MISS MARTA GOLDEN FEATURE OF POPULAR BILL FOR THIS WEEK

Cyril Scott in "Day of Days," Another, "Perils of Pauline," And Pathe Weekly No. 50

Messrs. Blair and Bredhoff beg to announce the engagement extraordinary of Miss Marta Golden at the Popular Theater, beginning this evening.

Miss Golden has for the past two years been a member of H. W. Bishop's Ye Liberty playhouse stock company in Oakland, California. When Miss Marie Dressler severed her connection with the Galety theater in San Francisco the management considered Miss Golden the most capable comedienne to fill Miss Dressler's place, which she did and was enormously successful with both press and public.

Miss Golden has just arrived in Honolulu for a vacation, after two seasons of diligent work, but the Messrs. Blair and Bredhoff have induced her to play a limited engagement at the Popular Theater. Miss Golden has an extensive repertoire and among the character studies she will present are: "When the Minister Comes to Tea" (at the piano); "The Wreck of the Julie Plant," by Sir William Henry Drummond; "Travesty Waltz Song," the nine-show-a-day cantatrice; "The Boarding House Girl, playing Rubenstein's melody in F, as she was taught to play it and as she played it after visiting the cabarets" (at the piano); "How Margaret Played the Charmingly," "Air de Ballet Number 1" (travesty, at the piano); "The Old Place Doesn't Look the Same," written by Miss Golden; "The Return Home of the Stranded Actress," "Well, I Swan," "I Want to Be Just Your Little Rag Doll," by Miss Golden.

Miss Golden will be featured as an addition to the regular program, namely: Cyril Scott in the splendid photoplay "The Day of Days," third edition of the "Perils of Pauline" and Pathe Weekly No. 50. Only one performance an evening will be given, starting promptly at 7:30. Matinee Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

'JOHN BARLEYCORN' GOOD LESSON TO MANY CHILDREN AT THE POPULAR

So great was the crowd of school children waiting on the outside of the Popular Theater yesterday afternoon for the second "show" of John Barleycorn, that Hotel street traffic was seriously blocked. Fully 1500 boys and girls saw the film which the liquor people on the mainland have offered to purchase for $25,000 without avail.

The children will never forget Jack London's terrible life-struggle with John Barleycorn as pictured to them yesterday in such a realistic way. It was interesting to hear the boys shout loudly with one accord "Throw it away, Jack," at that point in London's life where the picture shows his awful battle with the bottle, sitting near him as he writes, and when Jack dashes the glassful of liquor out of the window. It seemed as though the whole audience of children clapped heartily and cried out vociferously: "Good boy! Good fellow!"

The theater was again well filled in the evening with adults when the same impressive pictures were given, together with "Make the Map All White," which Dr. Wadman fully explained, giving a succinct account of the onward sweep of the great nationwide prohibition movement.

WHAT DYSEPPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE
"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve-building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and food antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach linings, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal and take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and Hollister Co.—Advertisement.

On the ground of non-support Mrs. Elsa Cross Howard, the accomplished pianist, composer and esthetic dancer, has filed a petition in the local circuit court asking a divorce from Ernest Justin Howard. The husband, she sets forth, resides at Victoria, B. C., and they have been separated a year. They were married at Hilo on December 22, 1911.

No girl really wants to marry but she finally yields to some man's plea because she feels sorry for him.

MRS. WELSH IS MOVED TO TEARS THROUGH LETTERS

Mrs. Kate Welsh shed tears freely in Judge Ashford's court this morning while Deputy City and County Attorney A. M. Brown read to the jury a dozen letters alleged to have been written by her to Joseph J. Medeiros in which the writer persistently pleaded for money, threatening suicide and talked vaguely of serious trouble.

Mrs. Welsh is held on a charge of perjury, declared to have been committed on the witness stand in district court a year ago when she testified she had never asked Medeiros for money and that she owed him none.

The second day's hearing ended at 11:30 this morning, being continued at the request of the prosecution, which stated that a material witness is on Maui and is expected to arrive tomorrow morning. The trial will be resumed at 9 o'clock tomorrow.

The letters read by Attorney Brown this morning were produced by Medeiros in the civil suit in district court last year. Medeiros said they were sent to him by Mrs. Welsh. All are unsigned, most of them scrawled hastily with a lead pencil and the majority are on letterheads used by the 1913 legislature. William Welsh, Mrs. Welsh's husband at that time, was a committee clerk in the legislature.

A red account book taken from Medeiros' desk at the office where he had been employed, and was introduced in evidence, and the numerous notations of money purporting to have been "loaned" to Mrs. Welsh were read by J. M. McChesney, Medeiros' former employer. These notations covered about four pages, bearing dates ranging from September, 1912, to the same month of last year. They ranged in amounts from $2 to $300, and as tallied in Medeiros' handwriting, reached an aggregate of $4707.50.

To the introduction and reading of these pieces of evidence, as well as to the entire testimony of J. M. McChesney and Maj. J. Camarra, who was Medeiros' counsel in the lower court, Attorney J. A. Magoon for the defendant objected strenuously but without avail.

Mrs. Welsh denies the authenticity of the letters, but she was visibly affected during their reading to the jury.

GRAND-NEPHEWS TO ACT AS PALLBEARERS AT THE FUNERAL OF MRS. BURRILL

The funeral services of Mrs. Maria Berrill will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Williams' undertaking parlors, Fort street, interment to be in the family plot in the Nuuanu cemetery. Mrs. Berrill, who was well known in Honolulu and the aunt of John Lucas, died at her residence on Lunaliili street at 7 o'clock last evening.

The pallbearers will be Harry Lucas, George Lucas, A. H. Lucas, Charles Lucas, Jr., Norman Lucas and Albert Lucas, grand-nephews of Mrs. Berrill. Mrs. Berrill was prominent in local religious and charitable circles. She came to the Hawaiian Islands in 1852 on a sailing vessel from Australia en route to San Francisco.

That's Father's Chair!

You knew it the moment you entered the room. There is character in the simple furniture of old families that makes itself felt when no word is spoken.

The easy, smoothly upholstered rocker or lounging chair that wants to be christened "Father's Chair" is not the kind that shrieks cheapness in every line, but it need not cost you much. Some of the medium priced chairs we received the other day were so original in their own personality that the man who unpacked them instinctively said, "There's father's chair!"

Before this stock is broken we want you to come in and see what an opportunity this is to do something handsome for Father.
