

DOMESTIC

Active Year Planned by D. A. R.
Aloha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is planning an active year. The 1914-15 announcement, just issued, gives the following program:

General subject: "Early Settlements in the United States and the Colonial Period."

October 19—Hostess, Miss A. S. Marsh; assistant hostess, Miss S. A. Davis.

Subject—"The Eastern States."
Chairman—Mrs. A. R. Keller.
Paper—Mrs. J. A. Pascoe.
Reading—Mrs. A. R. Keller.
November 23—Hostess, Mrs. C. H. Atherton; assistant hostess Mrs. Theodore Richards.

Subject—"The South."
Chairman—Miss L. J. Topham.
Paper—Mrs. E. H. Douglas.
Paper—Miss C. Church.
Paper—Miss Hummel.
Songs—Miss S. A. Davis.
January 25—Hostess, Mrs. James Lyle; assistant hostess, Miss Abbie Dow.

Subject—"The Middle West."
Chairman—Mrs. C. E. Andrews.
Paper—Mrs. H. Hugo.
Paper—Miss C. Hall.
Reminiscences—Mrs. W. W. Hall.
March 8—For Chapter Birthday—Hostess, Mrs. Fred B. Damon; assistant hostess, Miss M. S. Lawrence.

Subject—"The Far West."
Chairman—Miss Abbie Dow.
Paper—Miss Agnes Judd.
Paper—Miss Abbie Dow.
Hawaiian Songs.
April 19—For Paul Revere Day.
Colonial dinner.
E. A. R. D. A. R.

May 31—Hostess, Mrs. W. W. Hall, assistant hostess, Miss C. Hall.
Annual reports.
Election of officers.
The officers of the chapter are: Regent, Mrs. William Alanson Bryan; vice regent, Mrs. J. M. Atherton; recording secretary, Miss Agnes E. Judd; treasurer, Miss Charlotte Hall; reporter, Mrs. A. Gardley; historian, Miss Mary S. Lawrence; chaplain, Mrs. A. Francis Judd; program committee, Miss A. E. Marsh, Miss M. H. Armstrong, Miss M. S. Lawrence.

Mrs. George C. Beckley, popular matron of the smart set, who is a frequent and delightful hostess.

When Cupid Takes the Law into His Hands.
Dependent lovers take hope for "where there's a will there's a way." This was proved recently in San Jose, Cal., when pretty Eva Stanton's papa refused to let her see or communicate with Melvin Boyd, who had laid siege to her heart. Like Juliet, Eva was locked up. Papa Stanton, a wealthy ranch owner of California, was very severe. Letters were stopped, the telephone line was cut and so precautions were taken that a stern bulldog was tied beneath Eva's window to keep her from taking the ladder route. The days looked pretty dark for Melvin, but he would not give up hope. He was a very ingenious young man and did something that had never been heard of before. He consulted his lawyers and issued a writ of habeas corpus for Eva, commanding Mr. Stanton to produce his daughter in court.

The judge, when he saw what had happened, was inclined to reprimand the young man, but "All the world comes a lover," and he merely said that while the court affair was all business, Miss Eva was over 18, and they were married an hour later.

The Hawaiian Society.
The Hawaiian Society held its first meeting of this year at the home of Mrs. Robert McDowney yesterday afternoon. The ladies are in hopes that much will be accomplished this year and that they will have learned something more of the Hawaiian language and its origin by next June. The first step will be the reading of an ancient Hawaiian legend in the native language and later they will learn some of the old Hawaiian ballads so seldom heard. Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson is president of the organization, and Miss Sybil Robertson is its secretary. Some of the members of the club are Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Robert McDowney, Miss Sybil Robertson, Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Ethel Whiting, Mrs. John Dominis, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Abbie Buchanan, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Miss Kalamann Ward, Mrs. Robert Hair, Miss Amelia Holt and Mrs. William B. Lymer.

A Shower for Miss Lenihan.
Miss Eleanor Lenihan, the eldest daughter of Major and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, and one of the charming brides-elect of the season, was the motif for a towel shower on Thursday evening at which Mrs. Charles F. Lincoln entertained at Fort Shafter. The hostess decorated her home with pale shaded colors and quantities of maiden hair fern, accomplishing a very pretty effect. Among those present were Miss Eleanor Lenihan, Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Mrs. W. B. Gibson, Mrs. Rowell, Mrs. George Freeman, Mrs. E. V. Smith, Mrs. O. B. Kinnaman, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. D. B. Case, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Egerly, Mrs. Black, Mrs. J. S. Parker, Miss Schorsch and the hostess.

