Last Route to Europe Closed to Germans. NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The last avenue to Germany and Austria desiring to return to Europe was closed today when the Italian line announced it had received orders from Naples that only American and Italian citizens were to be transported from the United States until further notice.

As a result the line had to send notices cancelling the passages of about fifty Germans who intended sailing Wednesday.

China Would Aid U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—"If the United States goes to war with Japan, China may be relied upon to be an ally of America," said Yang Yu Ying, Chinese consul-general in New York, today when asked of the possibilities of such a campaign. "In this affair between Japan and Germany, China will take no part," the consul went on. "While my country is mobilizing soldiers at the capital, this is not to be regarded as an act of aggression. It is always policy to have soldiers ready for any contingency."

Prince Arthur Goes Into Active Service.

LONDON, August 25.—11 p. m.—Prince Arthur of Connaught is going into active service immediately. Owing to this fact his infant son was christened this evening, receiving the name Alastair Arthur. War Secretary Kitchener announces that no presents of wine or spirits can be accepted for the troops at the front. No consignments of this nature will be forwarded.

Bust of Kaiser Saves French Soldier's Life.

MARSEILLES, August 22.—Among the French wounded who have arrived here is a soldier who has been fighting in Lorraine. He owes his life to a small bust of Emperor William that he picked up in a village school and placed in his haversack. A German bullet struck the bust and damaged the head. The deflected missile inflicted only a non-fatal wound.

WAR BREVITIES

Ship Sunk by Germans Under Own Charter.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A dispatch received here from Buenos Ayres by the Times says the annoyance caused by the sinking of the British steamer Dresden north of Pernambuco has been mitigated by the information that she was under charter of a German firm to carry corn to Rotterdam for Germany. Her cargo was insured against war risks, and the German firm has entered a protest against the Hon-

Officer Arrested For Quitting Post.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Lieutenant Andre Mesureur, son of the director of the Paris hospital auxiliary board, has been arrested on a charge of leaving his post. Mesureur, who is an officer of the reserves, was present at the action at Dinant on August 15. His health having suffered through great exertions on that occasion, he was sent to a hospital at the army's base for rest and treatment. Taking advantage of the leave granted, he came to Paris to visit his parents.

Germany is Cut Off From Whole World.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press received the following message through the German embassy: BERLIN, Aug. 22.—The Associated Press, New York: "Germany is completely cut off from the rest of the world and can neither send out news nor receive it. The empire is therefore unable to defend itself against the falsehoods propagated by the press of the hostile countries. It can only defend itself by its deeds. The German people will be profoundly grateful for every effort to disseminate the real truth."
