MR. FENTON-SMITH TO TAKE PASTORATE IN AUBURN, CALIFORNIA
To take charge of the pastorate of St. Luke's church, Auburn, California, Rev. William H. Fenton-Smith, for the past eight years rector of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Apostles, left for the mainland this morning in the steamer Wilhelmina. Mr. Fenton-Smith will enter into his new work shortly after arriving in California. In addition to being pastor of St. Luke's church he will be in charge of mission work in Applegate and Colfax. Mr. Fenton-Smith had been a resident of the Hawaiian Islands for more than 11 years and had a wide circle of friends throughout the territory. He was considered one of the best amateur anglers in the Crescent City and was one of the fathers of the Hawaii Tuna Club. Bishop Henry Bond Reswick says that as yet he has no one in view to succeed Mr. Fenton-Smith.

Appropriate exercises in observance of Rizal day will be held in the K. of P. hall, Fort and Beretania streets, this evening by the members of the local Filipino colony. Rev. William Henry Fry will preside as chaplain, and the opening address will be delivered by W. J. Sanderson.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED BY HONOLULU LODGE
Commencing with the initiation of officers, for which purpose the meeting had been called, the members of Honolulu Lodge, No. 493, F. and A. M., concluded the session in the lodge rooms last night after having turned the meeting into a reminiscence gathering.
After the initiation ceremonies were concluded the masons present spread the tables in the lodge rooms and celebrated with a supper, after which the pioneer degree holders of Honolulu told of early Masonic experiences. The officers installed are: William Bell, worshipful master; John W. Waldman, senior warden; James C. McGill, junior warden; Thomas H. Petrie, P. M.; treasurer; Hugh G. Davis, secretary; Henry H. Williams, P. M.; chaplain; Ferdinand J. H. Schnack, senior deacon; Malcolm MacIntyre, junior deacon; George R. Howe, marshal; Geo. F. Wright, senior steward; William P. Thomas, junior steward; Herbert G. Purcell, tyler.
At the recent election of officers William Bell was elected worshipful master, succeeding C. J. Jenkins, and all other officers were moved up one chair, H. G. Purcell being the new addition to the ranks of the lodge officials.

JUVENILE PHOENIX XMAS TREE GUESTS
Last night was the evening set apart for the entertainment of the 200 children of the members of Honolulu's Modern Order of Phoenix and childish joy and fun bubbled all over the order's large hall throughout the entire evening.
The entertainment was in the nature of a Christmas tree celebration and presents were distributed to all the little "Phoenix," while the order's 30-piece band furnished hilarious medleys and Christmas tunes of a softer music.
Under the direction of Eddie Fernandez, motion pictures which had undergone strenuous examinations, or censorship, were exhibited to the children. The Misses Ellerbrock and Stephanie Lahou offered vocal solos that brought storms of applause. The entertainment concluded with a social dance for the parents and invited guests.
