

WELSH AND PAL ARRESTED BY U. S. OFFICERS

Inquiry, because that does not come within the jurisdiction of this court. The second question, however, appeals directly to this court, and if they violated either one or both of these laws, namely, the territorial law against murder or manslaughter, or the federal law against white slavery, they ought to be prosecuted in the appropriate form.

"If they violated both these laws, they certainly ought to be prosecuted in one court or the other, or possibly both.

"I have waited a few days on the authorities having the case in hand, and finding no aggressive steps to hold the defendants so far as I could observe, I felt that it was time for me to take action."

No Drinks, Declare Women.

Making emphatic denial that liquor was carried or drunk on the ride about the city, the two women, residents of Iwilei, who were accompanied by Welsh and Reynolds on the automobile trip, made a statement of the affair to Sheriff Rose at police headquarters this morning.

This story as related by the women tallies in almost every particular with the account given to the police by Welsh and Reynolds. The women described the drive to Red Hill, and return to town where a stop was made for refreshments. Sheriff Rose said today he was told they had supper at the Union Grill. The party had visited Diamond Head and was proceeding along Kalakaua avenue when the collision with Moranho, seated on his horse, occurred.

According to the women, the Welsh machine was right on top of the officer before the attention of the driver was called to the danger. After the accident the female companions of Reynolds and Welsh were left in town, they stating that they had decided to walk the remaining distance into Iwilei district.

Aside from Welsh's police record which was published in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, he has a record as a police officer, having been a member of the detective bureau under Chief of Detectives Leal, during the latter part of 1909.

Welsh, listed as a special officer of the detective bureau, was suspended by Sheriff Jarrett on Saturday, October 23, 1909, pending an investigation of alleged irregularities. The charges were made against Welsh by a young Hawaiian woman who maintained that Welsh, while pursuing his duties as a peace officer, committed a breach of the law, in which a revolver figured prominently. According to the charges brought by this young woman, Welsh, under threats backed by a display of his revolver, compelled her to accompany him to a room in a hotel on Kukui lane, off Nuuanu street.

Following a complete investigation of the charges by Sheriff Jarrett, Welsh was dismissed from the department, the sheriff being of the opinion that the evidence uncovered was sufficiently strong to make Welsh's services as a police officer undesirable.

HILO NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

HILO, July 17.—In keeping with his promise to help Hilo grow, Governor Pinkham, under date of July 10, sent a letter to the Board of Trade in which he discussed briefly the various subjects laid before him during his recent visit to the Big Island. His communication breathes caution, yet within it carries the guaranty that he will keep the faith. In proof thereof he suggests that "if any capitalists or organization at Hilo desires to embark in this trade—the business of supplying fuel to vessels stopping at this port—they first express their ideas to your body and with your approval their proposals be submitted to the government."

County Clerk Kai is preparing to advertise the proposed erasure from the general register of the names of electors on Hawaii who by reason of death or disqualification will not vote at the coming elections. Kai has collected thus far the names of sixty-three former electors in North Kohala and North and South Kona, and expects to complete the list with others in the other districts of the county within the next week or ten days.

Alvah T. Fowler, who has been in charge of the topographic survey work on Hawaii the last two or three years, has completed his labors under the appropriations set aside for it and is returning to headquarters on the mainland. Practically all of East Hawaii has been covered and the maps prepared. No further work can be done until another appropriation is set aside by the territory. Part of the expense is borne by the federal government, on condition that the territory do its share also, and since Hawaii's funds are exhausted the labor must cease.

Although the county board of supervisors took no action on Territorial Secretary Thayer's proposition relating to the front street widening, Christian Castendyk reported to the Board of Trade this week that negotiations are moving satisfactorily and that in due course of time the improvement undoubtedly will be made. The territorial secretary promised to put his proposition in writing upon his return home and forward it to the

NEW COLLECTOR PAYS OFFICIAL CALLS THIS A. M.

M. A. Franklin, the new collector of customs, who arrived in Honolulu yesterday forenoon and took the oath of office and enjoyed most of the beautiful rides over the city before sunset, has lost no time in "taking off his coat and getting to work." As his friends expressed it this morning, "For he not only assumed the duties of his office this morning, but before the noon hour he had called on a dozen or more public officials, both territorial and federal. These included Governor Pinkham, Chief Justice Robertson and Justice Quarles, Judges Dole and Clemons of the federal friends from Mississippi, their native Moore.

He did not give any intimation this morning of the changes, if any, he will make in the personnel of the department, and he is equally reticent on the subject of Charles Barron's connection with whatever changes are scheduled to be made.

Mr. Franklin is a guest of Judge A. S. Humphreys. They are years-old friends of Mississippi, their native state.

BOY SCOUTS

Troop No. 14 of the Boy Scouts will be mustered in with elaborate ceremonies next Monday evening at Waikiki beach on the lawn adjoining the Moana hotel.

Probation Officer, John C. Anderson will assume command of the new troop, which will commence operations with 25 members.

