WAR NEWS MEETING

Allies And Germans Give Out Flat

BRITISH SILENT TODAY, FRENCH LACONIC

GERMANY CLAIMS VICTORIES BOTH IN FRANCE AND RUSSIA; STRAIN IN VOSGES INTENSE

FOR 37 DAYS GERMANS HAVE BEEN BATTLING IN FLOODED TRENCHES UNDER GALLING FRENCH FIRE—TRANSPORTATION OF TEUTONS SUFFERING. SAYS LONDON REPORT—RUSSIA DECLARES GERMANS HURRYING AWAY FROM SCENE OF BORDER BATTLE—MISSING SUBMARINE IS FOUND AFTER MYSTERIOUS TRIP—SLIGHT ADVANCE CLAIMED FOR ALLIES.

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless.]

LONDON, England, Oct. 6.—War news is virtually contraband-of-war, so meager and hard to secure is it.

British official sources are silent today as to the result of the Allies' operations as on other war matters.

The French war official and government officials are increasingly laconic.

The Germans contradict everybody.

LONDON, England, Oct. 6.—News from the Continent is that the enormous expenditure and wastage of horses and a great shortage in gasoline are hampering the German military movements. The horse-drawn equipment as well as the motor-driven trucks are much affected.

The Allies have access to the foreign markets and can secure the needed supplies.

Russia now holds the vast Hungarian breeding-grounds where thousands of horses are held. Russia also holds the rich oil country in Galicia, both the wells and the refineries, the most important in Europe.

Germans and French in 37-Day Fight in Vosges, Says Copenhagen Report

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Oct. 6.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says that the Germans in Vosges have been fighting for 37 days and nights without rest in flooded trenches. The strain is almost unbearable.

The French are said to occupy excellent positions and their hidden guns are raining incessant fire on the Germans.

Direct News From Berlin Declares Fort Near St. Mihiel Captured

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 6.—Direct wireless, official.—Fort Camp Des Romain, near St. Mihiel, has been taken by the Germans.

Five officers and 500 prisoners were captured here. The remainder of the garrison perished under the casements that collapsed under the heavy German bombardment.

Berlin Claims Complete Victory Over Russian Army at Augustowa

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 6.—Direct wireless, official.—The Russian army was completely defeated near Augustowa in the battle of October 1 and 2. Three thousand prisoners, eighteen cannon and many machine-guns were captured.

The situation everywhere is hopeful.

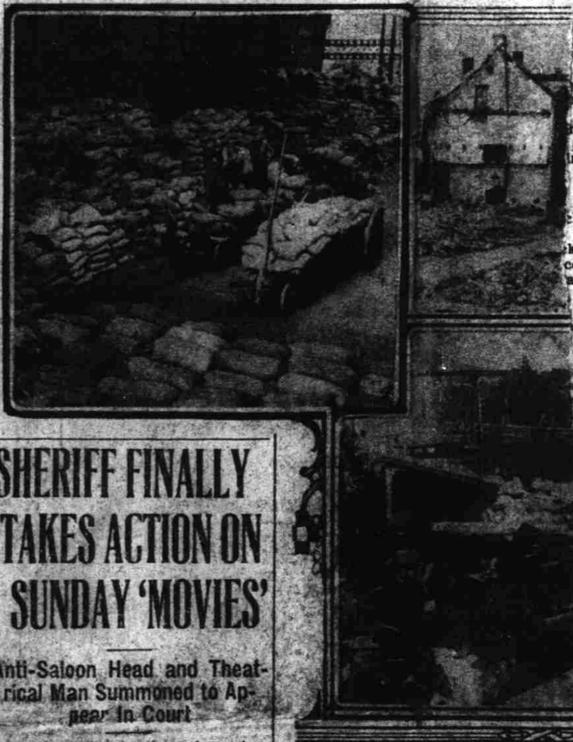

Missing Submarine is Found

BORDEAUX, France, Oct. 6.—The new Italian submarine which mysteriously disappeared from a shipbuilding yard on the gulf of Spezia, raising a rumor that it had sailed to fight for Russia, for whom it was intended by the builders, has arrived at Corsica. Its mysterious trip is unexplained. It is under the command of a retired Italian navy officer.