Miss Virginia Sullivan to Visit at Fort De Russy.
Miss Virginia Sullivan, who has been much feted at Schofield Barracks the past two months, has come to Oahu and will be the houseguest of Mrs. E. J. O'Brien at Fort De Russy until her departure for San Francisco in the Korea. A number of affairs have been planned for Miss Sullivan for the few days she will remain in Honolulu. This charming young woman has made a host of friends here, and the gallant young officers at the army posts have been in constant attendance during her stay in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt Entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt entertained at an informal dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. Sheba.

Last night they were host and hostess to the members of the Japanese Merchants' Association. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Westervelt showed some attractive pictures taken during their recent trip to Japan, which were interesting to the guests.

An Engagement of Interest.
An interesting engagement announced in New Orleans recently was that of Miss Frances Isabel Caruthers and Lieutenant Frederick Bowerford, U. S. N., who is with the U. S. S. Albany. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it is expected that it will take place in the early spring when Lieutenant Bowerford returns from the Pacific waters where he is now on duty. The popular young officer was a graduate of Annapolis in 1908 and is known in the navy set here.

Navy Wedding in the East.
Of interest to Honolulu will be the news of the wedding of Miss Beulah Eaton Hepburn and Lieut. Robert M. Emmet, U. S. N., which took place in Ridgefield, Conn., on the 17th of October. Mrs. Emmet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, and Lieutenant Emmet is the son of Colonel and Mrs. Robert Temple Emmet.

The wedding was one of the brilliant affairs of October and took place at the country home of the bride's parents.

Dance for Miss Agnes Sullivan.
Miss Agnes Sullivan, who is visiting friends at the several army posts on Oahu, was the guest of honor at an enjoyable dance on Monday evening at which Lieutenant and Mrs. S. A. Campbell, with whom she is now staying, entertained. The affair was one of the many informal entertainments which have been given for Miss Sullivan at Schofield Barracks since her arrival here. Brightly colored Japanese lanterns were much in evidence during the evening as they swayed to and fro on the lanai at Lieutenant and Mrs. Campbell's quarters. Among those invited and present were Miss Agnes Sullivan, Miss Virginia Sullivan, Miss Hopkins, Miss Smith, Miss Mason, Miss Harrison, Miss Louise Coleman, Miss Forsythe, Lieut. Bruno Peyton, Lieut. Ballard Lyerly, Lieutenant Hineman, Lieutenant Palmer, Lieut. James Uilo, Lieut. Charles Little, Lieut. Langley Whitley, Lieut. Joseph C. Hattie, Lieut. Harrison Richards, Lieutenant Owen, Lieut. Eugene Fales, Lieutenant Huntley, Lieutenant Fosnes and the host and hostess.

Mrs. Applin a Hostess.
Mrs. John S. Johnston, wife of Capt. J. S. Johnston who is leaving Honolulu in November, was the guest of honor at a bridge tea on Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. Frank Applin was hostess. Mrs. Applin's home at Fort Ruger was a attractively decorated with scarlet hibiscus for the occasion.

The prizes were won by Mrs. Wilmot Ellis and Mrs. Phisterer, Sr., and Mrs. Johnston was given a dainty guest prize. Some of the ladies present were Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Mrs. Wilmot Ellis, Mrs. Demmer, Mrs. Phisterer, Sr., Mrs. Frederick Phisterer, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. George F. Humbert, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Applin.

Earrings Again.
The high headdress and fancy earrings always go hand in hand, and after an absence of many years have returned to win greater favor than ever. It has been difficult to win approval for the earrings but after an untiring effort, on the part of the manufacturers of the attractive gogaws, the ban has been taken off. Big drops from two to two-and-a-half inches long of brilliant stones or cut jet are considered very fashionable and have been seen at all of the recent functions. The gipsy circle of gold or jet has been decreed to be in good taste.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Dance at Pearl Harbor.
Mrs. Francis Day Honored.
Harden-Gaylord.
The Catholic Fair.
Mr. James Wilder a Host.
A Reception for Y. W. C. A.
Meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
Miss Mildred Bromwell's Dance.
Mrs. Stainback's Party.
The Hawaiian Society.
To Visit Mrs. O'Hara.
Caruthers-Bowerford.
Miss Agnes Sullivan Honored.
A Shower for Miss Lenihan.
Mrs. Frank Applin a Hostess.
Miss Ynez Gibson Entertaining.
Miss Beatrice Castle to be Guest of Honor

navy officers have been stationed. This week Captain and Mrs. R. M. Cutts entertained at an informal luncheon at their quarters at Pearl Harbor, the guests including several society folk from town. An effective combination of yellow African daisies and maidenhair ferns formed the attractive decoration for the table, at which covers were laid for Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Sarah Newcomb, Mrs. Horn and Captain and Mrs. Cutts.