Speeches will be made to the members of Troop 14 by Hiram Bingham III, and by Commissioner James A. Wilder.

BIBLE PUBLISHED IN 1712 SELLS FOR LARGE SUM

[Associated Press]

SACRAMENTO.—An antiquated Bible, published in London in 1712, was sold in Oakland by Mrs. F. M. Haynie of Sacramento for $22,500. The sale was made through Florence E. Miller of Oakland, who found Mrs. Haynie a purchaser.

Mrs. Haynie claims there is but one other such Bible in the world and that is included in the treasured volumes of the Royal Library in London.

The troubles of Lazarus and Dives, the building of the ark and the ascension are profusely illustrated in the book. The illustrations are of chalk, wood and steel engravings.

Henry Hall and R. H. Atkins were reappointed to their places on the district court bench this morning by Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson of the supreme court. Hall is the district magistrate of Hamakua, Hawaii; and Atkins is the magistrate for Kohala. The reappointment is for a term of two years.

Supervisors, and it may receive attention at the latter's next monthly meeting.

Unless the property owners and the territory and county reach an amicable agreement for the acquisition of the land necessary to formally widen Front street, the county attorney's office may undertake condemnation proceedings at an early date. Deputy County Attorney W. H. Heen this week received the necessary documents, duly signed, from the office of the superintendent of public works and the papers have been drawn and placed in readiness for filing in court at a moment's notice.

The postoffice free mail delivery committee of the Board of Trade reports that a communication from Inspector Hare states that further investigation must be made and data collected concerning local conditions before he can submit his report to the postoffice department at Washington. Hilo's opportunity to get the free mail delivery system very largely depends on that report.

John A. Scott informed the Board of Trade that he had received a communication from Captain Matson saving that the vessels of the Matson line, more particularly the Matsonia, might be permitted to remain over at Hilo until Sunday morning on their visits at this port, but that it probably will be found necessary in most instances to send them back to Honolulu, as Sunday must be given to the work of pumping out the water which has been used as ballast. A further conference on the subject of getting longer stays over at this port is to be held with Castle & Cooke, the Honolulu agents of the lines.

FORD WILL TALK TO AD CLUB AT NEXT MEETING

Alexander Hume Ford will address the Ad Club on Tuesday noon, telling the organization just what work has been accomplished around the Pacific in establishing weekly lunch-club in all of the great coast cities of the big ocean, and how they have asked that the Ad Club of Honolulu cooperate with them in their work to create a patriotism of the Pacific.

Wednesday afternoon at the Outrigger Club, the "Hands-Around-the-Pacific" organization is tendering Mr. Ford a chowder and a reception. There will be some good speaking from the leaders of this movement, and Mr. Ford will tell why the thousands of members of the Hands-Around-the-Pacific organization in other countries of the Pacific wish Hawaii to act as their clearing house of information to the whole world, and will deliver their message, requesting that Hawaii call a convention in Honolulu next January of all of the official heads of the government tourist bureaus and publicity committees of Pacific lands, that they may meet together in conference and perfect their organization before going together in a body to the Panama Exposition to occupy the "Pan-Pacific Pavilion" there. The plans for this Pan-Pacific Pavilion will also be dwelt upon in connection with the work of the Hands-Around-the-Pacific organization, in getting all of the countries of the Pacific to unite in one solid movement to advertise to the world the advantages of Pacific lands to the tourist, the investor and the immigrant.

All of the friends of Mr. Ford and the Hands-Around-the-Pacific movement are invited to be present. They can secure their tickets through Mr. G. H. Tuttle, secretary of the club in the Brewer building.

Young Joseph Stickey, who accompanied Mr. Ford on his trip around the Pacific and around the world, will also tell briefly some of a boy's views of this work in other lands.

POLICE MAKE CAPTURE WHEN MAN IS READY

Schmidt's mother, who had been dead many years.

Schmidt says there was no protracted row between himself and Morales, and that the latter's remark called for by any exchange of words or discussion between them. As soon as Morales had made the remark Schmidt invited him outside, and when they got out of the dance hall Schmidt drew a long dirk and plunged it into his enemy's stomach before the latter could make a hostile move.

The affray occurred on the evening of Decoration Day, during a dance at the Kalopa Stable camp, on the Hilo side of Paaubau plantation. The incident broke up the festivities and the revelers fled to their homes, the deputy sheriff and physician not being notified until several hours later. When they arrived on the scene at 4 o'clock in the morning Morales lay in the center of the dance hall floor in a pool of blood, with no one to attend him and no care given his wound. He was still alive but died shortly afterwards, chiefly from loss of blood.

After his surrender Schmidt took delight in telling the officers how he had evaded them. The sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Rickard and several other officers have been searching diligently ever since they found man clues and trailed them down carefully they reached the end of the trail only to find that the fugitive had received advance information of their coming and had vanished again. Schmidt told Rickard he had often watched the scouting parties as they searched, that he had been within a few yards of them on many occasions, and related in detail and with gusto the incidents of an arrest by Rickard at Honokaa during the celebration there on the Fourth. He described the whole affair with such accuracy that there can be little doubt he was in the crowd of joy-makers and possibly had his share of the fun of the holiday.