Famous Russian General, Kaulbars, Said to Have Been Shot as Traitor

A Polish paper published in Milwaukee and received in Honolulu carries the sensational information that the famous Russian general, Kaulbars, commander of an army in the Russia-Japan war, has been shot by the Russian officials as a traitor. According to this paper, the Kurjer Polski, General Alexander Wasilewicz, Baron Kaulbars, was suspected of intriguing with Germany during recent war maneuvering in Galicia. He is said to have held a high post in the Russian armies sent to Galicia, but after the Russian government had obtained alleged proof that he was conducting his campaign so as to play into Germany's hands, he was tried and summarily shot. No news of this has reached Honolulu from any other source, so far as is known.

SHERIFF FINALLY TAKES ACTION ON SUNDAY 'MOVIES'

Anti-Saloon Head and Theatrical Man Summoned to Appear in Court

Whether the showing of moving pictures in connection with a Sunday evening service held as a part of its temperance campaign is a violation of the law on the part of the Anti-Saloon league will be determined by a concrete case in the local courts.

At the same time will be determined if the showing of moving pictures on Sunday night by a theatrical or amusement company in connection with a ticket booming scheme is also violation of the law.

Rev. John W. Wadman, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, charged with a violation of Act 15 of the session laws of 1905, was this morning served with a penal summons to appear at district court on Thursday morning to answer to allegations contained in the complaint, which have to do with the presentation of an alleged moving picture show at the Popular theater on Sunday, September 27.

Shortly after serving the papers on Rev. Dr. Wadman, the police summoned John H. Magoon, manager of the Consolidated Amusement Company, who is alleged to have conducted a picture entertainment at the Bijou theater on last Sunday evening. Mr. Magoon is cited to appear before District Magistrate Monsarrat at the same time as Dr. Wadman, and will face a similar violation of the territorial statute.

"Dr. Wadman is a like offender with Mr. Magoon regarding the presenting of picture shows at local theaters on Sunday, an act contrary to the territorial regulations," stated Sheriff Rose this morning.

"I do not propose to make fish of one case and fowl of another. The police will prosecute the offenders in each instance."

The sheriff takes the stand that the presentation of moving pictures on Sunday under the auspices of a religious or educational organization constitutes a violation of the law.

CONKLING EN ROUTE HOME.

Territorial Treasurer D. L. Conkling is believed now to be on his way home from the east, where he has been the last two months, preparing the territorial bond issue. He is thought to arrive here about the middle or latter part of the month. Col. C. J. McCarthy, who has been appointed to succeed him as treasurer, was to have assumed office October 1, but because of the delay on the issue of the bond flotation the latter has not yet taken office and probably will take the oath November 1.

An ounce of intention is better than a pound of indifference.

CURTAILED IN JUDGE WHITNEY

Several threatening letters, but that he had destroyed them as he was not in the habit of keeping anonymous correspondence.

Mr. Cathcart then brought out the revolver which Mr. McCarn had in his possession at the time of the "affair."

"When did you get that gun?" he asked.

"I bought it in Tennessee," answered the district attorney.

"Are you familiar with firearms?"

"I know which end to hold."

"Is that all?"

"No, there is a whole lot more."

"Are you familiar with firearms?"

Mr. McCarn did not answer at once.

"I don't know what you mean," he said finally.

"If you mean am I an expert, I say no; if you ask if I know how to use firearms, I say yes."

"You don't pretend to be an expert with a gun, then?"

"No," answered Mr. McCarn.

"You say you never carried a gun?"

"I have not been carrying one here."

"In Tennessee?"