Mesquerade at the Colonia.
Miss Mary Johnson is telephoning invitations to the "Hallow'een masquerade" which is to be one of the winter's social affairs at the Colonia. A similar affair given last year was most enjoyable and those who have been invited to the coming dance are looking forward to the occasion with a great deal of pleasure.

Mr. John Guild a Hostess.
A delightful affair of the week was the tea at which Mrs. John Guild entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner. Yellow was the predominating color of the decorations and quantities of fluffy yellow chrysanthemums were artistically arranged throughout the rooms. A score of ladies spent the afternoon with Mrs. Guild and the guests of honor.

Cards at the Courtland.
Mrs. George F. Humbert of Fort Ruger was hostess at a bridge tea on Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Courtland. Pink asters and maidenhair fern were used about the card room and dainty centerpieces of flowers and ferns ornamented the tables where the guests were served refreshments. At the close of the afternoon prizes were given the ladies with the highest scores. Mrs. Brown received a Canton china dish, Mrs. Waller a handsome lacquer tray and Mrs. C. S. Lincoln a quaint Chinese basket. The consolation was given to Mrs. G. S. Gibbs.

The Fort Ruger Bridge Club.
The Fort Ruger Bridge Club was entertained on Saturday evening by Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold F. Nichols at their quarters at the army post. The prizes were won by Dr. Demmer, Colonel W. E. Ellis and Captain J. S. Johnston. Pink begonias and maidenhair ferns were effectively arranged in the decorations. Among those present were Colonel and Mrs. W. E. Ellis, Captain and Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Madam Phisterer, Mrs. Frederick Phisterer, Dr. and Mrs. Demmer, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daniel N. Swan, Lieutenant and Mrs. George Humbert.

A Thursday Evening Dinner.
Miss Lila McDonald, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, was hostess at a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening for a few of her friends. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Covers were laid for Miss Jessie Kennedy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Berry, Mr. Yates, Mr. Welch, Ensign Willis and the hostess.

Mrs. Sarah Newcomb a Hostess of the Week.
A delightful affair of the week was the tea at which Mrs. Sarah Newcomb entertained at the Hawaiian hotel on Thursday afternoon. Cut flowers and maidenhair ferns were arranged about the room where the guests gathered for tea. Among those present were Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Joseph Randolph, Mrs. C. S. Brownell, Mrs. E. M. Cutts, Miss Garrett, Miss Burroughs, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Newcomb.

A Picnic for Sunday.
A jolly Dutch picnic has been planned for Sunday, which is anticipated with a great deal of pleasure. The party, each member taking his or her own luncheon, is to motor to the Geo. B. Carter home in Manoa valley to spend the day. Mrs. George R. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett will chaperone the picnickers, who will include Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Peggy Center, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Betty Case, Dixon Nott, Walter Spalding, Phil Spalding, Ensign S. A. Parker, Ensign Willis, Lieutenant Peyton and Albert Horner, Jr.

Luncheon at Pearl Harbor.
If the society prophet has prophesied correctly many of the delightful affairs of the winter will take place at Pearl Harbor, where so many of the of these matrons have attractive children. Mrs. Pine's little daughter, Barbara, is a dainty bit of loveliness, and is said to resemble her handsome mother.

Mrs. George Bailey, formerly Miss Alice Cooper, has written that her baby boy is growing every minute. Mrs. Bailey visited her parents here about a year ago. The Baileys are living in Washington, where they have a beautiful home.

A Dinner for Miss Virginia Sullivan.
Miss Virginia Sullivan, the San Francisco girl who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past two months, was the motif for a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening at which Ensign and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry entertained on board the U. S. S. Alert. Yellow was the color scheme for the decorations and was carried out with chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Miss Virginia Sullivan, Lieutenant and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. Scanland, Ensign Parker, Ensign Willis and Ensign and Mrs. Lowry.

