

SOLELY

HONOLULU COUPLE CELEBRATE THEIR SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James Steiner and their colonial beach residence, where silver wedding anniversary was celebrated.

Dance at Pearl Harbor.
The social life at the Pearl Harbor naval station is gay indeed. The officers and their wives who have made their homes there are kept busy entertaining or being entertained. This week the largest affair at the station was the dance at which Paymaster P. J. Willett and Mrs. Willett entertained last evening. Yellow was the predominant color in the decorations and huge yellow chrysanthemums were artistically arranged throughout the house. The guests danced to the strains of Hawaiian music and at a late hour a buffet supper was served. Many of the guests motored to the affair from the town posts. Some of those present were: Admiral and Mrs. C. B. T. Moore, Lieutenant and Mrs. Paul Jones Bean, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Furer, Lieutenant and Mrs. C. E. Smith, Lieutenant and Mrs. F. W. Scanland, Lieutenant and Mrs. B. L. Canaga, Lieutenant and Mrs. Daniel Swan, Lieutenant and Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, Ensign and Mrs. R. H. Berry, Ensign H. K. Bogusch, Ensign and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry, Mr. Charles Merrill, Mr. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Graham, Miss Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gordon, Miss Virginia Sullivan, Miss Agnes Sullivan, Dr. DeBer, Lieutenant Hase, Lieutenant Ellis Lande, Ensign B. O. Willis, Ensign T. A. Parker, Ensign J. O. Downer and Captain Mudd.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.
In celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage Mrs. James Steiner entertained her friends at a bridge party last Tuesday at Kalona, the charming colonial beach residence on Kalakaua avenue.

Mr. James Steiner arrived in Honolulu on October 20, 1882, by the steamer City of New York. On October 20, 1889, he married the sweetheart of his youth in Prag, Austria, and since that time the happy couple have made their home in Honolulu, becoming kamaeaina in the fullest sense, growing up with the country and sharing its fortunes, surrounded by an interesting family of four sons.

The spacious rooms of the residence were arranged with a profusion of flowers, palms and ferns. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon on the broad lanai overlooking the ocean.

Among the guests were Mrs. Brash, Mrs. White, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Kueby, Mrs. Zeave, Mrs. Cantin, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Lando, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Obel, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Abrams, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Constable, Mrs. Levy, Mrs. Griffiths, Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Sultzer, Mrs. Lucea, Mrs. Rosenbleid, Mrs. Gerls, Miss Donnel, Miss Green.

For Miss Beatrice Castle.
One of the coming affairs which is being anticipated with a great deal of pleasure is the dinner at which Miss Nora Swamy is entertaining on Sunday evening in honor of Miss Beatrice Castle.

Dinner for Scout Masters.
Mr. James A. Wilder was host at an informal dinner last evening for the scout masters in Honolulu. During the evening Scout Master Wilder and his guests discussed the progress the Boy Scouts have made during the organization of the local chapter. A centerpiece of green ferns ornamented the table at which covers were laid for Messrs. Harry Hayward, Robert Anderson, H. Gooding Field, L. E. Henlen, H. O. Withers, Guy H. Tuttle and the host.

A Dinner at Kalaiala.
A pretty dinner of the week was that at which Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bartlett entertained on Saturday evening at their home at Kalaiala. An attractive centerpiece of pink roses and maidenhair ferns ornamented the table, at which covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Lieutenant and Mrs. George F. Humbert and Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett.

Reception for Y. W. C. A.
In honor of the three secretaries who are to guide the work of the local branch of the Y. W. C. A. this year an informal reception was held at the home of Mrs. W. D. Westervelt on Thursday evening. The guests of honor were Miss Carolyn Chindler, the general secretary, Miss Cora C. Varney, the economic secretary, and Miss Leona Anderson, the physical director. The homeside was a bower of chrysanthemums and other cut flowers in honor of the occasion. During the evening Mr. W. D. Westervelt showed the guests pictures taken during his recent trip to China.

Meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
The Daughters of the American Revolution, with Mrs. W. A. Bryan regent of the Aloha chapter, met at St. Andrew's priory on Monday afternoon and held their first meeting of this year. Two of the guests of the afternoon who gave interesting talks were Mrs. W. H. Carter, former regent of the Army and Navy chapter, and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, past regent of the chapter in Minneapolis, Minn.

One of the interesting papers read during the afternoon was that on "Conditions in America Prior to the Revolution" by Mrs. A. R. Keller. Mrs. J. A. Pascoe read an essay on "Pre-Revolutionary life, and Mrs. W. L. Moore told of the interesting historical events of the United States.

Mrs. Abbie Marsh was hostess for the afternoon and Mrs. F. A. Davis had charge of the program. About 30 members of the chapter were present at the affair.

Preparations for the Big Fair.
Preparations for the big Catholic fair to be held at the national guard armory on October 31 are going on apace. Additional members of committees are announced by the chairman.