POLICE SETTINGS

A taxicab on a slippery pavement on Kalakaua avenue last evening resulted in an accident in which Miss Juanita Beckley, Miss Angeline Hopkins and two children received bruises, happily not considered serious. The passengers in car number 1633, driven by M. S. Azevedo, the party were returning in the direction of town when the accident that brought the vehicle into a ditch took place. Miss Beckley and the other women were picked up by a passing car and taken to their homes.

The police were today notified that Ishimura, a Japanese, had been run down and thrown to the pavement near the intersection of King and Beretania streets, as a result of a collision with motorcycle number 142 driven by Sam Goldin. The Japanese received several cuts and bruises which required attention at the hospital.

"You seem excited," "I am," said the man who had crumpled up a newspaper. "Time is growing short and the suspense is terrible. There are only two or three weeks till summer and the fruit crop hasn't filled yet."

"It takes a lot of courage and patience to be an explorer, doesn't it?" "Yes," replied the adventurous man. "Discovering things isn't so bad. But great Scott! What you have to go through when you get back to civilization!"

bers of the legislature could not serve. Hawaii Democrats say that there was no such provision in the draft of the new party rules sent them some weeks ago. These rules were drawn up by the present territorial committee.

The Hawaii Democrats maintain that the new section, rendering two of their choice ineligible, has been put in since the election. This is flatly denied by Chairman M. C. Pacheco of the committee who says that in the draft of the rules first sent out the section was even more far-reaching and drastic than it is now. He admits that the wording of the section has been lately changed, but declares that the provision for ineligibility was there all the time.

Won't Mention Governor.

Democratic circles during the last few days have been agog with movements for and against Governor Pinkham, destined to come to a head when the territorial platform is drafted. A rumor that the governor would be "rotated" in the platform has been current for several days past, but Chairman Pacheco said this morning that Mr. Pinkham will not be criticized. In fact, says Pacheco, the platform will not mention the territorial administration.

"You may rest assured that Governor Pinkham will not be hit in the territorial platform," said Pacheco today. "He will not be mentioned. The platform will discuss national Democracy but not the territorial administration."

Se Anti-Pinkham Plan.

When it became known that Senator Metzger was held ineligible to serve on the territorial committee, some of the Democrats began to believe that the ruling against him was the result of a movement to have the Democratic platform criticize Governor Pinkham. Metzger is known as a strong friend of Mr. Pinkham and one who would make a fight in the committee against a platform slaming the Pinkham administration. However, local Democratic leaders declared today that such a thing is farthest from their thoughts. They say that there is absolutely no "frame-up" against Governor Pinkham on the Bourbon central committee.

The chairmanship of the new committee may evoke much rivalry. Chairman Pacheco is a candidate for re-election and so far no open competitor has appeared. The new party rules, the cause of so much discussion and the possible basis for a real fight next Tuesday, were adopted on May 18. They were drafted by the territorial committee, whereas the Republican rules were drafted in convention.

The section under which Metzger and Makekai were ruled off the committee is as follows: "Election of any county committee to any county office or position shall cause his membership in the county committee to become vacant, but he may retain membership on the territorial committee."

"Election or appointment of any territorial committeeman to any office or position in the service of the territory shall cause his place on the territorial committee to become vacant, but he may retain membership on any county committee to which he has been duly elected."

The New Committee.

The elected committeemen who will sit as a platform committee next Wednesday are as follows, it being noted that the Maui and Kauai returns are not yet in: 1st District (East Hawaii). D. E. Metzger (not eligible), R. H. Makekai (not eligible), George Richardson, David Ewallko. 2d District (West Hawaii). M. S. De Mello, Charles K. S. D. Kanehaliu, Wm. H. Holou, Jr. 3rd District (Maui). Not reported. 4th District (Oahu). R. N. Boyd, F. C. Benevides, Jesse Uluihi, Moses Palau, John Kua, John M. Bright. 5th District (Oahu). Joseph Kalana, M. C. Pacheco, Fred Luning, E. K. Hanapi, Moses Akawa, T. J. Ryan. 6th District (Kauai). Not reported.

POLITICAL NOTES

Archie E. Kaehele, who has had four years' experience as a public school teacher, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for representative from the fifth district, Oahu.

S. P. Correa yesterday filed his nomination papers for the senate. He is a Republican, has served three terms in the lower house and has plenty of backing for the position. Incidentally, he has a host of friends in all parties.

The Charles A. Rice meeting at Nuuanu street and Paaubau road last night was well attended. James Wakefield made the opening speech. In the tenth precinct of the fifth district there was a good meeting, held in the Kalih-waena schoolhouse. Many Hawaiians were present and evidenced their support of Rice.

Senator Metzger, who is here from Hilo, says that being a member of the legislature has its drawbacks. He would have been secretary of the territory but for his disability on account of the provisions of the organic act and now the Democrats have ruled him off the territorial committee because he is a senator.
