Infantry, the four-year-old son of Lieut. and Mrs. Sears being painfully cut on the side of the head by flying glass.

Conflicting statements mark the case. Mr. Mackenzie, in a statement made to the Star-Bulletin today, declared emphatically that he was driving on the right hand side of the road and thus had the right-of-way, that he was not going down at an excessive rate of speed, and that Lieut. Sears was coming down Kalakaua and trying to cut too close to the corner.

At the police station this morning it was stated that Mackenzie was under the influence of liquor. He denies this absolutely, saying that though he had taken a few drinks before leaving Pearl City, he was not affected by what he had imbibed. Police officials and those who have investigated the accident insisted today that they have a number of witnesses who will prove their contention, while Mackenzie declares that he has men who will testify as to his sobriety and the fact that he was on the right side of the road.

"I was coming up the right side of the road and my right wheel was between the car tracks," said Mackenzie this morning, when the Star-Bulletin asked for his story. "We were not going fast, 15 or 18 miles an hour. I should judge. The whole trouble is that the other car tried to cut the corner too close and the tree at the intersection makes it impossible to see far in advance under such circumstances. I regret very much the injury to the child, though I understand it was able to be taken from the Queen's hospital last night. I resent the story that I was on the wrong side of the street."

Cut about the head and the upper part of the body by flying fragments of glass, the child was hurried to the hospital for treatment. The car in which Lieut. Sears, Mrs. Sears, Lieutenant M. G. Mitchell and wife were proceeding in the direction of town was much damaged through the terrific impact, as was the other machine.

Special Officer Chilton, who viewed the scene of the accident, states that Mackenzie was traveling out King street on this wrong side of the road. It is also alleged that this car was moving at a very fast pace.

Chilton insists that he can produce the testimony of a number of witnesses who will state that Mackenzie appeared much under the influence of liquor at the time of the collision. Among witnesses who may be called to give their version of the affair are D. H. Gray, K. Evans, E. Kamato, Lt. M. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell, J. A. Dunbar, G. M. Duncan, Police Officer A. Anderson, C. H. Hustace, Mounted Officer Kramer and Edward Holt.

At the police station it was said this morning that the warrant was sworn to by Officer Anderson.

An attempt upon the part of Mrs. Joseph Rodrigues to take her life by hanging was prevented by neighbors who also took a hand in placing Rodrigues, the husband, under arrest, charged with beating the woman. When Joseph Bennett, cavalryman, a through passenger in the army transport Sheridan, and on Saturday night a lodger at the Halewale, attempted to enter rooms other than that assigned to himself, he immediately encountered strenuous resistance.
