suffer discomfort—are languid, fretful and nervous, because their blood is thin or insufficient, but if those so afflicted could fully realize the wonderful blood-making properties of SCOTT'S EMULSION they would not deprive themselves of its benefits.

Nourishment alone—not drugs or alcohol—makes blood—and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of medical nourishment free from wines, alcohols or opiates.

SCOTT'S EMULSION after meals fills hollow cheeks, overcomes languor and makes tranquil nerves.

Miss Young's recital in Charles T. Bishop Hall, Miss Clara Genevieve Young gave an excellent certificate of appreciation before a large and appreciative audience. Miss Young is a pupil of Miss Margaret E. Clarke and has successfully completed four grades of the course offered by the Puuhou music department. Her program was most attractive, opening with Beethoven's "Sonata in E Minor," and her intelligent interpretation of the difficult movements testified as to her ability. Her rendering of Schubert's "Impromptu in A Flat" and Von Flieitz's "Romance," "Impromptu" and "Humoreske," Characteristucke, Opus 4, Book 2, was delightful. The final number, "Allegro" from Mozart's "Sonata in F" with second piano part by Gretchen was indeed a treat. Miss Young played the solo part in excellent style while Miss Clarke interpreted the second piano part. After each number, the young pianist was showered with the most beautiful floral offerings.

Returning will be their home at a newly furnished place in Green street.

SOOTHING SYRUP

An Old and Well Tri Remedy

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success, it cures the pain, soothes the inflamed parts, cures colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Sold by Druggists. For latest and best Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup send for more than three millions.

She was assisted by Mr. Allan Renton who for the past two years, has been the pupil of Miss Helen Cadwell, under whose instruction he has made remarkable progress. Mr. Renton is very well known in Honolulu musical circles where his big baritone voice is always sure to receive enthusiastic applause. On Saturday evening his first selection was the lovely "Where'er You Walk" from the oratorio of Handel's "Semele." His other numbers were Sidney Hosmer's exquisite "Requiem," Paolo Tosti's "Little Song," "The Pretty Creature," which were all sung in excellent voice. Miss Cadwell accompanied Mr. Renton on the piano in a very pleasing manner.

The stage was beautifully decorated being banked high with feathery ferns and graceful palms of all varieties, the dark green of which made a charming background for Miss Young's gown of soft white satin. Large French baskets filled with masses of pink begonias and tied with bows of pink tulle were placed here and there among the greens.

A number of the young lady students of the music department acted as ushers.

Tenight the big "Company D" dance takes place at the Armory, and it will undoubtedly be an event in the social happenings of the week. The general committee, consisting of Mr. M. B. Henshaw (chairman), Mr. Frederick Wichman, Mr. Walter V. ... and Mr. Charles H. Herbert and Mr. Gustave Schaefer have the affair in charge and have made most elaborate plans for the success of the evening.

With the generous donations of ferns and palms, they have been able to decorate the hall most artistically. Boxes encircle the big dance floor and have been reserved for the following: Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, Governor L. E. Pinkham, General William H. Carter, General Clarence Edwards, Admiral C. B. T. Moore, Col. Jones, Captain Walter V. Kolb, Mr. H. F. Wichman, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. Riley H. Allen, Mr. R. O. Matheson, Mr. Merle Johnson, Mr. J. Lowrey, Mr. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Alexander Young, Mr. Robert Purvis, Mr. W. Pfuger and Mr. Siegfried Moeller.

The following ladies have consented to act as patronesses for the occasion: Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, Mrs. Alexander Young, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. Gustave Schaefer, Mrs. H. G. Noonan, Miss Bertha Young, Mrs. J. D. Dougherty, Mrs. Arthur Wall and Mrs. Merle Johnson.

Mrs. Elgin was hostess at a most enjoyable card party on Tuesday afternoon of last week in the lovely Schaefer home. After cards, the players were joined by a number of other ladies and tea was served on the lanai. Mrs. Alfred Castle poured tea while Mrs. Waldron presided over the coffee urn. Miss Pauline Schaefer also assisted in serving the guests.

Among those present were: Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Fred Smith, Miss Blanche Soper, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. George Rodeck, Mrs. A. Haneberg, Mrs. Robert Cotton, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. E. M. Watson, Mrs. Frederick Klebahn, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. C. B. High, Mrs. Edwin Paris, Mrs. McGauley, Mrs. Gustave Schaefer, Mrs. Fred Waterhouse, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. Herman Focke, Mrs. George Collins, Mrs. Emil Waterman, Mrs. Bottomley, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Cordeila Walker and Mrs. Babbitt.

Mrs. Bessie Abbott Howland will sing her farewell to Honoluluans on next Friday night, as she leaves very soon after her concert for the Coast. Mrs. Howland has been in Honolulu several months studying Hawaiian music for the purpose of using it in a new opera, in the writing of which she is to assist.

At her concert on Friday evening, she will be assisted by Mr. John Gifford, Mrs. Florence Boocoo Johnson and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck. A number of popular ballads of the young set will act as ushers, among whom there will be the Misses Mary Von Holt, Margaret Genter, Ruth Anderson, Thelma Murphy, Pauline Schaefer, Helen McLean, Hazel Beckland, Mary Lucas and Violet McKee.