Successful Contestants at the Domino Tourney.
Much interest has been shown in the domino tourney at the Pleasanton, many of the guests at the hotel taking part in it. At the close of the games silver loving cups were given to Mrs. E. G. Duisenberg and Donald Gilmore, who were the most successful contestants.

Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner Complimented.
One of the most enjoyable affairs

of the week was the picnic at which Mrs. C. H. Atherton was hostess on Wednesday in honor of Miss Julia Benner and Mrs. W. O. Atwater. The guests motored to Mrs. Atherton's summer home, Luakaha, in Nuunuu valley, early in the morning and spent the entire day there. Mrs. Atherton's guests included Mrs. W. O. Atwater, Miss Julia Benner, Mrs. Edwin Benner, Mrs. G. F. Bush, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. Z. K. Myers.

Dance for the Younger Set.
Members of the younger set are eagerly anticipating the dance to be given on the 7th of November by Miss Mildred Bromwell, the young daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, U. S. A. Miss Bromwell is one of the delightful members of the younger set and is most of all of the affairs of the young people both of the service and town circles.

Informal Tea at the Outrigger.
The Outrigger Club was the scene of an informal tea on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Sarah Stimpson entertained for Mrs. Henry B. Bostwick, Miss Nissen, Miss Varney, Miss McLeod and Miss Schaefer.

Miss Sylvia Purvis and Mrs. Ahlborn are expected to return from Kaula tomorrow morning where Mrs. Ahlborn is now visiting at the Purvis home. Miss Purvis will be the house-guest of Miss Rose Herbert until Wednesday when she leaves for Hawaii, where she will visit her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Greenwell.

Preparing for "Mistress Mary."
Two of the groups of young ladies in "Mistress Mary" have been invited to the home of Mrs. F. M. Swamy this afternoon to have their pictures taken in costumes for the entertainment. The woodsprites, one section of the players, are to receive particular attention as these young ladies have much to do towards making the performance a success.

Saturday morning the "will-o-the-wisp" girls have been invited to Miss Nora Swamy's to a sewing bee, and everyone will be busy making costumes for "Mistress Mary." The "woodsprites" and the "will-o-the-wisp" are two of the dancing groups in "Mistress Mary," the amateur entertainment which is to be given at the Opera House on the 3d and 4th of November.

Mrs. Mustvedt and Mrs. Pine in East.
We are continually hearing interesting bits of news from Mrs. James Pine and Mrs. Ofat Mustvedt, formerly the pretty Cooper twins, Ysobel and Irene. These young daughters of Judge and Mrs. Henry E. Cooper married two popular officers in the navy, and shortly after the Mustvedts were married orders from the Navy Department took them away. Lieutenant and Mrs. Pine remained here a little over a year, when they were ordered south. Both Society folk are looking forward to the art exhibit at the Alexander Young hotel on Monday afternoon to which they have been invited by Mr. George Seiden Roorbach and Kenneth Alexander. Scenes in both water color and photography are to be shown, as Mr. Roorbach is an artist of discrimination and Mr. Alexander has a fine collection of portrait photographs.

These two artists have given recent separate exhibits on the mainland which have brought forth much praise from all who viewed their works.

Luncheon at the Pleasanton.
Mrs. D. B. Case was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Thursday afternoon when she entertained a few of her friends at the Pleasanton hotel. The table was artistically decorated in pink roses and ferns. Mrs. Case's guests included Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards, Mrs. William L. Carter, Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Mrs. John Gamble, Mrs. R. M. Cutts, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. J. D. Reardon, Mrs. L. L. Wilson and Mrs. Cary I. Crockett.

A Thursday Evening Dinner.
Mrs. Francis Day was the incentive for a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening at which Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey was hostess. An artistic centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums ornamented the center of the table and covers were laid for Mrs. Francis Day, Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Jr. and Mrs. James A. Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Mr. F. W. Wichman and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey.

Engagement Announced.
An engagement which was announced in the east recently and which will be of interest to society folk of Honolulu was that of Miss Helen Harden of Wellsburg, West Virginia, and Mr. Henry Hamilton Gaylord. Miss Harden is an only child and her father is a well known surgeon of the south.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu.
—Photo by Perkins.

Miss Lena Johnson, an Eastern society girl, who is spending the winter in Honolulu. —Photo by Perkins.

of these matrons have attractive children. Mrs. Pine's little daughter, Barbara, is a dainty bit of loveliness, and is said to resemble her handsome mother.

