- "I'll never speak to you again as long as I live!" exclaimed the temperamental girl. "Haw! Haw!" rejoined the practical youth. "You can't help yourself. I've got some of your songs and recitations on my phonograph."
"I wish my wife was less firm in keeping her New Year resolution." "What was it?" "She resolved that I would quit smoking."

MR. AND MRS. F. M. SWANZY with their two daughters, Miss Nora and Miss Rosamond Swanzy, entertained about 80 of their friends Wednesday evening at one of the most delightful dances of the season. The lovely Manoa home was in gala attire for the occasion. Tall, slender stalks of bamboo with their Oriental leaves made an effective background for the beautiful, many-colored gowns of the dancers, while strings of Japanese lanterns shed a soft glow over the brilliant scene. Although the evening was exceedingly warm the heat seemed in no way to detract from the pleasure of the event and the light fantastic was tripped to the music of Koda's quintette as merrily as if the thermometer were not lingering somewhere around 90 degrees Fahrenheit.

A large tent was stretched in the garden at the side of the house and in this a delicious supper was served. It was an hour past midnight before the guests departed and all were unanimous in declaring that the affair was a great success.

Mrs. H. J. McGowan of Claremont Park, Berkeley, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ernst Giesecke. Previous to her departure on the Wilhelmina Wednesday, Mrs. McGowan was most extensively entertained by her many friends here.

down with lovely flowers—every blossom that grows has lifted its head this year and turned all its proud or winsome beauty to the admiring gaze of the world that cannot pass by without a wondering glance at the marvel and beauty of it all. And samples of every flower that blooms in perfection were culled for that fringe ceremony against a more flowery background. Roses—the wondrous yellow cloth of gold variety—and American Beauties; gladiolas, rilly stock, Shasta daisies, Japanese lilies, lovely Bougainvilleas, and a dozen other blossoming hand-maidens of June were brought into the house and shown their place by the clever decorators who coordinated the beauty of the flowers to a general decorative scheme and gave to each room the flower that followed the scheme of decoration and the plan of the house. Such quantities and varieties of flowers were used that under unskilful hands the scene might have looked like a floral rampage, instead of the vista of beauty that it was.

Miss Sutherland Welcomed to Honolulu.

Local musical circles are welcoming a new member into their midst, and there is every indication that she is to be a very popular addition. Miss Pearl Sutherland, who has recently arrived at Punahou, will take Miss Margaret E. Clarke's place as a teacher of piano in the Punahou department of music, during the ensuing year, which Miss Clarke will spend in Europe. Miss Helen G. Caldwell will be acting director of the music department.

Miss Sutherland has had a very wide and comprehensive training in music and considerable experience in teaching it. She studied two years at the University of Minnesota, which has a music school of merit, besides having had several years of instruction under well known private teachers. She is especially indebted to Robert Boice Carson, one of the best teachers in the west, Carl V. Lachmund, Henry Seymour, Woodruff and George Wilbur Reed.

Besides being a pianist of exceptional ability, Miss Sutherland is an accomplished organist, and as both a soloist and accompanist she has made a name for herself in Portland.

The Portland Oregonian had this to say upon her departure for Honolulu: "Miss Sutherland came to this city two years ago from Minneapolis, Minnesota, and was introduced to Portland as accompanist and teacher of piano by Robert Boice Carson. Since coming to Portland, Miss Sutherland has won credit for herself as a pianist, organist and accompanist, having made many successful concert appearances in and out of the city. During the last year she has also been organist at Hawthorne Presbyterian Church."

Besides her work as teacher of piano and organist at Oahu College, Miss Sutherland will act as organist at the First Methodist Church. She plans to give a piano recital in the early fall to which her friends are looking forward with pleasant anticipation, while society in general is eager to welcome this charming new addition to our musical circles.

Miss Sutherland is a daughter of Mrs. Clara L. Sutherland of Manoa Valley, and a sister of Mrs. A. E. Arledge and Mrs. Arthur Jones.

Castle Home for the past 12 years or more, and previous to this were at Kawaiahaeo Seminary. Mrs. Smith has also been in the islands a good many years, and has for some time been connected with the Misses Johnson in their work.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunn Complimented.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Curry entertained a number of their friends at bridge last evening at their lovely new home in Manoa valley in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Hunn, who leave in a couple of weeks for Porto Rico. Mr. and Mrs. Curry really revived an old bridge club of which both the Hunns and the Currys had been members and it was this club, with a few additional guests, who were gathered together last evening as a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hunn.

Dance at Ewa Mill.

Mr. Lewis Renton and Mr. Allan Renton were hosts at a delightful dance on last Monday evening at their beautiful home at Ewa Mill. Several merry parties motored out to the plantation for the festivities, while a special train conveyed the remainder of the guests.

This dance was one of the most enjoyable and most successful affairs of the week. The decorations were very attractive, the floor excellent, and the music irresistible, all of which helped to make the ball the charming event that it was.

Week-end Party.

Among the parties which will spend the week-end in the country is one which left this morning for Kaneohe. The younger members of the party left on foot, prepared to tramp the distance while the chaperons, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, followed a little later by machine. They will be guests on Saturday and Sunday nights at the Morgan home at Kaneohe. Those who made up the party were: Miss Miriam Clarke, Miss Dorothy Raab, Miss Francis Fester, Miss Shirley Fester, Mr. Harold Starratt, Mr. Leslie Hicks, Mr. Chase Foster, Mr. Larry Small, Mr. Will Barnhart, Mr. Arthur Brown, and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews.

Mrs. Belser's Luncheon.

Mrs. J. J. Belser was hostess at a delightful luncheon given at her home yesterday afternoon. The table was beautifully decorated with quantities of begonias, forget-me-nots and lovely Cecil Brunner roses, while the place cards were adorned with dainty little baskets filled with pink roses.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. George Angus, Mrs. Angus, Mrs. George T. Kuegel, Mrs. M. E. Grossman, Mrs. Billingsworth, Mrs. Philip Peck, Miss Peck, Mrs. O. E. Wall, Mrs. Dav, Mrs. Arthur Davidson, Mrs. Rev. Mc Grew, Mrs. Zeno K. Myers, Mrs. W. T. Mensarrat, Mrs. Fred Waldron, Mrs. J. Merton Riggs, Mrs. W. H. Hoogs, Miss Lishman, Mrs. James Deugherty, Mrs. A. Garteberg, Mrs. Levv, Mrs. L. C. Ables, Mrs. L. C. Murphy, Mrs. Roger Taylor, Mrs. P. Belser and others.

A Beautiful Coast Wedding.

One of the most beautiful and most elaborate weddings in San Francisco's exceptionally brilliant nuptial season this year was the van Eck-Tillman affair on the last day of June, which brought society folk to town from the Peninsula and all of the other summer resorts.

The following is a brief account from the San Francisco News-Letter: "The wedding of Miss Agnes Tillman and Baron Jan Carel van Pantheleon van Eck of The Hague Tuesday night, at the home of the bride's parents in Washington street, was one of those events which gaily festoons the whole season for those who were fortunate enough to be there. Never has there been a June more loaded

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
