home last evening for a number of society folk who were invited to the Fort Shafter hop. A cut-glass bowl filled with dainty pink roses and maidenhair fern ornamented the center of the table, and daintily decorated cards marked the places of each guest, including Col. and Mrs. Frederick P. Reynolds, Miss Betty Case, Mrs. Harrison Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome Pilow, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Major Matthew Delaney, Mr. Robert Couvain and Col. and Mrs. Bromwell.

Farewell Dinner for Capt. and Mrs. Carpenter.
Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, who will soon leave for the mainland, were guests of honor at a prettily appointed dinner last evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham. Cut flowers and ferns were arranged attractively to ornament the table. After the dinner the party motored to Fort Shafter to participate in the galesies there. Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham's guests included Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mrs. Catherine Bodrero and Mrs. Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. August Dreier Entertain.
In compliment to Miss Kate O'Connell and Miss Mary O'Connell, who passed through Honolulu in the Siberia, and Mrs. McKennon, who is to make her home in Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. August Dreier entertained at an elaborately appointed luau yesterday at their beautiful home in Puunui. The Dreier home was prettily decorated with quantities of red carnations and potted plants for the occasion. The table was covered with ti leaves and fluffy mountain ferns, and according to an old Hawaiian custom leis marked the place of each guest and were carried away as souvenirs of the affair. During the luau and all through the afternoon Kaaf's quintet club played Hawaiian melodies for the guests. Covers were laid for Miss Kate O'Connell, Miss Mary O'Connell, Mrs. McKennon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Harry Murray, Mrs. W. C. Hobdy, Mrs. Tollet, Mr. William B. Lymer, Miss Elsa Kincaid, Miss Huesta, Miss O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Etta Lloyd, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. McNinlme, Father Valentin, Mr. Sam Chillingworth and others.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.
One of the prettiest Thanksgiving dinners of the week was the one at which Mr. and Mrs. George Brown entertained on Thursday evening. Bright flowers and maidenhair ferns were attractively arranged for the table centerpiece. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Vida Thrum, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Heiser and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips Entertain.
A prettily appointed dinner preceding the dansant at the Moana hotel on Tuesday evening was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips entertained a number of their friends. Cut flowers and ferns formed an attractive table centerpiece. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips' guests included Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Miss Helen Alexander, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. High, Lieut. Nicholas Campanole, Lieut. Leo Welch, Lieut. Yates.

St. Clement's Guild Sale.
There have been so many sales and fairs of all sorts lately that one hesitates to speak of another. But there is still one more to come—that by the St. Clement's Women's Guild, the date fixed being December 12. The articles to be sold are to be home-made cakes, home-made candy, bags of various kinds, from the substantial "laundry" to the most fragile creation, and a few well-dressed dolls. The work of this organization is too well known in Honolulu to need much advertising. Suffice it to say that nothing but the best materials and the best workmanship are ever put into anything offered for sale by the members of this guild.

Meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
"The South" was the subject which was discussed at the meeting of Aloha Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Atherton on Monday afternoon, and the papers were of unusual interest. Among the speakers of the afternoon were Mrs. Sallie Douglas, Miss Church and Miss Hummel, all of whom took up interesting phases of the development of the South. Later in the afternoon Miss F. M. Davis sang a number of pretty Dixie songs which charmed her audience. During the afternoon refreshments were served by Miss Violet Atherton and Miss Cleo Case. Some among those present were Mrs. W. W. Hall, Miss Charlotte Hill, Mrs. Sallie Hume Douglas, Miss Church, Miss Hummel, Miss Lemon, Mrs. Pihoe, Mrs. Alonzo Gartery, Miss Needham, Mrs. W. A. Bryan, Mrs. Hugo and Mrs. Atherton.

A Handkerchief Shower.
Miss Florence Ferguson, who is to be one of the winter's brides, was the guest of honor at a handkerchief shower on Saturday afternoon at which Miss Edith Smith was hostess at her home on Pilkoil street. Miss Smith was a classmate of the guest of honor and the guests for the most part included Miss Ferguson's schoolmates. Twelve young ladies were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castle Entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castle entertained at a charming dinner party on Thursday evening for a few members of the younger set. Dainty flowers and maidenhair fern ornamented the center of the table, and handpainted cards marked the place of each guest, including Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Thelma Murphy, Mr. Wolfgang Pfueger, Mr. Hennoch, Lieut. Otis Sattler, Mr. Kelley Henshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Castle.

Col. and Mrs. Bromwell Entertain.
A delightfully informal dinner party was given by Col. and Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell at their Maona Valley

"Quality First"

A LITTLE TIMELY CHAT BY

Whitney & Marsh

This is to be a practical Christmas. The indications are that while the exchange of gifts among relatives and friends will be as free and generous as ever, more people than usual will select articles which are really useful. The spirit of helpfulness which has prompted contributions for relieving the afflicted in other countries, also suggests the purchase of practical gifts for those nearer and dearer.

We pride ourselves on our complete stock in all departments from which you may select articles which will be both useful and acceptable to the recipient and a pleasure to the donor.

We can aid you in making your Christmas shopping easy, if you will but visit our establishment and inspect our well assorted and reasonable display in all our departments.

On and after December first, all holiday goods will be packed in Holly boxes and wrapped in Holly paper, free of charge.

Our work is satisfactory to the most particular men.

The Christmas Buying Season Is Now Here

The season when suitable gift suggestions are in order

It is the time when our thoughts are centered about our friends and relatives and what gift or token of remembrance we will send them.

It must be something nice, something appropriate and at the same time something not too expensive as we have many friends, most of us, and must buy many gifts.

Let us suggest something useful, for what is more acceptable than a gift which we can use and which will last, and keep fresh in our memory the thoughtfulness of the giver?

We are offering this year a most wonderful selection of useful, practical, giveable gifts; every department is showing merchandise fresh and new, bought with the idea of promoting useful giving, such as:

- Leather Goods
- Ribbon Novelties
- Art Needle Work
- Toilet Articles
- Hosiery
- Handkerchiefs
- Gloves
- Linen
- Party Dresses
- Waists
- Sweaters
- Corsets
- Infants' Outfits
- Silk Waist Patterns
- Umbrellas
- Parasols
- Man's Neckties
- Handkerchiefs
- Hosiery
- Shirts
- Combination Sets
- Bags