Mrs. George Bailey, formerly Miss Alice Cooper, has written that her baby boy is growing every minute. Mrs. Bailey visited her parents here about a year ago. The Baileys are living in Washington, where they have a beautiful home.

A Dinner for Miss Virginia Sullivan.
Miss Virginia Sullivan, the San Francisco girl who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past two months, was the motif for a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening at which Ensign and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry entertained on board the U. S. S. Alert. Yellow was the color scheme for the decorations and was carried out with chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Miss Virginia Sullivan, Lieutenant and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. Scanland, Ensign Parker, Ensign Willis and Ensign and Mrs. Lowry.

Successful Contestants at the Domino Tourney.
Much interest has been shown in the domino tourney at the Pleasanton, many of the guests at the hotel taking part in it. At the close of the games silver loving cups were given to Mrs. E. G. Duisenberg and Donald Gilmore, who were the most successful contestants.

Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner Complimented.
One of the most enjoyable affairs

of the week was the picnic at which Mrs. C. H. Atherton was hostess on Wednesday in honor of Miss Julia Benner and Mrs. W. O. Atwater. The guests motored to Mrs. Atherton's summer home, Luakaha, in Nuunuu valley, early in the morning and spent the entire day there. Mrs. Atherton's guests included Mrs. W. O. Atwater, Miss Julia Benner, Mrs. Edwin Benner, Mrs. G. F. Bush, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. Z. K. Myers.

Dance for the Younger Set.
Members of the younger set are eagerly anticipating the dance to be given on the 7th of November by Miss Mildred Bromwell, the young daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, U. S. A. Miss Bromwell is one of the delightful members of the younger set and is most of all of the affairs of the young people both of the service and town circles.

Informal Tea at the Outrigger.
The Outrigger Club was the scene of an informal tea on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Sarah Stimpson entertained for Mrs. Henry B. Bostwick, Miss Nissen, Miss Varney, Miss McLeod and Miss Schaefer.

Miss Sylvia Purvis and Mrs. Ahlborn are expected to return from Kaula tomorrow morning where Mrs. Ahlborn is now visiting at the Purvis home. Miss Purvis will be the house-guest of Miss Rose Herbert until Wednesday when she leaves for Hawaii, where she will visit her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Greenwell.

Preparing for "Mistress Mary."
Two of the groups of young ladies in "Mistress Mary" have been invited to the home of Mrs. F. M. Swamy this afternoon to have their pictures taken in costumes for the entertainment. The woodsprites, one section of the players, are to receive particular attention as these young ladies have much to do towards making the performance a success.

Saturday morning the "will-o-the-wisp" girls have been invited to Miss Nora Swamy's to a sewing bee, and everyone will be busy making costumes for "Mistress Mary." The "woodsprites" and the "will-o-the-wisp" are two of the dancing groups in "Mistress Mary," the amateur entertainment which is to be given at the Opera House on the 3d and 4th of November.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Dance at Pearl Harbor.
Mrs. Francis Day Honored.
Harden-Gaylord.
The Catholic Fair.
Mr. James Wilder a Host.
A Reception for Y. W. C. A.
Meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
Miss Mildred Bromwell's Dance.
Mrs. Stainback's Party.
The Hawaiian Society.
To Visit Mrs. O'Hara.
Caruthers-Bowerford.
Miss Agnes Sullivan Honored.
A Shower for Miss Lenihan.
Mrs. Frank Applin a Hostess.
Miss Ynez Gibson Entertaining.
Miss Beatrice Castle to be Guest of Honor

navy officers have been stationed. This week Captain and Mrs. R. M. Cutts entertained at an informal luncheon at their quarters at Pearl Harbor, the guests including several society folk from town. An effective combination of yellow African daisies and maidenhair ferns formed the attractive decoration for the table, at which covers were laid for Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Sarah Newcomb, Mrs. Horn and Captain and Mrs. Cutts.

Mesquerade at the Colonia.
Miss Mary Johnson is telephoning invitations to the "Hallow'een masquerade" which is to be one of the winter's social affairs at the Colonia. A similar affair given last year was most enjoyable and those who have been invited to the coming dance are looking forward to the occasion with a great deal of pleasure.

Mr. John Guild a Hostess.
A delightful affair of the week was the tea at which Mrs. John Guild entertained on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner. Yellow was the predominating color of the decorations and quantities of fluffy yellow chrysanthemums were artistically arranged throughout the rooms. A score of ladies spent the afternoon with Mrs. Guild and the guests of honor.

