CIRCUIT DRIVE IN NINTH GIVES TRAVELERS GAME

Slim Christmas Crowd Sees an Excellent Diamond Contest at Athletic Park

A sure-enough home run in the ninth inning, with two gone and one man on, turned the tables in yesterday's ball game, and gave the Chinese Travelers the long end of a 2 to 1 score. It was a good game throughout, and deserved better attendance than was recorded. The feeling was fast and both pitchers stayed close to the ground in the pinches, and worked their way out of some bad holes with the assistance of the team behind them.

Apau nearly tossed the game away in the first, when he balked a man home from third, with the single run that the Picks secured. The Chinese pitcher raised his arms to deliver, and then lowered them, and Stayton called a balk and waved Argabrite home. The latter had reached the third station on a fielder's choice, and a stolen base coupled by a wide throw from Kan Yin.

The Travelers got men on bases in all but two innings, but quick fielding and a couple of snappy double plays cut the runs off until the ninth. In that frame Markham, first up, drew a pass, but was out when Albert Akana's hopper between pitcher and third was cleverly fielded by Lai Tin to Sadtler for a force. Kan Yin hit a long fly to Fernandez in right, and it looked like curtains for the Fan Hop aggregation. Then Foster stepped into one of his liking and faced it a mile over the left field fence, well inside the foul line. It was a grand circuit drive and most timely.

In their half of the ninth the Picks went out in one-two-three order. The feinting feature of the game were En Sae's running jump at a high line drive over second base, which he stabbed with one hand; Lai Tin's stop of a burning drive over third, and Argabrite's ground covering in center field. Apau also shone around short, his quick throws cutting off what looked like several infield hits.

Neither pitcher was hit hard, and Apau had excellent control of his splitter. The score: Travelers AB RH SB PO A E En Sae, cf. 3 0 1 2 3 0 C. GOLFING HINTS. By Straight Drive. MODESTY—The first badge of real golfing skill is the spirit of modesty. Few of the really top-notch players are given to vain-glorious boasting or absurd pretensions. Young men like Travers and Oulmet, who today stand at the top of our amateurs, owe much of their great popularity to their sportsmanship. They take victory or defeat with moderation and good fellowship. Harry Vardon once said he had never beaten but one perfectly well man in his life. All the others offered excuses. The development of a sound game of golf is nearly always accompanied by a spirit of humility and modesty.

Salt Lake will be the sixth city in the Pacific Coast league next season, the Sacramento franchise having been transferred to the Utah city.

A golf match is in progress at Schofield Barracks today, between the Country Club team and an All-Service team. Thirty-two men are playing on each side.

NO INDOOR BALL GAME AT THE ARMORY TONIGHT.

There will be no game of indoor baseball in the National Guard League this evening. The scheduled contest between C and G companies being postponed, owing to the fact that the armory is let for the evening. When the schedule was framed, this date was not known, and it was believed that the game could be played. It will be run off probably at the end of the season. The next game will be played Monday evening, when Company F meets the Hospital Corps.

COMMUNICATED

Wainalu, Oahu, Dec. 24, 1914. Editor Star-Bulletin, Honolulu, T. H. Dear Sir:—Would you be kind enough to insert the following in your paper, re the Haleiwa-Waikiki Inn bicycle race, between H. Piemer and William Ivy.

The Advertiser on the 22nd of December came out with the statement that the race was postponed until the 15th of January on account of the bad weather. In answer to this I would make the following statement: This man William Ivy first came to me with a challenge for a race, from Schofield to Haleiwa for a purse of $50, then a day or two afterwards from Haleiwa to Honolulu for $100, and then three days later $500.

On the 6th of December I went to Honolulu with my $500 in cash, which was deposited with a responsible party. Ivy's excuse was that it was too soon, and he told me to wait until the 19th when he would cover my money and also a side bet of $300 and the race would take place on the 21st. On the 20th I was in Honolulu with the $300 side bet, and he came out with the statement that he wanted more time to practise in, which was not in accordance with our original agreement, as the race was supposed to have taken place on the 21st of December 1914, not in December 1915. My conditions are now that William Ivy must put up $500 as a purse, $300 side bet, and also $200 appearance money. This money will have to be put up by the 10th of January 1915 at the Star-Bulletin office in Honolulu. The race to take place on the 17th of January 1915, weather permitting.

In conclusion I would say that as soon as this money is put up I will cover it, as I don't want to be a fake or a hot-air artist, my past reputation speaks for itself. Thanking you in advance, I am, Yours truly, HENRY PLEMER.