During her stay here Mrs. Howland has been extensively entertained and has won herself a great many friends who are all looking forward to Friday evening. Her concert is sure to be a social event of the week as well as a musical treat.

If signs do not fail, there may be another wedding in the smart set of which Mrs. William Roth has been the central figure of late.

Miss Jane Hotelling, cut the ring in the cake at the wedding of Miss Lurline Matson and William Roth last Wednesday evening and was of course immediately pined with questions as to who was the lucky man. However, she refused to make an announcement and her friends are guessing whether the omen will prove true and whether Miss Hotelling will not bring back a trousseau from Paris. Miss Grace Gibson found the thimble in her cake, but her future as an old maid, according to the tradition, is very doubtful.

Mr. and Mrs. Roth are spending their honeymoon in Canada and will be two or three weeks at Banff and Lake Louise. —San Francisco Examiner.

A very informal picnic supper was enjoyed by a number of Kunalu girls and their guests at their boat house last Thursday evening. After supper the girls took out one of the barges for a row in the harbor.

At their recent candy sales at the Biju theater the members of the club made enough money to meet all outstanding expenses and to put the boat house in repair. The barges have been painted, oars renovated, etc., so that the girls are now able to enjoy the privileges of the boat house again, and they expect to carry on an active club life hereafter.

Those present at Thursday's supper were: Misses Louise McCarthy, Pearl McCarthy, Virginia McCarthy, Evelyn Scott, Orpah Starratt, Abbie Lucas, Sarah Pratt, Psyche Berry and others.

Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard gave a small musicale recital this afternoon at her studio, finishing up the year's work, which has been most satisfactory.

On the 17th of this month Mrs. Howard will leave for Maui where she will give a large concert at Wailuku on the 20th. This recital will include both piano solos and dancing, and Mrs. Howard's people will indeed be fortunate in hearing and seeing this talented artist. Mrs. Howard says that it is probable that she will spend her summer on Maui too. In such a case Honolulu people will feel her loss most keenly. However, this versatile little woman has worked hard on the numerous programs she has taken part in and certainly deserves a long and restful vacation.

Mrs. William Mountrose Graham entertained a number of her service friends at tea last Thursday afternoon. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. S. D. Barnes and Mrs. Julia Smith. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed during which delicious tea was served. Those present were: Mrs. W. E. Elgin, Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Mrs. C. A. Clark and Mrs. F. D. Appin of Fort Rucker; Miss Hatch and Mrs. Daniel N. Swan of Fort Armstrong; Mrs. George D. Freeman of Fort Shafter; Mrs. Arnett P. Matthews, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Smith and the hostess.

Cockroaches SHOULD BE KILLED

At the first sign of the repulsive cockroach or waterbug, get a box of the genuine Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste and use it according to directions; and in the morning you can sweep up a painful dead cockroach. Ready for use; no mixing; does not blow into the food like powders.

BUBONIC PLAGUE—Rats, mice and cockroaches spread the germs of this dreadful disease, which they bring from infected regions. To avoid this, exterminate these pests by using Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste.

The next large wedding of the season will be that of Miss Carrie Ellen James on next Monday evening, when she will become the bride of Mr. Owen Thomas Webber. The ceremony will be performed in St. Andrew's Cathedral at 8:15 o'clock.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Ethel James, as maid of honor, and the Misses Kathleen and Sophie Walker as bridesmaids, while the two little Waldron children will be flower girls.

Dr. L. E. Case will act as best man for Mr. Webber.

Mrs. Charlotte Reichmann, whose engagement was recently announced to Lieut. Livingston Watrous of Schofield, has been the complimented guest at a large number of affairs. Among last week's social events at which she was guest of honor were Miss Carpenter's luncheon on Thursday and Mrs. Harold Naylor's luncheon on Friday. Both affairs were cleverly suggestive of Miss Reichmann's approaching wedding.

Miss Mabel Lightfoot was hostess at a very informal and jolly house party this past week-end at her home at Wahiawa. It was a suffragette affair and the girls enjoyed swimming, fishing and a most enjoyable outing. Those who enjoyed Miss Lightfoot's hospitality were: Misses Pearl McCarthy, Louise McCarthy, Mabel Armstrong, Evangeline Holmes, Gertrude Mason, Evelyn Scott and Orpah Starratt.

Capt. and Mrs. Ralph B. Lister entertained at a delightful dinner last Saturday evening in honor of General and Mrs. William H. Carter. The table was prettily decorated with yellow crape and ferns. Covers were placed for Gen. and Mrs. Carter, Capt. and Mrs. Frank C. Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter and Capt. and Mrs. Lister.

Mrs. O. S. Tower who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George H. Jamerson for some time, sailed on the transport last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sheridan were also passengers on the Sheridan. They are traveling east with the intention of spending the summer with relatives in Massachusetts.

American girls are still marrying into the families of the European nobility, even though it is not so common as it was a few years ago. Miss Laura Stallo, a society belle of southern California, surprised her friends recently with the announcement of her engagement to Prince Francesco Rospicci of Italy.