"I don't think that is material."

"Were not eight years of your life spent as a cowboy in Texas?"

"Yes."

Mr. Cathcart then questioned Mr. McCarn along the line of whether the district attorney, when he called to McCarn and told him he would not stand for his insults any longer, had any idea of making trouble. Mr. McCarn said that he had never had any idea of doing this. He testified that he had called McBride a "big, cowardly brute" and later a "lying

"Didn't you expect a fight when you called him that name?" asked Mr. Cathcart.

"I made no calculations," answered Mr. McCarn.

Nathan Hamner was called to the stand and asked by the defense to give his version of an alleged conspiracy, in which McBride was interested, to get Mr. McCarn downtown at an early hour in the morning and there "beat him up."

On the stand Hamner said that he could give the facts, but that he could not place the date. The prosecution objected at this point, averring that such testimony was immaterial. Judge Whitney sustained the objection. Later Judge Whitney announced that he had erred in this ruling, and gave the defense permission to call Hamner on the stand again. Hamner will take the stand tomorrow morning.

James Darcy, a conductor on the old Transit, was called on the stand and testified that, on the afternoon of the affair, he had seen McBride come into the court room and run up the stairs.

He also saw a man with a gun enter the building and follow the district attorney will be held in Judge Whitney's court tomorrow morning.

DEPOSITIONS ARE CURTAILED IN M'CARN HEARING

Defendant on Witness Stand for Cross-Examination a Large Part of Morning

City and County Attorney J. W. Cathcart this morning completed the prosecution's cross-examination of District Attorney Jeff McCarn for more than an hour and a half of close and rigid questioning. Following the completion of the examination, the defense took up the matter of the 44 depositions which are now in its possession from a like number of prominent acquaintances of the district attorney, referring to the character and reputation of Mr. McCarn. The court ruled, after the reading of the first deposition, that those parts of the documents referring to the "truth and veracity" of the defendant, "full faith of credit on his oath of office," and the question "would you believe him under oath in a matter in which McCarn was vitally interested," and its answer, be not read to the jury. The reading of the depositions will be continued tomorrow morning.

Another ruling which Judge Whitney made this morning, upon objection by the prosecution, failed to secure for the defense the testimony of John Colburn, William Holt and John Holt regarding an alleged incident where McBride is said to have had some trouble with a local pugilist. A. D. Larnach was called on the stand and testified regarding the swearing to by McBride of a warrant for the arrest of the district attorney.

In continuing the cross-examination of Mr. McCarn, the prosecution went first into Mr. McCarn's part in the returning of an indictment by the federal grand jury against Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sylvester of Hilo, charging them with conspiracy.

"Up until the commencement of the Sylvester trial, were you feeling friendly toward McBride?" asked Mr. Cathcart.

"I can't say," replied McCarn. "I never had any feeling for or against him. He was a man of perfect indifference to me."

"You have referred to Mr. McBride as a dangerous character?"

"I have heard that he is a danger-

NEW CHARTER IN VIEW; MOVEMENT AGAIN LAUNCHED

Municipal Research Club Will Inaugurate Campaign for Legislative Action

Planning to urge the adoption of a new city charter, with a "short-ballot" plan and probably the city manager plan as striking features, the Municipal Research club will shortly inaugurate active work on an educational and publicity campaign to spread the knowledge of new charter-forms before the people of the city and county. A special committee is now at work on the plans, which were tentatively outlined at luncheon today in the Commercial club by A. H. Tarleton and E. A. Berndt.

The movement, begun about two years ago, when Governor Frear names a committee of 25 and this committee did a great deal of work to draft a new charter and bring the matter before the legislature, will be revived by the Research club. The work of two years ago did not materialize in legislative action, no bill being presented to the legislature. Much study and labor was put on the matter, however, and its results will be available for the Research club now.

A feature of the revived movement will be the bringing of the matter before candidates for legislative and
