notable achievements in the arts and sciences. With eager hand you have grasped what other peoples could offer for the enrichment of your life, and in turn you have contributed to the life of the world the inspiration of your fine enthusiasm. You have felt the stimulation of ethical ideals, the transcendent significance of moral values. In the industrial, intellectual and moral fields of your activity, America has noted your unwearied progress. But our deepest interest and sympathy have been evoked by the number of those who have been reaching out eager hands to God. Beyond all else the spectacle of so many in Japan, seeking after a deeper and stronger spiritual life, has moved and still moves our hearts. It is with such sympathy toward you, beloved brethren, that we send our messengers to you. We believe that the religion of Jesus makes its largest possible contribution to the peace and uplift of the world, not when it undertakes by ecclesiastical utterances and activities to solve the complex intellectual and practical problems of civilization, but rather when it leads men to the inner life of spiritual self-mastery and self-devotion, helps them to learn the privilege and joy of absolute trust in Christ our Lord, and enables them to appreciate the obligation of such loyal devotion to Him as finds expression in holy and unselfish service of humanity. We are sending these, our brethren, to tell you as no written word of ours can tell, the sincerity of our affection, the eagerness of our desire, and the steady persuasion of our hope that we all, of the East and of the West, shall be one in Jesus Christ. We pray that in your land and in ours, faith shall have its satisfying vision of our Lord, that love shall be sanctified by His fellowship, and that our common life shall be broadened in its sympathies and beautified with His likeness. May the God of love unite our hearts in the bonds of holy sympathy, and bring us all into the joy of fellowship one with another through that divine fellowship which is with the Father and with His Son our Saviour. May peace and prosperity abide in all the homes of Japan. May your schools be centers of intellectual light and your churches centers of moral life and spiritual power. May believers be multiplied and all your land be blessed by Him who is the Light of the World, the Redeemer of men. Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power both now and ever. Amen. Your brethren in Christ, The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, CHARLES S. MACFARLAND, General Secretary.

CROWDED DOCKET TO FORCE LONGER COURT SESSION Judge Ashford Tells Jurors They May Have to Serve Five Hours a Day In a brief address to his trial jurors this morning Circuit Judge Ashford informed them that it may be found necessary to hold lengthy court sessions in the coming year to assist Judge T. B. Stuart of the third division in disposing of the remarkably heavy calendar of civil and equity cases confronting him. There are approximately 325 cases already scheduled for hearing in Judge Stuart's division, an average of one per day for every working day of the year and it will be impossible for his court alone to handle that number. Consequently Judge Ashford intimated that the criminal division, over which he presides, will come to Judge Stuart's rescue, taking over a number of the civil matters. To do this and at the same time dispose of his own court's criminal work lengthy sessions must be held, and it is possible that the daily service of the trial jurors may be extended from three and a half hours to five or five and a half hours. Judge Ashford said he was encouraged to take this action by the advice of a "high government official, for whose judgment I have the greatest respect," who had recently said that the circuit courts nowadays were entirely too lenient with their juries and that they should be required to work longer hours while there remained court work to do. It is thought he had in mind the comment made by Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson of the supreme court, at the annual banquet of the Bar Association. Whether the five and half hour schedule will be fixed is not definitely determined yet. The judges of the three divisions will hold conferences the next few days on the subject. Judge Ashford informed his jurors they would be given an opportunity next Monday morning to express their opinion on the innovation. If the lengthened schedule is adopted, court sessions will begin at 9 a. m. and take a noon recess of an hour and a half or two hours, thus bringing the afternoon session to an end at 3:30 or 4 p. m.

The dinner is 75 cents a plate. The visit of Doctors Gulick and Mathews to Japan is an outgrowth of the campaign of "good-will" recently conducted on the mainland under the auspices of the Federal Council, of which Dr. Mathews is president. The prime objects were to further friendly relations between Japan and the United States and turn public opinion against the enactment of anti-Asian legislation this year. Their mission as representatives of American Christians will be to carry to Japan the good-will of the churches of the United States and to report to the people of the empire the progress of the "good-will" movement. They carry letters from President Wilson, Secretary of State Bryan and other prominent American officials, business men and church workers. University of Chicago alumni are especially invited to be present tomorrow night and renew acquaintance with Dr. Mathews. Letter Explains Mission. The following letter explains the mission of these two noted religious and social leaders: To the Churches of Christ in Japan. Professor Shailer Mathews, doctor of divinity, the dean of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, an author widely known among us, and for this quadrennium president of the federal council. The Rev. Sidney L. Gulick, doctor of divinity, needs no introduction to you, for he has been a missionary in Japan for many years. Since his return to America upon his furlough, he has been invited to our most prominent pulpits, has secured a hearing for the cause of Japan by the foremost men of our nation, and returns to you not only as your brother, but entrusted with the duty of representing, with Dr. Mathews, this federal council. We are thus sending to you those who are well qualified to speak for us. We beg to assure you, dear brethren, of the interest with which we have noted the recent history of Japan, that ancient and venerable nation with its

Will Payne, writing for the Saturday Evening Post, has the following in an article entitled "The Forehanded Man": "It is hardly too much to say that, in an investment way, we have the world on a bargain counter. How far we shall take advantage of the opportunity will depend in good part on how much we save. Practically it comes to this: How much are you going to save and invest? Will an unusual opportunity for investment induce you to forego the country place, the limousine, the parlor furniture, the new hat, or whatever other extravagance you have in mind?