Cards at the Courtland.
Mrs. George F. Humbert of Fort Ruger was hostess at a bridge tea on Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Courtland. Pink asters and maidenhair fern were used about the card room and dainty centerpieces of flowers and ferns ornamented the tables where the guests were served refreshments. At the close of the afternoon prizes were given the ladies with the highest scores. Mrs. Brown received a Canton china dish, Mrs. Waller a handsome lacquer tray and Mrs. C. S. Lincoln a quaint Chinese basket. The consolation was given to Mrs. G. S. Gibbs.

The Fort Ruger Bridge Club.
The Fort Ruger Bridge Club was entertained on Saturday evening by Lieutenant and Mrs. Harold F. Nichols at their quarters at the army post. The prizes were won by Dr. Demmer, Colonel W. E. Ellis and Captain J. S. Johnston. Pink begonias and maidenhair ferns were effectively arranged in the decorations. Among those present were Colonel and Mrs. W. E. Ellis, Captain and Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Madam Phisterer, Mrs. Frederick Phisterer, Dr. and Mrs. Demmer, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daniel N. Swan, Lieutenant and Mrs. George Humbert.

A Thursday Evening Dinner.
Miss Lila McDonald, the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, was hostess at a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening for a few of her friends. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Covers were laid for Miss Jessie Kennedy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Berry, Mr. Yates, Mr. Welch, Ensign Willis and the hostess.

Mrs. Sarah Newcomb a Hostess of the Week.
A delightful affair of the week was the tea at which Mrs. Sarah Newcomb entertained at the Hawaiian hotel on Thursday afternoon. Cut flowers and maidenhair ferns were arranged about the room where the guests gathered for tea. Among those present were Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Joseph Randolph, Mrs. C. S. Brownell, Mrs. E. M. Cutts, Miss Garrett, Miss Burroughs, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Newcomb.

A Picnic for Sunday.
A jolly Dutch picnic has been planned for Sunday, which is anticipated with a great deal of pleasure. The party, each member taking his or her own luncheon, is to motor to the Geo. B. Carter home in Manoa valley to spend the day. Mrs. George R. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dowsett will chaperone the picnickers, who will include Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Peggy Center, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Lila McDonald, Miss Betty Case, Dixon Nott, Walter Spalding, Phil Spalding, Ensign S. A. Parker, Ensign Willis, Lieutenant Peyton and Albert Horner, Jr.

Luncheon at Pearl Harbor.
If the society prophet has prophesied correctly many of the delightful affairs of the winter will take place at Pearl Harbor, where so many of the

of these matrons have attractive children. Mrs. Pine's little daughter, Barbara, is a dainty bit of loveliness, and is said to resemble her handsome mother.

Mrs. George Bailey, formerly Miss Alice Cooper, has written that her baby boy is growing every minute. Mrs. Bailey visited her parents here about a year ago. The Baileys are living in Washington, where they have a beautiful home.

A Dinner for Miss Virginia Sullivan.
Miss Virginia Sullivan, the San Francisco girl who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past two months, was the motif for a prettily appointed dinner on Thursday evening at which Ensign and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry entertained on board the U. S. S. Alert. Yellow was the color scheme for the decorations and was carried out with chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Miss Virginia Sullivan, Lieutenant and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. F. Scanland, Ensign Parker, Ensign Willis and Ensign and Mrs. Lowry.

Successful Contestants at the Domino Tourney.
Much interest has been shown in the domino tourney at the Pleasanton, many of the guests at the hotel taking part in it. At the close of the games silver loving cups were given to Mrs. E. G. Duisenberg and Donald Gilmore, who were the most successful contestants.

Mrs. W. O. Atwater and Miss Julia Benner Complimented.
One of the most enjoyable affairs

New Hats

TO BE SHOWN MONDAY FOR THE FIRST TIME.

We are extremely fortunate in securing an assortment of hats at a very low price and that this transaction may be mutually beneficial we will sell them at $7.75 each.

While low in price these hats are high in value; the assortment includes many unusual and distinctively smart styles—Monday morning they will be on display for your inspection.

We also direct your attention to a new line of shapes in Faille, Moire Velvet and combinations thereof.

Also to a line of White Felt Hats for Travel among which are a few soft crush hats particularly suitable for Outing—$1.00 to $6.00.

B. F. Ehlers & Company
EST. 1892

P. S. On Monday Nov. 2, begins a closing-out sale of rugs. Watch for further announcements. B. F. E.