PROFESSIONAL CRICKET HARD HIT BY THE WAR

LONDON.—Most of the prominent professional cricket clubs in England show an alarming financial deficit for the season, as a result of the damper which was put on the sport after August 1. The Lancashire Cricket Club, with an annual income of about $40,000, had a loss of $6,500. The Northamptonshire club was able to finish its season only through the receipt of a gift of $2,500 from Lord Lilford, an enthusiastic follower of the sport. The club has decided to abandon the game for the year 1915 and assess all members a sum sufficient to enable the organization to start the 1916 season free of debt. The Hampshire County Club, after beginning the year with a large surplus, finds itself at the end of the season with a deficit of $4,500. Exact figures are not available for the other prominent clubs, but it is known that all have suffered severely.

KING'S COLT LOOKS LIKE A DERBY WINNER

LONDON.—The racing season under the auspices of the Jockey Club closed with the king's stable as owner of the year's best colt, Friar Marcus, which is regarded as the most promising candidate for next year's Derby. Friar Marcus went through the season undefeated, a distinction enjoyed by no other juvenile of note. The list of winning owners is headed, for the second time in succession, by J. B. Joel, whose dozen winners captured an average of two races apiece, worth in the aggregate about $155,000, as against $60,000 taken by his majesty, who ranks sixth in the list. Three-fourths of the king's total was won by Friar Marcus. Among the first twenty names of winning owners there is not a man of moderate means. Waldorf Astor, with only three winners, won over $80,000, giving him second place. W. M. Singer won $40,000, H. B. Duryea, $32,000, Mr. Fairlie, $29,000, and H. P. Whitney, $17,000. Among the trainers, Alec Taylor was the most successful, horses from his Manton stables winning $160,000. In the list of winning jockeys, the Irish rider, Steve Longhugh, stands easily first, with 123 victories out of 680 mounts. This is his first time in top place, which has been monopolized for seven years by Frank Wootton and Danny Maher, both now retired.

CLARENCE ROWLAND SELECTED TO PILOT CHICAGO WHITE SOX

CHICAGO, Ill.—Clarence Rowland, last year manager of the Peoria Three-I league club, has been signed as manager of the Chicago Americans for the term of one year. Rowland succeeds Jimmy Callahan, who was manager of the White Sox for the last three seasons. Callahan, it was announced, will be retained by the club in connection with its business department. Rowland's experience in baseball has been confined to the minor leagues, but he has built up a reputation as a discoverer and developer of young ballplayers. Among those whose careers began on his recommendation is Larry Lybie, captain of the Giants. The new manager is 33 years old. He began playing ball in Dubuque, where, as catcher and outfielder, he served as manager and part owner of the Three-I league club. Rowland's selection came as a surprise to Chicago fans, many of whom expected Eddie Collins would be appointed to the place. The signing of Rowland, it was reported here this afternoon, might result in "Kid" Gleason obtaining his release and possibly assuming the management of the New York Americans. Gleason has acted as coach and adviser to Callahan for some years.

BIKE RACERS KILLED.

DUNKIRK, France.—Gabriel Poulain, who won the world's professional bicycle sprint championship in 1905, and O. Lapize, an Olympic games champion and a widely known professional rider, have been killed in action. Among those reported captured by the Germans are Trousselier, a famous road rider; Brocco, a six-day racer; Berthet, a former holder of the world's one-hour record; and Hourlier, last year's sprint champion.