Extra assistants in Mrs. J. Maxam's flower and lei booth—Miss Dolly Bennett, Miss Dorothy Quarles, Miss Catherine Johnson, Miss Sophie Walker, Mrs. Barclay, Mrs. E. M. Woods.

Miss E. Blanchard will have care of the hats and cloaks.

Mrs. T. J. Fitzpatrick and Miss N. Lloyd, additional at the cigar booth.

Wall & Dougherty have generously given a silver vanity case for the most popular young lady at the fair. Mrs. A. T. Henderson will have charge of this contest.

The following men will have charge of the Halloween dance in the evening: Dr. J. J. Carey, Louis Medeiros, A. J. Henderson and J. J. Sullivan.

Mrs. J. B. Walker and Misses Allague will assist Mrs. Heany.

At the vaudeville entertainment a military contest for gentlemen will take place. A prize is offered by Mrs. Jack Cleary for the best lady's hat trimmed in five minutes.

"Mlle. Modiste."
Society ladies of Honolulu have become interested in the performance of "Mlle. Modiste," to be staged at the opera house next week on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings and a number of them have consented to act as patronesses for the entertainments. Several dinner parties prior to the performances have been planned and a number of theater parties to be followed by suppers at the hotels.

The patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. R. O. Matheson, Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mrs. F. J. Center, Mrs. Jerome F. Low, Mrs. L. L. Wilson, Mrs. R. B. Retow, Mrs. George Beckley, Mrs. J. D. Reardon, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. J. A. McCandless, Mrs. A. E. Murphy and Mrs. T. V. King.

Activities in the younger set have been rather quiet this week but the coming charity entertainments and amateur theatricals have kept them pretty busy. Scores of the young girls are busy making pretty things for the Catholic fair to be given at the Armory next Saturday; still more are rehearsing for "Mistress Mary" and "Mlle. Modiste." Then, too, the school work in the midst of the winter term demands some attention. Halloween will be celebrated rather later than usual, many of the masquerades taking place in November rather than October, and the time of ghosts and goblins will be postponed from Halloween to Thanksgiving. It is something like moving the hands of the clock. Only in social entertainments one really does not mind just when they take place so long as there is enough dances, teas and parties to keep one busy.

The Annual Punahou Reception.
The annual Punahou reception was held at Castle hall on Punahou campus last night at 8 o'clock. The class of 1915, the trustees of the college and the faculty of the preparatory and academy were present.

The large parlors of Castle hall were thrown open to the guests and the earlier part of the evening was spent in enjoying a program, furnished by Punahou talent.

The first number on the program was a delightful and lively 30-minute pantomime, put on by the faculty. It was entitled "The Difficulties of the President" and represented the trials endured by the president in securing teachers for the year.

The first scene represented the president signing up several teachers who were qualified for various positions. The next scene showed the same teachers under one pretext or another cancelling their engagements. In the third scene the president receives the cancellations and collapses from the shock. But he soon recovers, gets busy and sends out announcements of vacancies.

Next is shown the teachers who apply the second time. Many types are represented but few are chosen. Finally the teacher ideal appears and is engaged.

In the last scene the matrons and students inspect the teacher, then when it was announced "The trustees meet the new teachers," the curtain was drawn back and all the new teachers stand ready to meet all guests.

The pantomime was enjoyed by all. It was followed by several musical numbers. Miss Sutherland first rendered to every one's delight a piano selection. Her solo was followed by a very pleasing violin number by Miss Yates. Then came the boys' quartet, composed of Messrs. Roland Gay, Robert Heen, Gordon Brown, and Joe Melhecke. The boys sang well, in excellent harmony and effect. Their number was the "Lullaby" by Brahms.

Two beautiful numbers concluded the program. Miss Buchman rendered in a most artistic manner the Prelude in C sharp minor, by Rachmaninoff, and Mr. L. G. French sang two songs, "Oh, Lovely Night," by Landon Ronald, and "Ah, Love! But a Day," by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach. His songs were very well received and enjoyed by all.

After the program the teachers and seniors spent a delightful hour in becoming acquainted with the trustees.

The large tea at which Admiral and Mrs. Moore entertained last week was in honor of their wedding anniversary. At the affair both Miss Burroughs and Miss Garrett were among the guests, and pleasant memories returned to them, for they were both bridesmaids at Admiral and Mrs. Moore's wedding.

Miss Della Holmes, a popular society belle of San Francisco, will arrive in Honolulu on the Wilhelmina next week to visit Mrs. E. J. O'Hara, wife of Lieutenant E. J. O'Hara, U. S. A., at Fort De Russy. Miss Holmes was one of Mrs. O'Hara's bridesmaids and it is expected that the charming army matron will entertain at a number of functions this winter in honor of her house-guest.