'STAR-BULS' IN LEAD OF INDOOR BASEBALL RACE

BOYS' INDOOR LEAGUE. Star-Bulletin 8 4 .577 Kauluwela 7 4 .636 Kaimuki 7 4 .636 Kakaako 3 6 .333 Korean 0 7 .000 Star-Bulletin 7, Kauluwela 3. Above was the score at the end of the last game scheduled between these two clubs, but from all indications there will be at least one tie for first place, and probably a three-cornered tie, in case the Korean boys should lose their games with Kauluwela and Kaimuki. Last night was a pitchers' battle from the first to the last inning with a total of 31 strikes out, C. Chang getting 16 in nine innings, and Sam Kahoe fanning 15 in eight innings. C. Chang pitched a wonderful game and received great support especially behind the plate. Kahoe also pitched a far better game than the score indicates, but did not get anything like the support that a pitchers need to win. In the last half of the sixth inning, Peter Lee, the Kauluwela catcher, was knocked down and out by a speedy foul tip, Manabu taking his place. This shake up seemed to unsteady the rest of the team, and in the next inning the Bulletin boys scored four runs, giving them a lead of three. Clifford Milen and J. Milen were unable to be present to umpire the game as announced and Tedo Decker and Charles Souza were substituted. The umpiring, although nothing wonderful, was fair to both sides except in one instance and then it was way off. The play referred to took place in the seventh inning, with Manabu at bat. After he had two strikes called and one ball, he took a swing at a high one, missed it a foot, threw down his bat and walked toward the bench. The umpire neither seeing the high fast strike nor the move of the batter called it a ball and Manabu picked up the bat and the umpire ruled that inasmuch as he had not seen the batter swing at the ball it would have to remain a ball. Manabu then made a hit on the next ball pitched, stole second and a moment later stole third while the next two batters struck out, but Palea, the fourth man up, got a base on balls and Marques followed with another base on balls, then Rosario hit for two bases scoring both runners but getting caught off second retiring the side. A two bagger, a single and four errors gave the Star-Bulletins four more runs their half of the seventh and the next inning added one more when Lam was safe at first, Palea dropping Kahoe's quick throw. Godfrey was out on a fly to Koyama. Kon Tai singled, scoring Lam. Leong struck out and Kon Tai was out at home trying to score on Anahu's single. A large crowd turned out and received a treat in the way of indoor baseball. Both of these teams are very evenly matched. The article of ball that they put up is most certainly the class of the island at the present time. The line-up: Kauluwela—Kazumi, 3b; PeTer Lee, c-2b; Manabu, lf; Koyama, 2b; J. TENYO'S FAMOUS BALL TEAM WINS FROM 'SCRIBES'

San Francisco Newspapermen No Match for Ty Cobbs of the Ocean

(Staff Correspondence.) ON BOARD S. S. TENYO MARU, Dec. 25.—While the S. S. Tenyo Maru was in San Francisco a fortnight ago her indoor baseball team, known on the seven seas as the Ancient Mariners, successfully defended its title to the championship of the Pacific in a game played against the waterfront newspaper men of that city. The Scribes went down to defeat by a score of 34 to 10. The lineup was as follows: Position. Ancient Mariners. Wing (Examiner).....Capt. Bent Catcher Petersen (Examiner).....Dr. Crooks Pitcher Joy (Examiner).....Ch. Clk. Kobayashi 1st base Mannix (Bulletin).....Purser McCombe 2nd base McMullin (Bulletin).....Ap. Of. Furukawa Shortstop Porter (Chronicle).....3rd Of. Yokoyama 3rd base Purner (Chronicle).....Ap. Of. Tsunoyoshi Fielder Neale (Chronicle)..... Fielder Umpire—G. H. Oulton. Scorekeeper—Stewart Dunbar. 33rd degree fan—Jack Denham.

Reports indicate that the game was exciting from start to finish and though the Scribes were badly beaten they were not disgraced, losing through bad fielding and poor team work. Bonthead plays were made by all the Scribes except two, Wing and Purner. Wing as catcher is good and needs no apologies. Petersen's pitching was a feature and the forty-eight hits made off his delivery could have been cut in half by snappy fielding. Mannix at second was a tower of weakness and McMullin at short played like a human coughnut. The fielding in general was ragged, reminding the writer of a colander with the bottom knocked out. The throwing to bases was erratic and Joy at first needed arms twelve feet long to get many of the throws. At bat the Scribes were unfortunate, many apparently safe hits were cleverly stopped by the Mariners' shortstop. When they did get on bases some of the Scribes became so engrossed in the game that they acted like spectators. It was lovely. Albert Porter, captain of the Scribes, made a sensational two-handed step which, after a lot of coaxing and shoving from his teammates, he converted into an unassisted double play.

For the Mariners Capt. Bent, Chief Clerk Kobayashi and Apprentice Officers Tsunoyoshi and Furukawa played their usual star game. Third Officer Yokoyama batted well but had no fielding chances. Purser McCombe and Dr. Crooks had an off day, their work being way below par. Their batting was weak and their fielding ragged. On a dark day these nearly blind men need a lantern to see what is going on. At juggling they are superb; at "Blind's Man's Bull" they have few equals.

Jack Denham as fan and roofer for the Scribes is in a class by himself and is worth going far to see. As umpire, G. H. Oulton gave general satisfaction, as did Stewart Dunbar, who kept score. The guests present made many favorable comments on the appearance of the Scribes team. The consensus of opinion was that it was a well dressed team and the handsomest ever seen on any diamond.

The Scribes, the happiest losers ever, have asked for a return match when the Tenyo reaches San Francisco in February.

night, Jan. 1. On the following day, Saturday, Kaimuki will play their last game with the Korean club.
